CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS' SOCIETY.

REPORT.

Having joined my fortune with the itinerant ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1836, I have been long and painfully convinced of the necessity of additional provision to render the evening of the superannuated minister's life more comfortable. Such additional provision must be made and has been made by the Central Illinois Conference in the formation of the Conference Claimants' Society. I would suggest that an apportionment of $4,000 to this Society be made by the Conference; that the matter be faithfully presented to each congregation and be reported to this Conference in open session. This would enable the Board of Stewards, with the dividends provided by the Book Concern, to meet in part the wants of the needy. We now have on our roll 38 superannuated men, 12 supernumeraries and 19 widows. This number is increasing every year, and no man can tell how soon the strongest among us may be in circumstances of want and need help. It is a burning shame for the people who have been greatly benefited by the labors of an itinerant ministry to turn a deaf ear to the calls of the disabled itinerant who has spent his all, mind as well as body, in carrying to the homes of the people the consolations of the Gospel. I am sure that if our preachers will try to help each other in the infirmities of age and sickness, the people whom they have served will cheerfully respond to their calls for help.

When I entered upon this agency I hoped to raise a fund of $50,000, the interest of which would greatly help to supply the wants of the needy. As far as I have gone in this work, I have received the hearty co-operation of a small per cent. of my brethren, for which I am thankful. In the book I present, you will find a statement of the assets of this Society.

The cost of the agency in the twelve years of my labors, including traveling expenses, stationery, postage and clerical help, has amounted to $498.55, at an average cost of $41.55 per year. In addition to this, I have paid $185.70 for the looking after the interests of the Society.

I have received bequests as follows: $1,000 from Rev. Alexander Fisher; 160 acres of land near Sheldon, Illinois, from Wesley B. Harvey, valued at $5,000; 160 acres of land in Nebraska from B. F. Sargent, of Evanston, Illinois, for which we have been offered $1.440. I have advised the sale of the land, subject to the approval of the Board. Respectfully submitted,

W. H. HUNTER.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

To the Central Illinois Conference:

The Board of Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal Church makes report of progress and needs in its bi-monthly magazine, Christianity in Earnest.

From 1866 when this work began to August 1, 1896, the Board collected and disbursed ..... $5,635,000

Of this, the General Fund, derived chiefly from collections, personal gifts for Frontier Churches, $250 each, and Mountain Fund specials of $100 each, all for use by donations to churches, has aggregated ..... $3,621,000

The Loan Fund has a permanent capital of ..... $ 988,000

And churches borrowing have returned ..... 1,026,000

Giving for use by loans..... .....$2,014,000
Making the aggregate above given.....$5,635,000

With this the Board added 10,083 churches,—more than one-third of the entire number owned by our denomination.

Our Conference has shared in this work as follows:

The collections taken in our churches, from the beginning to November 1st, 1895, the close of the last fiscal year of the Board, aggregated ..... $47,292.88
To this our Conference adds this year..... 1,777.45

Making a total of..... ..... .....$49,070.33

Seventy-seven churches within our bounds have received aid up to November 1st, 1895.

By donations of..... .....$16,764.15
And loans of..... 8,250.00

The part our Conference is to take. in both giving and receiving, is definitely fixed, under provisions of Discipline, by the General Committee from year to year. For the ensuing year

Our Conference is asked to raise by collections.....$5,500
Our needy churches may, on approved applications receive..... 900

The amount of aid granted must depend on the amount of the collections taken, and cannot exceed the proportion above indicated. Interest, therefore, in our own Conference, as well as in the general cause, should inspire us to use all diligence to secure the full amount asked, and if possible go beyond it.

Church Extension and Missionary Work go hand in hand. The proportion asked is as $1 to $4. It should be remembered, however. that our Sunday Schools, as well as churches give for Missions, while we rely wholly on the church collections for Church Extension. Let us remember also, that the voice of the pastor is the only living voice that can reach all our people, and that, if any be silent, his people will neither hear nor care for this great cause. Intelligent interest in Missions should carry with it interest in Church Extension also: for it is estimated that of every five dollars annually contributed to Missions, one dollar comes from the churches aided by our Board of Church Extension, during the last 30 years.

Severe financial pressure tests, at once, the strength of our benevolent agencies and the loyalty of our people. All share in the common distress, but we must all be true to our calling in Christ Jesus. Our Board of Church Extension, in relieving distressed churches, has itself come into distressing need. It has fallen behind, on account of loans of $50,000, now a debt represented by interest bearing bonds; and over $30,000, otherwise borrowed and given to distressed churches, The Board must rely on its loans outstanding to redeem its bonds when due, but must look to the collections in the churches to restore the $30,000 donated, and for continuance of regular Church Extension work. For better times, and relief on all lines, and enlargement of benevolent work, let us hope and pray, and plan, and labor together.

Frontier churches, procured by special gifts of $250 each from generous friends, numbering now, nearly 600, represent one of the best forms of Church Extension work.

Mountain Fund churches, procured by like gifts of $100 each, are good representatives of our more modest work.

These have proved every way satisfactory and should enlist many more who rejoice in well doing.

The Loan Fund has proved of great value, and should be warmly commended to friends of this cause. The principal, including all amounts subject to life annuity, whether specially directed to the fund or not, is now nearly $1,000,000. The aggregate of loans to churches is more than double the amount of the principal. This Fund is a sacred trust, for use only by loans. Churches borrowing from it must, therefore, keep faith and return loans; and if any default, the Board must be urgent, and keep faith with those who created the fund. For a church to delay payment is a grievous fault: to evade or refuse, would be a crime to which the Board dare not be a party.

Church architecture has been greatly improved, under the advice and direction of the Board. We commend to all who contemplate building, the excellent catalogues and designs furnished by the Board.

The tenure of church property is a very important matter, which has heretofore been greatly neglected. Valid title requires that the church, or its trustees, shall have legal existence under the laws of the State; "a local habitation and a name," by which it can be identified by the civil courts, and described in title deeds, as occasion may require. Without all this the tenure of our property is insecure.

With these requisites in view, the whole matter should be investigated, by careful examination of the official records of the county within which each church is located, that legal defects may be disclosed, and corrected.

"The Religion of the Republic," by our Senior Corresponding Secretary, a book recently published by our Book Concern, and including the latest revision of the laws of all the States, together with the preparation of the proper legal forms, places the needed information and forms within the reach of all.

The Board of Church Extension has provided all needed helps for its department:

Christianity in Earnest, with its bi monthly visits, will furnish to all who will receive it, the latest tidings of this work and its wants. It should find cordial welcome by all who pray and work for the coming of the kingdom. No pastor, or intelligent layman who would know the work of his church, should be without it.

Glad Tidings, with facts and figures condensed, and with sweet songs for every voice, will help in public service, with collections, and maps showing the work at a glance will be added when desired: and all for the asking and the bare cost of printing and mailing. If this work shall languish, we and our people will surely be without excuse.

We recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

1. We heartily congratulate the Board of Church Extension, and the Church-at-large, on the remarkable success of this work through a period of thirty years.

2. That our country, being new, with rapidly increasing population and unlimited resources, will continue to need Church Extension, in the future as in the past, and that our church by fostering and strengthening this work will increase its own power to promote all forms of Christian and benevolent activity.

3. That we, as a Conference, will not be content with anything less than a full response to the call of the General Committee for our proper share in Church Extension, until everywhere, in communities now destitute, the people shall have opportunity to "enter His courts with praise."

4. That our Presiding Elders be requested to apportion, with care, the full amount asked for Church Extension, to the several Districts and pastoral charges for collection; and, that, availing ourselves of the helps provided by the Board, and especially Christianity in Earnest and Glad Tidings, we will present this cause in all our churches, and endeavor to secure, at least, the amount asked, in accordance with the plan of our Discipline.

By order of the Committee.

N. J. BROWN, Secretary.

III. Reports of Standing Committees.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

It is still true that "In making of books there is no end," but only "Thy word is a lamp unto our feet and a light unto our path." The Bible teaches what man should believe concerning God and what duty God requires of man.

Because of its intrinsic worth the Bible should be in every home and in every land.

The American Bible Society, organized in 1816, has as its motto the distribution of the Holy Scriptures "without note or comment." In eighty years it has sent forth 61,705,841 issues of the Bible, in whole or in part. An organization having such an object and performing such stupenduous work for the glory of God in the enlightenment of man, is worthy the support of every lover of Christ. We regret to learn that there has been a falling off in contributions during the last year; therefore,

Resolved, That we earnestly pray for the success, and pledge our hearty co-operation to the American Bible Society in endeavors to secure funds to be used in prosecuting its work.

J. A. RIASON, Chairman.

I. WASHINGTON PUFFER, Secretary.

BOOK ACCOUNTS AND PERIODICALS.

Your committee will report as follows:

We commend the wise and business-like methods adopted by our book agents, both of the eastern and western houses, and would express our most hearty appreciation of the splendid reports that they have submitted.

Our periodicals, in our judgment, are the most ably edited and, all things considered, are the cheapest of any papers published in this country. We would specially commend the able editorial management of the Northwestern Christian Advocate and the Epworth Herald, and we urge that these papers be placed in every Methodist family within our bounds.

We deprecate the fact that in some Sunday Schools our Methodist literature has been crowded out by other than Methodist publications, and insist that Methodist literature be used in Methodist Sunday Schools.

We would recommend that ten per cent. of the amount allowed by the Board of Stewards to superannuated claimants who are in arrears with the Book Concern be retained and applied on such indebtedness.

M. A. HEAD, Chairman.

VINCENT ATEN, Secretary.

DOMESTIC MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Your Committee on Domestic Missions, desires most earnestly, to call the attention of the Conference to the great importance of this work as now carried on in our midst. We regret that so many of our charges have failed to respond to this cause, and are convinced that this failure lies at the door of the ministry rather than at that of the laity. We recommend the continuance of this society, and urge the presiding elders and preachers of the Conference to see to it that the cause be given a fair hearing and a separate collection in every charge. We also recommend that the money be forwarded to the treasurer by the first of December, 1896.

We recommend the election of the following as officers and managers for the ensuing year:

President.....J. G. Evans
Vice President.....C. O. McCulloch
Secretary.....D. B. Johnson
Treasurer.....T. W. McVety

MANAGERS—Thomas Doney, J. S. Cumming, C.W. Ayling, R. A. Brown, Alexander Smith, J. H. Brown, John Prickett, A. Dean, John Bodley and T. J. Robinson.

JNO. SMALL, Secretary. F.W. MERRELL, Chairman.

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

We rejoice in the continued prosperity of the Illinois Wesleyan University. In resident and non-resident courses 1,439 were last year enrolled. This large attendance, the scholarship of the faculty and the pure spiritual tone of both students and instructors, warrant us in commending this Institution as deserving the fullest patronage of our people. We recommend the election of B. W. Baker, F. H. Cumming, C. O. McCulloch and W. B. Harvey as Trustees for three years.

We also recommend as visitors J. H. Scott, Richard Crewes, R. B. Williams, J. S. Cumming and Joe Bell.

HEDDING COLLEGE.

The past year in Hedding College has been one of increased prosperity. The entire enrollment in all departments was 403, an increase of 39 over the previous year and the largest enrollment in the history of the college.

We are pleased with the harmony which prevails in the Board and admire the heroic devotion and self-sacrifice of those who, during the present administration, have run the college free of debt.

We will heartily second the efforts of the Trustees to secure a deed to the property lately purchased in Abingdon.

Secret societies, match games in athletics with students of other institutions are strictly prohibited. This action has proven of great assistance in the administration of Christian discipline. We commend the authorities for their courageous and manly attitude on this question. The spiritual condition of the school cannot be too highly commended.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. J. G. Evans, D. D., LL. D., President, and Rev. E. A. Whitwam, D. D., LL. D., as Professor in Natural Science.

For Trustees for three years:—M. V. Crumbaker, M. C. Soule, R. A. Brown, W. B. Main, G. B. Snedaker, A. R. Stickle, R. E. Buckey, W. W. Byram.

For Conference Visitors:—J. W. Frizzelle, G. W. Klingr, C. F. Crane, A. Smith, W. R. Wiley, R. B. Seaman, W. B. Shoop.

GRAND PRAIRIE SEMINARY.

This is the Conference Seminary of the Central Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and has the prestige and the supervision of this body.

The growth of this school has been steady and marked, and its influence for good has widened and strengthened each year. For several years this school has ranked third or fourth in attendance among the fifty-four seminaries of Methodism, and according to the last report of the Board of Education it ranks second. Of the Seminaries reported for some years past as having a larger attendance than this three, report a property many times larger. Thirty-seven of the sixty-six Methodist Colleges and Universities have fewer students. The property value of this school amounts to about $40,000. The productive endowment is about $10,000. Several valuable bequests will soon add several thousand dollars more to this fund. The present indebtedness is about $20,000 with some addition for accrued interest. Nearly $17,000 have been subscribed to meet this indebtedness. With the stringency of the times, in company with most schools, there is a lessened attendance this fall, but this is only a temporary condition. It is a matter of congratulation that the village of Onarga and immediate vicinity has subscribed toward the debt about $15,000, and the more than $26,000 contributed during the past ten years approaches the heroic in giving. The Welles fund case, involving nearly $35,000, in the Circuit Court, at the hearing the case was decided in favor of the Seminary. The case has been appealed. The friends of the school earnestly hope that the decision of the court below will be affirmed by the Appellate Court.

The enlarged growth of the school calls for increased facilities: these in turn call for more money and this involves consecrated giving.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. S. Van Pelt as President and Rev. John Rogers, J. E. Mercer, J. A. Riason, R. H. Figgins, T. Doney, G. J. Luckey as visitors from this Conference.

This Seminary is duly accredited in the Northwestern, De Pauw and Illinois Wesleyan Universities.

GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

In reporting this Theological School we are pleased to learn of its increased prosperity in material and spiritual good, and in the efficient work that is being accomplished by its very able corps of instructors.

We heartily commend the action of the Trustees in introducing the "New Course in English," and in the appointing of Rev. D.D.A. Hayes, of Denver, Col., as instructor in the Department of English Bible: S. C. Bronson, D. D., Systematic Theology, and also that of Rev. Dr. Charles M. Stewart to the Department of Sacred Rhetoric.

We recommend as Conference visitors J.H.Scott and G.R.Palmer.

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY.

Your committee desire to report its appreciation of the magnificent work that is being done by this, our largest and most prosperous educational institution of the west.

We are pleased to note the increased attendance of students and also its endowments.

We recommend that Rev.F.W.Merrell be appointed Conference Trustee.

MISCELLANEOUS.

We congratulate the American University upon its progress and prospects.

In addition to Garrett Biblical Institute we heartily commend to our candidates for the Ministry: Drew Theological Seminary, Boston, and DePauw Universities.

We deeply regret the death of Rev.John Miley, D.D., L.L.D., professor of Systematic Theology in "Drew," who has left an abiding memorial for the Church in his two volumes on that subject.

The work of the Board of Education is highly gratifying, more than 1500 students receiving aid during the past year. We would urge the duty of every Sunday School to observe Children's Day and take the Children's Fund Collection.

WHEREAS, The General Conference has provided for an Annual Educational Collection to be taken in each charge, apart fron the Children's Day collection:

WHEREAS, The General Conference has authorized each Annual Conference to devote this collection to the schools within its bounds;

Resolved I, That we devote the Educational Collections to the endowment of our Conference Schools;

Resolved II, That we apportion $2,000 for the cause of education, to be raised by collections in the charges: and that we direct the Presiding Elders to apportion this amount among the several charges after the manner of other apportionments;

Resolved III, That the distribution among the Conference Schools be according to the rule of last year.

RICHARD CREWES, Secretary. J. W. FRIZZELLE, Chairman.

EPISCOPAL FUND.

Your Committee on Episcopal Fund beg leave to report that of the apportionment to this Cenference of over $2,000, only $1,173 was raised, leaving a deficiency of over $800.

The Episcopal Board having been increased, the apportionment for the coming year is $2,098. To obtain this amount pastors should make a greater effort to raise the full apportionment so there will be no deficiency in next year's report. T. C. DAVIS, Chairman.

C. T. CADY, Secretary.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

We rejoice in the marvelous growth of the Epworth League during the last quadrenium and recognize in it the best means by which the Church can direct and utilize the energies of her young people. We believe that in the future the success of the Church will depend very largely upon that of the League.

We recommend, therefore, that the young people of each charge be organized into Epworth Leagues; that great care be taken in the choice of officers and leaders; that wherever possible all departments of League work be carried on, and that each member be earnestly engaged in active Christian work.

We recommend, also, the holding of District and Sub-district Epworth League Conventions and that wherever practical district normal schools or classes be formed for the training of our young people in Epworth League work. We believe, also, that special attention should be given to the Epworth League reading course.

We rejoice in the growth of the Junior Epworth League and recognize in it an important factor in our Church work. We commend the faithful efforts of Miss Libbie Hampshire and suggest that our pastors give to all such work their most hearty encouragement and support.

We most heartily endorse the Epworth Herald as the best paper for our young people. We note with pleasure its wonderful growth and pledge to it our most earnest support.

We recommend as Conference officers the following named persons:

President ..... J. W. Frizzelle
Secretary ..... J. H. Scott
Treasurer ..... O. T. Dwinell
Conference Board of Control ..... The District Presidents

Respectfully submitted,

A. M. Lumpkin, Secretary. T. C. Moots, Chairman.

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION SOCIETY.

It is with great satisfaction that we review the history and achievements of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society. It has had in its various schools, under the influence of its efficient, Christian educators, 100,000 students, and it has sent out 15,000 teachers and preachers fully qualified to render valuable assistance in the elevation and redemption of their race. We also as greatly deplore the decrease in the collections for this noble cause.

Resolved, (1) That we fully appreciate the great work accomplished. It has given to the colored people of America the appliances of self-improvement which if faithfully used will constitute a powerful factor in the solution of the negro problem. (2) That in our judgment the Society would do well to furnish the ministers for distribution literature setting forth the necessities and possibilities of the work. (3) That in view of the great debt which has accumulated in the administration of the work committed to this organization, and the great work yet to be done, your committee recommends that each pastor of this Conference should put forth a great effort to raise the full amount apportioned to his charge. (4) That we have heard with great pleasure and profit the eloquent address of Dr. M. C. B. Mason, and that we will welcome his return. A. K. TULLIS, Chairman.

HORACE A. EWELL, Secretary.

POSTOFFICES.

The work assigned to the Committee on Postoffices has been completed and the list of postoffices sent to Curts & Jennings. We also recommend a continuance of the system of issuing blanks and having them sent with statistical reports, and that the brethren be urged to respond fully upon these blanks.

W. J. WARD, Chairman.

WILLIAM S. PORTER, Secretary.

SANCTITY OF THE SABBATH.

WHEREAS, The Sabbath is of Divine origin and was made for man's physical and spiritual good, and

WHEREAS, Its sanctity is threatened by various insidious forms of desecration within and without the church, therefore,

Resolved, That we unite in censuring the prevalent custom of social visiting on the Sabbath day; that we join in deprecating the use of the bicycle for Sabbath riding other than that of going to houses of worship and on errands of mercy. That we deplore the fact that Sunday excursion trains were run to some of our camp meetings and Chautauquas the present summer at the request of the associations.

That we recognize the work of the Sunday League of America, represented at this session of our Conference by Dr. Edward Thomson. We have examined some of the leaflets published by this Society, and coincide in the opinion as expressed by Bishop J. P. Newman, who said: "They are what are needed to educate and interest all the people." We endorse the plan of the Sunday League of America to reach every large town once in five years with its practical evangelistic work in the interest of our American Sabbath, and are gratified to learn that for the coming year Dr. Thomson, the general manager of this Society, will have his headquarters in Chicago, and will give a part of his personal attention to Sunday reform work within the bounds of our Conference, and that we will gladly welcome Dr. Thomson to our charges and pulpits whenever he may find it convenient to be with us, that we will aid and assist him in securing subscriptions for the literature of the Sunday League of America and in the distribution of the same; and we sincerely hope and devoutly pray that his services mas be greatly blessed to the good of all our people. R D. RUSSELL, Chairman.

M. L. MILLER, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND TRACTS.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

With pleasure we call attention to the growth and importance of the Sunday School work of our Church. We have now 30,259 schools, with 352,627 officers and teachers and 2,585,178 scholars, an increase over last year of 397 schools. We measure the importance of the work by the number of conversions which was 132,697 in 1895.

Inasmuch as the religious education of our young people is of vast importance, great care should be exercised in the selection of teachers, those only (where it is possible) should be chosen who have real spiritual experience, are intellectual in mind, apt to teach, and are godly in their lives.

We suggest that the plan of normal classes for the better training of teachers as presented by the Sunday School Department of our Church be adopted.

We recommend the use of our own literature, the lesson helps, periodicals and publications of the Methodist Book Concern.

Parents should be urged to assist their children in the study of the Sunday School lessons at home and with them attend Sunday School.

The lesson helps should be used in the lesson study at home, and only the Bibles be used in the Sunday School.

The Sunday School Union aided during the past year more than 3,000 schools of our Church. It asks and greatly needs $50,000 with which to accomplish its splendid work.

We recommend that $755, the amount apportioned our Conference, be apportioned by the Presiding Elders pro rata among the charges, and that a collection be taken in every charge. We greatly deplore the fact that last year twenty-one charges of our Conference reported "no collection" for this purpose.

TRACTS.

In view of the fact that our Church has always emphasized the use of the Tract as an effective instrument in winning souls, we urge our patrons to a more general and careful use of the great variety of printed pages our Tract Society places at our disposal at a nominal cost, or no cost in cases of necessity.

We would also urge our pastors to a more earnest presentation of the claims of this Society upon our people for such generous contributions as shall secure the full amount required from such charge as its share of the $755 apportioned to our Conference, in order to give this Society the $50,000 annually needed to carry on its blessed work at home and abroad.

G. D. HENSELL, Secretary. F. R. LORD, Chairman.

STATE OF THE CHURCH.

Your Committee on the State of the Church submit the following:

1. We record our gratitude for the abiding presence of the Holy Spirit in the Church; that this mission to the church is so largely honored by our preachers and people; that the doctrine and experience of the "witness of the Spirit" is maintained and enjoyed in all our borders; and that God has honored the faith of His people in widespread revival and the enlargement of the Church.

2. We rejoice that throughout Methodism there has been no serious departure from the teachings and practices of our fathers. That, among us, Biblical criticism has been constructive rather than destructive; so that in our pulpits and among our people the inspiration and authority of the Bible are firmly held. That the doctrines of the spiritual life, conviction for sin, repentance, justification by faith, sanctification, the witness of the Spirit, are believed and taught throughout the connection.

3. We rejoice in the evidences of God's favor in the continued growth of the Church; her growth in numbers and in material resources, at home and abroad; the multiplying and strengthening of evangelizing agencies in the mission fields, in the great cities, on the frontiers and in the South.

We especially rejoice at this time of financial stress throughout the land that contributions for ministerial support and for the prosecution of world-wide evangelism have suffered less than the majority of financial enterprises. This is an unmistakable indication of the steadfastness and intelligent purpose of a great and progressive organization.

4. We believe special mention should be made of the Educational interests in our own Conference.

While a measure of prosperity has attended our schools, they do not show the growth for the last twenty years we had a right to expect, in attendance, buildings, libraries, laboratories, endowments, faculties.

The Conference has no well-organized connectional plan for its schools. Our Church machinery, of such immense power, scarcely touches our schools. Last year the regular educational collection in this Conference averaged less than one cent per member. About one in ten of the charges reported a collection for education.

The Conference should take well-considered measures for the ample endowment of these schools.

5. We record our deep interest in the development of the Epworth League. We believe great care should be taken to avoid too great separation of old and young in church meetings and Christian work. We rejoice that the League is rapidly passing from the period of experiment and elation over numbers to a period of substantial and effective work.

6. We earnestly and fraternally urge all Christian people to maintain the Scriptural standard of Sabbath observance.

7. We urge them also to a full consideration of the Scriptural and Disciplinary view of amusements.

8. We further urge that the true and wise principle of Gospel support be not displaced or weakened by a resort to entertainments, fairs, and the like, as a substitute for direct, Scriptural giving.

9. We rejoice at what we believe to be a steady and sure growth of sentiment in the Christian world for the legal prohibition of the liquor traffic.

S. VANPELT, Secretary. J. Q. ADAMS, Chairman.

TEMPERANCE.

We heartily approve of the action of our last General Conference, planning an effective organization to completely put our Church in touch with the great temperance issue, and to that end we recommend that our Conference Temperance Society be made a permanent committee, to be auxiliary to the Permanent Committee of the General Conference, to put in operation the work planned by our General Conference and to carry it forward till it reaches, and secures the sanction and co-operation of, every District and Quarterly Conference in all our territory.

We emphatically declare total abstinence from alcoholic beverages the duty of all and the only wise course. Any other is seductive and dangerous. Safety is found only in absolute refusal to touch or taste any intoxicating drink.

By the strong committals of the past and the positive convictions of the present, we are unequivocally opposed to every license feature of the rum traffic. To give legal protection, for bribe money, to that which brings a curse to a suffering world, repeats the crime of Judas. Such money is the price of blood. We will not take it. The hands of the Church and the Christian world must be clean.

We are a part of the great host of God, and we must keep pace with the march of progress and especially the demands of God. We endorse the splendid action of our last General Conference touching great temperance issues, and, in keeping with that action, we urge that our ministry and membership see to it that they stultify not their consciences nor dishonor God in any act or vote relating, directly or indirectly, to this momentous question of temperance.

We bespeak much earnest thought and constantly faithful prayer for this most righteous cause.

In private and public life, in all intercourse in our homes and out in the world, let us be heavily weighted with the worth of the true and right, and let us strive with serious and anxious concern to foster and create a temperance sentiment that will be felt in the nation and honored of God.

ASA P. BEALL, Secretary. T. W. MCVETY, Chairman

USE OF TOBACCO.

WHEREAS, The use of tobacco is a habit that no pure-minded person should indulge in, and is a glaring evil among our young men and boys in the use of cigarettes and other forms;

Resolved, That we appeal more earnestly, as pastors, to our people to wholly abstain from its use, and that we, by precept and example, will keep ourselves free from this un-Christian habit.

FLETCHER DECLARK, Secretary. C T. CADY, Chairman.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, One of the best ways in which the church of God fulfills its great mission is by ministering, Christlike, to the poor and needy, things temporal and spiritual; and

WHEREAS, The Woman's Home Missionary Society is the Church organized for such mission; and appreciating highly the labor of the organization this year,

Resolved, That we pledge it our hearty sympathy and co-operation.

Resolved, That we request the Presiding Elders and pastors to give the several district organizations all possible help and encouragement in their efforts.

Resolved, That we recommend the holding of an anniversary at next Annual Conference, as a means of bringing the work and workers of the Society more prominently before the people, to the end that the importance of home missionary labor may be realized and better results secured

JOSEPH A. CHAPMAN, Secretary. C. W. CORDES, Chairman.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Notwithstanding the present unsettled and greatly depressed financial condition of the nation, the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society has enjoyed a year of increased prosperity, reporting more auxiliaries, members and money than last year in our Conference. It raised over $5,160, and where its best work was done the interests of the parent society were also advanced, a fact which should lead every pastor to encourage the woman's society as a great educational force along the line of missions and system in Christian benevolence. This great organization of the women of our church now has 150 missionaries in the field. It is a child of Providence with the stamp of Divine approval on its beneficent work of sending Gospel light to the women who sit in the gross darkness of heathenism, living and dying without a Savior. The plan of pastors reporting the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society receipts of their charges in open Conference, along with the other missionary money collected, is worthy of being continued.

J. A. NORTHRUP, Secretary. E. F. ROE, Chairman.

III. Special Committees.

HISTORICAL MATERIAL.

Your committee to which was referred the matter concerning the disposition of the Conference historical Material in the hands of the Conference custodian, beg leave to report as follows:

We recommend (1) That the custodian of the Conference be instructed to forward all material in his possession to the Historical room at Evanston, Ills, to be collated with other material there held under the supervision of Rev. A. D Field, of the Rock River Conference.

2. That the pastors of the various charges be requested to collect and write up historical accounts of their charges, and all items of personal history, and reminiscences of early Methodist pioneers who figured in laying the foundations of our Church within the bounds of our Conference, and forward the same to the Conference custodian, to be classified and added to what is already on hand.

We further recommend to any of our pastors who may have Conference Minutes they can spare, or any copies of Advocates published previous to 1855, or printed pamphlets, or other local church histories, or journals kept by early preachers, or any incidents concerning the life and doings of the early preachers, that they secure and forward them to the Conference custodian at the earliest possible date.

We urge these things because the fathers and mothers of Methodism within our bounds are passing away, and the valuable facts in their possession will be lost to the Church unless secured at once.

In the paper referred to us is a request that all Quarterly Conference Records be sent for preservation in the archives of Historical Material at Evanston, but this we cannot recommend, because the Discipline requires that they shall be kept by the Recording Steward of each charge.

We also recommend the election of J. W. Denning as Conference Custodian.

C. W. AYLING, Secretary. J. S. CUMMING, Chairman.

WESLEY HOSPITAL.

The report of Wesley Hospital for the past ten months shows that 271 patients have been treated with the following results: 141 have been cured, 51 improved, 24 unimproved, and 23 have died. The number of operations were 134, of which 48 were major operations; of these operations only 12 proved fatal. Of all the cases treated 101 were free, and were treated at a cost of $2428.50. We have received from donations and endowments $1624.90, leaving $803.60 to be provided for.

The Hospital is in fine order throughout, and current expenses are all paid. $4000 has been pledged toward paying the $6000 debt on the building.

This conference stands pledged to the payment of $600 per annum for the maintainance of two beds in the Hospital. The amount received thus far is $201. It is hoped a larger sum will be received the ensuing year, and to this end we endorse the use of the Dime Collection Books sent to the pastors by the Hospital Treasurer.

We further recommend that in each charge a committee be appointed to co-operate with the pastor in carrying out this plan.

We recommend that a column be ordered placed in the minutes for Hospital collections.

We recommend that Rev. A. M. Stocking and Mr. W. H. McCord be elected as Conference Trustees of the Hospital for the ensuing year.

R. W. AMES, Secretary. C. W. AYLING, Chairman.

PLAN OF EXAMINATIONS.

That we may raise the standard and increase the attainments of our ministry, and at the same time be fair to members of our Conference Classes and conserve the interests of the Church of Christ, your committee respectfully submits the following plan of examinations:

We suggest that the greatest caution shall be exercised in the selection of men to serve on the Board of Examiners.

Also that committees annually appointed to examine candidates for Admission on Trial, be continued with the Class, when practicable, throughout the entire four years' course.

A three days' Institute shall be held in the month of April or May, in at least two places in the Conference, in connection with the usual District meetings, where such meetings are held, at which time and place examinations shall be had in the first half of the year's work.

The different Chairmen shall indicate the studies for the first half of the year, and shall give all candidates due notice of the same within thirty days of the adjournment of the Annual Conference.

The Chairman of the Board of Examiners, together with the Presiding Elders, shall arrange a program for the Institute, and attendance for the full term shall be required of each Candidate unless excused for good and sufficient reason by the Chairman of the Board.

Examinations on the second half of the work shall be conducted at some central point in each Conference District, on the first Tuesday of August, under the supervision of some member of the Board of Examiners, or Preacher in charge, who shall be designated by the Presiding Elder of the District. The Elder shall also appoint the place of meeting.

All examiners shall attend the Mid-year Institute, if possible, and shall send written questions to the person appointed to supervise the Examinations in August. Not less than 10, nor more than 20, questions shall be submitted in each study, and all answers to the same shall be in writing and all grading shall be on the scale of ten.

No Candidate shall be entitled to advanced classification who has failed to make a grade of seven in two books to be studied, or three books to be read, or in one to be studied, and two to be read, and no Candidate shall be entitled to examination in advanced study until he has brought up all the books in which he is delinquent.

Books to be read shall count equally with books to be studied in establishing a grade.

IV. Propositions.

FOR CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGES TO BE SUBMITTED TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCES IN 1896-97.

I. On Eligibility. Submitted by the General Conference, May 8, 1896. (See Appendix of Discipline.)

Amend by striking from ¶ 67, § 2, all that now follows the word "provided," in the fifth line of said section, and inserting instead thereof new clauses, so that the whole section shall read as follows:

"Section 2. The General conference shall not allow of more than one ministerial representative for every fourteen members of an Annual Conference, nor of a less number than one for every forty-five: nor of more than two lay delegates for an Annual Conference: provided, that no person shall be chosen a delegate to the General Conference, or to an Electoral Conference, who shall be under twenty-five years of age, or who shall not have been a member of the Church in full connection for the five consecutive years preceding the election; and, provided, also, that no Conference shall be denied the privilege of one ministerial and one lay delegate; provided, nevertheless, that where there shall be in any Conference a fraction of two-thirds the number which shall be fixed for the ratio of representation, such Conference shall be entitled to an additional delegate for such fraction."

II. On Equal Ministerial and Lay Representation. Submitted by the General Conference, May 27, 1896. (See Appendix of Discipline.)

Resolved, That the General Conference hereby submits the following propositions to the Annual Conferences to be held in 1896 and 1897, to-wit: To amend Section 2, Paragraph 67, of the Discipline, so that the section shall read as follows: "The General Conference shall not allow of more than one ministerial delegate for every fourteen members of an Annual Conference, nor of a less number than one for every forty-five; provided, nevertheless, that when there shall be in any Annual Conference a fraction of two-thirds the number which shall be fixed for the ratio of representation, such Annual Conference shall be entitled to an additional delegate for such fraction: and provided, also, that there shall be from each Annual Conference lay delegates equal in number to the ministerial delegates; and provided, further, that no Conference shall be denied the privilege of one ministerial and one lay delegate."

This certifies that the Central Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, at its session begun in El Paso, Illinois, on the 23d day of September, A. D. 1896, voted on the above propositions as follows:

On Proposition I.....Ayes .....134.....Noes.....19
On Proposition II.....Ayes .....100.....Noes.....52

Given under our hand this 26th day of September, A. D. 1896.

Memoirs.

JOHN BORLAND.

John Borland was born in Ayrshire, Scotland, October 1st, 1819. After his school days were passed he entered a law office, but after two years went into mercantile life. He came to New York in 1840, and a short time afterward to Illinois, where he engaged in school teaching. His parents were Presbyterians and he was himself connected with that Church while in Scotland. But he later united with the Methodist Episcopal Church and was licensed as a local preacher in 1843 near Jacksonville, Illinois. He was married to Miss Louisa Miles in July, 1848, who died August 23, 1888. Of their four children only one is living, Mrs. John Johnston, of Griggsville, Ill. He was married to Miss Mary A. Dean, of Griggsville, January 11, 1891. They moved to Conelia, Georgia, where on December 28, 1895, after a brief illness, Brother Borland died, happy and trusting in the dear Savior he had preached and trusted so many years.

John Borland was a faithful messenger of the Word for many years. He joined the Illinois Conference some time in the '40s, and was a member of the Central Illinois Conference from the time of its organization. At the time of his death, and, except five years on the effective list, all the time since 1869 he was one of our honored and beloved superannuates. He was one of the "pioneers of Methodism" and did grand service in laying the foundations of our Church in Illinois.

REV. B. F. TALLMAN, M. D.

Rev. B F. Tallman was born near Lagonier, Westmoreland Co , Pa., Jan. 18, 1840; and died in Kankakee, Ill., Jan. 15, 1896. When seventeen years of age he went to Iowa and taught school. During this year he was licensed to exhort, and later received license as a local preacher. His ability at once attracted attention, and soon after he was admitted into the Iowa Conference as a probationer and was appointed to Knoxville, Iowa. During the summer of his first pastorate his eyes gave him much pain, and, following the advice of his physician he resigned his charge and commenced the study of medicine, getting his lessons by hearing other young men in the same office, read aloud. After receiving his diploma he moved to Maquon, Ill., where for six years he practiced medicine. All this time he was preaching as opportunity offered. In 1865 he married Mrs. S. J. Hemrick, of Maquon, Ill., who with her daughters and many friends are left to mourn his departare. In 1868 he took work as a supply under the Presiding Elder and preached at Industry, Ill. The next fall, in 1869, he entered the Central Illinois Conference and was returned to Industry as pastor. His appointments in the Conference since then have been as follows: 1870, Colchester; 1871, Hamilton; 1872-3-4, Blandinsville; 1875-6-7, Bushnell; 1878-9, Dwight; 1880-1-2, Onarga; 1883-4, Moline; 1885, Streator; 1886-7-8-9, Abingdon. In 1890 he was appointed Presiding Elder of the Kankakee District, and moved to Kankakee. Last fall he resigned his district on account of failing health and was appointed financial secretary of Onarga Seminary. A year before he died there were symptoms of an anemiac condition of the blood, as manifest in his very white appearance. But he struggled to master the disease until the spring opened, when he was compelled to desist from preaching. The best specialists were sought and everytning tried that the physicians thought would restore health.

Last fall, after my appointment to Kankakee, I made it my pleasure to call on him nearly every day, and every pleasant day, when he was able, took him out to ride. The weeks passed, some of them buoyant with hope and others dark with discouragement. Sometimes he would be able to walk upon the street and then again would have to take his bed. So the weeks lengthened into months. But amid it all he never entirely gave up. He was constantly talking about getting well and what he expected to do when he should recover his health. But as the middle of January approached there were evidences that the end was not far away. Day by day he went down until the morning of the 15th, after a night of great suffering, his spirit found release and he went to receive his crown. While he said but little about dying, yet his sick room was a place of hope and not of despair; it was the abode of cheerfulness and not of gloom. Dr. Tallman's career as a man and a minister was highly honorable in every respect. From 1868 when he took his first charge as a supply, until 1896 when he went to heaven, nearly 28 years, there was no spot upon his reputation and ministerial character. While he was retiring in his manner, yet when any principle was at stake he was as bold as a lion. He had the courage of his convictions and was not afraid to state them. In the pulpit he was every inch a preacher, clear, logical, earnest and emphatic. As a presiding elder he was a success, placing his district among the first in the Conference. He loved his brethren and did all his power for their interest. He was a devoted, painstaking, successful worker in every field to which the Church called him. It was his chief joy to be about his Master's business. No storm was too severe for him to face, no roads too rough or muddy for him to travel when about his duty. His nature was frank, open, candid; he was thoroughly sincere; he was a man to be trusted. The gospel trumpet with him gave no uncertain sound, but was plainly understood by those that heard him. Another workman has fallen and gone to his reward.

I became so used to seeing his white face at the window, that it did not seem possible for some time that he had gone, but though we see him no more, nor hear his voice, yet we believe he lives in a sunnier clime and may be near us to-day. His remains were taken to the beautiful cemetery in the suburbs of the city of Kankakee, by six of his brethren, while numbers of others were present to take part in the last sad rites and follow him to his grave. But with Mrs. Sangster we sing:

"They never quite leave us, our friends who have passed Through the shadows of death to the sunlight above:
A thousand sweet memories are holding them fast
To the places they blessed with their presence and love.

The work which they left and the books which they read
Speak mutely, though with an innocence rare;
And the song that they sung, and the dear words they said,
Yet linger and sigh on the desolate air."

MARY WORTHINGTON.

Mary Hedges was born in Brooks county, Virginia, August 2d, 1806, and died in the home of her son in El Paso, Ill., December 21st, 1895, aged 89 years, 4 months and 9 days. All her early life was spent in the vicinity of her birth, where also she was converted and commenced her Christian life. From the day she gave her heart to God, she was ever a devoted, fervent and consistent Christian.

On the third day of May, 1832, she was joined in marriage to Rev. S. G. J. Worthington, and on horseback went to their first charge. In obedience to the law and usage of the Church they went from charge to charge doing good, and there in the east served faithfully and well the Lord of the vineyard for eighteen years. In the fall of 1855 they transferred to the Rock River Conference in Illinois, and here and in the Central Illinois Conference continued to do an itinerant's work for twenty-five years. In the fall of 1880, Father Worthington took a superannuated relation with his Conference, and located in El Paso. During the Conference session of 1883 he died and since that time Mother Worthington has lived with her son, S. H. Worthington, in El Paso, Illinois. During the last few months of her life she was almost a helpless sufferer, but in hours of greatest suffering, her faith was unwavering and hope bright for a blissful immortality. A few days before her death, while apparently unconscious of surroundings, she fancied she was still in the battle, and called for and lined some of our old hymns. Among them was "O for a closer walk with God." On coming to the last line of the first stanza, she paused a moment, at which the nurse suggested, but incorrectly, the next words. Instantly she opened her eyes and said, "No, you are wrong; 'that leads me to the Lamb.'" Her mind was clear on matters pertaining to her soul's hope to the last breath.

Her death was peaceful, for her hope had long been in God, and she simply fell asleep in Jesus, and like a tired child went to rest.

MRS. CARRIE AMELIA DUNLEVY.

Carrie Amelia Mayo was born in Dutchess Co., New York, June 11th, 1853. When four years of age her parents came west, and after residing some years in Wisconsin and De Soto, Missouri, they settled in El Paso, Ill., in 1872. Here the subject of this sketch became acquainted with the man for whom God intended her as an helpmeet, an inspiration, and on Nov. 4th, 1875, she was united in marriage with Rev. O. M. Dunlevy of the Central Illinois Conference, and shared with him the successes and sorrows attendant upon the life of a Methodist minister, until "she was not, for God took her" from the parsonage home at Monica, Ill., April 28th, 1896.

Sister Dunlevy was not strong in body, but clear minded, wise headed and great souled. She discharged the duties of a minister's wife both faithfully and well. The child of consecrated Christian parents, she gave her heart to God at the age of 17, in a gracious revival of religion in the city of St. Louis, and was saved for service. Having more than ordinary ability, and of deep sympathies, she was active in church work, and in social and charitable enterprises, always "fruitful in every good word and work."

In her Christian experience she enjoyed a consciousness of sweet communion with God, her faith was unfaltering, and her devotion was unassuming and steadfast. Every gift of mind and heart was consecrated to the Master. During the last few years of her earthly life she made rapid advancement in Christian faith, and months before the end came, during a gracious revival at Monica, she repeatedly bore triumphant testimony to perfect trust in God.

In the latter part of March of the current year, she was attacked with inflammatory rheumatism, that baffled all medical skill and kind offices of loving care; and after much suffering, borne with Christian fortitude, she fell asleep in Jesus. As the shadows deepened that April day, in the parsonage at Monica, among sympathizing friends, the loving husband, and son George, and daughter Athleta, could say truthfully:

"We saw not the angels that met her there,
The gates of the city we could not see;
But over the river, the beautiful river,
The light of our home is waiting for me."

The funeral service was first conducted at Monico by her Presiding Elder, Rev. C. O. McCulloch, assisted by appreciative brethren of the Conference. And later the burial service was held in El Paso, her old home, under the direction of Rev. J. F. Robinson, the pastor, at which several ministers of the Conference made appropriate remarks in appreciation of her beautiful and useful life.

When God, who makes no mistakes in values, reveals the finished record and in the clear light of Heavenly day it appears that the measure of life is the good we get, and the good we give, and we get our good by giving, those twenty-six years of faithful, heroic service for God and humanity, during eighteen of which Sister Dunlevy walked by the side of her husband, rendering faithful and heroic support in the arduous labors of an itinerant ministry—these years will appear fruitful beyond comprehension in the gold of Christ-character developed, and the garnered sheaves of souls immortal brought up to Heaven because Sister Dunlevy was "faithful unto death."

Methinks the angels know that when God's army of loyal itinerants come up for crowns the Son of God will place the brightest diamond-starred crown upon the head of the faithful, humble woman who reigned as Christian queen upon the household throne in the office of wife and mother and counsellor in the parsonage home.

The following original poem, dated July 31, 1872, was found among her writings, and clearly reveals the trend of her thought:

What is life but a fleeting dream?
We wander beside the sparkling stream,
And pick the wild flowers, one by one,
That sweetly smile to the shining sun.

But soon they wither and droop and die,
And the streamlet murmurs, passing by:
"Soon, like the flowers, thou shalt droop;
The young are blithe, but the aged stoop."

In this world of joy and sorrow
We are happy to-day, but sad to-morrow;
Pleasure and sorrow, care and strife,
Really, 'tis these which make our life.

Life is naught but a fleeting dream,
Soon we shall pass o'er Jordan's stream;
Then, laying down life's burdens, one by one,
May we at last receive a crown.

And when before the throne we stand
To hear His words of truth and command,
May the glad words of our Master be: "Come, forever abide with me."

Lay Conference.

Pursuant to the following call the Laymen of the Central Illinois Conference met at El Paso, Friday, Sept. 25th:

GENESEO, ILL., Aug., 4th, 1896.

To the Laity of the Central Illinois Conference:

At the meeting of the Lay Electoral Conference, held at Peoria last fall, the undersigned were appointed a committee to arrange for an organization of a Lay Association for the Central Illinois Conference. After deliberation and consultation with others interested in the movement, it has been decided to call a convention of the Laity of the Conference to be held at El Paso, Ill., Friday, September 25th, A. D., 1896, commencing at 10 o'clock a. m. of said day.

The need of such an organization or association of laymen who have the interest of the Church on their hearts, who labor so constantly for the cause as Stewards, Trustees, Leaders and Superintendents, and who cheerfully pay the millions for the support of the gospel, is self evident to any one conversant with the polity of Methodism and the tendencies of the present age in free America. The laymen are as thoroughly interested in the conversion and salvation of the world through our Methodism as are the ministers; and who will gainsay their intelligence and ability to counsel, advise or even to manage in the great interests of the connection. This association will be able to discuss the prominent topics before the Church at its annual meetings, from a layman's standpoint, which, though differing from that of the minister, tends to the same end of spreading scriptural holiness throughout the world. Such associations have been successful in promoting the interest of the Church for some years in Cincinnati, Philadelphia, California and other Conferences.

An interesting program will be prepared and it is sincerely hoped that there may be a large attendance. Each charge is entitled to two delegates and two alternates. This call will be sent to every charge in the Conference and the committee urges that immediate action may be taken in the premises. It is suggested that in case delegates are not selected by any charge that the delegate selected last fall to the Lay Electoral Conference consider himself delegate to this convention. Delegates attending will pay their own expenses. Reduced rates have been secured at the hotels and it is expected that a rate of one and one-third fare upon the certificate plan will be secured from railroads. Please attend to this matter immediately and send the credentials of the delegates to the Chairman of the Committee, W. H. Foster, Geneseo, Ill. Respectfully, your committee,

W. H. FOSTER, Chairman, Geneseo.
J. H. BUNN, Peoria,
W. H. MCCORD, Blandinsville.

CHAS. H. LONG, }
W. H. LOGAN, } Lay Delegates General Conference, 1896.

The meeting was called to order by W. H. Foster, Chairman of Committee on Organization, who read the call and briefly stated the object of the proposed organization. After discussion the following Constitution was adopted:

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.—Name.

This organization shall be known as the LAY ASSOCIATION OF THE CENTRAL ILLINOIS CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

ARTICLE II.—Object.

The object of this Association shall be to promote Christian fellowship, to familiarize its members with the usages and enterprises of the Church, and to engage their active co-operation and assistance therein, and to do such other things as the Association may decide upon from time to time.

ARTICLE III.—Meetings.

SECTION 1. The meetings of the Association shall be held annually at the place of meeting of the CENTRAL ILLINOIS CONFERENCE and shall be called to order at such hour during said meeting, as the Committee on Program shall designate.

SEC. 2. Special meetings may be called by the President with the concurrence of a majority of the other officers of the Association, or must be called on the written request of ten members from ten different churches.

SEC. 3. All meetings shall be governed by such rules of order as may from time to time be adopted by the Association.

ARTICLE IV.—Quorum.

A majority of all the members present at any session shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE V.—Membership.

SECTION 1. Any person (not a traveling minister) who has been a member in full connection of the Methodist Episcopal Church for the two years next preceding the annual session of this Association shall be eligible to membership.

SEC. 2. Being regularly elected a delegate to this body shall constitute membership therein, said membership to commence when the credentials of said delegate shall have been received and accepted by the Association, and shall continue until a successor shall have been duly elected and accepted.

SEC. 3. Delegates to this Association shall be elected at a meeting of the official board of each charge, held in June of each year.

SEC. 4. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of said meeting to transmit to the Corresponding Secretary of this Association the names of the delegates and alternates immediately after their election. Blanks for that purpose shall be furnished them by the Secretary of the Association and these, when returned properly filled out, shall constitute the credentials of said delegates and alternates.

SEC. 5. Vacancies in the delegation of any charge may be filled by this Association from members of said charge who may be present.

ARTICLE VI.—Representation.

Each charge shall be entitled to one delegate for each one hundred members and one additional delegate for each additional hundred members or fraction thereof; provided, however, each charge shall have at least one delegate.

ARTICLE VII.—Officers.

The officers of this Association shall be a President, a Vice President for each of the Conference Districts, who shall be entitled to preside, in the absence or disqualification of the President, in the alphabetical order of their surnames, a Secretary and a Treasurer. They shall hold office for one year, or until their successors are elected and qualified. Such officers shall be members of the succeeding session of the Association, but shall not be entitled to vote unless they shall have been regularly elected delegates for that year.

ARTICLE VIII.—Expenses and Collections.

No collection shall be taken in this Association, except to defray the necessary expenses of this Association.

ARTICLE IX.—Committees.

SECTION 1. All committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered by the Association.

SEC. 2. The following standing committees shall be appointed at the annual meeting of the Association, viz.: Committee of Arrangements and Program and Committee upon the State of the Church, each consisting of three members. The President of the Association shall, ex-officio, be a member of said Committees.

SEC. 3. The Committee of Arrangements shall prepare the program for the annnal meeting of the Association next after their appointment.

SEC. 4. The members of said committees shall be, ex-officio, members of the next annual session of this Association, but shall not be entitled to vote unless they shall be regularly elected delegates.

ARTICLE X.—Amendments.

This Constitution may be amended at any annual meeting by a two-thirds vote of all the delegates present and voting; providing that a notice of the proposed change has been given at least one day prior thereto.

Officers were elected as follows:

President—C. H. Long, Pontiac.

Treasurer—J. S. Thompson, Lacon.

Secretary—W. H. Foster, Geneseo.

VICE-PRESIDENTS.

Rock Island District—J. T. Noftsker, Rock Island.

Galesburg District—W. H. McCord, Blandinsville.

Kankakee District—E. D. Durham, Onarga.

Peoria District—J. H. Bunn, Peoria.

Normal District—H. Augustine, Normal.

Address of welcome was given by L. F. Zinser, El Paso, and briefly responded to by W. H. Foster, Geneseo.

At the afternoon session the Association was addressed by Bishop Fitzgerald. During the remainder of the afternoon and evening papers were read, followed by discussion, upon the following questions: "Is it desirable that the present method of electing the official boards be changed?"; "How can our church finances be made to glorify God and advance the church?"; "Equal ministerial and lay representation." Dr. C. H. Long also presented a report of the lay delegation to the last General Conference.

The following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, General Conference by a vote of 289 to 47 ordered the submission of an amendment to the Second Restrictive Rule providing for equal representation in General Conference, and

WHEREAS, The said proposition will be voted upon by this annual Conference, therefore be it

Resolved, That the present plan of lay representation, which gives a minority representation, is defective and unwise. It discounts the usefulness of laymen and is the cause of great dissatisfaction throughout the Church.

Resolved, That the present plan does not give the larger Conferences fair representation or semblance of equality with the smaller ones Sixty-seven of the smaller Conferences have equal representation, while 55 of the larger ones have unequal representation, 110 laymen to 246 ministers.

Resolved, That we believe equal representation would train up a large body of laymen, intelligent and interested as to all church needs, to whom our ministers might appeal and rely upon in every church emergency.

Resolved, That we believe it should be granted now without any reduction of the ratio.

Resolved, That we present these resolutions to the Annual Conference, requesting their careful consideration and co-operation in bringing about equal representation.

WHEREAS, The Lay Association belongs to the Central Illinois Conference and is only organized for the purpose of furthering the objects of the Conference: therefore be it

Resolved, That the Conference be requested to print in the minutes a brief epitome of the proceedings of this body.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Association be extended to Brothers Robinson and Worthington, of El Paso, for the aid extended the organizing committee, the trustees of the Presbyterian church for their hospitality extended in the use of their church edifice for our meetings, and to all others who have contributed to make our stay pleasant.

Resolved, That the sincere thanks of this Association are due to Brothers Foster and Long for their unceasing efforts to complete the organization of this Association.

While the attendance at the Association was not as large as we hope the future attendance will be, yet great interest in the work was manifested and the originators of the movement were very much gratified at the success of this first meeting. There is every reason to believe that the Association will prove to be a power for good to the Methodism of the Central Illinois Conference.

W. H. LONG, President.
W. H. FOSTER, Secretary.

PUBLISHER'S NOTE.

We desire to call special attention to our list of advertisers. We select them with great care, admitting none but those we believe to be worthy of your confidence.

Our advertisers are all or nearly all personally known to the Publisher, and we gladly commend them to the readers of the Conference Minutes.

Read the "ads" carefully, and if in need of anything in their lines give them a call.

Advertisers will find the Conference Minutes one of the best advertising mediums. 3,200 copies published and distributed annually, going into as many families, and being read by more than that number of persons.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

Your committee on Church Extension desires to call the attention of the Conference to the following facts concerning the work of the Board of Church Extension:

(1.) From 1866 to 1897 the Board has collected $5,882,000.

(2.) It has a permanent loan fund of $1,020,000 and churches borrowing have returned $1,079,000, giving for use by loans $2,099,000.

(3.) The Board has aided 10,460 churches—more than one-third of all our churches.

(4.) Our Conference has raised from the beginning to November, 1896, $49,046.38. The collections this year amount to $1,621, making a total of $50,667.38.

(5.) Seventy-eight churches within our Conference have received aid by donations $16,914.15, and by loans $8,500.

(6.) The General Committee asks our Conference to raise this year $5,500, and our needy churches may, on approved application, receive $900.

(7.) The Board of Church Extension is in debt on account of loans, $50,000, and on account of donations, $30,000. For the payment of the first it must rely on outstanding loans to redeem its bonds, and for the payment of the second it depends upon collections.

We recommend the following for adoption:

Be it Resolved, (1.) We heartily congratulate the Board of Church Extension and the church at large, on the success of this work.

(2.) That our country will continue to need Church Extension in the future as in the past, and that our church by giving attention to this work will increase its powers to promote Christian and Benevolent activity.

(3.) That we recommend a full response to the call of the General Committee for our share in the Church Extension collection until every destitute society shall have a house of worship.

(4.) That we recommend the publications, "Christianity in Earnest," and "Glad Tidings," as sources of information upon this subject.

(5.) As Church Architecture has been greatly improved under the advice and direction of the Board, we recommend to all who contemplate building, the excellent catalogue and designs furnished by the Board.

(6.) That our preachers and people may have information in regard to the loans and legal forms, we recommend Dr. Kynett's book, "The Religion of the Republic."

(7.) That our Presiding Elders be requested to apportion the amount asked for Church Extension to the several Districts and pastoral charges for collections.

J. B. BARTLE, Secretary.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS SOCIETY.

REPORT.

By long continued affliction in my home during the entire year, I have been unable to mingle with the people in aid of the cause of the truly superannuated minister, his widow and children. I deem it important that every minister and every member of his congregation should prayerfully consider his obligation to aid the Conference Claimant Fund in order that we may pay the debt of gratitude which we owe to the men who have forsaken all to lay the foundation of Methodism in the fertile, beautiful Empire State of the West.

In order that you may decide whether it is important to continue this fund, I deem it important that the younger men in our ministry shall make a study of the aims of this society, the manner of obtaining the fund and the objects to which it is applied, with the thought that they themselves may some time be glad to reap its benefits.

II. Reports of Standing Committees.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

Believing the Bible to be the Word of God, and that it contains the highest wisdom relating to man's duty to man and his duty to God; and that all who obey its commandments and practice its precepts reach the highest morality and enjoy the best forms of civilization; and believing that it is the duty of all who enjoy the benefits of its instruction to help give the Bible to all who are living without its knowledge:

Resolved, That as a Conference we promise to aid the American Bible Society in its gracious work to place a Bible into every home in this and in every other land.

Resolved, That we gratefully acknowledge the help afforded our Foreign Missionaries through the publishing of the Bible in nearly one hundred languages and dialects by the American Bible Society, in their efforts to Christianize the world. And be it

Resolved, That we will ask our people to contribute of their means for the purpose of assisting the American Bible Society in the prosecution of their benevolent work, and stimulate the people to larger benefactions by presenting to our people the facts pertainiug to the successes and endeavors of the American Bible Society. R. L. VIVIAN, Chairman.

H. COOLIDGE, Secretary.

BOOK ACCOUNTS AND PERIODICALS.

We most heartily appreciate the able and skillful financial management of the Book Concerns of our church, and commend the Book Committee for the generous appropriation made to the Superannuates of our church.

We commend the wise and efficient editorial management of the Northwestern Christian Advocate and Epworth Herald, and urge all of our people to take these papers into their homes. We regard the Sunday School and Epworth League literature, coming from the presses of our Book Concerns as superior to any that can be found, and would urge upon Sunday Schools and Epworth League officers the importance of securing their literature from our own publishing houses.

When superannuated claimants are indebted to the Book Concern:

1st. When the amount of indebtedness does not exceed $10 we recommend that an amount sufficient to pay the indebtedness be reserved from the appropriation made by the Board of Stewards and applied on the account.

2nd. When the amount of the indebtedness exceeds $10 we recommend that 25 per cent. of the appropriation be applied to the indebtedness.

Respectfully submitted,

D. F. WILSON, Secretary. M. A. HEAD, Chairman.

DOMESTIC MISSIONS.

Your Committee on Domestic Missions desire to call the attention of the Conference to the great importance of the work of this Society. We believe that the work embodies the very genius of Christianity, that the strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak. We heartily recommend its continuance, with the request that each pastor shall present the claims of the society to his people and take a special offering which shall be forwarded to the Treasurer by the first of December, 1897.

We recommend, also, that the Presiding Elders at each Quarterly Conference, until the collection be taken up, shall ask the question, "Has the Collection for Domestic Missions been taken?"

We recommend the election of the following as officers and managers for the ensuing year:

President.....C. O. McCulloch
Vice President.....Thomas Doney
Secretary.....D. B. Johnson
Treasurer.....T. W. McVety

MANAGERS—J. S. Cumming, C. W. Ayling, Alexander Smith, O. T. Dwinell, J. H. Brown, John Prickett, A. Dean, John Bodley and T. J. Robinson.

J. B. RUTTER, Secretary. O. A. H. DE LA GARDIE, Chairman.

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

We sincerely regret the resignation of Dr. Wilder as President of this University. The purity and integrity of his personal character, the wisdom and efficency of his administration, have established the school in the confidence of its patrons and the church. The teaching force is strong and able. The opportunities for an education are among the best. The moral tone is very high, and the spiritual life of the institution is unsurpassed.

We heartily sanction the nomination of Dr. H. D. Clark for President, and commend him unreservedly to the trustees as a most competent person for the place.

The election of Dr. J. A. Kumler to the office of Chancellor has our most unqualified approval, and we pledge him our most cordial co-operation and support.

We recommend as Trustees for three years, Judge Owen T. Reeves, of Bloomington, Ill.; Rev. S. Van Pelt, of Onarga, Ill.; Chas. H. Long, of Pontiac, Ill., and Mrs. Mattie Brown, of Monmouth, Ill. We recommend as visitors, Richard Crewes, Thos. Doney, J. S. Cumming, R. B. Williams, Joe Bell, John H. Scott.

HEDDING COLLEGE.

The past year in Hedding College has been a year of success and progress. The financial depression has been keenly felt. A decrease in the number of students has, in this institution, meant deficit in salary, yet the work was carried on. Heroic effort for good in giving the deficiencies, will receive rewards more lasting than the praise of men's lips and more valuable than gold.

The enrollment for the year was two hundred and forty. A fine class of ten was graduated from the College of Liberal Arts, and five from special departments. The outlook for the coming year is reported as promising.

We praise the devotion and commend the spirit of self-sacrifice manifested by those bearing the burdens imposed by this institution, who have in spite of all hindrances carried on the work without incurring debt.

The position taken against match games in athletics with students of other institutions is still maintained with commendable courage and zeal.

As a result we believe the work of the students, as a whole, is carried on with less temptation to sin, less inclination to neglect duties imposed, and with stronger incentives to put their time where it will do the most good, where it will tell for the truest and best development of the highest type of moral, physical and intellectual manhood.

We sincerely recommend that all the preachers within the patronizing district of Hedding College exert their utmost influence to lead the people to do their best to give this college the endowment it so certainly deserves.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. J. G. Evans, D. D., LL. D. President, and T. A. Beall, D. D., Professor in Greek.

Trustees for three years:—T. J. Wood, J. D. Smith, Wm. Woolley, J. F. Robinson, S. T. Mosser, E. H. Burridge, J. R. Hoffman and John Prickett.

For vacancy caused by the death of Rev. G. B. Snedaker:—W. R. Wiley.

For visitors:—T. W. McVety, W. S. Welsh, W. R. Warner, J. F. James, C. T. Cady, J. W. Denning and S. P. James.

GRAND PRAIRIE SEMINARY.

Your Committee is pleased to report:

1. That the effort to raise $17,000 by Oct. 1. 1896, was successful, but we regret that deficiencies in current income and accumulation of interest on the debt have left us in arrears again.

2. That improvements have been made, such as new floors and new seats in parts of the recitation building and an addition of several hundred dollars to the Library.

3. That the Faculty of eleven instructors from leading institutions are doing strong and satisfactory service.

4. That the present attendance is about 30 per cent. over the corresponding time last year.

5. That several valuable bequests have been written in recent years in behalf of the Seminary.

6. That the Seminary is accredited at Northwestern, DePauw and Illinois Wesleyan Universities.

7. That the moral and religious influence of the School is maintained.

We report further urging the patrons of higher education to provide increased facilities in the Library, Laboratories and Museum, and to establish a Gymnasium, new scholarships and professorships in this School.

We recommend the passage of the following resolutions:

1. We express our sense of the great importance and usefulness of Seminaries in our system of schools.

2. We earnestly favor the creation of an ample endowment for Grand Prairie Seminary. The School should speedily secure $50.000 additional endowment.

3. That we commend this school to those seeking college preparation and systematic training under favorable conditions.

We recommend the appointment of Revs. S. Van Pelt, M. A., D. D., as President, and Rev. John Rogers, J. E. Mercer, J. A. Riason, R. H. Figgens, Thomas Doney and Wm. Crapp as visitors.

GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

We congratulate this institution on having the largest and one of the most efficient faculties of any Theological School in Methodism. Also on her large enrollment of students, and the high standard of requirements she maintains for admission and graduation. Especially do we commend the action of the Trustees in introducing the "English Diploma" Course which enables a student to obtain a thorough theological training in the English language.

Garrett Biblical Institute has the largest and finest collection of Methodist literature in the world. It has also the finest collection of original manuscripts pertaining to American Methodist History. We earnestly request young men preparing for the ministry to avail themselves of the advantages of this institution.

We recommend as Conference visitors, J. A. Northrup and W. D. Benjamin.

DREW THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

We rejoice in the great prosperity attending this institution. Forty-six efficient graduates were sent out last year, representing the various colleges and other institutions of the country. We congratulate the Board of Trustees in securing the Rev. Dr. Olan A. Curtis to the Professorship of Systematic Theology made vacant by the death of Dr. Miley. In the death of Rev. Geo. R. Crooks, D. D., LL. D., for more than sixteen years the efficient Professor of Historical Theology, the Seminary, as well as the church, has sustained a great loss. The facilities for original investigation in philological and theological lines of study are of a superior character in this Seminary, and it is worthy of the extensive patronage it receives.

In addition to the schools mentioned we commend to our candidates for the ministry, Boston and De Pauw Universities.

AMERICAN UNIVERSITY.

It is with pleasure that we note the progress made in the growth of this Child of Providence, the American University, which was conceived in the mind of our esteemed Bishop Hurst.

Of the ten millions of dollars asked for this great educational enterprise, over one million has already been raised, and we believe that it will all come when our people awaken to the great need of this institution. Ninety thousand dollars has already been subscribed for the erection of Asbury Hall leaving a balance of only $10,000 yet to be raised.

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY.

We are pleased to note the degree of prosperity attending this school. We are pleased to learn of the anticipated consumation in the near future of the plans for a new building for their Preparatory School to be known as "Fisk Hall." We recommend that Jas. W. Haney, D. D., be appointed Conference Trustee.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We are highly gratified with the work being done by the Board of Education. One thousand seven hundred and twenty-four students were aided last year, 20 of whom live within the bounds of our own Conference, at a cost of $1,245, while our own contribution to this fund amounted to but $1,005. We, therefore, urge every Sunday School to observe Children's Day and take the special collection for this fund. We are greatly pleased to note the success of the movement known as the "University Senate" inaugurated by Dr. Payne, to bring all the colleges of the church into a federation which shall be under the close fostering care of the church. We are glad to learn that nearly all the colleges have accepted the requirements to enter this senate. The effect of this connectional supervision cannot fail to give our colleges a better standing among the higher institutions of our country and to secure a larger attendance of students.

WHEREAS, the General Conference has provided an Annual Educational Collection to be taken in each charge, apart from the Children's Day collection, and

WHEREAS, The General Conference has authorized each Annual Conference to devote this collection to schools within its bounds;

Resolved, 1. That we devote the Educational Collection to the endowment of our Conference Schools.

Resolved, 2. That we apportion $2.000 for the cause of education, to be raised by collection in the charges, and that we direct the Presiding Elders to apportion this amount among the several charges after the manner of other apportionments.

Resolved, 3. That the distribution among the Conference schools be according to the rule of last year.

E. F. ROE, Secretary. RICHARD CREWES, Chairman.

EPISCOPAL FUND.

Your Committee has not been able to ascertain the amount apportioned to the Conference this year, but find that there has been reported $1,151.00 which is $22.00 less than the amount raised last year.

Only 51 of the 190 charges reported apportionments in full last year. Your Committee would urge upon each pastor the importance of meeting, by collection, his apportionment in full, or sharing prorata according to the disciplinary requirements. J. F. FOREMAN, President.

A. M. LUMPKIN, Secretary.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

As we look over the history of the Epworth League, we rejoice to recognize in it a very strong arm of power to the great body of Methodism.

Whereas we believe it to be a God-ordained institution for the up-building of the church and the salvation of our young people, we therefore heartily endorse every legitimate effort for its advancement.

We recommend the holding of district, and especially sub-district Epworth League Conventions, and wherever possible the conducting of training schools.

We heartily endorse the reading course, the Epworth Herald and the using of all helps published by our Book Concern.

We recommend the teaching of sound doctrines, and that great care be taken that the social or literary work be not allowed to supplant the Spiritual.

We recommend that the Epworthians give faithful attendance to the prayer and class meetings of the church.

We believe that the organization of the Epworth Guards would be a means of saving and holding our boys.

We rejoice in the growth of the Junior League, and recognize in it also an important factor in our church work.

Recognizing the need of definite doctrinal teaching among our children, we recommend the systematic study of the Junior League Course.

We recommend as Conference officers the following named persons:

President.....J. A. Alford
Secretary.....S. P. Archer
Junior League Superintendent.....C. T. Cady
Treasurer.....P. A. St. John

CONFERENCE BOARD OF CONTROL—The District Presidents.

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION SOCIETY.

We greatly rejoice in the growth and progress that has marked the work of the past year of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society. We are glad to note that the forty-four institutions of learning under the supervision of this splendid society,are feeling the reviving influence of the return of better financial conditions and that this society has not only been able to meet the demands of the past year, but has liquidated over $12,000 of its standing debt. It is with pride that we learn that nearly 8,500 students attended these institutions during the past year, of whom over 2,000 were fitting themselves for the work of the Ministry, Teaching, and Medicine.

In the thirty-one years of history of this society, contemporaneous with the plastic period the South has undergone since the war, we firmly believe that no factor has proved a more powerful element in solving the race problem than the excellent work of our schools, and that they have meant as much to the South as did the early colleges of New England to that section.

With the religious and thoroughly evangelical atmosphere that prevades these seats of learning, the sacrificing and self-denying lives of their able instructors, and the spirit of love for the Church and loyalty for the nation that is instilled, we feel that they are not only the out-posts of our Church in spreading the Gospel, but are bulwarks for the perpetuity and integrity of our national life as well. They are not only training intelligent and useful citizens among white and black in the many avocations of life, but it would seem as if they were yet destined to furnish the missionaries who shall go as shining evangels into the interior of the "dark continent" and win it for the Master's Kingdom.

Resolved, That we recognize the heroic work already accomplished and that we pray for its extension and enlargement. That we shall aid the society in its distribution, and endeavor ourselves to increase the circulation of The Christian Educator, the ablest periodical of its kind regarding Christian Education in the South. That we shall raise our voices in behalf of this worthy cause among our people, who seldom see its literature, in giving it a "full, fair, free, intelligent, earnest, intense, and enthusiastic presentation;" and that we will at any time welcome Dr. M. C. B. Mason's return.

J. C. Zeller, Secretary. R. W. Ames, Chairman.

POST OFFICES.

Your Committee reports the work assigned to it completed, and the list of post offices sent to Curts & Jennings. Also that we find the system adopted by the Conference in issuing blanks to each pastor, and having them enclosed with statistical reports, very satisfactory. We recommend that it be continued and that the pastors be urged to respond fully upon these blanks, placing their own address on the first line.

E. E. MECHAM, Secretary. W. S. PORTER, Chairman.

SANCTITY OF THE SABBATH.

We believe that the desecration of the Sabbath is one of the greatest evils of our time, and that the Church, and especially the ministry, should stand for something definite upon this question.

Business, as conducted to-day, is demanding more and more this day of rest and thereby compelling many of our people to work on the Lord's day or starve, whereby they are robbed of their liberties and in a large measure their usefulness in the Church of God. If this tendency is not corrected the American Sabbath will be a thing of the past, our people debased, the home life destroyed, and pleasure seeking will take the place of humble worship.

As a body of Christian ministers we enter our earnest protest against pleasure seeking, public games, excursions and all traffic on the Sabbath day. We protest against the unjust demand of corporations and monopolies in their effort to rob the people of their rest day, under the cry of "liberty," while they only seek gain at the sacrifice of morality and good order. We would earnestly ask our law makers to prohibit Sunday trains and Sunday games and races. We call upon the authorities to enforce existing laws and pledge ourselves to aid in all reasonable ways.

We commend the Sunday League of America in its earnest efforts in behalf of the American Sabbath and we will welcome Edward Thomson, D. D., the efficient manager of this Society, to our charges.

W. S. WELSH, Secretary. W. R. WATSON, Chairman.

STATE OF THE CHURCH.

We give thanks to our Lord for the protection and guidance which He has vouchsafed to the Church during the past year. Her trials have been many, the assaults of the enemy have been frequent and heavy; but the hosts of the Lord have trusted in Him and stood firm. We are thankful that the Church has not only taken no backward steps, but has advanced the Lord's banner and gathered under it, at home and abroad, many souls who were once without hope.

Our Methodism is conservative but not narrow. It holds firmly to the doctrines received from the fathers and will not for fashion's sake sacrifice one jot or tittle. The great doctrines that have made Methodism mighty in its conflict with sin and in the rescue of souls are still taught by our preachers and revered by our people. Let us ever proclaim a salvation that provides for the rescue of man from the lowest conditions and for his elevation to the highest moral and spiritual excellence.

Our Church has occupied a foremost place in the ranks of those who have striven to rescue our nation from the curse of strong drink. May the day never dawn in which she shall surrender this position. Let no question concerning our national honor or economy obscure the fact that the drink traffic brings a deeper disgrace to a nation and a more terrible loss to the people than all other agencies which we are called upon to combat. May the time speedily come when the Church in her action on this great question will live up to the spirit of her resolutions.

In the divine economy a Sabbath was provided for man. If we did not know its origin, the blessed results that follow its general observance and the deplorable results that follow neglect of it would convince us of its divine origin. It belongs to the constitution of man and is necessary to his highest welfare. We earnestly exhort our people to do their best to preserve the day from desecration.

We congratulate the Church on the federation of such great numbers of her young people in the Epworth League. Systematic and concerted action by such a host ought to bring great and blessed results to the Church and the world. The great gathering at Toronto has doubtless inspired in many purposes and ambitions that will make them grandly useful in the future. We pray God to greatly bless our young people.

We enter our protest against depending upon entertainments for the support of the ministers and the various enterprises of the church, rather than upon direct, honest giving for principle's sake, and we recommend that our people plan as rapidly as possible to abolish them.

We gained our great numbers while insisting upon the sharp distinction between the life of the Church and the life of the world. We shall gain nothing by blotting out this distinction. We rather recommend that these rules be more rigidly insisted upon.

One of the severest tests in our day of the Church's claim of the possession of divine unction and power is the condition of vast numbers in our large cities under the very shadow of the Church. The Churches up-town and the population down-town seem often to have no regard for each other. The work done by the Churches for the victims of hard social conditions is, as a rule, done at long range and not in Christ's way.

We are thankful for all "forward movements," "Epworth settlements," "Church settlements," and every effort to bring light and hope into those regions of awful darkness, but we pray for the time when the members of Christ's Church will be brought into personal and loving contact with the masses of hopeless and helpless ones in our cities.

Never was there a day when the Church needed more thoroughly to show that she is on the side of the struggling masses. Let the Church study more closely the life of her Lord and she will discover that she has a social mission whose responsibilities and possibilitiesare beyond all human estimate.

The Church that possesses in its fullness the spirit of Christ is able to touch with healing hand every woe and meet every real want of man. If the Church is kept pure the world will see and feel the contrast between a life of sin and a life of holiness; if not the darkness and lethargy of sin will imperil every interest of human society.

E. A. WHITWAM, Secretary. WM. L. DOUGLAS, Chairman.

SUNDAY SCHOOL AND TRACTS.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

We note with pleasure the rapid growth of our Sunday School work. There are now 31,121 schools in our Church, with 360,633 officers and teachers and 2,620,010 scholars. This shows an increase during the year of 862 schools, 8,006 officers and teachers and 34,834 scholars.

Since the religious instruction of the young is of such vast importance, we recommend that great care be taken in the selection of teachers, in reference to both intellectual and spiritual qualifications. Also, that the plan of Normal classes, as suggested by the Sunday School Department of our Church, be approved, and that such classes be organized wherever practicable, and registered at the office of the Sunday School Union.

We recommend the use of our own literature, and call attention to the superior quality of the Sunday School publications of the Book Concern.

Special care should be taken to enlist the sympathy, interest and help of parents in Sunday School work. Lesson Helps should be used in the preparation of the lesson at home, but, as a rule, the Bible only should be brought to the class.

The Home Department, consisting of those who are unable to attend the sessions of the school, but who agree to spend an hour each week, (the time of the Sunday School if convenient) in the study of the lesson, should be established with every Sabbath School.

The Sunday School Union has aided during the past year more than 3000 scholars of our Church. And since it has no other resources except the contributions from the charges, we recommend that $888, the amount apportioned to our Conference, be approved and apportioned by the Presiding Elders pro rata among the Sunday Schools, to be raised during the year.

We deeply regret, that, at our last session, 1896, thirty-seven charges reported no collection for this cause; and, we trust that renewed efforts will be made to meet the apportionments in full for the year now before us.

TRACTS.

We call attention to the tract as an evangelizing instrumentality on account of (1) its inexpensiveness, as it may be purchased at a little more than the cost of printing, or may even be obtained as a grant without charge, (2) its adaption to almost every variety of need, (3) its convenience and ease in circulation, (4) its brevity, making a tract acceptable and causing it to be read when a book would be neglected.

Our Tract Society has at its command a vast assortment of literature, which is at the service of the pastors and tract committees; the Tract Catalogue is sent free to any address; any charge through its pastor, is at liberty to send for tracts, in any year, to the amount of one-half its last collection; and special grants of tracts will be given whenever circumstances require. We recommend that our preachers avail themselves of these privileges.

This society contributes from $6,000 to $7,000, or nearly one-third of its collections each year in aid of our mission presses and the circulation of Christian literature in foreign lands.

We suggest that $755, the amount assigned the Central Illinois Conference, be approved by this body and apportioned by the Presiding Elders pro rata among the charges, and that special effort be made by every charge to raise the amount assigned.

O. I. TRUITT, Secretary. A. R. JONES, Chairman.

TEMPERANCE.

WHEREAS, Intemperance in the use of alcoholic beverages is the monster vice of our times, and

WHEREAS, The liquor traffic can never be licensed without sin, and

WHEREAS, This traffic is sanctioned by law and thus intrenched in our national and state laws, and

WHEREAS, Under a Republican government, the citizen can affect governmental action only through his ballot; be it

Resolved, That we approve of the action of the late General Conference in sanctioning the object of the American Anti-Saloon League as expressed in its Constitution. We believe that the time has come when there should be a federation of all religious denominations to fight the drunkard-making, home-destroying, and church-antagonizing institution.

Resolved, That, we approve of the action of the General Conference in recommending the observance of the fourth Sunday in November in each year as Temperance Sunday and suggest that each pastor provide exercises suitable to inculcate the principles of temperance and prohibition.

Resolved, Further, that every follower of Christ and every lover of humanity should so use his ballot as to strike down this monster vice of our times, and that no Christian should act with any organization that proposes by license to sanction and perpetuate this crime.

T. E. NEWLAND, Secretary. A. R. MORGAN, Chairman.

USE OF TOBACCO.

WHEREAS, The use of tobacco is not only injurious to health and often impairs the mental faculties, but is inconsistent with the highest development of Christian character; and,

WHEREAS, Multitudes of our boys are made victims of this unwholesome and destructive habit very early in life,

Resolved, That we as pastors will appeal more earnestly to our people, not only to "wholly abstain from the use of tobacco," but to do what they can to prevent the contracting of this un-Christain habit in the rising generation.

W. G. MILLER, Chairman.

T. C. DAVIS, Secretary.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Your committee in behalf of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society beg leave to report as follows;

1. We recognize that this society is the child of Providence, and that the seal of Divine approval has been placed upon its ministrations of love. Social conditions in many foreign fields are such that women can only be reached by women. For such fields the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society is rapidly providing money and missionaries.

2. We note with pleasure that the society has enjoyed a year of increased prosperity, reporting more auxiliaries, members, and money raised in our Conference than ever before. During the past year the society has contributed over $6,000.

3. We call attention to the fact that it does not detract from other missionary contributions. By precept and example the members of this organization inculcate systematic benevolence, thus stimulating the entire life of the Church.

4. The educative influence of the auxiliaries upon the women themselves ought not to be overlooked. She who thinks and plans for her sex beyond the sea soon gains increased interest and power for work in her own home Church.

5. These facts should lead every pastor to encourage the organization of auxiliaries in every charge, and to give them all possible assistance. Let no pastor forget the ancient injunction, "Help those women."

Ira E. David, Secretary. E. Wasmuth, Chairman.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, We consider it of the highest importance that all the connectional interests of the Church be kept fully before the minds of the Church at large, and

WHEREAS, The Woman's Home Missionary Society is one of the important societies of our beloved Methodism, inasmuch as it seeks to fulfil the commands of Christ to carry the gospel to all those in need, and

WHEREAS, The work of the past done by this society is well deserving our gratitude and commends our earnest support for the future, and

WHEREAS, The foreign interests of our Church are fully cared for by the parent Missionary Society and the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, while our own frontiers are, in many cases, left with scant support; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we recommend that every pastor seek to place the needs of this Society more earnestly before their congregations and to establish a Woman's Home Missionary Society on those charges where no such Society exists.

Resolved, That we recommend the holding of an anniversary of this Society at our next Annual Conference in order to bring the workers together and thus lead to a clearer conception of the importance of this Society and secure better results. D. B. JOHNSON, Chairman.

JOHN MAY, Secretary.

ANNUITY FUND.

WHEREAS, The General Conference of 1896 made provision for the division of all moneys received by the Annual Conferences for distribution in aid of the support of Conference Claimants into two funds; the first to be known as the Conference Claimants' fund and to be distributed on the basis of necessity; and the second to be known as the Special or Annuity Fund and to be distributed on the basis of years of service; and,

WHEREAS, The said General Conference recommended that each Annual Conference establish a Permanent Fund subject to its own control, and under such regulations as it may adopt, and the income of which may be added to the other moneys for the support of its own claimants, therefore

Resolved, That the Central Illinois Conference adopt the following rules and regulations, supplemental to those laid down by the General Conference, regarding the collection and distribution of these funds.

I. THE CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS' OR NECESSITOUS FUND.

1. This fund shall be made up of
   (a) The annual collections taken in the churches.
   (b) One-fourth the proceeds of the Chartered Fund.
   (c) One-fourth the dividend of the Book Concern.
2. This fund shall be distributed annually among the persons whose claims are allowed on the basis of necessity.

II. THE SPECIAL OR ANNUITY FUND.

1. This fund shall be made up of (a) Three-fourths the proceeds of the Chartered Fund.
   (b) Three-fourths the dividends of the Book Concern.
   (c) The annual interest on the Permanent Fund.
   (d) One-half the annual assessment made on the effective ministers and probationers of the Conference as hereinafter provided.
2. This fund shall be distributed upon the following basis:
   Each Superannuated minister shall be allowed annually $10.00 for each year of his effective service; each widow shall be allowed annually $5.00 for each year in which she was the wife of a minister during his effective service; provided, her name be entered on the Annuity List by order of the Conference; each child under sixteen years of age of a deceased minister shall be allowed annually $2.00 for each year of his father's effective service. These claims shall be paid pro rata from the moneys in the hands of the Conference Board of Stewards. Provided, however, that if any minister shall have failed any year or years after the adoption of these rules to meet his assessment for the purpose of augmenting this Fund, the amount of such delinquency shall be deducted from his claim or that of the person or persons becoming claimants through him; and if his delinquency amount to more than the claim it then shall be reduced by the amount of the claim and the balance carried over until the next year, and so on if necessary until such time as the delinquency shall have been fully offset by the claim.

III. THE PERMANENT FUND.

1. This Fund shall consist of (a) The present Permanent Fund.
   (b) Such additions to it as may be made from time to time by donations and bequests.
   (c) Annual increments consisting of one-half the assessments of the effective ministers and probationers of the Conference.

2. This Fund shall be managed and invested by the Conference Claimants' Society, and the interest upon it paid over annually to the Treasurer of the Board of Stewards.

IV. ASSESSMENTS ON EFFECTIVE PREACHERS.

1. The effective preachers and probationers in the Conference shall be assessed the sum of $5.00 each year for the benefit of the Annuity Fund.

2. These assessments shall be due and payable to the Secretary of the Board of Stewards on the first day of each Annual Conference session.

3. One-half of the moneys so received by the Secretary shall be paid over to the Treasurer of the Conference Claimants Society and become a part of the Permanent Fund.

4. One-half of the moneys shall be paid over to the Treasurer of the Board of Stewards and become a part of the Annuity Fund for immediate distribution.

V. REFUNDING OF ASSESSMENTS.

1. Any minister who is located or deposed shall upon application to the Conference have the total amount that he has contributed to the fund under assessment restored to him, without interest, from the Annuity fund for the current year.

2. If, however, such Minister be indebted to the Educational Society or to the Book Concern nothing shall be refunded until such indebtedness is liquidated.

3. If any Superannuate be deposed from the Ministry, the sum of payments he has received from the fund shall be deducted from the sum of the assessments he has paid and the balance only, if any, shall be refunded.

Committee { A. M. Stocking. J. B. Dille. R. E. Buckey.

WESLEY HOSPITAL.

Wesley Hospital reports an increased number of patients and a large advance in the amount of free service. For the past ten months one hundred and five patients have received free hospital service at a cost of $3,371, and free medical and surgical aid worth fully as much more. A large majority of these patients have been sent away cured. This Conference stands pledged to the payment of $600 per annum for the support of two beds. Our contributions any one year up to this year have not amounted to half that sum. Notwithstanding this fact the hospital authorities have set apart one bed and had a name plate prepared for it as "Central Illinois Conference Bed." The collections for this year amount to $281. It is hoped that next year we may be able to raise the full $600 and secure the naming of the second bed. To that end we recommend:

First, That each charge in the Conference take a collection in some way for the hospital.

Second, That moneys collected be sent on immediately to the hospital so that the work be not cramped for want of funds.

Third, That the column in the Minutes for the report of the collections for the hospital be continued.

Fourth, That our own people be informed of our relation to the hospital and that bequests and donations be encouraged.

The hospital has dealt very generously with us in the matter of free service, we having received in such service rendered to persons within the bounds of our Conference more than we have paid in from collections. We certainly ought to make a strong effort this year to raise the full amount of our pledge. To assist us in so doing the Superintendent of the hospital will send to each pastor on or about the first of December a dime collection album with hints and suggestions as to the best methods of using it.

Those desiring information regarding hospital service should address the Superintendent, J. S. Harvey, cor. 25th and Dearborn Sts., Chicago.

We nominate the Rev. A. M. Stocking as Conference trustee for the hospital for the coming term.

IV. Proposition

FOR CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGE, SUBMITTED TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCES IN 1897-98.

The East Maine Conference:—At its Fiftieth Annual Session requests the Bishops to submit to the several Conferences during the years 1897 and 1898 the following proposition, to wit:—

Amend Section 2, Paragraph 67, of the Book of Discipline. by striking out the words "forty-five" and inserting the word "sixty" so that the section as amended shall read:

"The General Conference shall not allow of more than one Ministerial Representative for every fourteen Members of an Annual Conference; nor of a less number than one for every sixty; nor of more than two Lay Delegates for an Annual Conference:—PROVIDED, nevertheless, that when there shall be in any Annual Conference a fraction of two-thirds the number which shall be fixed for the ratio of representation, such Annual Conference shall be entitled to an additional Delegate for such fraction; AND PROVIDED ALSO that no Conference shall be denied the privilege of one Ministerial and one Lay Delegate."

Done at Calais, Maine, April 24th, 1897.

CASE OF F. H. CUMMING.

Findings in the case of the Methodist Episcopal Church against Frank H. Cumming, a member of the Central Illinois Conference.

CANTON, Illinois, Sept. 18, 1897.

The Select Number to whom was referred for trial the charge preferred against Frank H. Cumming of the Central Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, beg leave to submit the following report.

We have heard all the evidence in the case and after most thoughtful and prayerful consideration of the same find as follows:

CHARGE.—LASCIVIOUS AND IMMORAL CONDUCT.

CASE OF W. F. DUDMAN.

GALESBURG, ILL., Nov. 8, 1896.

The Committee called to investigate certain complaints against W. F. Dudman, of the Central Illinois Conference, met at 8 o'clock p. m., at the home of H. D. Clark, P. E.

The following Committee was present: H. D. Clark, Chairman, N. G. Lyons, Wm. Woolley, W. H. Witter, G. D. Hensell and N. T. Allen. On motion N. T. Allen was elected secretary.

No formal charges being presented, and no person appearing to testify against Bro. Dudman, he was invited to make a statement of his version of the matters involved in the complaints against him and effecting his moral character, which he did quite freely, as the committee thought, and with no apparent desire to cover up anything. He manifested and expressed deep contrition and sorrow for the unhappy circumstance, but asserted that there was no purpose or intent on his part of anything impure or unholy.

Dr. Clark also made statements quite fully of the circumstances as they had been presented to him by parties most directly interested, and stating that said parties had refused to appear and testify in a Church trial.

After careful and godly consideration of the whole matter as brought before us, it is considered by the Committee that while Bro. W. F. Dudman was imprudent in his conduct, there is no reasonable or just grounds for charges and we recommend that his character be passed.

Committee—N. G. Lyons, Wm. Woolley, W. H. Witter, G. D. Hensell, N. T. Allen.

BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

I. Resolved, That, in the matter of the substitution of studies, a High School or College Certificate, or a second grade teacher's certificate, including U. S. History shall be equivolent for an examination for elementary branches, and that the board be given full power to decide as to all other equivolents, the board to follow the Bishops' suggestions as recorded in the Discipline.

II. That the Examining Board hold two examinations a year, one in the midyear in each District, place to be designated by the Presiding Elder of the District, and the other at the seat of Conference and that no one be examined at any other time or place.

III. That all questions be sent by those who are to prepare them to the Secretary of the Board for distribution, one month before the time of examination.

IV. That midyear examiners' expenses, be hereafter paid by the Conference.

T. W. McVety.
O. T. Dwinell.

CITY MISSION.

Whereas, The Gospel is to be preached to every creature whether rich or poor, and

Whereas, The population of the tenement districts of our large cities is rapidly increasing, and

Whereas, The Church is being driven out of these districts from various causes, until now they stand among the most needy mission fields before the Church,

Whereas, Under the advice of several of the Bishops, Geo. W. Gray four years ago entered this field without hope of credit or remuneration, has labored among these neglected classes and has established a work of great power, indicating the probable solution of the grave question, "How shall we reach the neglected classes of our cities." Therefore,

Resolved, That we give to him our hearty sympathy and prayers and ask the Bishop to reappoint him to this work. R. B. Williams.

CONFERENCE DAILY.

Resolved, That we request the pastors at Kankakee to arrange with one of the dailies of that city for such space as may be needed to properly report the session of our next Conference and other items which should be published, the editing of this department to be done solely by someone appointed by the Conference. E. F. Roe,
J. A. Northrup,
W. D. Benjamin.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS SOCIETY.

Whereas, There seems to be a misunderstanding with some of the pastors with regard to money raised for the Conference Claimants Society, therefore,

Resolved, That all money secured by the Agent for the above society be paid directly to the Agent and not be reported as money raised in the regular collection for Conference Claimants. W. H. Hunter.

EVEN DOLLARS.

Resolved, That in making remittances for the benevolent collections that the bretheren be requested to remit only even dollars.

J. J. HUNTER,
D. F. WILSON.

HISTORICAL MATERIAL.

In view of the great importance of the early history of our Church, within the bounds of our Conference, being secured in permanent form for future use, and as those who participated in these early experiences are rapidly passing away,and much of interest and value to the future historian will be lost. Therefore,

Resolved 1st, That each pastor be requested to secure such historical material as may be in the hands of any on his charge: such as early historical papers, directories of churches, accounts of dedications of churches and of the lives of the early preachers and laymen, etc.

Resolved 2nd, That the Presiding Elders be requested to present this matter to the Second Quarterly Conference of each charge and have a committee, with the Pastor as Chairman, appointed, whose duty it shall be to collect together the history of the charge and put it in such form that it may best be preserved; all such historical papers to be forwarded to the Conference Custodian and by him classified and sent to the historical rooms located at Evanston, Ill.

J. W. DENNING, Conference Custodian.

THANKS.

Resolved, THAT the thanks of this Conference are hereby tendered

I. To the citizens of Canton for their hospitality in our entertainment during our Conference session.

II. To the railroad companies for reduction of fare.

III. To the Pastors of sister Churches for inviting members of this Conference to fill their pulpits on the Sabbath, and also to the pastors and officers for tendering the use of their churches during the session.

IV. To the Pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church for his untiring efforts to provide for our comfort.

V. To the Secretaries for their faithfulness in attending to the duties of their office.

VI. To our Presiding Bishop for his efficiency, impartiality and patience as a presiding officer.

H. D. CLARK.

Memoirs.

BENJAMIN APPLEBEE.

Benjamin Applebee was born in Tranesville, Ohio, Sept. 5th, 1820, and died at his home in Red Oak, Iowa, Monday, Feb. 22nd, 1897, aged 76 years.

When a boy he came with his parents to Fulton County, Illinois, and settled near Canton, where he grew to manhood. He was converted in childhood and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1846 he taught school at Marietta, Illinois. During that year the Presiding Elder, Rev. Richard Haney, requested him to go to Macomb circuit as a supply, with Rev. Hadley preacher in charge. Before giving consent he had a great mental struggle, and wrestled in prayer in a grove until after midnight, when he was enabled to make a complete consecration of his life to the work of the ministry. He went to Macomb and did good service. From that time until his death the work of a Methodist preacher was his only work, and in it he greatly delighted.

In 1847 he was received on trial in the Rock River Conference, and when that Conference was divided in 1856, his lot fell in the Peoria, now the Central Illinois Conference. He served the following charges; Macomb, Brimfield, Carthage, Monmouth, Moline, Albany, Knoxville, Galesburg, Abingdon, Macomb (a second time), Hennepin, Lacon, Washington, Second Church Peoria, Mount Hedding, Chillicothe, Kewanee, Altona, Farmington, Hudson, Tonica, Chenoa, Washburn, Vermont, Hamilton and La Harpe.

He was married to Miss Catherine Gardner in La Harpe, Feb. 12th, 1849. They had four children, Mrs. Mary Spencer, of Hartford, Kan.; Dr. J. Olin Applebee, of Cuba, Ill.; John Wilbur, who died in childhood, and Miss Myrta Applebee, of Canton, Ill. He leaves his wife, who now resides in Canton, with whom he lived in holy and happy wedlock forty-eight years. He seemed never to perfectly recover from the shock of his nervous system caused by the death of his little three-year-old Willie in Peoria, Jan. 1863. The scarlet fever was epidemic in the city and Willie was taken, and after much suffering died in the arms of the pastor of the First Church. The same week that malignant disease entered the parsonage of the First Church and after only a few hours took Eddy, four years old. The two children were buried at the same time and their bodies sleep side by side on a beautiful mound in Springdale Cemetery. Thus the two families were closely bound together in deep affliction.

In the fall of 1882 Bro. Applebee was superannuated and moved to Red Oak, Iowa. He spent one year as a supply under the Presiding Elder at Batavia, Iowa, after which he engaged in revival work as an evangelist in southwestern Iowa and Kansas, having many souls converted wherever he labored. During his residence in Red Oak he made many friends and was a great help to pastors and people.

On Sunday, Feb. 21st, he attended service twice, at the quarterly meeting spoke feelingly and impressively in the love feast, and assisted in the administration of the Lord's Supper. Monday he helped his wife in household duties as was his custom. Afterwards he suffered severe pain in his chest, and a physician being called he found relief. In the evening he sat down at the table for supper, asked a blessing, and soon after fell to the floor and his spirit took its flight, leaving his wife overwhelmed by his sudden departure.

Of Benjamin Applebee it may be truly said, as of Barnabas in the early Church, "He was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith, and much people was added unto the Lord." No one ever questioned the purity of his life and aims. He honored the Holy Spirit in his preaching and pastoral work, and constantly leaned on the everlasting arms. In all his charges many souls were converted. One of his brethren, who had known him from his young manhood and who could not be present at the funeral, wrote: "Thousands converted under his ministry will rise up and bless him in the day of eternity." He was a faithful pastor and did successful work in building churches and parsonages and clearing church property from debt, but more than all these, he excelled as a revivalist.

He was religious in his family. He read the Bible through and sang the hymnal through in family worship. Of late years he read the daily readings of the International Sunday School Lessons. He was a true Methodist, loving the doctrines and polity of the Church of his choice. He gave prominence to the doctrines of conversion by divine power, the witness of the Spirit, and Perfect Love.

His family and his friends have suffered a great loss in his departure, but he has doubtless joined the majority of his fellow-laborers before the throne. His body was brought to Canton, and buried beside the graves of his father and mother.

M. C. BOWLIN.

Bro. M. C. Bowlin was born in Summerset county, Pennsylvania, on the 3rd day of March 1841. Growing up to manhood and having taught school for a number of terms, and thus laying the foundation for that thoroughness manifested in his ministerial work, he came west, and in 1864 began his work in the pastorate, supplying Pontoosuc circuit along the picturesque banks of the Mississippi. In 1865 he was admitted to our conference and was sent to Carthage circuit. He served after this the following charges: '66–7, Terre Haute; '68, Pleasant Mound; '69, La Prairie Center; '70–1, Neponset; '72–3, Wenona; '74–5, Aledo; '76–7, Woodhull; '78–9, Macomb; '80–1, Carthage; '82–5, Galesburg District; '86–7, Moline First Church. Here in his second year, his health partially failed and the undermining of his physical strength was begun. After resting and engaging in light secular labors until he felt sufficiently restored to re-enter the work for which his soul yearned, he resumed pastoral duties, serving Roseville two years, '90–1. Thence he went to Knoxville, where his health gave way in his second year's labor. For three years he lived on the little farm near Kirkwood, taking the out door exercise that he hoped would restore him permanently to good health. Providence seems to have ordered it otherwise. Over one year ago he had a very serious illness that many thought would be fatal, but when I saw him last—a few weeks before conference he was one of the most hopeful sick men I have ever seen; his faith and courage so impressing me that I prophesied one year ago that he would be with us at this session of our conference. But soon after our last session he was taken suddenly worse, and with that patient faith that murmurs not he courageously faced his approaching fate. On the 16th of December last, at two o'clock in the morning,his weary spirit gained its release and returned to Him who gave it, and the lips through which no complaints were permitted to escape, were sealed forever.

He was laid to rest in the Kirkwood cemetary, Bro. Shaffer, his pastor, conducting the services and Dr. Evans preaching the funeral sermon.

Bro. Bowlin was a man of that positive type of character that scorned anything that seemed to him in the least unkind or unjust. He excelled as a writer. While his extemporaneous efforts were not inferior, his written productions were extraordinary. In his pastoral work he was painstaking and thorough. He was particularly thoughtful in ever bestowing honor upon whom he felt honor was due.

Bro. Bowlin was three times married and leaves two brothers, four children and a widow to mourn his loss. With these we join hearts, bowed low in sorrow, and with theirs, mingle tears of sympathy, looking forward to a conference over yonder that shall know no breaking. There we have faith to believe the mysteries of this life will all be understood and its seeming contradictions harmonized.

G. B. SNEDAKER.

Rev. George B. Snedaker was born May 13, 1828, in Brown county, Ohio, and died of cancer in Abingdon, Ill., Nov. 14, 1896. In 1850, Bro. Snedaker came by team from his native state to La Salle county, Illinois, where he purchased a farm which he cultivated for a time and then sold the land to procure means with which to secure an education. He entered Judson college, a Baptist institution, located at West Mt. Palatine, Ill., with J. G. Evans as his room mate; but soon removed thence to Rock River Seminary, Mt. Morris, where he studied with the ministry in view.

Under the Rev. John W. Stockdill he was converted in 1852 and united with the Methodist Episcopal church at the old Cedar Point meeting house, near Tonica. From this time he became associated at camp meetings and revival efforts, with that class of Methodist preachers who have made our denomination what it is in all these regions about us. He joined the old Peoria Conference (now the Central Illinois Conference) held in what is known as the old part of Hedding College at the session of 1857, and never after missed a conference until that of 1896.

Bro. Snedaker was appointed a supply in 1856, joined the conference in 1857. He served the following charges:

Danvers, Metamora, Pleasant Hill, Hudson, Sandy, Rutland, Hennepin, Phelps Chapel, Odell, Blandinsville, La Harpe, New Boston, New Windsor, Berwick and Cameron, Good Hope, Financial Agent Hedding College, Colchester.

The events of his ministry to which he most frequently referred with evident interest, were the trying experiences of the dark days during the War of the Rebellion. One of the greatest revivals of his ministry on the New Windsor and Viola charge about the year '83 and '84 and the mighty outpouring of the Spirit on the Milan Camp ground in 1885, where during one service, continuing without interruption from 3 p. m. of one day until 9 a. m. of the next, from 100 to 150 souls were powerfully converted to God.

Among the brethren of his conference this man of God held an honored place. As a gospel preacher he was sound and strong. As a pastor, few men could have been more faithful or efficient. He "visited from house to house" and won for his Master in the homes and hearts of the people. In revival work he was a man of power. He summoned souls by the way of the altar. His extraordinary appeals to sinners, often fell in telling and sweeping effect upon the congregation; and in the last day a great company will hail him as the evangelist, who meeting them under the angry brow of an over-hanging Sinai, showed them through the wicket gate to the Calvary of pardon.

In the community where he lived no good cause ever lacked his support. For a considerable term of years he was the Secretary of the Board of Trustees of Hedding College,as well as Secretary of the Executive Board and had supervision of the grounds. In his death our Conference College has lost one of its wisest counsellors, truest friends and ablest supporters. He was pre-eminently the student's helper. And here, as, elsewhere today, are those who would gladly tell how ready he always was to provide employment, furnish means and open his home for the struggling student.

He was married in 1858 to Miss Cordelia M. Parker, to which union was born one son, Geo. Parker Snedaker, now a member of this conference. This efficient helpmate departed this life in March 1863. In 1867 he was married to Miss Elizabeth M. Ausley; three children; Herbert A., Myrtle M., and Francis W., came to bless their home, but the first died in infancy. This companion so well known and remembered by many present was a victim of the horrible Chatsworth wreck, Aug. 10th, 1887. Married in June 1889, to Mrs. Jennie C. Stevens, who survives him.

During what our brother knew to be his fatal illness, he was as cheerful as if in perfect health, and grace sustained him to the end. Shortly before his death he said to me like this; "While lying here I find some new problem to solve. Failing powers furnish new thoughts of experience,and I am persuaded there is a 'rest of faith' which all of God's children are not sufficiently eager to attain."

The funeral services were conducted in the Methodist Episcopal church at Abingdon, Ill., attended by many of our ministers and a vast concourse of people. Rev. W. R. Wiley offered prayer; Rev. A. M. Stocking read the scriptures and addresses were made by the pastor, Dr. J. G. Evans and Rev. R. Crewes and prayer again made by Rev. Wm. Watson. The Presiding Elder, Dr. H. D. Clark(who arrived on a late train) read the burial service at the grave.

In these lines of Bro. Stocking, we pay our last tribute to the memory of a brother beloved.

O man of God, O preacher tried and true,
On every hand thou hast the gospel told,
And gathered in the lost ones to the fold,
And for their teaching brought forth old and new,
That thou might'st them with love of Christ imbue
And shape their being to His perfect mold
The whilst the heavenly prize was held in view.
As thou hast pointed, thou hast led the way,
With firm, sure step thy faithful feet have trod
The journey to its end, now we lay
Thy body down to rest beneath the sod
In hopes of coming resurrection day:
Thy soul released, has winged its flight to God.

MRS. ROBERT BARTON.

Her maiden name was Mary Jane Reddan. She was born in England, Nov. 2d, 1852. During her infancy the family moved to the United States and settled near Lacon, Ill., Here she was educated, and in her early years gave her heart to God and was received into the Methodist Episcopal Church and being trained under the genial influence of a Christian home, developed those traits of Character which made her beloved by all who knew her. Her mother died in June, 1868, leaving her at the age of sixteen to share with her father the duties of the home and the care of the younger children of the family of whom there were four.

In 1871 she was married to Robert Barton, then engaged in teaching school. In 1879 Bro. Barton was received on trial in the Central Illinois Conference, and she became identified with the ranks of the itinerancy. As a pastor's wife she was deservedly popular. In this relation she was pious, devoted, loving and self-sacrificing. She was especially efficient in her work with the young people and in the Epworth League. Many were led to Christ, and many more were helped in their Christian experience and life, by her godly influence. Among the many noble women, wives of Methodist preachers, few have excelled her as a leader of the young.

Her last illness and the circumstances of her death were unusually pathetic. Four years ago, at Carthage, her health failed, and after much suffering it became apparent that her lungs were seriously involved and her life in danger. A little more than a year ago, acting under the advice of physicians, the family removed as quickly as possible to El Paso de Robles, Southern California, hoping for a restoration of her health. Bravely she endured the fatigue of that long journey, and the long weeks of intense suffering that followed. She was cheerful and hopeful when others despaired, until at last her form was wasted almost to a skeleton, and her vital forces were well-nigh exhausted. As the end drew near she said to her husband in words whispered in feebleness, "My work is finished. I have tried hard to live, for I wanted to stay with you, but I cannot. Meet me in heaven." Just before her death, though suffering great pain, she talked beautifully to her husband and her two children, a daughter and a son, expressing the highest appreciation of their care for her, and sending messages of love to friends far away. Ten minutes after eleven o'clock, Wednesday morning, Nov. 4th, she closed her eyes upon the sorrows of earth, and opened them upon the glories of heaven. She died at the age of forty-four, leaving her husband, our dear brother, Robert Barton, and her daughter, Elsie M., aged twenty-two, and her son George C., aged twenty, desolate, among strangers in a far-off land. Though among strangers, they had the tender sympathy of the good people among whom they had lived so short a time.

In a private letter her husband writes, "I cannot tell how deep are the waters through which we have been passing. Perhaps you know better than words can tell. I never realized till now how completely the threads of one life may be interwoven with those of another; or what the separation means when a true wife and mother is taken from the home. Only a few days before her death she said to me, 'This will look very different when we both look at it from the other side.' Thank God, 'Heaven will recompense our pain.'"

MRS. WILLIAM H. HUNTER.

Sophrona Benton was born in Chardon, Geauga County, Ohio, on the 26th day of December, A. D. 1816. Her parents were from New England, whence they emigrated to the home where she was born.

Her father was a stalwart Christian, an influential member and exhorter in the Methodist Episcopal Church. His home was ever open with hearty, hospitible welcome to the pioneer itinerants. Here many preachers rested and were refreshed with the best the home afforded of the material comforts of life, and the far more precious spiritual strengthening with the distinctively Christian fellowship in which that home was abundantly rich. Here in an atmosphere of Christian heroism the half discouraged herald of the cross took heart for more glorious achievements.

But his race was run all too soon. The sun of his life dropped from its zenith into the lethal ocean. In the prime of a promising manhood he laid down the sword of the spirit, brightly burnished by use, and quit the ranks of the militant church to take up the palm and enter into the joy of his triumph with that company in the house of many mansions.

Her mother, left to contend with the disadvantages, privations, and adversities common to a new country in providing for and training her six fatherless children, impressed upon them the incomparable value of an upright life, and bequeathed them the goodliest heritage a mother can bestow, memory of an exalted Christian character.

At the age of twelve years, Sophrona Benton, a girl destined to grow into the womanhood of peerless worth, whose virtues we commemorate in this memorial service, early bereft of the wise counsel of an affectionate father, heard, and heeding the call of the Gallilean Conqueror, joined herself to the company of those who seek for "The city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God."

At the Erie Conference in 1836, William H. Hunter was admitted to probation in the Conference with a class of twenty-one young men. At that session he,with E. J. Kinney as colleague,was appointed to Chardon Circuit.

The exalted friendship which began in the association of Rev. William H. Hunter with Miss Sophrona Benton, as her pastor, matured into the loving union of two faithful hearts, which has swept all the range of experience in the itinerant ministry for nearly six decades of years. They were joined in marriage on the 18th day of September, 1838. For fifty-eight and a half years she walked with God's embassador, sharing his lot of toil and hardship in the Christian ministry without a murmur.

Her devotion to his chosen work was equal to its maximum of required sacrifice and labor. He never fainted for want of her strength to stay up his hands. When the battle of God's militant host waxed hottest the line never wavered for want of her unfaltering, courageous activity.

During all those fifty-eight and a half years' companionship with her husband in his important work, not once did she ever, by ill advised act or speech, cause that herald of the cross either pain of heart or anxious concern lest the Christian influence of his home should, in any degree, be impaired.

She commanded rather than served the affairs of her home; so that not once in all those years of frequent and long absences from home about his Master's business was his starting delayed a single moment by want of promptness in any preparation devolving upon her.

A chaste keeper at home, there was ever an all pervasive atmosphere, so distinctly Christian as to consciously impress one with the near approach to the divine ideal in home life. Nothing below the best social, moral and spiritual standard could find a place in the home in which she was the presiding genius.

On the 11th day of February, 1896, she was striken with paralysis, and from that time she was helpless. Having been accustomed to activity all her life, it must have been a great test of her patience. But the Christ under whose leadership she had so long walked in discipleship, sustained her soul and she endured, as seeing Him who is invisible.

It was my privilege to visit her several times during her long illness, and I always found her triumphant in faith, and entertaining a joyful hope in Christ Jesus. On the 17th day of December she was the second time striken with paralysis, after which her vocal organs were so affected as to render her unable to communicate with her friends, as there were but few words she could articulate with sufficient distinctness to be understood. Gradually did her strength fail from that time, but without visible indications of any extreme suffering. It was simply a slow process of wasting in the vital force, grown weary with the long journey.

From her home in the city of Peoria, on the 9th day of March, without a struggle, as her companion sat watching by her side, quietly as an infant in its mother's arms goes to sleep, at the hour of 3 o'clock p. m. she passed through the portal from mortality to the painless, tearless, deathless home, to join the joyous throng of whom the angel said, "These are they which have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. * * Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve Him day and night in His temple; and He that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more, neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of water, and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes."

Dr. Hunter may rest assured of the sympathy of a host of friends, many of whom have listened to his ministrations in their sorrows, whose prayers will ascend to the God of all consolations, to invoke upon him special grace to sustain him in walking in the shadows, until the pathway turns to gold, and the immense throng of those to whom he opened the Word of Life greet him at the open gate to the City in the hills of immortality.

MRS. THOS. W. McVETY.

Amelia C. Lucus was born in Centerville, Province of Ontario, Canada, in 1852. She was preceded in death by both parents, and by a brother, Dr. Lucus, of Stratford, Ontario, and is survived by one sister, Mrs. Silas Vrooman, who resides in Napanee, Ontario, and by one brother, Jos. N. Lucus, of Springfield, Mo. She was married in December, 1876, to Thomas W. McVety, who was at that time pastor of the Methodist Church in Odessa, Ontario. The wedding took place in Napanee, where the family were then residing, where the parents are buried, and whither, after these twenty happy, useful years of service in the Master's kingdom as the helpmate of one of his ministering servants, her sorrowing husband bore her remains and tenderly laid her body by the side of her father and mother. Twenty years from the bridal party to the funeral cortege! Three children were born to the deceased, two of whom died in infancy, and one, Lucille, at the tender age of nine survives to mourn the irreparable loss of mother.

She assumed the duties of the pastor's wife first at Odessa, Ontario, for two years; then at Winchester four years; at Belleville two years, and at the time of the union of the different Methodist bodies in Canada, she came with her husband to the States, transferring to the Central Illinois Conference. Here she has served with her husband the First Church at Pontiac for three years; the First Church, Normal, three years; the First Church, Kankakee, three years, and nearly three and one-half years as the wife of the pastor of the First Church of Peoria.

In all these twenty years of faithful service she never breathed a selfish wish or performed a selfish deed. And that self-forgetful spirit remained with her to the very end. As her eyes were almost glazing in death she said to her nurse, "Now do you go and eat and let nothing interrupt you till you are through." She was always thinking of the comfort and welfare of others.

This was characteristic of her in all her relations in the churches she served. It was her desire to take no place of prominence in any of the societies of the church, but to treat all branches of the work with uniformity. In this way she impressed all with the utter absence in her of any self-seeking spirit, and though ready to speak the truth with plainness and candor she offended none. She taught in the Sunday School until failing strength compelled her to lay down the work she loved so well.

She was possessed of a cheerful, energetic character that made her coming like a tonic to her friends. As one expressed it: "I never met her, no matter what the circumstances were, but what I went away feeling better."

For eighteen years the trouble which culminated in death had been impending over that home. And yet a shadow of it never appeared for a moment on the face of our deceased sister in Christ. She spoke of it to none. And her sudden illness surprised all. She bore up in the same cheerful way to the very last. Once she said to her husband: "I shall be glad when it is all over and I am at rest." To those who entered her sick room she spoke of others, not of herself. She died as unselfishly as she had lived.

And she enjoyed her life in the ministry. To her husband, when some reference to the life she had lived was made, she said: "If I could go through life again I would choose the ministry."

She was converted when a child and was never troubled with any doubts concerning her relation to God. She had a good word for everyone. Her message to her sister and nieces was John 14: 1-3, "Let not your heart be troubled. Ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions. If it were not so I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go, I will come again and receive you unto myself, that where I am there ye may be also." This word is now verified for her. She passed peacefully away at 11:15 on March 29. She has entered into rest.

The funeral services were held at the First Church, which she had served so well, and were conducted by the Presiding Elder of the District, assisted by Dr. W. H. Hunter and the pastors of the city, Dr. D. N. Stafford, Revs. J. B. Dille and W. R. Watson. The pastors of other denominations attended in a body. The pall bearers were the official board of the church. The church was crowded with mourners, the entire church, as well as the city, feeling the soreness of the bereavement. A beautiful blanket of flowers in a single piece covered the entire casket. The remains were conveyed to Napanee, Ontario, and laid to rest near the home of her childhood.

She has heard the welcome of the Savior: "Well done, good and faithful servant."

MRS. HORACE TIFFANY.

Mrs. Lucy J. Tiffany, wife of our beloved brother, Rev. Horace Tiffany, was born in Schoharie County, state of New York, July 26, 1833 and died at her home in Cornell, Illinois, June, 12, 1897, aged 63 years, 10 months and 16 days. Her marriage to her now sorrow stricken and lonely husband occurred March 27, 1850.

In May, 1851, at the hour of midnight, seeking salvation through the merits of Christ's atoning blood, he revealed Himself to her as the one mighty to save. Her conversion was attended with power, and others, as well as herself, felt the presence of the Savior. "Heaven came down their souls to greet while glory crowned the mercy seat."

In sister Tiffany's new found joy, assurance and hope, there was not wanting appropriate expressions of gratitude to Him who had called her to divine favor and heavenly fellowship, to separation from the world and to communion of saints. Her first church relations were with the Reformed Lutherans.

In 1855 she came with her husband and two children from New York, and settled in Victoria, Knox County, Ill.

Shortly after their arrival in Victoria, with her husband, she united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, under the pastorage of Rev. D. A. Falkenbury. In the fall of 1860 she commenced the work of an itinerant minister's wife and through more than a third of a century of earnest toil and sacrifice she proved herself faithful to her mission.

Eight children were the fruitage of this union, seven of whom are still living, six sons and one daughter. One, a little daughter, was early called.

"Called early, ere the summer's glowing heat
Should prove unfriendly to so frail a flower."

Mrs. Tiffany had been in poor health for several years. Last December came the first severe attack, from which she rallied in a few weeks, but not to her usual strength and vigor.

About two months before her departure to that heavenly country whose inhabitants are always well and never sick, she had a second severe attack and a few weeks later another, still hopes were entertained for her recovery. But relapse snuffed out the last ray of hope for her recovery. She sank rapidly till the end came. Our sister met death in a spirit of sweet calmness, assurance and hopefulness, never to be forgotten by those who watched by her side when her happy soul stole out and away in the evening time, not saying good-night, but in some brighter clime, said good-morning.

"God calls our loved ones, but we lose not wholly
What he hath given;
They live on earth in thought and deed as truly
As in His heaven."

For many months Sister Tiffany was one of the many shut-ins and her place in the public assembly was vacant, but her home was a sanctuary where God's love and power was revealed. It was a benediction to share in her hospitality and to sit with her in her home made heavenly by the presence of the Savior. She was a friend of Methodist preachers. She appreciated the calls of her pastor and her hearty "God bless you" had its secret of blessing and helpfulness.

Two days before her departure to the skies she called her husband to her bed side and said: "Some months since I found a piece of poetry that seemed so applicable to our case that I cut it out and placed it in your Bible, where you can find it after I am gone."

These are the lines:

One of us, love, must stand
Where the waves are breaking on death's dark strand,
And watch the boat from the silent land
Bear the other away;
Which will it be?

One of us, love, must bear
The heavy burden that none may share,
And stand, all alone and desolate, where
We stood in life's fair day
Joyous and free.

One—either you or I—
Must hear the mandate, "Thy friend must die!"
And bend with agonizing cry
That only God can hear;
Which will it be?

And one must close the eyes
Of the other—the tender loving eyes—
And kiss the dead face that before us lies,
The face so calm, so dear,
Oh, agony!

One, when the other is gone
Will lean on the cold memorial stone,
And brokenly sob, "Alone, alone;"
And the winds will sigh
Over you or me.

And one—grown old and gray,
Perchance, will walk still earth's toilsome way,
And dream of the love that lives for aye,
As the years roll by;
Which will it be?

The largely attended funeral services took place from the Methodist Episcopal Church, Monday, June 14, 1897, and was conducted by her pastor assisted by Rev. W. C. Knapp, of Normal, Illinois. Her remains were laid to rest in the Cornell cemetery, there to wait the resurrection morn.

"Grave, the guardian of our dust,
Grave the treasury of the skies,
Every atom of thy trust
Rests in hope again to rise."

Lay Association.

The Second Annual Meeting of the Lay Association of the Central Illinois Conference met at Canton, Sept. 17. There was a large attendance and the addresses and discussions were of much interest.

The president, Dr. C. H. Long, of Pontiac, presided and made the opening address.

H. Augustine, Normal, read a paper on, "Should the Time-limit be Abolished?"

W. H. Logan, Lay Delegate to the General Conference of 1896, endorsed the speaker's views, and said that three-fourths of the General Conference Lay Delegates opposed the abolition of the time-limit.

A paper on "The Mutual Relation of the Church and Epworth League" was read by J. T. Noftsker, of Rock Island.

Dr. George R. Shafer, of Morton, delivered an address on the "Ideal Christian Layman."

John Bodley, of Lodemia, read a paper on "Local Work of the Official Members."

W. S. Livingston, of Peoria, read a paper on "The Radical Needs of our Church."

J. B. Furby, of Onarga, spoke on the question, "Should the Church Officers be Elected by the Church Membership or by the Official Board?"

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Lay Association of the Central Illinois Conference, that it would be unwise to advise the publication of a paper solely in the interest of the laymen of our Church, believing that more effective results can be accomplished through the regular Church papers.

Resolved, That it will be to the interests of the lay members of the M. E. Church that a national convention be held not earlier than October, 1898.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Lay Association that the time-limit be not removed.

The following officers were elected: President, Dr. C. H. Long, Pontiac; District Vice-presidents—Galesburg, Hon. W. H. McCord, Blandinsville; Kankakee, E. D. Durham, Onarga; Normal, H. M. Greener, Streator; Peoria, O. R. Clough, Peoria; Rock Island, W. F. Crawford; Secretary W. H. Foster, Geneseo; Treasurer, J. S. Thompson, Lacon.

In the evening Mr. Charles E. Piper, of Chicago, delivered an address on "The Laymen and the Church."

PUBLISHER'S NOTE.

We desire to call special attention to our list of advertisers. We select them with great care, admitting none but those we believe to be worthy of your confidence.

Our advertisers are all, or nearly all personally known to the Publisher, and we gladly commend them to the readers of the Conference Minutes.

Read the "ads" carefully, and if in need of anything in their lines give them a call.

Advertisers will find the Conference Minutes one of the best advertising mediums. 3,200 copies published and distributed annually, going into as many homes, and being read by more than that number of persons.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE DEACONESS BOARD.

To the Annual Conference in session at Kankakee, September 21-26, 1898:

The Conference Deaconess Board elected by your honorable body met March 10, 1898, and organized by electing Jos. F. Hazzard, president, and Homer C. Lines, secretary. The chief business that came before us on that occasion was to ascertain the sphere of our work and responsibility, and to duly authorize the establishment of a Conference Deaconess Home in Peoria, the central city of the Conference, indorsing to that end the action of the Deaconess Aid Society and the Methodist Episcopal Church Union of Peoria in placing Miss Ida Phillips in the field as financial agent.

The Board again met September 17th and received reports from the Deaconess Work and Deaconesses laboring in the bounds of Conference. There have been four Deaconesses at work in the Conference, viz: Miss Mary E. Wolfe, visiting Deaconess in Wesley M. E. church, Peoria, for thirty-three weeks, from Nov., 1897, to July, 1898; Miss Lucy A. Hall, visiting Deaconess in Wesley church, for eight weeks, from July 15th to September 15th, 1898; Miss Minna K. Riggs, an evangelistic Deaconess on Peoria district; Miss Florence Smith, visiting Deaconess in the First M. E. church of Pontiac, Ill.

Following is a summary of their reports for the year as made according to the Disciplinary requirements to the Conference Deaconess Board:

Report of Deaconess work in Central Illinois Conference for Conference year 1897-8.

|---|---|
| Total number of calls | 2,867 |
| Number of opportunities for prayer | 230 |

|---|---|
| Number of opportunities for Bible reading | 24 |
| Number of papers and tracts distributed | 769 |
| Number of magazines and books distributed | 64 |
| Number of garments distributed | 363 |
| Number of articles of bedding distributed | 5 |
| Number of baskets of food distributed | 23 |
| Number of tons of coal distributed | 1 |
| Number of fresh air children received | 32 |
| Number of miscellaneous articles distributed | 42 |
| Amount of emergency money spent | $60.97 |
| Persons for whom work was secured | 10 |
| Number of times teaching in S. S. | 77 |
| Number of times teaching in missions | 28 |
| Number of hours teaching in Industrial school | 258 |
| Number of meetings held | 233 |
| Number of children's meeting held | 63 |
| Special meeting attended | 320 |
| Meetings addressed on Deaconess work | 30 |
| Number of hours spent in nursing | 131 |
| Number of hours spent in miscellaneous work | 345 |
| Altar services conducted | 140 |

Of these four Deaconesses Miss Lucy A. Hall and Miss Florence Smith are licensed, and we recommend their continuance in that relation.

Following is the report of amount of money raised for this work so far as we could ascertain:

|---|---|
| Amount raised and expended for Deaconess work for year | $717.06 |
| Amount of emergency money spent | 60.97 |
| (Pledges for Deaconess Home, $760.) Collected on same, cash | 135.84 |
| Total amount of cash received | $913.87 |

We recommend favorable action by the Conference on the following resolutions concerning the establishment of a Conference Deaconess Home in Peoria:

WHEREAS, "No home shall be recognized as a Methodist Episcopal Deaconess Home until it be authorized by the Conference Board, and approved by the Annual Conference," according to paragraph 211 of the Discipline, therefore Resolved, 1st. That Central Illinois Conference approve the work that has been authorized by the Conference Deaconess Board, to establish a Home for the Conference work in Peoria, Ill. 2nd. That the Conference cooperate in the raising of funds to purchase a suitable property for that purpose.

Respectfully submitted,

H. C. SIMS, Secretary.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

WHEREAS the grand scheme of preparation for the universal spread of the Gospel as conducted by the hand of the all-controlling Providence, is indicated by the extensive circulation of the Bible throughout the world, and

WHEREAS, Co-operation is the secret of the wonderful achievements of this, the greatest of the centuries, men co-operating with God and with one another; it is this co-operation that has established the churches themselves; it has combined petty and antagonistic states into prosperous empires; co-operation has brought the nations into one family; by this, great enterprises, such as the public school system, the post-office and international commerce, are made possible, therefore

Resolved, As a conference, we heartily co-operate in the stupendous enterprise of supplying the word of God to the thousand million heathens in several hundred languages and dialects; a work that can only be done by the generous co-operation of all the great protestant Churches whose motto is: "The word of God is the hope of the world."

The missionaries who labor among hundreds of millions whose income is but five or ten cents per day, must be able to obtain the word of God for these at less than actual cost of publication. It is by the contributions of our Annual Conferences and other Churches that an inexpensive Bible can be placed in the hands of the heathen and home of the Christian convert. Needy fields in the providence of God are constantly being opened to the beneficent work of the Bible Society. The Spanish-American war has opened the gateway to ten million people in Spanish West India and the Philippine Islands; these open doors are God's beckoning hand bidding us come over and help.

To the ministers and laymen within the Central Illinois Conference whose intelligent, Christ-like and world-wide sympathies include the whole world, your committee ask that you will lead our beloved people to larger benevolence in this all-important work.

H. B. WARD, Secretary. D. MCLEISH, Chairman.

BOOK ACCOUNTS.

Your Committee on Book Accounts would most respectfully submit the following report:

WHEREAS, the General Book Committee has made such a generous appropriation to the superannuated claimant fund of our Conference of $1,125.00, therefore,

Resolved, That all the members of the Conference who have failed to settle with the Book Concern within two years be reported to the Conference together with the amount of their indebtedness, on the last day of the session of the Conference,

Resolved, That ten per cent be deducted from the amount paid to superannuated claimants, who are indebted to the Book Concern, and said amount applied on their indebtedness until such indebtedness is all paid.

D. B. JOHNSON, Secretary, M. H. HEAD, Chairman,

CHURCH EXTENSION.

Your committee on Church Extension desires to call the attention of the Conference to the following facts concerning the work of the Board of Church Extension:

1. From 1866 to Sept. 1, 1898, the Board collected and disbursed $6,124,000.

2. It has a permanent loan fund of $1,036,000, and churches borrowing have returned $1,151,000, giving for use by loans $2,187,000.

3. The General Fund derived chiefly from collections, personal gifts for Frontier churches, $250 each, and Mountain Fund specials of $100 each, all for use by donations to churches, has aggregated $3,936,000. With this the Board has aided 10,460 churches—more than one-third of all our churches.

4. Our Conference has raised from the beginning (Nov. 1866) to Nov. 1, 1897, $50,739,48. The collections this year amount to $1,671.00, making a total of $52,410.48.

5. Eighty churches within our bounds have received aid up to Nov. 1, 1897, by donations of $17,114,15, and by loans of $11,000.

6. The General Committee asks our Conference to raise this year $5,000, and our needy churches may on approved application receive $500.

7. The amount of aid granted must depend upon the amount of collections taken, and cannot exceed the proportion above indicated.

We recommend the following for adoption:

Resolved, 1. We heartily congratulate the Board of Church Extension and the Church-at-large on the remarkable success of this work, through a period of thirty-two years.

2. That our country, being new, with rapidly increasing population and new territorial additions, will continue to need Church Extension, in the future as in the past, and that our Church, by fostering and strengthening, this work will increase its own power to do the larger work now thrown upon it.

3. That we, as a Conference, will not be content with anything less than a full response to the call of the General Committee for our proper share in Church Extension, until everywhere, in communities now destitute, the people shall have opportunity to "enter His courts with praise."

4. That we recommend the publications, "Christianity in Earnest" and "Glad Tidings" as sources of information on this subject.

5. As Church Architecture has been greatly improved under the advice and direction of the Board, we recommend to all who contemplate building, the excellent catalogue and designs furnished by the Board.

6. We recommend Dr. Kynett's book, "The Religion of the Republic," for information on loans and legal forms.

7. That our Presiding Elders be requested to apportion, with care, the full amount asked for Church Extension, to the several districts and pastoral charges for collection; and that we will present this cause in all our churches and endeavor to secure, at least, the amount asked in accordance with the plan of our Discipline.

R. T. BALLEW, Chairman.

D. G. MURRAY, Secretary.

CONFERENCE RELATIONS.

Having carefully considered the request of the Des Moines Conference that this Conference restore the Parchments of Cyrus E. Harvey, we would respectfully recommend that the request be granted. That part of the request asking that he be granted a location cannot be considered, as Cyrus E. Harvey is not a member of this Conference.

J. S. CUMMING, Chairman.

R. CREWES, Secretary.

DOMESTIC MISSIONS.

WHEREAS, The gospel plan is to preach the word to every creature, whether rich or poor. And,

WHEREAS, The population of our large cities is rapidly increasing. And,

WHEREAS, It is the duty of the Church to evangelize this ever increasing population, your committee recommend the continuance of this society with the urgent request that a special collection be taken by each pastor of one dollar for each twenty dollars of their missionary apportionment. The collection to be taken as early in the year as practicable and the same to be forwarded to the treasurer of the Society. We recommend the election of the following officers and managers for the ensuing year:

President, F. W. Merrell; Vice President, C. O. McCulloch; Treasurer, T. W. McVety.

MANAGERS—A. K. Tullis, M. V. B. White, G. C. Shaffer, M. M. McCreight, Dr. C. H. Long, J. H. Bunn, John Prickett, J. W. Morgan, John F. Bliss.

G. L. TAYLOR, Secretary. T. W. MCVETY, Chairman.

HEDDING COLLEGE.

Another year of faithful work and uncompromising devotion and sacrifice has added one more year of success to Hedding College.

The number of students enrolled could not insure great financial success, but the work of the year has been as grandly done as it could have been if backed by full compensation.

We believe God will reward the heroic and constant devotion to this worthy cause.

The position taken and sustained with the students, and the Godly course pursued are highly commendable.

Resolved, that we do hereby express our high appreciation of the untiring devotion, spotless reputation and scholarly attainments which have ever borne their fruit as seen in the 15 years which Rev. J. G. Evans, D. D., has given to this institution. And in his retiring from this most responsible position we will pray that wherever he may go Heaven's richest blessing may accompany him and bless and restore his afflicted companion.

We heartily endorse the following resolutions adopted by the board of trustees at their last annual meeting:

"WHEREAS, the Rev. J. G. Evans, D. D., LL. D., after nine years' service as president of Hedding College, has seen fit to resign, therefore,

Resolved, that we hereby express our hearty appreciation of the energy and ability with which he has discharged the duties of his office and the great personal sacrifice he has made for the good of the institution.

Resolved, that in view of the critical condition of Hedding College at the beginning of the present administration, the wise, prudent and self-sacrificing policy which has for these years conducted the institution without incurring a dollar of indebtedness, while at the same time creating an endowment fund of over fifty thousand dollars, making possible the outlook before us to-day—in view of these and other facts, we believe Dr. Evans deserves the credit of doing a work for our college which has not been surpassed nor even equalled by any other person, and should receive the lasting gratitude of every friend of this honored school of our Church."

We do believe that the time has come when this whole Conference should recognize the fact that Hedding is the only college entirely our own and every preacher and every layman should do his best to help in securing such endowment as it most certainly deserves. And we pledge ourselves to act well our part in trying to secure in all parts of this Conference the patronage of Methodist families and the contributions of the people to more fully meet the expenses of this our Conference College.

It is with truest expressions of appreciation that we commend the wisdom of the board in securing the services of Rev. H. D. Clark, D. D., as president of Hedding College for the ensuing year, and we are very sure that this great trust committed to him is most secure, and his very best will be done that our large expectations may be realized. We pledge to him our hearty support.

We are much encouraged that the ncrease in the collegiate department is fully fifty per cent. So the skies will brighten as the times improve and we expect a triumph for this college.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. H. D. Clark, D. D., Ph. D., as President.

We join the President in recommending that the Conference authorize the endowment of a Conference chair, through voluntary gifts from the members of the Conference, and the establishing of a post-graduate and non-resident course, properly protected, of thorough and high grade, in harmony with the rules adopted by the College Presidents Association.

We recommend as trustees for three years—Rev. G. J. Luckey, Rev. W. H. Witter, Rev. Thos. Doney, Rev. N. G. Lyons, Thos. Newell, J. B. Smith, R. E. Ward and John Campbell.

We recommend as Conference visitors—L. F. Cullom, T. A. Beale, T. W. McVety, C. O. McCulloch, C. T. Cady, D. S. McCown, H. K. Metcalf.

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

The forty-fifth year of this institution under the acting president, R. C. Graham, closed with the following summary of attendance: College of Letters, 217; of Laws, 59; Music, 530; Arts, 58; Oratory, 25, and non-rsesident department, 440; making a total, after deducting the number of students counted in two departments, of over 1,100.

Commencement Day, Thursday June 16th, was a notable event in the institution's history. Besides the regular exercises of such an occasion, and an inspiring address by Bishop J. C. Hartzell, an alumnus of the university, it was the occasion of the inauguration of the new president, Rev. Edgar M. Smith, A. M., D. D.

Dr. E. M. Smith comes to us from the Vermont Conference. He graduated from the Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., in 1871, and secured his A. M. degree from his Alma Mater, and after having spent a few years in the pastorate, in the Providence Conference, he has been engaged in educational work for the past eighteen years.

His reception by those interested in the institution and the citizens of Bloomington, has been enthusiastic and sincere. The confidence inspired by the successes of the president in other fields, is one of the present hopeful features.

The enrollment this year shows an encouraging increase in the number of students, while the well ordered plans for an aggressive future find a gratifying response in the student life of the school.

One feature of the new order of things is the organization of a Board of Finance, which shall give special attention to this branch of the University's interests. This board is composed of practical business men, whose estimate of values and whose judgment of opportunities are alike reliable.

From the first report of the Board of Finance we find the following financial condition:

|---|---|
| Total valuation of school property | $199,800.00 |
| Productive endowments | 50,182.71 |

|---|---|
| Non-productive endowments | 66,242.12 |
| Total endowments | 116,424 83 |
| Other property held by the Institution | 12,950.00 |
| Total assets | 329,174.83 |
| Total liabilities | 36,296.70 |
| Excess of assets over liabilities | 292,878.04 |
| The total annual income from tuition and property is shown to be | 14.605.00 |

This exhibit shows the University to have large and valuable property, worth at a conservative estimate above all liabilities, $292,000.

In the opinion of the Board of Finance the pressing needs of the University are (a) $30,000 to apply on debt; (b) two new buildings to facilitate the work of students; (c) one hundred thousand dollars more endowment.

These needs are earnestly urged upon the friends and patrons of the University believing that the usefulness and opportunities of the University are sufficient guarantees to justify the co-operation which shall give it a significant future.

The position of this school, at Bloomington, in the midst of an extended and wealthy patronizing territory, its grand service to the Church in all the years of its history, and the opportunities which still open to its future, are conditions which inspire confidence and appeal for our appreciation, encouragement and support.

We recommend as trustees for three years, Rev. M. V. Crumbaker, Rev. G. R. Palmer, J. S. Thompson, J. H. Bunn; for two years, R. G. Jordon; for one year, Rev. R. Crewes.

We recommend as conference visitors, J. W. Frizzelle, Joe Bell, J. H. Ryan, J. S. Cumming, J. H. Scott, R. B. Williams.

GRAND PRAIRIE SEMINARY.

We report the Conference Seminary in good condition, and call attention to the following particulars:

STUDENTS.—The attendance last year was 285, which was an advance of 35. The opening of the fall term is about as last year. There is a gradual improvement in the average preparation of entering students, and an excellent school spirit among the present body of students.

FACULTY.—The faculty numbers eleven. We are convinced that the faculty is finely constituted. The new President, Rev. F. C. Demorest, A. B., is an alumnus of the Northwestern University of the class of 1890; has been tutor in the same institution, head master of a preparatory school in Chicago; pastor two years; and for the past three years Professor of Latin in Iowa Wesleyan University and Principal of the Preparatory School of the same institution. Principal Fisk of Northwestern and President Stafford of Iowa Wesleyan give every assurance concerning Professor Demorest's scholarship, teaching ability and executive ability. He has entered on his work in a way as to give entire confidence. We approve and welcome his transfer to this Conference.

The Preceptress, Miss Bertha L. Reed, A. B., daughter of Dr. Horace Reed, of Illinois Conference, is a graduate of Illinois Female College and DePauw University. We have many reasons to believe that the choice is a happy one.

We call attention to the moderate cost of living, the wholesome moral atmosphere of the town, the emphasis given to chapel services and religious life, the careful system of keeping track of pupils, the good condition of grounds and buildings, the growing library, the chaste and refined influence of teachers and Christian students.

ACCREDIT. The Conference Seminary meets the requirements of the University Senate, and has formed accredit with Northwestern, Illinois Wesleyan and DePauw University and the University of Illinois.

We recommend the passage of the following resolutions:

1. We express our sense of the great importance and usefulness of Seminaries in our system of schools.

2. We earnestly favor the creation of an ample endowment for Grand Prairie Seminary. The School should speedily secure $50,000 additional endowment.

3. That we commend this school to those seeking college preparation and systematic training under favorable conditions.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. F. C. Demorest as president and John Rogers, J. A. Riason, Thomas Doney, J. E. Mercer, W. R. Watson, R. B. Seaman as Conference visitors.

WHEREAS, Dr. Samuel Van Pelt has been the president of Grand Prairie Seminary during the past seven and one-half years and has during that time done faithful and excellent work in building up the interests of the institution, and has seen fit to resign his position; therefore,

Resolved, That we appreciate his sacrifices and toils in the work of education and pray for his success in the pastorate to which he now returns.

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY.

We are pleased to learn of the continued prosperity of this great institution, whose attendance last year in all departments was 2,942. "Fisk Hall," to be the home of the Academy, is nearing completion. All departments are thoroughly equipped and the University with its post-graduate work in the various professions, furnishes the best of facilities for both the undergraduate and the professional student. We recommend the appointment of F. W. Merrell as trustee.

AMERICAN UNIVERSITY.

We heartily recommend the enterprise of building up at Washington, D. C., under the leadership of Bishop John F. Hurst, a great post-graduate university with the best possible facilities for professional work and original investigation. We commend this worthy undertaking to the wealthy men and women of our church, and trust that the amount required by the General Conference as a condition of opening the American University may soon be realized.

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARIES.

We rejoice in the prosperity of our theological schools. Garrett Biblical Institute, as our home theological school, merits our special care and commendation. The scholarly attainments, broad culture and theological thoroughness of its president, Rev. C. J. Little, D. D., LL. D., and the competency of his associates in the board of instruction warrant confidence in the efficiency of that institution. Drew Theological Seminary, the Iliff School of Theology and the Boston Theological Seminary are all commended to young men preparing for the ministry. However, we strongly urge all candidates for the ministry to secure a liberal education in one of our literary institutions before entering a school of theology, and if only one course can be taken let that be the college course. We recommend as Conference visitors to Garrett Biblical Institute J. G. Evans, D. D., and Samuel VanPelt, D. D.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We endorse and reaffirm the action of our Conference one year ago, as follows:

We urge every Sunday School to observe Children's Day and take the special collection for this fund. We are greatly pleased to note the success of the movement known as the "University Senate" inaugurated by Dr. Payne, to bring all the colleges of the Church into a federation which shall be under the close fostering care of the Church. We are glad to learn that nearly all the colleges have accepted the requirements to enter this senate. The effect of this connectional supervision cannot fail to give our colleges a better standing among the higher institutions of our country and to secure a larger attendance of students.

WHEREAS, The General Conference has provided an Annual Educational Collection to be taken in each charge, apart from Children's Day collection, and

WHEREAS, The General Conference has authorized each Annual Conference to devote this collection to schools within its bounds;

Resolved, 1. That we devote the Educational Collection to the endowment of our Conference Schools.

Resolved, 2. That we apportion $2,000 for the cause of education, to be raised by collection in the charges, and that we direct the Presiding Elders to apportion this amount among the several charges after the manner of other apportionments.

Resolved, 3. That the distribution among the Conference schools be according to the rule of last year.

Resolved, 4. That it is the sense of this Conference that the pastors should not report "all collections taken" unless the general educational collection has been taken and duly reported to the Conference treasurer.

Resolved, 5. That we request the several institutions to include in their annual reports to the Conference definite statements on the following subjects: (a)—The probable value of buildings and grounds. (b)—The several funds and endowments, their investment and proceeds. (c)—Current income from tuition and other sources. (d)—Current expenses.

W. J. MINIUM, Secretary. R. A. BROWN, Chairman.

EPISCOPAL FUND.

WHEREAS, The receipts for the Episcopal Fund for the last fiscal year, ending September, '97, were $86,119.98, while the expenditures were $93,700.50, thus showing an actual deficit for the year of $758.52.

WHEREAS, For the first time in the history of this Fund the treasurers came to the end of the year with a treasury overdrawn, and with no reserve from any source with which to meet the overdraft.

WHEREAS, Our part in this deficit was $827.00 out of $2,080.00 apportioned to us, be it

Resolved, That hereafter each pastor, while making his annual financial report on the Conference floor be required to state whether he has raised his Episcopal Fund to "pro rata" claim with that of Pastor and Presiding Elder, according to the plan of the Discipline.

E. MCOMBER, Secretary. J. W. DENNING, Chairman.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Regarding the present status of the Epworth League as indicating a future of enlarged usefulness, as well as an achievement worthy of the appreciation of the Church, we most heartily endorse every legitimate method for its progress.

We recommend the holding of district, and especially sub-district Epworth League conventions, and wherever possible the conducting of training schools.

We heartily endorse the reading course, consisting of the following books, "The Makers of Methodism," "The Founding of a New World," "Every Day Science," and "The Star in the West." We also endorse the Epworth Herald and the League at Work Series.

We also recommend the observance of Anniversary Day and College Day.

We recommend that our young people be trained to give to the benevolences of our Church as Methodists rather than Epworthians.

We recommend that our chapters be developed on all lines of department work, especially that of the Spiritual and Mercy and Help departments.

Resolved, That while the Junior League, in some sections of our Conference, may be "ill-used and much abused," we still recognize in it an essential organization of the Methodist church for the development of the young life in the vital piety and the usage of Methodism, and that the reports sustain the fact that constant advancement is being made within the bounds of the Conference.

We recommend that each district of the Conference be assessed the sum of two dollars for Conference expenses, and forwarded to the Conference treasurer.

We recommend as Conference officers the following named persons: President, S. P. Archer; Secretary, J. H. Batten; Junior League Superintendent, D. F. Wilson; Treasurer, J. A. Alford; Conference Board of Control, the district presidents. J. A. ALFORD, Chairman.

JOHN MAY, Secretary.

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION.

Dear brethren of the Central Illinois Conference, your committee on Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education respectfully submit the following report:

1st, In view of the excellent work of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society, both past and present, in the salvation and education of the negro and the needy whites in our southern states; and 2nd, in full appreciation of the far-reaching opportunities for greater work in the same lines afforded by the newly acquired possessions of the United States in regions where the negro population is far in excess of that in our own land; and 3d, recognizing the fact that these fields cannot be occupied nor the work of the Society successfully prosecuted without larger contributions of money, and 4th, inasmuch as the collections of the Central Illinois Conference, for this cause, have been pitifully short of the amounts apportioned to the Conference and needed by the Society, therefore be it

Resolved, 1st. That we will make a vigorous effort to reach, on each and every charge, the amount apportioned to the charge by the Presiding Elders.

Resolved, 2d. That we request the Presiding Elders to apportion to the various charges, for the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society, ten per cent. of the amounts apportioned for the cause of Missions.

Resolved, 3d. That the secretary of this Conference be instructed to inform the secretary of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society of this action, and respectfully ask the Society to change the apportionment to this Conference, in accord with the above resolution.

Resolved, 4th. That we heartily endorse the effort of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society to occupy the Cuban and Porto Rican fields and such other lands as now open, through the providence of God, for the legitimate work of said Society.

Resolved, 5th. That we commend and endorse the "Christian Educator," as a helpful organ for the spread of the Gospel and for the instruction of Methodist people along benevolent lines.

F. J. GIDDINGS, Secretary. E. S. WILSON, Chaiman.

POST OFFICES.

Your committee has completed the work assigned to it and also recommends the continued use of the blanks which we find very satisfactory.

J. B. BARTLE, Secretary. A. W. LOWTHER, Chairman.

SANCTITY OF THE SABBATH.

Your committee on the Sanctity of the Sabbath would most humbly submit the following report, viz:

WHEREAS, The Lord Almighty, in the beginning, instituted the Sabbath and made it sacred, by resting thereon from the work of creation, and in the decalogue plainly commanded, "Remember the sabbath day to keep it holy," and clearly forbids to do any ordinary work on that day; and through his prophet teaches that it dishonors him to take our pleasure on his holy day, not calling it the delight of the Lord; and Christ himself said, "The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath, the Son of man is Lord also of the Sabbath," therefore

Resolved, 1. That, as a body of Christian ministers, we lift up the voice like a trumpet against the many evils that have been and are being [illegible] ed upon us by the desecration of the sabbath.

2. That we condemn from the pulpit and in private, by example and precept, in the strongest terms, the practices of the people in doing ordinary work, buying and selling, and keeping open places of business on the sabbath day.

3. That we protest most earnestly against the godless practice of the corporations, that compel their employes to carry on their business, on the sacred day, thereby blunting their moral sensibilities, and taking away their religious liberties, by denying them the privileges of the sanctuary.

4. That we pledge ourselves to wage an uncompromising warfare against all kinds of pleasure-taking upon the sabbath, such as social visiting, picnics, fishing parties, games of every description, and especially boat and railroad excursions; which deplete the attendance upon our churches, and are debauching and demoralizing the American people and are undermining our sacred institutions.

5. That we deem the Sunday newspaper a gross abuse of the freedom of the press. That it is one of the surest and most subtle ways the devil has of subverting the power of God in the soul, and driving away the sweet and heavenly influences that a proper observance of the Lord's day naturally brings. That it not only leads to non-attendance at the church services, but also robs its thousands of the precious hours that ought to be spent in meditation and communion with God, and in the study of his word.

6. That we pledge our hearty support to the Sunday League of America, and every other organization that has for its aim the education of public sentiment in favor of sabbath observance.

J. A. SMITH, Secretary. C. W. CORDES, Chairman.

STATE OF THE CHURCH.

In view of the gracious providence of God which has guided and guarded the Church during the past year, giving it victories and extended dominion, throughout the earth, there is occasion for sincere gratitude and praise. Never was the image of the angel flying in the midst of heaven cleaving the air with its mighty wings, bearing the everlasting gospel to every kindred, tongue and people, more clearly defined than now. In this great work our Methodism has gladly and heroically shared. She has ever felt like a hurricane at her back the ringing "Go" of the Savior. Our doctrines have never needed to be modified and reviewed. Our ministers still preach and our people still gladly receive the glorious truth that all men everywhere, without respect of persons may be saved, not at some indefinable time in the future we know not when, but now, and may have the witness of God's spirit to the fact. Let us ever proclaim a gospel which delivers from condemnation and saves from sin and prepares for glory.

The position of our Church with reference to the licensed saloon is one of actual, determined and uncompromising hostility. Drunkenness as a vicious and inexcusable selfishness, hateful to man, abhorred of God, destructive of virtue, ruinous to happiness is created and fostered by the saloon, which, within itself has all the sin and misery and infamy of a crime, and should be so regarded by legislators, judges, jurors and the common people.

We rejoice in the wholesome growth of the Epworth League. We regard it as a strong arm of the Church, which has already brought and will yet bring most blessed results to the world. We recommend that the Church utilize and encourage every effort of our young people in the upbuilding of our beloved Methodism and the ultimate triumphs of the gospel.

Prominently among the forces that introduce and conserve all the interests of the working classes so largely committed to the care of the Church is found in the youngest child of Methodism—the Deaconess. The severe conditions which are seen in the unchurched masses in our cities, we believe to be fully met in the earnestness, soulful service of our sisters in hospital and field. We beg that our churches may the more intelligently study the need of all such and place themselves in attitude to accept all forward movements with earnestness and devotion worthy of our beloved Methodism.

That the Church may the more fully and sympathetically meet the financial demands which are necessary to carry on our regular and special work, we recommend the organization of tithing bands, in all our churches, and a closer study of the Bible methods of systematic giving.

C. W. AYLING, Secretary. O. M. DUNLEVY, Chairman.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND TRACTS.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

We note the rapid growth of our Sunday school work, embracing as it does 31,228 schools with 349,085 officers and teachers and 2,644,215 scholars. The number of conversions reported in the schools for 1897 was 127,286. The Sunday School Union has aided the past year 3,600 schools. It has no other resource than that of contributions and it asks from each charge a sum of five cents from each member as a minimum contribution.

TRACTS.

We believe the tract to be an evangelizing instrumentality and recommend that the apportionment assigned the Conference of $755.00 be approved and appropriated by the presiding elders among the charges and that it be raisedduring the coming year. M. L. MILLER, Chairman.

W. F. JAMESON, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE.

WHEREAS, The license system, adopted by our government, instead of being a "Temperance Measure," sanctions and perpetuates drunkard making, therefore

Resolved, That we recognize total prohibition as the only practical means of abolishing the liquor evil, and the ballot as the chief agency to secure freedom from this curse, and that in our individual exercise of the right of the election franchise, we will put our convictions, as above expressed, into effect; and that we will do all in our power, consistent with our calling as ministers and profession as Christians, to convince men that they are in duty bound to withhold their ballot from the support of any candidate who refuses to put himself on record as openly opposed to the liquor traffic.

Resolved, That the "Army Canteen," which is obviously detrimental to military discipline and efficiency, placing temptation in the way of young men who have been enlisted to protect our country, or wage war in the interest of humanity and liberty, be condemned by the Church as a greater foe to humanity than Spanish tryanny.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the action of our General Conference on the subject of "Temperance" and will faithfully support such action in our lives and practices.

Resolved, That we repudiate the insinuations and declarations that the Church gives encouragement to any phase of the liquor traffic; and that we recognize the Methodist Episcopal Church as being the oldest temperance society upon the American continent, and point with pride to her record in the past, and express confidence as to her future action on this subject.

Resolved, That we are not indifferent in our support of organizations, which have directly in view the production of the highest type of "Christian Citizenship;" and that the American Anti-Saloon League has the hearty approval and co-operation of the Church, and we recommend the appointment of Joe Bell and H. D. Clark as delegates and John Small and T. J. Wood as alternates to the National Anti-Saloon convention to be held at Cleveland, Ohio, Dec. 6th to 8th, 1898.

Respectfully submitted.

R. D. RUSSELL, Secretary. JOHN SMALL, Chairman.

USE OF TOBACCO.

WHEREAS, The use of tobacco is a very filthy habit, being injurious to any and all who use it;

WHEREAS, Its use is obnoxious to Christian principles, out of harmony with the instructions of the Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and also contrary to the teachings of the Holy Scriptures;

WHEREAS, A great many of the boys and young men of our different charges are early contracting the very filthy habits of chewing and smoking tobacco, and especially the smoking of cigarettes, thereby spending their money foolishly and injuring themselves for greater usefulness,

Resolved, That we, as ministers of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, will wholly abstain from the use of tobacco in any form, and will preach and work against it to the extent of our ability and thereby do what we can against the use of it.

S. E. STEEL, Chairman.

N. D. HANES, Secretary.

WESLEY HOSPITAL.

During the past ten months there have been treated in the hospital 361 patients, of whom 143 have received free service in whole or in part.

The current expenses of the hospital have been met and the debt upon the building nearly extinguished.

This Conference stands pledged to the payment of $600 annually for the support of two beds. The receipts last year for this purpose were $261.00. The free service rendered to patients from within the bounds of the Conference for the same period amounted, including medical and surgical assistance, to $605.50.

The hospital has been busy and prosperous, but is greatly in need of a new building and of larger funds and endowment to enable it to meet the calls upon it. We recommend:

First, That the $600 pledged by the Cenference be apportioned to the various charges by the Presiding Elders.

Second, That moneys collected be sent on immediately to the hospital.

Third, That the column in the Minutes for the report of the collections for the hospital be continued.

Fourth, That our people be informed of our relation to the hospital, and that donations and requests be encouraged.

Those desiring information regarding hospital service should address the Superintendent, J. L. Harvey, corner Twenty-fifth and Dearborn Sts., Chicago, Ill.

A. K. TULLIS, Chairman.

A. M. STOCKING, Secretary.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Your committee in behalf of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society submits the following report:

1. We recognize that there is a large place for this organization. The social conditions are such in many foreign fields that women cannot be reached by men. In such fields God has thrown wide open the door to consecrated women.

2. We call attention to the great prosperity that has attended our Conference Society this year. The organization now has one hundred and nineteen auxiliaries, sixteen young ladies' societies, and thirty-seven children's bands. This is a gain for the year of nineteen auxiliaries, two young ladies' societies, and fourteen children's bands. The present membership within the bounds of the Conference numbers 3,980. During the year the society has contributed about $6,500.

3. We appreciate the work done by this organization in cultivating systematic giving. By precept and example not a few of our sisters stimulate benevolence in every phase of church life.

4. The educative influence of the auxiliaries upon the women themselves is worthy of commendation. She who plans and talks for her sex beyond the sea gains confidence and power for work in her own home church.

5. We recommend that pastors encourage our sisters by granting them hearty co-operation.

I. E. DAVID, Secretary.

S. P. JAMES. Chairman.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Your committee begs leave to submit the following:

WHEREAS, The home is the fountain head of all true citizenship and government; and,

WHEREAS, A Home Missionary Society has been organized for the uplift and betterment of our home land; and,

WHEREAS, This society has grown from a weak trembling band to a magnificent army of consecrated women doing a marvellous work; and,

WHEREAS, Their work not only uplifts the women in the home but also sheds its beneficent influence abroad in the Church and government, and;

WHEREAS, The necessity and importance of such a work places upon the ministry the grave responsibility of seeking a place for it in all our charges: therefore,

Resolved, That we recommend a more aggressive campaign and urge our pastors to encourage and promote the organization of auxiliaries upon each charge; and

Resolved, That we recommend the holding of an anniversary of this society at the next session of our annual Conference in order that we may learn of its advancement and assist in leading on to victory.

CHURCH INSURANCE.

For over a quarter of a century the Church has been trying to agree upon a plan for insuring its own property. The rates of stock companies have been so difficult to meet that many of our churches have not been insured; and the rest have been obliged to contribute large sums to the profit account of the companies.

While our property as a class is the most profitable to insurance companies, we have been obliged to pay high rates, or disregard a sacred obligation. We congratulate the Church upon the fact that the last General Conference solved this problem and made provision for carrying at cost insurance on our churches, schools, parsonages and the property of our ministers, by appointing a Board of Insurance with instructions to organize a Mutual Fire Insurance Company along lines already demonstrated as practicable by the company organized in 1891 under direction of the West Wisconsin Conference.

We desire to express our appreciation of the fact that the Board of Insurance has selected Illinois as the State in which to incorporate this company. We cordially approve of the manner in which our Presiding Elders have co-operated with the Board of Insurance and urge upon all the importance of promptly sending in applications to the office at 57 Washington street, so that the other States as well as ours may soon enjoy the full benefits of this organization.

Arrangements have been made with stock companies for carrying the business until the company is fully organized, upon more favorable terms than can be obtained through local agents. If already insured, churches and ministers should make their applications read "to take effect when organized," and our company will furnish insurance to the expiration of the old policy without extra charge; there should therefore be no delay about filing applications with the Manager for every church and parsonage.

COMMITTEE OF INQUIRY.

KANKAKEE, ILL., September 22, 1898.

To the Bishop and Members of the Central Illinois Conference, M. E. Church:

Your Committee appointed to inquire into the matter of the reception of F. H. Cumming into membership in the Methodist Episcopal Church at Normal by the pastor, Rev. A. K. Tullis, after careful and prayerful investigation beg leave to submit the following report:

We find that at some time in the Spring of 1898 Rev. A. K. Tullis did receive the said F. H. Cumming on probation into the Normal Methodist Episcopal Church privately in the pastor's study at Normal.

We further find that on the 14th day of September, 1898, Rev. A. K. Tullis received the said F. H. Cumming by correspondence into full membership in the Normal Methodist Episcopal Church while he, the Rev. A. K. Tullis, was in Normal and F. H. Cumming was in Pontiac.

All of said transactions in the judgment of your Committee being in violation of paragraph 234 of the Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and also in violation of the ritual provided for such services in the Discipline, paragraphs 444, 445; and also according to paragraph 24, Section 4 of the Appendix of the Discipline, the membership of the said F. H. Cumming is null and void.

Respectfully submitted,

C. O. MCCULLOCH, Chairman,
J. A. RIASON,
R. E. BUCKEY,
R. CREWES,

IV. Proposition.

EQUAL LAY REPRESENTATION.

PROPOSITION FOR CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGE TO BE SUBMITTED TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCES IN 1898-99.

The Rock River Conference, at its fifty-eigth annual session held in Chicago, Illinois, beginning October 6, 1897, requests the Bishops to submit to the several Annual Conferences, at the first regular session of each Conference held after January 1, 1898, the following proposition to amend the Discipline, to-wit:

FIRST. Amend ¶ 60 of the Book of Discipline by striking out all the words after "The Lay Delegates shall consist of" and inserting the words "one Layman for each Annual Conference, except such Conferences as have more than one Ministerial Delegate, which Conferences shall each be entitled to as many Lay Delegates as Ministerial Delegates;" so that ¶ 60 as amended shall read:

"¶ 60. The Lay Delegates shall consist of one Layman for each Annual Conference, except such Conferences as have more than one Ministerial Delegate, which Conferences shall each be entitled to as many Lay Delegates as Ministerial Delegates."

SECOND. Amend Section 2 of ¶ 67 of the Book of Discipline by striking out the words "nor of more than two Lay Delegates for an Annual Conference" and inserting the words "nor of more Lay Delegates from any Annual Conference than there are Ministerial Delegates from such Annual Conference;" so that the Section as amended shall read:

"Section 2. The General Conference shall not allow of more than one Ministerial Representative for every fourteen members of an Annual Conference; nor of a less number than one for every forty-five; nor of more Lay Delegates from any Annual Conference than there are Ministerial Delegates from such Annual Conference: provided, nevertheless, that when there shall be in any Annual Conference a fraction of two-thirds the number which shall be fixed for the ratio of representation, such Annual Conference shall be entitled to an individual delegate for such fraction; provided, also, that no Conference shall be denied the privilege of one Ministerial and of one Lay Delegate."

The above Proposition was adopted on October 12, 1897, by a unanimous vote of the members present, of Rock River Conference, in annual session assembled, in Chicago, Ill., October 6-13, 1897.

Attest: S. M. MERRILL,
President.

J. W. RICHARDS,
Secretary.

CENTRAL ILLINOIS CONFERENCE, September 24, 1898.

Affirmative votes on above Proposition, 156.

Negative votes on above Proposition, 9.

Attest:

V. Memorial to General Conference.

TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH TO BE HELD IN MAY, 1900.

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN:

The Central Illinois Conference would respectfully petition your honorable body to revise the judicial code of the Methodist Episcopal Church, as regards the trial of a member of an Annual Conference, so as to do away with the present system of investigation and suspension, and the trial of a minister at the session of an Annual Conference.

We recommend the adoption of the following provisions and such changes and omissions as may be necessary for harmony:

CHAPTER II.

TRIAL OF A MEMBER OF CONFERENCE.

¶ 222. When a member of an Annual Conference is under report of being guilty of some crime expressly forbidden in the Word of God, sufficient to exclude a person from the kingdom of grace and glory:

§ 1. If no complaints signed by a member of the Church be presented, let the Presiding Elder appoint three members of the Conference who shall constitute a committee of inquiry to investigate the rumors, and if in their judgment the facts warrant the presentation of charges, they shall formulate the same and place them in the hands of the Presiding Elder.

§ 2. When charges and specifications in due form, signed by a member of the Church, or presented by a committee of inquiry, shall be placed in the hands of the Presiding Elder, he shall transmit the same to the Bishop in charge, who shall summon a committee of trial to consist of not less than nine nor more than fifteen members of the Conference, and he shall give both the prosecution and defense due notice of the time and place of trial. If the Bishop be unable to attend and preside in person he shall appoint a President of the trial who shall proceed as above directed. The President of the trial shall appoint a Secretary who shall keep a correct record of all proceedings, which record, signed by the President and Secretary, shall be transmitted to the Secretary of the Annual Conference who shall transmit the same to the President of the Appellate Court in case of an appeal.

§ 3. The accused may, for cause, object to members called to sit on the committee, but in no case shall the trial proceed with less than nine members.

§ 4. It shall require a two-thirds vote to convict the accused, but after conviction a majority may determine the penalty.

§ 5. The committee may not find a crime of higher grade than that which is charged in the complaint, but may upon the evidence find a less offense than charged and fix an appropriate penalty, provided the offense be sufficiently grave to come under the charge of immorality; otherwise the case must be brought under one of the succeeding paragraphs.

§ 6. Upon conviction the committee shall determine the penalty, which may consist of definite suspension from the ministry, expulsion from the ministry, or expulsion from the Church.

§ 7. If the accused be a Presiding Elder, three of the senior ministers of the District shall inquire into the character of the report, and if they judge it necessary they shall formulate charges and specifications and place them in the hands of the Bishop, who shall proceed as above provided.

§ 8. If complaints be presented at the session of an Annual Conference, the character of the accused may be passed subject to trial on the charges preferred, but if the offense charged be a grave one the Conference may arrest the character of the accused and leave him without an appointment until the case can be determined as herein provided.

§ 9. After a minister shall have been regularly tried and expelled from the Church, he shall have no privileges of Society or Sacraments in our Church without contrition, reformation and confession, satisfactory to the Conference from which he was expelled. Nevertheless, if subsequent to his expulsion there shall be new developments indicating the innocence of the accused, the Conference from which he was expelled may grant a new trial, or if the evidence of his innocence be conclusive, the Conference may return his parchments and restore him to his former standing.

H. D. Clark,
Joe Bell,
A. R. Morgan,
G. J. Luckey,
G. R. Palmer.

Resolutions.

A. M. CONARD.

WHEREAS, Bro. A. M. Conard desires to change his church relations and enter the ministry of another Church; therefore,

Resolved, That he be permitted to surrender his parchments and withdraw from the ministry and Church and we recommend him to the confidence and fellowship of the Church to which he may go.

CHILDREN'S HOME SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, The Children's Home Society has received the generous contributions of this Conference for nine years, for the care of homeless and dependent children; and,

WHEREAS, It is positively known that a large per cent of the criminals of our land come from the class of neglected children; and,

WHEREAS, The Scriptures teach that God's plan is to set the solitary in families; and,

WHEREAS, The Children's Home Society has absorbed the other Children's Saving Societies and secured the services of Hon. H. H. Hart, LL. D., as superintendent, and secured State organization under the title of Illinois Children's Home and Aid Society and entered upon an enlarged sphere of work; therefore,

Resolved, That we rejoice in the results, commend the methods, and bid God-speed to the Illinois Children's Home and Aid Society.

M. A. HEAD,
T. W. MCVETY,
C. O. MCCULLOCH.

Office of Society, 115 Monroe St., Montauk Block, Chicago.

CITY MISSION.

Resolved, 1st. That we regard the work of trying to save the neglected classes of our large cities as of very great importance, and as affording the Church an opportunity to win the people to Christ, which it cannot allow itself to disregard.

Resolved, 2d. That we commend Dr. Gray for his heroic and self-sacrificing attempt in developing a practical method of work by which the Church can come in contact with the most abandoned classes and preach to them Christ by going among them, seeking to do them good.

Resolved, 3d. That we request Bishop Warren to reappoint him Superintendent of the Forward Movement. R. B. WILLIAMS.

FAST DAY.

WHEREAS, The General Rules requires "fasting or abstinence," and we promised, when admitted into full membership, to "recommend fasting or abstinence both by precept and example;" and,

WHEREAS, The Scriptures teach the duty and advantage of this means of grace, as in Mar. ii: 29, where Jesus says. "This kind can come forth by nothing but by prayer and fasting." Therefore,

Resolved, That we recommend that, as far as practicable, the members and friends of the Conference, observe Friday of this week, as a day of fasting and prayer, for the blessing of God upon the business of the session, and for Divine guidance to the Bishop and Presiding Elders in making the appointments, and for the blessing of God in an increasing measure upon the members of the Churches throughout our bounds.

J. S. Cumming,
F. W. Merrell,
Thos. Doney,
H. D. Clark,
R. Haney.

PRESIDING ELDER'S TERM.

Resolved, That we re-affirm the action of this Conference at preceding sessions and respectfully ask that when a Presiding Elder shall have served a full term of six consecutive years that the Bishop presiding return him to the pastorate whether his term of service shall have been spent on one district or divided among several districts, thus carrying out the rule reported as being adopted by our general superintendents of "continuing a preacher in the office of Presiding Elder for only one term of six years, unless in cases of great necessity."

G. R. Palmer,
Thos. Doney,
D. S. McCown.

THANKS.

Resolved, That we extend our thanks to the Secretaries, Treasurers and Reporters for their efficient services.

That we extend our thanks to the local chapter of the Epworth League for the many beautiful flowers furnished for beautifying the church.

Resolved, That we extend sincere thanks to Capt. W. S. Gongar, the proprietor of the river steamer for the pleasant excursion given us on Saturday last, also to Rev. J. R. Berry for kindly offices on said trip.

Signed. D. T. Wilson,
S. P. Archer,
Alexander Smith.

Resolved, That we extend Bro. Doney and co-operating pastors, to the citizens of Kankakee a vote of thanks for their kindly and generous hospitality in entertaining us during the Conference session.

Resolved, That we hereby express our high appreciation of the masterful and brotherly presidency of H. W. Warren, D. D., LL. D., over this session of our Conference, and also record the edification and great profit we have received through his sermon on the Sabbath and his addresses to the Conference.

Resolved, That we express our appreciation of favors received from the railway companies in reduced rates of travel.

Memoir.

MARTHA W. CRAINE.

Martha Watson was born in Trivoli Township, Peoria County, Illinois, September 30, 1874.

When she was seventeen years old her father died, leaving but little means for the support of the family, and Martha found it necessary to support and educate herself. She completed the course in the Farmington High School and then entered Hedding College, where she remained three years, completing the junior year. She dropped out of school to replenish her means by working in the home of Rev. G. B. Snedaker, where for more than a year she took charge of the household affairs to the entire satisfaction of the family.

As a student she was faithful, thorough and accurate, standing usually at or near the head of her classes. As a Christian young lady she exerted an excellent influence among her fellow students, being an active Christian worker. In the winter of 1891 under the ministry of Rev. V. C. Randolph, in Farmington, she was led to Christ, and until death she maintained her Christian integrity and zeal in the work of the Master.

She was married to Rev. William H. Craine January 6, 1897. The new home thus organized was a Christian home and a happy home, where Christ was loved and honored. The outlook for Brother and Sister Craine was full of hope and promise. But in the midst of the most flattering prospects the death angel came to that beautiful home and claimed the wife and mother. She left an infant daughter only two weeks old. Her husband mourns the loss of a faithful, intelligent, pious and loving companion, but he rejoices in the thought of a reunion on the other side of the River of Death.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. M. V. Crumbaker, assisted by Revs. J. T. Killip and M. L. O'Harra.

Lay Association.

The third annual meeting of the Lay Association of the Central Illinois Conference was held in the Presbyterian church, in Kankakee, Sept. 23, at 9 o'clock. Dr. C. H. Long, of Pontiac, presided.

The session was opened by an address of welcome by R. G. Risser, who eloquently welcomed the delegates to Kankakee and spoke briefly of the work before the association. D. L. Ambrose, of Canton, responded to the address of welcome, after which the president, Dr. Long, delivered his annual address.

He treated of the work that was being done by lay associations all over the country and more especially of the particular work done jointly by the Rock River association in educating the ministers of the country to a proper understanding of the requests of the laymen. Over 6,000 personal letters have been sent out during the present year, addressed to as many ministers, urging them to vote for the Rock River association, which looks towards an equalization of ministerial and lay representation in the General Conference, which is the highest legislative and supreme judicial body of the church. He congratulated the association upon the fact that the proposition had now 396¼ votes more than the necessary three-fourths majority.

At the close of the president's address, Bishop J. C. Hartzell was introduced who spoke briefly to the association. He said in part that this lay movement, looking to equal representation, was but the legitimate outgrowth of Methodism. That Methodism had its beginning among the laymen largely, and all through the organization and history of the church they had played an honored and honorable part. He referred to the fact that there had been a feeling constantly growing that the true place of the laymen in the highest legislative body of the Church was side by side with the ministry, equal in numbers and in authority. The movement has been delayed somewhat by a complication with other questions but when the problem was stripped of all embarrassing connections, the ministry of the Church, with practical unanimity were acceding to the request of the laymen.

The bishop said further: "I hail this movement as of God; it is right, it is just, it is wise, it is providential, it is in the line of the evolution of Methodism, for her real place in the conquest of the world."

Papers were also presented, followed by discussion thereon, by W. H. Foster, of Geneseo, on the Ideal Church Paper, by Walter Wyatt, of Peoria, on What Most Laymen Need, by A. J. Newall, of Onarga, on A More Perfect Union, and by W. F. Crawford, of Taylor Ridge, on A New Outlook for the Church.

BISHOP WARREN'S ADDRESS.

In the afternoon Bishop Henry W. Warren addressed the association. He referred to the power now possessed by the laymen in the Church council, that every minister must come first from the local charge, endorsed by his brother laymen, before the question of licensing him as a preacher could be even acted upon. He said: "I don't know how there can be any church without its being a union of all the people that are in it. There must be this distinct co-operation, and I am sure the Church is marching more rapidly to that end." Continuing, the bishop said: "And the fact that equal representation has passed almost unanimously among the clergy, that you sometimes find a conference where there is not a dissenting voice, is proof, beautiful proof, that the ministers have always been ready to lay down any authority that they might have in the legislation in the matter of determining the law of the Church and willing to share it with the laymen whenever the laymen had manifested a desire to assume this authority and responsibility."

Officers of the association were elected as follows: President, Dr. C. H. Long, of Pontiac; Vice President, Peoria District, O. R. Clough, Peoria; Normal District, H. M. Greener, Streator; Kankakee District, E. D. Durham, Onarga; Galesburg District, W. H. McCord, Blandinsville; Rock Island District, W. F. Crawford, Taylor Ridge; Secretary, W. H. Foster, Geneseo; Treasurer, J. S. Thompson, Lacon; Committee on State of the Church, W. H. Logan, Keithsburg; W. S. Livingston, Peoria; H. J. Caulkins, Wellington; Committee on Arrangements, W. H. Foster, Geneseo; C. E. Legg, Pontiac; W. A. Jones, Moline.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

First, Equal Representation.

Whereas, Great dissatisfaction exists as to the present proposition of lay representation in our General Conference, therefore,

Resolved, That in our judgment the time has come that ministerial and lay representation should be equal in our General Conference, and will earnestly labor and pray to secure this result.

Second, Admission of Women.

Whereas, Woman is now a recognized leader in all departments of Church work, and,

Whereas, We believe that our Church work will be benefitted and God's kingdom advanced by her presence in our deliberations, therefore,

Resolved, That she should be admitted to a seat in our General Conference and that we will continue to earnestly advocate such admission.

Third, Time Limit.

Whereas, We believe the time limit to be generally satisfactory, therefore,

Resolved, That in our opinion the time limit should not be changed

Fourth, Finances.

Whereas, The finances of our Church are in many churches a drag in consequence of no fixed business plan, therefore,

Resolved, That we advise the appointment of a committee, consisting of one member of each conference district to arrange a systematic financial plan for the adoption of all churches.

Fifth, Election of Officers.

Whereas, The present system of electing Stewards, Trustees, Etc., by the Quarterly Conference deprives a large portion of our members of a voice in the matter, and,

Whereas, Such deprivation lessens interest in Church work, therefore,

Resolved, That we believe such officials should be elected by all members over 21 years of age in our respective churches.

Sixth.

Resolved, That a special vote of thanks be extended to the trustees of the Presbyterian Church of Kankakee for the use of their beautiful church edifice for the session of this association.

That a special vote of thanks be extended to the Central Illinois Conference for granting the request of the association for Friday evening of the Conference session, and that we repeat such request.

That we request the Annual Conference to publish an epitome of the proceedings of the lay association in the Conference minutes, and that a vote of thanks be hereby extended to the Conference for such former publication.

The chair appointed as a committee on financial plan, G. L. Parker, of Gilman, Douglas, of Normal, Walter Wyatt, of Peoria, and Mrs. Julia Murphy, of Galva.

Mrs. Lucy Rider Meyer, of Chicago, addressed the association, explaining the Deaconess' work. At the conclusion of her remarks the following committee to co-operate with a like committee appointed by the conference on the Deaconess work was appointed: Walter Wyatt, C. H. Long, B. L. Parker, Mrs. Josie Laymon, and W. H. Foster.

The evening session of the association was held in the First M. E. Church, and was addressed by Dr. Henry Wade Rogers, president of Northwestern University, and by Hon. C. C. Bartlett, of Chicago.

EDITOR'S NOTE. The matter pertaining to examinations printed on page 17 should have appeared on page 68. It was placed at the close of the "Journal" without my knowledge.

It should have been stated on page 65 that "Bishop Warren instructed the pastor to be appointed to Normal to correct the Church Record in accordance with the report of the Committee." H. K. METCALF.

PUBLISHER'S NOTE.

We desire to call special attention to our advertisers. We select them with great care, admitting none but those worthy of your patronage.

Our advertisers are all, or nearly all personally known to the Publisher, and we gladly commend them to the readers of the Conference Minutes.

Read the "ads" carefully, and if in need of anything in their lines give them a call.

Advertisers will find the Conference Minutes one of the best advertising mediums. 3,700 copies published and distributed annually, going into as many homes, and being read by more than that number of persons.

The following were nominated as the Board of Managers: Alexander Smith, J. S. Cumming, T. J. Wood, John Rogers, J. A. Riason, O. M. Dunlevy, T. W. McVety, J. P. Forsyth, R. E. Buckey.

On motion the Conference was requested to order the publication of the constitution of the Society in the minutes.

DEACONESS WORK.

Your committee has carefully considered the report of the Deaconess Board of Nine, presented herewith, and have also inquired into the usefulness of the Deaconesses in the several fields, and heartily commend the work done.

The Conference Board of Nine held its annual meeting at the First Methodist Episcopal church in Peoria, September 14, 1899, at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

The meeting was called to order by the chairman, Dr. Thomas Doney, and Dr. R. G. Hobbs offered prayer. Rev. Nelson G. Lyons was chosen secretary in the place of Homer C. Lines, deceased.

The following Deaconesses, employed within the bounds of the Central Illinois Conference, made reports for the year, or such parts of the year as they had been employed: Miss Lucy Hall, Miss Florence R. Smith and Miss M. K. Riggs. Miss Lucy Hall then presented the following total report which represents as well as figures can the work of the three Deaconesses whose names are given above:

|---|---|
| Total number of calls | 2,833 |
| Papers and tracts distributed | 543 |
| Magazines and books | 55 |
| Bibles distributed | 1 |
| Garments distributed | 514 |
| Articles of bedding distributed | 4 |
| Baskets of food | 26 |
| Boquets of flowers | 99 |
| Tons of coal | 1 |
| Miscellaneous articles | 15 |
| Emergency money spent | $12.64 |
| Persons for whom work is secured | 10 |
| Taught in Sunday school, times | 52 |
| Taught in Mission school, times | 16 |
| Conducted Industrial school, times | 48 |
| Number of meetings held | 162 |
| Children's Temperance meetings | 50 |
| Meetings attended | 571 |
| Series of Evangelistic meetings | 12 |
| Meetings addressed on Deaconess work | 12 |
| Hours spent in nursing | 179 |
| Hours in miscellaneous work | 1577 |
| Sermons preached | 213 |
| Altar services held | 228 |
| Business trips for the work | 5 |
| Months of pastoral work | 3½ |

The treasurer, Mrs. W. S. Livingston, then gave a report of the work done by the Deaconess Aid Society, which report embraces the following financial statement:

|---|---|
| Peoria raised and expended for Deaconess work | $325.00 |
| Pontiac raised and expended for Deaconess work | 275.00 |
| Peoria district raised and expended for Evangelistic Deaconess work | 185.01 |

The Peoria Deaconess Home and Hospital—through its agent, the Rev. R. G. Hobbs, D. D.—made an extended report, of which only a summary can be given here.

The Board has purchased the large and commodious residence on Glen Oak Avenue, heretofore known as the Bunn property, for which they are to pay the sum of $12,000. Upwards of $8,000 have been subscribed, with a good prospect that, after the session of the Annual Conference, the remaining $22,000 which will be needed to complete the building and put it in condition to be occupied, that its sphere of usefulness may at once begin, will be raised.

A resolution was unanimously carried recommending the continuance in their present relations of Miss Lucy Hall, of Peoria, and Miss Florence R. Smith, of Pontiac. They are licensed Deaconesses.

This was followed by a resolution, which was also unanimously adopted, commending the faithful service of Miss M. K. Riggs in evangelistic work in Peoria district.

At 2:30 o'clock the meeting adjourned.

NELSON G. LYONS, Secretary.

Peoria, Ill., September 14, 1899.

Since the making of this report $2,000 have been added to the above amount subscribed to the Hospital, and there is a good prospect of several large gifts.

It has also transpired that Miss Mary Jefferson has been transferred to Normal adding one to the number of Deaconesses in the bounds of Central Illinois Conference.

Resolved, That we are more than ever convinced of the need of a Deaconess Home and Hospital in Peoria, and that we will co-operate with the trustees in raising the means necessary to establish it.

J. A. CHAPMAN, Secretary. W. D. BENJAMIN, Chairman.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

WHEREAS the plan of universal spread of the Gospel, as conducted by a wise Providence, is indicated by the extensive circulation of the Bible throughout the world.

Resolved, As a Conference we heartily co-operate in the great enterprise of supplying the word of God to the millions of heathens in several hundred languages and dialects, for the motto of the church is that "The word of God is the hope of the world."

The missionaries who labor among the millions whose income is but five or ten cents per day must be able to obtain the word of God for these at less than actual cost of publication. It is by the contributions of our Annual Conference, or Conferences, and other churches, that a Bible can be placed in the hands of the heathen and home of the Christian convert.

The late war has opened the gateway to ten million people, and the open doors are God's beckoning hand.

Your committee ask that you will lead our beloved people to larger benevolence in this all-important work.

D. S. ANDREWARTHA, Secretary. S. P. ALFORD, Chairman.

BOOK ACCOUNTS.

Your committee on Book Accounts begs leave to submit the following report:

WHEREAS, the management of the Western Methodist Book Concern has been so ably and faithfully conducted during the present quadrenium, as evidenced by the dividend of $80,000.00 declared for this year, and by the very small per cent of loss (1 per cent) considering so large amount of sales; and,

WHEREAS, many of the ministers of our Conference have so promptly settled their accounts with the Concern; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That the thanks of the Conference be extended to the management for the draft of $1,137.00 for the Conference Claimants' fund, and that they be commended for their faithful and efficient management during the present quadrenium.

2. That we also commend the promptness of our brother ministers in settling their accounts, and deprecate the fact that some few persist in allowing their accounts to remain unpaid from year to year, and would urge the prompt settlement of these accounts.

3. That the Board of Conference Stewards be instructed to reserve ten (10) per cent of the amount allowed by the Board of Stewards to any member of Conference indebted to the Book Concern to be applied to their indebtedness.

E. E. DIFFENBAUGH, Secretary. M. A. HEAD, Chairman.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Board of Church Extension desires to call the attention of the Conference, through its Committee, to the following facts:

1. From 1866, when this work began, to August 1, 1899, the Board collected and disbursed $6,400,000.00. Of this, the General Fund, derived chiefly from collections, personal gifts for frontier churches, $250 each, and Mountain Fund Specials of $100 each, all for use by donations to churches, has aggregated $4,102,000.00.

2. The Loan Fund has a permanent capital of $1,067,000.00. And churches borrowing have returned $1,231,000.00; thus giving for the use of loans $2,298,000.00. Making the aggregate above given $6,400,000.00. With this the Board aided 11,197 churches—more than one-third of the entire number owned by our denomination.

3. Our Conference has shared in this work as follows: The collections taken in our churches from the beginning to November 1, 1898, the close of the last fiscal year of the Board, aggregated $52,477.38. The collections this year amount to $1,669. Making a total of $54,146.38.

4. Eighty-three churches within our bounds have received aid up to November 1, 1898, by donations of $17,564.15, and by loans of $11,900.

5. The General Committee asks our Conference to raise this year, by collections, $5,000, and our needy churches may, on approved application, receive $1,000.

6. The amount of aid granted must depend on the amount of collections taken, and cannot exceed the proportion above indicated.

We recommend the following for adoption:

Resolved, 1. We heartily congratulate the Board of Church Extension and the Church-at-large on the marvelous success of this work from the begining to the present.

2. That our country, being new, with rapidly increasing population and new territorial additions, will continue to need Church Extension in the future as in the past, and that our church by fostering and strengthening this work will increase its own power to do the larger work now thrown upon it.

3. That we, as a Conference, will not be content with anything less than a full response to the call of the General Committee for our proper share in Church Extension, until everywhere in communities now destitute, the people shall have opportunity to "enter His courts with praise."

4. That we, as a Conference, will co-operate with the Board of Church Extension in securing within the ensuing three years, Twentieth Century Thank Offerings for Church Extension to the amount of $1,000,000.

5. That our Presiding Elders be requested to apportion, with care, the full amount asked for Church Extension to the several districts and pastoral charges for collection, and that availing ourselves of the helps provided by the Board, and especially, "Christianity in Earnest" and "Glad Tidings," we will present this cause in all our churches and endeavor to secure at least the amount asked in accordance with the plan of our Discipline.

6. That we deplore the death, during the year, of Dr. A. J. Kynett, the able and efficient secretary of the Board of Church Extension who has for so many years been its secretary, and pray that his mantle of consecrated ability to organize and carry forward the work of the society may fall upon his successor in office.

JOHN MAY, Secretary. W. B. SHOOP, Chairman.

CHURCH INSURANCE.

It is gratifying to know that since our last session the National Mutual Church Insurance Company, of Chicago, has been fully organized under the direction of the Board of Insurance, appointed by the General Conference. The charter was granted last March, after an examination of the company by the Insurance Department of the state.

The amount of business transacted since then has far outrun the estimate, not only in this state, but in every state in the Union; proving the wisdom of the General Conference in ordering the company formed.

As the cost to policy holders will decrease as the business increases we urge every preacher to make particular effort to get his church or parsonage, as well as his personal effects, in our company as promptly as possible.

Arrangements can be made for the exchange of any policies in good Stock Companies in such a way as to cause no extra expense.

For any particulars write Henry P. Magill, Western Methodist Book Concern, Chicago, Ill.

J. M. PROUTY, Secretary. A. K. TULLIS, Chairman.

DOMESTIC MISSIONS.

We congratulate our Conference on its wisdom in organizing—several years ago—a Domestic Missionary Society according to the provisions of our Discipline. In our judgment the money expended by this Domestic Missionary Society for evangelizing our home field, thus preserving and enlarging the base of supplies for all of our other benevolent enterprises, is wisely spent; and further, we believe the expenditure of this money is in the spirit of true Christian brotherhood—the strong helping to bear the burdens of the weak.

We therefore urge each pastor faithfully to take the collection for Domestic Missions early in the Conference Year, raising their apportionment in full and to forward the same to the Treasurer without delay.

We recommend that the Board of Managers exercise great care in appropriating the receipts of this society, and that the Treasurer furnish an itemized statement of the disbursements for publication in our Conference Minutes. We also recommend that the amounts actually needed by the various charges receiving help, be appropriated and paid if possible, and in not exaggerated amounts named with the tacit understanding that only a small part of such appropriation is to be paid.

For officers and managers for the ensuing year we nominate the following:

President, F. W. Merrell; Vice President, C. O. McCulloch; Secretary, J. A. Chapman; Treasurer, D. B. Johnson.

Managers—A. K. Tullis, M. V. B. White, M. M. McCreight, John Small. John Thompson, Lacon, Ill.; J. H. Bunn, Peoria, Ill.; D. V. Castle, Kempton, Ill.; John Prickett, Lewistown, Ill.; W. H. McCord, Blandinsville, Ill.

D. B. JOHNSON, Secretary. M. L. MILLER, President.

HEDDING COLLEGE.

The work of last year in Hedding College closed June 15th, with six graduates. The year was a prosperous one, with a fair attendance—there being enrolled in all departments, 174 students. The teachers were paid 65 per cent of their salaries—exclusive of Mrs. Brown's donation—against 47½ per cent the previous year.

The president spent the entire vacation in the field in the interest of the College, principally in securing students.

The present term opened the 12th inst. with an enrollment of seventy-six as against thirty-eight on the first day of last year. The enrollment of the first week is 105 as against seventy of last year—a gain of 50 per cent.

The financial outlook has improved during the year. Over $4,000 of endowment notes have been collected and loaned at 6 per cent interest, secured by first mortgage on real estate. It is the purpose to spend the present year, so far as field work is concerned, in the interest of increased endowment.

The courses of study have all been revised and strengthened, as per catalogue, until Hedding College stands abreast with the best colleges in the state in its requirements for graduation.

Resolved, That we commend the wise and eminently successful administration of Dr. H. D. Clark, the scholarly president, and his efficient helpers, the members of the faculty, and pledge to them our earnest support in their efforts to continue the good name and standing of Hedding, and to carry the banner of our own Conference College to its rightful place in the sympathy and support of the people of its patronizing territory. We are highly pleased with the present assurance and the promise of the future.

We recommend the following as trustees for three years:

MINISTERS—R. E. Buckey, S. Van Pelt, J. W. Frizzelle, John H. Ryan; also M. V. Crumbaker to fill vacancy of G. J. Luckey, resigned.

LAYMAN—W. B. Main, V. W. Kennish, S. A. Wagoner, Wm. Firoved; also J. M. Markley to fill vacancy of E. H. Burridge.

We recommend as Conference visitors—L. F. Cullum, T. W. McVety, J. W. Edwards, R. Crewes, A. M. Stocking, J. E. Connor and F. W. Merrell.

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

We are pleased with work done in this valuable University.

The work done during the year has been of the best quality. Under the presidency of Dr. E. M. Smith and his helpers, the teaching force is a strong one.

The school opens favorably this term. The Freshman class numbers nearly fifty—the largest in the entire history of the University.

|---|---|
| The real estate available for the payment of the indebtedness is valued at | $ 24,950.00 |
| Subscription available for the same | 20,864.00 |
| Total | 45,814.00 |
| Total indebtedness | 37,720.00 |
| Excess of available assets over liabilities | 8,094.00 |

A total of something over $32,000 has been added to the net assets of the institution during the year.

Hon. W. B. Harvey, Mrs. Emily S. VanDolah, Rev. W. R. Wiley and Rev. Thomas Doney, D. D., are recommended as Trustees.

The following are asked for as Conference visitors: J. S. Cumming, D. D.; R. B. Williams, D. D.; Rev. A. Smith, Rev. H. K. Metcalf and Rev. A. K. Tullis.

GRAND PRAIRIE SEMINARY.

The work of the past year in this school, under the efficient administration of its new president, F. C. Demorest, has been marked by earnestness and success in teaching and government. The attendance last year was 266. The opening term of this year shows an increase of 20 per cent over the corresponding term of last year. The number of graduates last June was twenty-nine—the largest number of any year in the history of the school.

A good religious sentiment prevails among the students. The year has been one of steady and healthful growth in spiritual things.

The moderate cost of living, wholesome moral atmosphere of the town, entire absence of saloons, the emphasis given to religious culture, careful system of personal oversight of students, adaptability of buildings for good work, a growing library, chaste and refined influence of Christian teachers combine to make this a most excellent school for students to attend.

The Business, Normal and Scientific courses have all been materially strengthened.

The new members of the faculty are all giving eminent satisfaction in their work.

There is an effort being made, with promise of success, to raise an endowment of $100,000, which if reached will place the school upon a foundation which will secure beyond peradventure its perpetuity and increase very greatly its power for good. Toward this increased endowment Mr. W. A. Rankin agrees to give $25,000 on condition that the sum be raised by January 1st, 1902. Dr. W. K. Pearsons, of Chicago, has pledged $20,000 on condition that the sum be raised by June 5th, 1900; and further agrees to pay one dollar for every two raised in excess of the one hundred thousand. Egley Bros., of Onarga, give a residence property valued at $2,500 on condition that the full sum be raised. Other gentlemen have promised to give land and money, but full announcement cannot now be made.

In round numbers about $40,000 yet remains to be provided for. This sum cannot be raised without careful planning, hard work and great sacrifice. We sincerely hope that the amount designated will be raised.

We commend the school to all believers in Christian Education as eminently worthy of their beneficence.

We recommend as Conference visitors the following for a term of one year: W. R. Watson, V. H. Brink, C. W. Sterry. For a term of two years: J. H. Scott, J. S. Thompson, W. B. Harvey.

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY.

We are pleased to learn of the continued prosperity of this great institution. The attendance last year was, in all departments, over three thousand students.

"Fisk Hall" has been completed—a magnificent structure for the pursuit of Academic Study. All departments are thoroughly equipped, and the University, with its post-graduate work in the various professions, furnishes the best of facilities for both the under-graduate and the professional student.

We recommend the appointment of J. W. Haney as Trustee.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

We take pleasure in reporting another year of prosperity in our Theological Seminaries.

GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE being more directly related to us than those farther from us deserves special mention. This school, through its scholarly and thorough work, has won an enviable and merited reputation throughout its patronizing territory. We commend it with no hesitancy whatever as worthy the confidence and patronage of any who are fitting themselves for the responsibilities of the Christian Ministry.

DREW THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY and BOSTON SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY are still maintaining the splendid record of their past history and need only our renewed endorsement as worthy the confidence of our entire Methodism.

We recommend as Conference visitors to Garrett Biblical Institute, Dr. J. G. Evans for one year and Rev. R. A. Brown for two years.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We rejoice in the blessed work of the Board of Education in aiding needy and worthy young men and young women to secure a good education with which to serve the Church; in the steady increase in the per cent of loans repaid and in the amount of the collections for the "Sunday School Children's Fund." At the same time we remember that there is also a steady increase in the demand for Christian Workers, and that each year hundreds of worthy applicants are turned away for lack of funds. Therefore we urge the pastors to more fully emphasize the usefulness of this fund, and that a collection be taken in every Sunday School in the Conference.

We are gratified at the results achieved by the University Senate in the improvement of curricula and the increased respect for and attendance upon our Church Schools. We mourn the loss to the Church in the death of our beloved Secretary of the Board of Education, the lamented Dr. Payne. We rejoice in the selection of Rev. W. F. McDowell, D. D., to fill the vacancy.

WHEREAS, The General Conference has provided for an Annual Educational Collection, apart from the Children's Day Collection; and,

WHEREAS, The General Conference has authorized each Annual Conference to devote this collection to schools within its bounds; therefore,

Resolved, (1) That we devote this collection to our Conference Schools. (2) That the Presiding Elders be requested to fix the amount of this collection and apportion it among the charges. (3) That the division of territory among the schools be the same as last year. (4) That the money collected from the territory assigned to the Illinois Wesleyan University and Hedding College shall be divided so that Hedding College shall receive two-thirds of the amount. (5) That this Annual Educational Collection be numbered with the collections to be read by the pastors in making their reports upon the floor of the Conference.

E. F. ROE, Secretary. G. R. PALMER, Chairman.

EPISCOPAL FUND.

WHEREAS, The receipts for the Episcopal Fund for the last fiscal year were nearly $6,000 less than expenditures; and,

WHEREAS, Over $800 of that deficiency was in our Conference; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we will use our utmost endeavor to raise the full amount apportioned to this Conference for the ensuing year.

Resolved, 2. That we re-affirm the action of our last Conference, requiring each pastor, while making his financial report, to state whether he has raised the Episcopal Fund pro rata with the claim of Pastor and Presiding Elder.

J. E. TAYLOR, Secretary. W. L. DOUGLAS, Chairman.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

We recognize in the Epworth League an organization of great intellectual, social and spiritual force, raised up of God, for the conversion of sinners and the development of the spiritual life of our young people. We rejoice in its glorious achievements and earnestly pray for its greater usefulness in the service of the Master.

We deprecate the tendency to convert the Epworth League into a piece of financial machinery, and call the attention of local churches and general church benevolent interests to the disciplinary clause, reading: "No collection shall be taken by the Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal Church, except for League purposes."

We deem essential to the consummation of its real purpose the strict observance of this rule, and insist that the only relation of the League to the financial interests of the church is the training of our young people in systematic Scriptural giving, as Methodists—not as Epworthians.

We call the attention of the churches and Leagues to the approaching Biennial State Convention in Peoria, July 11 to 14, 1900.

We recall with pleasure the fine state representation of more than two thousand delegates at the International Convention; and we commend the state organization for making such results possible.

We most heartily recommend to the chapters of our Conference the Illinois State Epworth League Lecture Bureau for their consideration. This Bureau is authorized by the State Epworth League, and comprises sixty-two lectures, with a variety of subjects, from which a first-class and popular course can be selected.

We heartily indorse the Twentieth Century movement and recommend that the Leagues of Central Illinois Conference set apart an hour upon the first Sabbath of November as a Special Consecration Service in which special preparations be made for aggressive work.

We pledge our most earnest support to the "Forward Movement for Missions," inaugurated by Mr. W. W. Cooper, and earnestly recommend that each chapter in our Conference take up the proposed studies in missionary lines.

We recognize the Junior League as one of the mightiest providential factors in our system, and we strongly and earnestly recommend that Junior Leagues be organized where they do not now exist, and that more care and attention be given to this work.

We recommend as Conference officers the following named persons:

President, S. P. Archer; Secretary, R. B. Seaman; Treasurer, J. A. Alford; Junior League Superintendent, A. W. Lowther.

R. B. SEAMAN, Secretary. SAMUEL VAN PELT, Chairman.

FREEDMEN'S AID.

Your committee on Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society respectfully submit the following report:

The work of this society has practically resolved itself to this—the establishment and maintenance of Christian schools in the southern states. Among millions of colored and poor white people these schools are the only means for building up an intelligent and Christian society. They are the means of training for the Christian ministry, the fountain of Christian normal training, the source of supply of Christian medical service, and the development of the Christian trade school. It was never more important than now that the work be maintained. The awful crimes committed in that region have called the attention of the country to the work of this society as the only hope for the adjusting of the relations of the races and the solving of the race problem; therefore be it

Resolved, 1. That the church having entered upon this work must know no defection and no retreat, but that we will make the most determined effort to meet our apportionments.

2. That we will take a collection to help pay the debt, and, if possible, send it to the office by November 1st.

3. That we heartily endorse the Christian Educator, which is now sent to every person who contributes as much as $1.00 to the cause, and will try to circulate it among our people.

A. A. WATERS, Chairman.

POST OFFICES.

The committee on Post Offices has finished the work assigned. We recommend a continuation of the use of the Post Office blanks.

F. N. WRIGHT, Secretary. H. B. WARD, Chairman.

SANCTITY OF THE SABBATH.

Believing that the command of God to "Remember the Sabbath Day and Keep it Holy," is as binding upon us to-day as it was in the day it was first given; and that the tendency of our times is toward a rapid disregard of the Scriptural observance of it as God's Holy Day, both in the Church and in the business world; therefore

Resolved, 1. That we recognize a special duty devolving upon us as Christian Ministers, to use every means in our power to awaken the Church and lead her to the rescue of the Lord's Day, and to restore the Sanctity of the Sabbath on the basis of God's commandment.

2. That from our pulpits, and by our personal efforts and example, we will urge all our people to a more careful attendance upon the public services of the Sabbath day, and that they refrain from all social family visiting and pleasure seeking on God's Holy Day.

3. That we most respectfully request the managers of all our camp-meeting associations and Chautauqua managements to guard against giving encouragement to the running of excursion trains on the Sabbath in the interests of these gatherings, believing that honoring God's Holy Day is worth more to the Church than great crowds or the extra dollars that may drop into their treasuries.

And further, we urge the law of God against doing ordinary work, publishing or supporting Sunday newspapers, or indulging in sports, amusements or games on the Sabbath day.

4. In view of the opening of the new century, and that the 20th century may witness the return of the Sabbath which God has ordained. we will take one service in the month of January, 1900, to preach to our people on the subject of the Sanctity of the Sabbath, and to point out the dangers that threaten the overthrow of our Christian Sabbath.

STATE OF THE CHURCH.

In view of the blessings that a kind Providence has bestowed upon the Church in the past year, in victories in home and foreign fields, and in the general and personal victories in increasing her force and enlarging her usefulness, we should be grateful. Methodism has retained her position in all great and religious enterprises. She has neither modified her doctrines nor had to apologize for her teachings. She has insisted upon her methods to save the world, and to declare the witness of God's Spirit as part of her mission. The attitude of the Church with reference to the saloon should continue to be uncompromising hostility. Drunkenness should be held as inexcusable, injurious to man, abhorred of God and destructive to Christianity. The Church should insist that legislators, judges, jurors and civil executors should regard the saloon as a common foe of all good.

The increasing development of the Epworth League, showing it to be the right arm of the Church, should be encouraged. In view of the pressing demand on the Church in this twentieth century of developments, we have reached the period where the benevolent duties of each member should be more systematically emphasized, so as to meet the Scriptural idea.

Among the recently added equipments to meet the end of the world's evangelism and thus help the Church to fill her mission in the earth, is the Deaconess movement. We commend this movement to the hearty encouragement and support of our people.

F. E. SHULT, Secretary. G. C. SHAFFER, Chairman.

THE STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

1. We are devoutly thankful to Almighty God for the unprecedented success which has attended our navy and our army in the recent conflict with Spain, and for the propitious termination of the war.

2. We accept as providential the possession of the Philippines, and assume cheerfully any responsibilities concomitant therewith in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ and for His Kingdom's sake.

3. We pray for the speedy suspension of hostilities, but cannot consent to any terms other than a complete surrender of Aguinaldo's forces to our government.

4. We deprecate and most heartily condemn the breach of faith on the part of the people of Utah in electing Brigham H. Roberts, a polygamist, to the Fifty-sixth Congress, and most respectfully and earnestly request the House to expel him, who by his immoral practices has outraged decency, violated the ennabling act by which his State was admitted into the Union, and flaunts with impunity his moral turpitude in the face of a civilized country.

5. We mark with deep regret the increasing prevalence of lynching in some of the States of the Union, and reprobate the practice as subversive of all law and order, an indication of a rising antagonism between the white and black races, an outrage upon the individual and a grievous menace to free government.

6. We felicitate ourselves upon the healthy sentiment of justice developed and expressed during what we believe to be the most unjust trial of recent times, and hereby express our most ardent admiration for the heroic and devoted conduct of Mme. Dreyfus in bringing her husband's innocence to the light. We also congratulate the French Republic that, notwithstanding an egregious military mistake, Captain Dreyfus is now free.

7. Notwithstanding the many seeming blunders of men in representative capacities, both civil and military, and while we deplore the utterly indefensible position of the administration expressed in the foolish and wicked interpretation by the Attorney-General of the United States on the Canteen Law, thereby thwarting the clearly expressed wish of the nation; in other respects we commend the candor, the firmness, the consistency and general efficiency of the President, and so long as there is a single soldier anywhere fighting for our flag, we pledge our loyal support to the government which keeps him there.

8. It is with a just pride that we congratulate our representatives at the Peace Congress, and pray that the aims of that body may be speedily realized, and the spirit of universal comity and good will prevail among all the nations of the earth—the principle of arbitration become of universal application, and war with its unspeakable atrocities be forevermore unknown.

9. One of the greatest perils to the nation lies in its commercial greed. Sapping the very foundations of the republic and corrupting the most sacred fountains of social and religious welfare, it manifests itself in legalized vice of various kinds and permeates our municipal, state and national governments, calling loudly upon the church for the incarnation of Christ in commercial and political life.

RICHARD CREWES, Secretary. G. W. GRAY, Chairman.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND TRACTS.

We recognize in the Sunday school one of the most important factors in the religious and educational life.

Inasmuch as the education of the young in religion is of the highest importance, great care should be exercised in the selection of teachers who instruct the 2,600,000 scholars in the Methodist Episcopal church.

We urge that our pastors and presiding elders see that our literature, published by our own Book Concern, be used in the Sunday school.

We recognize the evangelizing instrumentality of the tract, and recommend that the pastors in our Conference avail themselves of the liberal offer of the Tract Society, and that we give it our financial support in spreading a Christian literature throughout the world.

W. D. EVANS, Secretary. O. P. GRAVES, Chairman.

TEMPERANCE.

Your committee on Temperance beg leave to report as follows:

1. We look with great satisfaction upon the advanced position of the Methodist Episcopal church in opposition to the saloon, and endorse with unqualified approbation the utterances of the Central Illinois Annual Conference, and also the deliverances of the General Conference of our Church upon the subject of temperance and prohibition.

2. As law is an educator, we hold that it should be made to harmonize with the standard of Christian morality and not be let down to the level of public sentiment or mere policy. And hence, we enter our protest against any change in the action of our General Conference that would modify our position of unrelenting hostility to the saloon, or our expressed conviction concerning the duty of the Christian voter.

3. Christian citizenship is the great need of our country, and the want of it our great peril. Daniel Webster said, "Morality is the chief qualification for citizenship, and I know of no sound morality that is not based upon the Christian religion." This truth, uttered by the great lawyer and statesman, indicates the great importance of Christian citizenship, but nowhere is it more important than in the suppression of the unamerican institution known as the saloon. The incarnation of Christ in citizenship is the only remedy for this giant evil.

4. We heartily indorse the action of the General Conference at Omaha and at Cleveland in approving the organization and work of the American Anti-Saloon League, and in pleading the co-operation of the Methodist Episcopal church in the work of extirpating the saloon. The grand motto of that organization, "The Saloon Must Go," should be the motto of every Methodist, and we pledge ourselves to aid this movement until agitation, crystalized into action, shall relieve our country from this great curse.

5. The army saloon, known as the "Canteen," is an unmitigated evil, a disgrace to our country, and ought, in the interest of health, good morals, order and efficiency in the army, to be abolished.

We heartily commend the action of Congress in recognizing public sentiment and providing for the prohibition of the army "canteen," and also the candor of General Leiber, Judge Advocate of the army, in deciding that, under the act of Congress, the "canteen" must be abondoned. But we deprecate and unsparingly condemn the interpretation given to the law by Attorney General Griggs, accepted by Secretary Alger, and so far, seemingly, acquiesced in by the President of the United States. This intrepretation, made in the interest of the liquor traffic, is not only in violation of the plain language of the law, but contrary to the well-known intention of Congress and the expressed opinion of the best legal talent of our country. We join the numerous assemblies that have already taken action in calling the attention of President McKinley to this outrage, by which an act of Congress has been nullified in the interest of iniquity, and we do hereby respectfully petition President McKinley to exercise his authority as Commander-in-Chief of the Army of the United States, in abolishing the army saloon, thus giving to our boys in the army the same protection that has been given to the navy by the order of Secretary Long.

6. In view of the physical, intellectual, moral, financial and political ruin wrought by the liquor traffic and its persistent antagonism to Christianity and the salvation of souls, we pledge ourselves to an untiring agitation upon this subject and a relentless hostility to the liquor traffic until no political organization shall dare to champion, either in platform or administration, the infamous saloon.

Resolved, That a copy of our action touching the "canteen" be forwarded to the President of the United States by the secretary of the Conference.

Resolved, That we appreciate the privilege of holding our Conference session in a city free from the saloon curse, and we commend the good people of Macomb for their courage for the right and their vigilance in keeping the saloon under the prohibition of law.

JOHN SMALL, Secretary. J. G. EVANS, Chairman.

USE OF TOBACCO.

WHEREAS, The use of tobacco is a needless habit, filthy, injurious and expensive; and,

WHEREAS, Its use is a growing evil among our boys and young men, leading to a waste of time and money, and tending toward bad associations; and,

WHEREAS, Its use is contrary to the spirit of the gospel and the teaching of our Discipline, and inconsistent with the purity of Christian life and example;

Resolved, That as those who "bear the vessels of the Lord," we will give the influence of our personal example and teaching against the use of tobacco in every form, and, moreover, we call upon officials and membership of our churches to purge themselves from this unclean habit and to discourage its prevelance in society.

CYRUS A. WRIGHT, Secretary. T. M. HARRIS, Chairman.

WESLEY HOSPITAL.

WHEREAS, Wesley Hospital is increasing its facilities for usefulness, hence in great need of larger funds and endowment, and inasmuch as our Conference has been its beneficiary, we would re-affirm the report of last year:

First, That the $600 pledged by the Conference be apportioned to the various charges by the Presiding Elders.

Second, That monies collected be sent on immediately to the Hospital.

Third, That the column in the Minutes for the report of collections for the Hospital be continued.

Fourth, That our people be informed of our relation to the Hospital, and that donations and bequests be encouraged.

Those desiring information regarding Hospital service should address the superintendent, J. S. Harvey, corner Twenty-fifth and Dearborn streets, Chicago, Ill.

A. P. ROLEN, Secretary. J. E. MERCER, Chairman.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

We rejoice in the continued growth and prosperity of the W. F. M. S., especially in the Central Illinois Conference.

Under the supervision of Mrs. J. A. Riason, and her able co-adjutors, there has been a marked increase in membership and a gain of $1,463.98.

Through the agency of this organization thousands of women, who otherwise would have lived and died in heathen darkness, have been raised into a higher and better life.

Thousands of children have been educated and Christianized, and the usefulness of the parent society has been greatly augmented.

In the home land it has been potent for good by its educational and organizing character.

We advise the organizing of auxiliaries, so far as practicable, in every charge, and urge the hearty co-operation of every pastor.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society, because of the intense need in the field in which it operates and the unsurpassed excellence of its work, is worthy of the gratitude, praise and encouragement of all who are interested in Christian work.

We therefore urge that in all our charges where there are not already auxiliaries of this Society, the pastors endeavor to have them organized and render all possible assistance in the operation of them.

We further recommend that an anniversary of this Society be held at our next Annual Conference in order that the importance of its work and the strength of its claim be more effectively presented to the Conference.

WARREN S. WELSH, Secretary. A. M. STOCKING, Chairman.

TWENTIETH CENTURY OFFERING.

We recommend the appointment of the Presiding Elders and one representative from Hedding College, one from Grand Prairie Seminary, one from Illinois Wesleyan University, one from the Conference Claimant's Society, and one from the Deaconess Home and Hospital, of Peoria. We also recommend that the above named committee arrange a plan of operation at once that shall be uniform throughout the Conference.

We recommend further that definite sums of money for Hedding College, Grand Prairie Seminary, Illinois Wesleyan University, the Conference Claimant's Society, and the Deaconess Home and Hospital of Peoria, be the aim of this movement.

That where the gift of the donor is not specifically directed, it shall be divided pro rata on the basis of the sums for the above named objects.

That the plan, which may be devised by the committee, be set in motion as soon as definitely settled.

C. O. McCULLOCH, Secretary. H. D. CLARK, Chairman.

III. Proposition.

To the Central Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

A PROPOSITION

From the Baltimore Annual Conference respecting additional legislation relating to Equal Ministerial and Lay Representation in the General Conference of 1900 to the several Annual Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

AN ENABLING ACT.

The Committee, to whom was referred the question of Equal Ministerial and Lay Representation in the General Conference of 1900, beg leave to report that as the Rock River Conference proposition made no provision for the seating of such Lay Delegates, if they should be selected, respectfully recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, 1. That the Baltimore Annual Conference at its session, held in Baltimore, Maryland, beginning March 1, 1899, hereby requests the Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church to submit to the several Annual Conferences, at the first regular session of each Conference held after the present date, the following proposition to amend the Discipline, to-wit:

FIRST—Amend ¶ 60 of the Book of the Discipline by striking out all the words after "The Lay Delegates shall consist of" and inserting the words "one Layman for each Annual Conference, except such Conferences as have more than one Ministerial Delegate, which Conferences shall each be entitled to as many Lay Delegates as Ministerial Delegates:" so that ¶ 60 as amended shall read:

"¶ 60. The Lay Delegates shall consist of one Layman for each Annual Conference, except such Conferences as have more than one Ministerial Delegate, which Conferences shall each be entitled to as many Lay Delegates as Ministerial Delegates."

SECOND—Amend Section 2 of ¶ 67 of the Book of Discipline by striking out the words "nor of more than two Lay Delegates for any Annual Conference" and inserting the words "nor of more Lay Delegates from any Annual Conference than there are Ministerial Delegates from such Annual Conference;" so that the Section as amended shall read:

"SECTION 2—The General Conference shall not allow of more than one Ministerial Representative for every fourteen members of an Annual Conference, nor of a less number than one for every forty-five; nor of more Lay Delegates for any Annual Conference than there are Ministerial Delegates from such Annual Conference; provided, nevertheless, that when there shall be in any Annual Conference a fraction of two-thirds the number which shall be fixed for the ratio of representation, such Annual Conference shall be entitled to an additional delegate for such fraction; and provided also, that no Conference shall be denied the privilege of one Ministerial and of one Lay Delegate."

Resolved, II. That, if three-fourths of the members of the Annual Conference present, and voting during 1899 and 1900, shall approve of this amendment, and it shall also receive the concurrence of two-thirds of the General Conference of 1900, and the Electoral Conferences of 1899 and 1900 shall have selected provisional representatives, having the qualifications and selected in the manner now determining the election of Lay Delegates, so that the whole number of Lay Delegates and provisional representatives selected for any Conference shall equal the number of Ministerial Delegates for said Conference, the General Conference of 1900 may provide for their admission as Lay Delegates.

C. HERBERT RICHARDSON, Secretary. JOHN F. GOUCHER, Chairman.

Done at Baltimore, March 8, 1899, by unanimous action of the Conference, 167 members recording their vote.

IV. Memorials to the General Conference.

I. BOUNDARY LINE.

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN:

The Central Illinois Conference would respectfully petition your honorable body to change the boundary line between the said Central Illinois Conference and the Rock River Conference so as to conform to existing facts and the apparent convenience in supplying certain charges.

The items referred to are as follows:

For a number of years past the pastor appointed to the Pink Prairie circuit in the Rock Island District has regularly supplied, as a part of his work, an appointment known as Sharon, which is, strictly speaking, within the territory of the Rock River Conference.

Also, for some years past, the pastor appointed to the Sheffield charge in the same district has regularly supplied, as a part of his work, the appointment known as Pleasant Valley, which is likewise within the territory of the Rock River Conference.

In both of the foregoing cases the present arrangement will, no doubt, be permanent, as the most natural method of supply.

Furthermore, we believe that the town of Erie could be so united to work within our bounds as to be of decided advantage to all concerned, while it would be but a slight loss to the Rock River Conferenee.

We therefore request that § 13 of ¶ 438 of the Discipline be amended by striking out all the words between "namely" and "Bureau Junction" and inserting the words:

Beginning on the Mississippi river at Albany; thence southeasterly to the northwest corner of Bureau county; thence east to the southwest corner of Lee county; thence south o the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy crossing of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railroad; thence along said railroad to–

So that the whole section shall read:

§ 13. Central Illinois Conference shall embrace that part of the State of Illinois north of the Illinois Conference and south of the following line, namely: Beginning on the Mississippi river at Albany; thence southeasterly to the northwest corner of Bureau county; thence east to the southwest corner of Lee county; thence south to the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy crossing of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railroad; thence along said railroad to Bureau Junction; thence to the Illinois river; thence up said river to the mouth of the Kankakee river, leaving Albany and Ottawa in the Rock River Conference and Bureau Junction in the Central Illinois Conference; thence up the Kankakee river to a point directly west of the north line of Kankakee county; thence east to the Indiana line.

H. K. METCALF,
J. W. FRIZZELLE.
D. S. MCCOWN,
W. R. WILEY,
THOMAS DONEY,
M. V. CRUMBAKER,

WHEREAS, ¶ 437 of the Discipline requires that "No petition or memorial involving change of Conference boundaries * * * shall be entertained by the Committee on Boundaries until notice shall have been given by the Conference desiring such change * * * to all the Conferences affected thereby;" therefore,

Resolved, That the secretary of this Conference be and is hereby instructed to notify the Rock River Conference of our action in this matter by sending to the secretary thereof a copy of the Memorial just adopted.

H. K. METCALF,
J. W. FRIZZELLE.

II. CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS.

WHEREAS, There is no disciplinary provision for the accumulation of an endowment fund sufficient to meet the needs of the several classes of Conference Claimants; and,

WHEREAS, The provisions made by the Annual Conferences are insufficient, uncertain and usually temporary; Therefore,

Resolved, That we hereby Memorialize the General Conference, to consider carefully the propriety of making legal provision to meet this want; and if possible to devise and legalize a plan by which in harmony with the principles of justice and benevolence an ample fund may be accumulated in each Annual Conference to meet the wants of all who are claimants upon this benevolence of the Church.

J. G. EVANS,
T. W. MCVETY,
A. M. STOCKING,
JAMES W. HANEY.

III. SOCIAL SETTLEMENTS.

WHEREAS, There is a rapidly increasing class of day laborers in this country; and,

WHEREAS, The industrial conditions of the times are such as to bring this class of people to the city and force a congested condition of society; and,

WHEREAS, The Church of Jesus Christ as represented by the various denominations is moving away from the segregated poor in the down town districts; and,

WHEREAS, The industrial, social and spiritual condition of these poor people call most pathetically for sympathy and help; and,

WHEREAS, The Christian Social Settlement has demonstrated the practicability of reaching this class of people, by opening centers of personal influence and mutual helpfulness in these congested districts; Therefore,

Resolved, That we Memorialize the General Conference to consider the propriety of establishing such Social Centers in the down town districts of our cities, and of appointing a commission to investigate and report, from time to time, through our church papers, the result of its investigation, including methods of work which may be found to have proven efficient in reaching the people environed by poverty.

Resolutions.

G. W. GRAY.

WHEREAS, The social or college settlement has become a great power, and almost the only form of humanitarian work in the densely settled part of our large cities, known as the "slums,"

WHEREAS, While they practice, to a very commendable degree, many of the virtues inspired by Christ, there is a manifest tendency to ignore direct Christian teaching, and hence they signally fail to bring to the thought of the people Christ as a source of spiritual power,

WHEREAS, Through the personal effort and sacrifice of Rev. Geo. W. Gray, a social settlement has been established in Chicago, where the life of Christ is not only sought to be lived, but where He is confessed and His claims upon the heart taught and enforced; so that it is pre-eminently a Christian Social Settlement; therefore,

Resolved, That we request Bishop Andrews to appoint Geo. W. Gray "Superintendent of Christian Social Settlement Work in Chicago."

HISTORY.

WHEREAS, Our fathers have given us a great inheritance in what they have wrought for God and our country in the century just closed; and,

WHEREAS, It is of great importance that the history of their faithful work be not lost to the church; therefore,

Resolved, That we, as pastors, will give our best efforts to secure the history of our respective charges and have it forwarded to the custodian of our Conference materials before the next session of our Conference.

J. W. DENNING, Conference Custodian.

PICTURES.

Resolved, That the editor of the Minutes be instructed to procure pictures of the members of the Conference deceased within the past year, and have them inserted in the Minutes.

A. M. STOCKING,
J. F. ROBINSON,
M. M. MCCREIGHT,
R. T. BALLEW.

REPORTS.

Resolved, That we recommend and urge that the members of the Central Illinois Conference in making their reports to the Annual Conference session, in reporting the amount paid the pastor, to report only the amount of money actually received, or of which they have positive assurance that it will be paid.

M. M. MCCREIGHT.
For Kankakee District Association.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

WHEREAS, The appointment of committees on the morning of the opening of the Conference, subjects the members of the several committees to great inconvenience, and imposes upon the chairmen of committees much unnecessary work in bringing all the members of committees together, and, inasmuch as this method gives the members of committees no opportunity before the session to prepare for the responsible duties devolving upon them; therefore,

Resolved, That hereafter this Conference shall select its Standing Committees one year in advance, and the entire list of committees shall be published in the Minutes of the Conference.

NELSON G. LYONS,
THOMAS DONEY,
L. F. CULLOM,
JOE BELL.

THANKS.

WHEREAS, God in His gracious providence has brought to our Conference as President for the third time, our most highly esteemed and venerable Bishop, E. G. Andrews, D. D., LL. D.; therefore,

Resolved, That we return him our sincere thanks for his kindly courtesy and ability in administering the affairs of Conference, and for his able, timely and inspiring address to the class admitted into full membership in the Conference, and for his helpful and spiritual sermon on the Sabbath day, and that we will pray that God will lead him gently as he nears life's sunset and bring us to meet him where there is no word of failing forever.

C. O. MCCULLOCH,
J. G. EVANS,
R. B. WILLIAMS.

Resolved, That we extend our thanks to the secretaries, treasurers and reporters for their efficient service.

JOE BELL,
D. B. JOHNSON,

Resolved, That we extend to Bro. G. J. Luckey, pastor of this church, and to the citizens of Macomb a vote of thanks for their kindly and generous hospitality in entertaining us during the session of this Conference.

O. T. DWINELL,
JOE BELL,
D. B. JOHNSON.

UNITED METHODISM.

WHEREAS, The differences which so long separated the North and South have been obliterated and we are now a united people, with one sentiment and one flag, makes this an opportune time for taking steps toward the union of the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Therefore,

Resolved That we request our delegates to the General Conference to do everything in their power, consistent with our principles and policy, to accomplish such union.

Questions on all of the studies are to be prepared and five sets sent to the Secretary ten days before Easter in the spring of 1899, examiners to retain a copy of the questions. The Secretary will distribute the questions to T. W. McVety, C. O. McCulloch, J. E. Connor, B. F. Eckley, O. T. Dwinell, who will hold the spring examinations on the second Tuesday after Easter at Galesburg, Rock Island, Peoria, El Paso, Kankakee. The examinations are to be upon the books and not upon the subjects.

If candidates wish the return of their papers they will so request and furnish the postage. The candidates are most strongly urged to send their essays, sermons, syllabi and exegesis to their respective examiners as early as the spring examinations, and in every case to furnish them at least thirty days before the session of Conference.

Examiners will report at once to the candidates as to whether they have or have not passed at the examination. Scriptures for exegesis will be sent early in the year to the candidates. We urge that as far as possible the young men will take advantage of the spring examination.

Memoirs.

SAMUEL LESLIE GUTHRIE.

Samuel Leslie Guthrie was born in Ontario, Canada, Nov. 8, 1859. When he was 5 years old his parents emigrated to Mercer county, Illinois, where he grew to manhood. His early opportunities were not favorable, but by faithful use of his time, he was able, at an early age, to enter the school room as a teacher, in which capacity he was very successful. When about 25 years old he sought and found Christ in a genuine conversion. The whole course of thought, ambition and life was now changed. He soon had a deep conviction that God wanted him in the ministry. Conscious that he needed a better preparation for that responsible work, he determined to secure a college education. His attention was directed by his Presiding Elder, Rev. P. A. Cool, to Hedding College, and in 1887 he entered Hedding, without means, but with a strong will and a heart filled with love to God and man. He supplied Yates City, Second church Moline, London Mills and Hermon, and at the same time prosecuted his work in the college. He did excellent work on his charges, holding successful revival meetings every year and yet standing at the head of his classes in the college. In addition to this double work, he soon became so well known and popular that pressing calls came from every direction for Literary and Temperance lectures. To these calls he responded to the great delight and profit of his auditors—though evidently to his own hurt. In 1893 he graduated from Hedding College with the degree of Bachelor of Arts, and I do no injustice to the competent, successful and noble men and women who have gone out from Hedding College and are blessing the world with their sanctified learning, when I say that S. L. Guthrie was the brightest gem in Hedding's crown. Upon the recommendation of the president he was elected to the Chair of English Literature in his alma mater, and in September of 1893 he entered upon his work as professor. Though teaching many who had formerly been associated with him as students, his work was a marked success from the beginning. Prof. Guthrie was an untiring worker, and his associates saw, quicker than he, that he was failing in health. In the spring of 1895 the faculty proposed to divide his work among them and give him a vacation, which he very reluctantly accepted. He grew worse, and went to Arizona in search of health. His zeal for the Master was such that he accepted a charge, Tempe, where he became exceedingly popular among the people. At times he had hope of recovery, but pulmonary trouble was too deeply rooted for removal. Nervous trouble came from overwork in a debilitated condition, and on the 25th of January, 1899, he went home to his Heavenly Father and his body sleeps in Arizona, awaiting the resurrection of the just.

Brother Guthrie was united in marriage with Miss Susan England in August, 1894. A son was born of this union, but the loving parents were soon bereft of their child, for God took him. Sister Guthrie remains to mourn the departure of a faithful and loving husband.

Brother Guthrie was admitted into the Central Illinois Conference on probation two years ago, and appointed a Missionary in Arizona, to which he was re-appointed one year ago.

Time will not allow an analysis of the character and talent of our dear Brother Guthrie. He was honest and frank in all things and with everybody. Though out-spoken, he was kind and respectful to those who differed from him. He was a true and kind friend and a manly foe. As a temperance and prohibition advocate, he had few equals and, for a young man, no superiors. In the Nebraska constitutional campaign he made sixty speeches, and came to be known in that state as the "silver-tongued Scotch orator." On the lecture platform he was brilliant, but always serious, thoughtful, instructive and impressive. In the pulpit he was forcible, scriptural, spiritual and evangelistic. He was a lover of poetry and frequently quoted it with great effect. He never evaded duty, he never shirked responsibility, he never allowed himself to be turned away from what he believed to be right by the fear of foes or the persuasion of friends. With precious memory we bid our brother beloved farewell, trusting that his mantle may fall upon many a young man now entering the ministry.

ALEXANDER FISHER.

Alexander Fisher was born in Schenectedy, N. Y., on the 18th day of October, 1821. His parents were members of the Methodist Episcopal church. So he was brought up in the church which was afterwards the church of his choice, in which he spent his life, and from which he went up to his reward in Heaven.

He enjoyed the advantage of a common school education, and afterwards spent some time in Jonesville Academy. As to his moral condition he said of himself, "As a young man, before I was converted, I was full of gaiety and frivolity, and was fond of dancing." Three nights before his conversion he was at a party and a revival was in progress in a church near by, and it was suggested that several of the young men should attend the meeting. In the spirit of fun he said, "Boys, we have been wild and wicked, and we ought to turn over a new leaf. Suppose we go to church and start out together to seek the Lord." They supposed that he was in earnest, and one of them said to him, "Fisher, this is serious business; let us shake hands over it." He had been a leader among them and they were now ready to follow him. While he was joking about becoming a Christian, they were deeply convicted. During the services the thought of the consequences of his conduct oppressed him. He felt that he might cause the eternal ruin of those young men. He afterwards declared, "It was a hard battle that I fought during that service. I do not remember the text or sermon. The preacher was Rev. Abel Ford. But I decided at once to make a complete surrender to God. When the invitation was given to come forward to the mourner's bench, I said, come on boys, let us start." The people were surprised and thought that they were insincere. For three days and nights he sought in unutterable agony for the forgiveness of his sins. In the afternoon of the third day he was, as he said, "gloriously converted and filled with the Spirit." That evening at the meeting he made a public confession and joined the church. Three years ago he said to a brother minister: "A few days after that eventful evening, I received a still greater baptism. I have no doubt that at that time the Lord sanctified my soul."

A short time after his conversion his pastor gave him a license to exhort, and he at once began to call sinners to repentance.

He came west in 1843, and in 1844 he was married to Miss Laura J. Barnes, near Canton, Ill., and for forty-seven years he lived in loving wedlock with this faithful wife, who shared his toils and sorrows and rejoiced in his success, until November 17, 1891, God took her home to Heaven, leaving him in sorrow to pursue life's journey alone. Brother and Sister Fisher had one son, John, who was educated in the Illinois Wesleyan University, and entered the ministry in the Reformed Episcopal church, and after a few years went to California and died. His death was a great trial to his father and mother, who mourned for him until they too passed to that world where all tears are wiped away.

In 1848 Bro. Fisher was licensed to preach by Richard Haney, then presiding elder of Peoria District, and was appointed as a supply to Knoxville Circuit. In 1849 he was admitted on trial to the Rock River Conference and appointed as junior preacher with Benjamin Applebee, to Monmouth Circuit. His next field was Carthage, then LaHarpe, then Buda—spending two years in each of these appointments. On account of throat difficulty he was superanuated four years. After that he was made effective and labored two years on the Canton Circuit, two years at Chebanse, when, on account of failing health, he again took a superanuated relation, which relation he sustained until death.

He was a good man—quiet, unassuming, faithful in the work of a Christian minister. While he was sensitive in reference to his reputation—a precious treasure in the keeping of every preacher—he was not influenced by the spirit of self-seeking, and was never envious because of the prosperity of others, but always rejoiced in the success of his brethren. When health permitted he did the work of a Methodist preacher in a manly way, giving all diligence in the performance of his ministerial duties. When want of health compelled him to retire and go into business, he transacted business in the same way. And when he made money—as he usually did—the Church shared liberally in the results of his prosperity.

He was a useful man. During his ministry many souls were converted, and many of God's people led into a high and rich experience of that perfect love which casteth out fear. He also had the happy faculty of making peace and exciting the spirit of brotherly love among the people whom he served.

Rev. G. M. Bassett writes from Walnut, Ill.: "Three years ago, while pastor in Chicago, Bro. Fisher attended my church. The official board recognized him as associate pastor, and in this relation he was a great help in public services and pastoral visitation."

Subsequently he went West, and, in the home of his adopted daughter, at Los Angeles, California, on the 6th day of March, 1899, he peacefully "fell asleep in Jesus." As he approached the end he said, "I have no sorrow in looking down into the grave, no fear of the messenger that shall call me home."

He has gone to join the majority of his early associates before the throne. We have been accustomed to see his familiar form and genial smile, and hear his cordial greeting at our annual gatherings, and we are sad to know that we shall meet him here no more, but we'll greet him "when the roll is called up yonder."

BAXTER CLARKE DENNIS.

Baxter Clarke Dennis, son of Rev. L. B. and Mrs. B. D. Dennis, was born in Franklin county, Ohio, January 19, 1835, and died in Abingdon, Ill., May 14, 1899. His venerable father of precious memory passed to his rest nine years ago. His mother, of four score and five, is still among us. At the age of nine years, Baxter Dennis was taken by his parents to Arkansas, where he lived two years and thence removed to Iowa—a prominent field of his father's ministerial labors.

In Burlington, Iowa, in a revival meeting conducted by his father, and in which Bishop C. C. McCabe was converted, Bro. Dennis united with the church on probation. For months, in great darkness of soul, he was faithful in the discharge of religious duties, when at times he would have given up the struggle had it not been for the determination of his mother that he should persevere. On the 17th of the following August, in the year 1852, at the age of 17, during a camp meeting near the city where his father was pastor, he was found on his face in the woods in such agony of spirit that, according to his own testimony, he thought he would die. But an old Methodist preacher came upon him in his hour of need, pointed him to the Lamb of God, prayed with him till light burst upon his darkened soul, when he returned to the camp with such shouts of triumph as awakened all the congregation to rejoicing and praise.

In his 19th year Bro. Dennis became a member on probation in the Iowa Conference, and as such was transferred later to Kansas. In a tent in Lawrence, where no church was accessible, at the session at which the Kansas Conference was organized, he was ordained deacon by Bishop Baker—being the first Methodist preacher ever ordained on Kansas soil.

September 6, 1857, Bro. Dennis was married to Elizabeth M. Earnheart, daughter of Rev. John F. Earnheart, of Green Castle, Indiana, who, for more than forty years has shared the joys and toils of an itinerary life, and today mourns the loss of a husband faithful and true. To them six children were born—Osmon C., Carrie B., August E. G., L. Adella, Albert W. and Eddy Hunter Dennis. To these there falls the richest inheritance a father can bequeathe his children—the memory of a noble, honorable and successful life. Mrs. Cabbage, of Knoxville, is an only sister.

The ministerial appointments of Bro. Dennis were as follows: In the Kansas Conference: 1856, Ottumwa; 1857, Topeka and Sumner; 1858, Franklin; 1859, Garnette; 1860, DeSoto; 1862, Presiding Elder of the Rocky Mountain District. At the end of two years this territory was organized within the bounds of another Conference, and Bro. Dennis returned to Kansas and was stationed, in 1864, at Manhattan. In the spring of 1865 he removed to Iowa and supplied Dodgeville charge until fall, when he transferred to the Central Illinois Conference, then in session at Onarga. His successive appointments in our Conference were: 1865, Chebanse; 1866, Toulon; 1867, Victoria; 1870, Macomb; 1872, Kewanee; 1874, Galva; 1877, Tiskilwa; 1878, New Boston; 1879, Preemtion; 1882, Blandinsville; 1883, Bardolph; 1885, Gilman; 1887, Braceville; 1888, Buckley and Loda; 1890 Bro. Dennis took a supernumerary relation and engaged in work as an Evangelist until 1892, when he was appointed as a supply at Raritan. 1893 to 1896 he supplied Gilson charge, having resumed an effective relation the last of these years. At the Conference of 1896 he was appointed Conference Evangelist, in which capacity he has since labored until accepting the appointment as a supply at Fountain Green during the winter of 1899. At Colmer, one point on this charge, Bro. Dennis received a violent fall on May 6, resulting in serious injuries, which was followed by a sudden attack of pneumonia of which he died at 1 o'clock on Sunday morning, May 14. Almost his last hours of consciousness were spent in preparing a paper which he was to have presented at the Epworth League convention which had just closed at Blandinsville. Early in the Conference year he suffered from exposure, over-work and a severe attack of lagrippe, from which he never recovered. Upon leaving home the last time he staggered to his post of duty to die and pass from a hard field of toil to a sweet inheritance of rest. His labors at times bordered upon the romantic and heroic, not only while as a pioneer he laid the foundations of the church in Colorado, but when under arms he passed through the scenes of strife and bloodshed which attended the history of Kansas in the 50s and 60s. In the true sense he was a faithful and efficient gospel preacher. His message was one of salvation to lost men. He was mighty in the Scriptures and never failed to secure the conversion of sinners. At Macomb, Kewanee and Galva especially hundreds were added unto the church under his ministry. In developing the spiritual life of the membership and in pastoral labors he was also eminently successful. He was honored in his Conference, loved by his brethren, respected and trusted by all who knew him. He was active in the temperance reform and positively committed to the right side of every good cause. For many years he professed, preached, enjoyed and exemplified the doctrine of perfect love. The genuineness, purity, and strength of his Christian experience and life none have ever questioned.

The influence of this man of God will long be felt among the powers that make for righteousness among us. He rests from his labors, but his works do follow him. Of such, the Savior said, "They shall walk with me in white, for they are worthy."

The funeral was held in our church at Abingdon and was in charge of the pastor. Fourteen ministerial brethren were present. H. D. Clark read the scriptures, A. W. Lowther offered prayer. Appropriate remarks were made by Dr. W. H. Hunter, Presiding Elder J. H. Ryan. S. Van Pelt, W. H. Witter and R. E. Buckey. The burial took place in Abingdon cemetery.

JOSEPHUS F. FOREMAN.

Rev. Josephus F. Foreman was born near Mazon, Grundy county, Ill., March 31, 1858, and died in Wesley Hospital, Chicago, on Tuesday night, August 22, 1899; aged 41 years, 4 months and 21 days.

He was converted when 11 years old and united with the Methodist Episcopal church the same year.

His parents and others testify that he began in all seriousness to preach when he was but 4 years old.

At the age of 19 years he was licensed to preach, but being modest and retiring in disposition, he did not enter upon the active work of the ministry until some years after. While riding along the road one day near Lexington, Ill., he felt burdened with a sense of his responsibility. He then and there promised the Lord that he would preach the Gospel and enter upon the work of the ministry as soon as the way opened. That very day his Presiding Elder, Rev. B. W. Baker, met him on the street in Lexington and asked him to take charge of our churches at Bell Plaine, La Rose and Varna until Conference. He kept his promise and went, and in September, 1888, was admitted into the Central Illinois Conference on trial. He was ordained deacon in 1889 and elder in 1893. During the almost twelve years of his connection with the Conference he served three pastoral charges for a term of four years each, viz: Bell Plaine, La Rose, Cropsey and Saunemin.

He was an able preacher, a perfect gentleman, Christlike in character and conduct, genial in spirit, cordial in his manner and was loved by all who knew him. He was indeed one of the very best of the younger men in our Conference. Before entering the work of the ministry he attended school for a time at the Illinois Wesleyan University.

January 7, 1883, he was happily wedded to Miss Lucy Hanks. This union was blessed with a little daughter, Myrtle Estella, to gladden their hearts and home for almost eight years. Then the Master came and called for her. She obeyed the summons, but left behind this testimony: "I love Jesus; I know he has forgiven my sins." She was graciously and consciously converted at the age of 7, and united with the church of which her father was pastor. The doubly bereaved wife and mother returned to her former home at Fairbury, Ill., to mourn in silence over the loss of her God-given treasures until the glad meeting again on the bright Celestial Shore. The parents, Josiah W. and Eliza F. Foreman, bereaved of their only child, Frank, returned with sad and lonely hearts to their home at Monon, Indiana, there to await the summons when there shall be a happy reunion in that better country where parting is no more.

For four years or more our departed brother struggled manfully against disease and death. At times he was temporarily disabled for duty and sought relief, but found it not. In the midst of it all he never murmured nor complained, neither did he falter in his purpose nor flag in his zeal and enthusiasm for the cause of Christ.

In his mid-week prayer service, a short time before his last illness, some of his members feeling solicitous for his restoration to health prayed earnestly for him, but he calmly assured them that it was all right, "for I know whom I have believed. I have committed it all to Him and am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I have committed unto Him."

The last week in July he and his devoted companion went to Pontiac, Ill., to rest awhile and attend the Chautauqua exercises. While there he grew worse, and, acting upon the advice of friends and brethren in the ministry, he departed for Wesley Hospital with the hope that a surgical operation could be performed which would bring relief and prolong his life. On arriving at the Hospital he was too weak to undergo a thorough examination. A fatal malady had seized upon his kidneys and he was being consumed by malarial fever. He never rallied, but sank rapidly until released by death. Before his departure he expressed a desire to recover for "the works sake," that he might complete his year's work and bring up his reports to Conference. Yet he had a desire to depart and be with Christ, which was far better than to remain a helpless sufferer in the flesh.

The day before his death he spoke of the bright and beautiful morning, and longed to fly away and be at rest. Heaven seemed real, beautiful, desirable, and not a land afar off. At 11 o'clock on Tuesday night, August 22, his spirit took its flight to Him who gave it. He was thus early converted; early called to the work of the ministry and early crowned. May we not truly say, "Servant of God, well done; thy fight is fought, thy race is run."

Friday morning, August 25, appropriate funeral services were held in the church of which Bro. Foreman had been pastor for about four years. Rev. R. B. Williams, D. D., Presiding Elder of Kankakee District, conducted the services and preached a very helpful, comforting sermon. Rev. John Rogers, a former pastor of the deceased, made appropriate remarks. Revs. Alexander Smith, M. L. Miller, N. D. Hanes and M. M. McCreight participated in the service. The remains were laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery at Fairbury, Ill.; there to await the summons from on high: "Come, ye blessed, of My Father inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world."

LUCY MATILDA HANEY.

Lucy Matilda Burnet was born in Saratoga county, New York, February 20, 1819, and died in Peoria, Ill., July 19, 1899, in the 81st year of her age. She united with the M. E. church early in life. Upon her arrival at Peoria she united with the church there by letter from the church in Chardon, Ohio.

She came to Illinois in 1884 with her uncle, Rev. John Chandler, of sainted memory, and his estimable wife. For two years she lived with them, when, in March, 1846, she was married to Rev. Freeborn Haney. After three years of happy married life her husband died. After his death she returned to Peoria and until her death she made her home with her cousin, Mrs. Ira Benton.

She was wonderfully self-sacrificing, a model of patience, amiable and kind-hearted, and a devout, faithful, loyal Christian. She was unconscious from the time the stroke of apoplexy came until the angel of death came. While she left no dying testimony, her whole life was a constant commentary upon the religion she professed to have and enjoy. For fifty years a widow, she has doubtless joined her itinerant husband "in the land of the leal."

The encomium of Christ to the woman of his time can be truthfully said of Lucy M. Haney—"She hath done what she could."

MRS. MOLLIE L. W. ARCHER.

Mollie L. Wellington was born at Guyandotte, West Virginia, March 31, 1864, and departed this life at Pennoyer Sanitarium, Kenosha, Wis., May 25, 1899. She was the daughter of Noah and Elizabeth Wellington. Her mother died when she was about six years of age. Her childhood was spent under the watchful care of an earnest Christian father and grandmother.

September 11, 1888, she was united in marriage to Rev. Sanford P. Archer, who was at that time a member of the West Virginia Conference, and pastor at Guyandotte. In a few weeks after her marriage she came with her husband to Raritan, Henderson County, Ill., he having been transferred to the Central Illinois Conference, where they spent the first two years of their married life. 1890-'92 were spent in the pastorate at Elvaston, 1892-'93 at Wataga, 1893-'96 at Reynolds. At the conference of September, 1896, they were appointed to Neponset, which was her home at the time of her death. She was taken sick in January last, and gradually grew worse, until her condition became so alarming that she was taken to Wesley Hospital, Chicago, April 5, and from there to the Pennoyer Sanitarium, Kenosha, Wis., April 26, where she remained until the time of her death. Everything that medical science could do was done for her. Six days before she died she seemed to improve very much, and great hope of her recovery was entertained by her physicians, but on Wednesday afternoon she was taken suddenly worse, and passed away at 12:30 p. m. Thursday. During her long illness she was patient in a most marked degree, and nurse and physicians repeatedly spoke of her kindly spirit and patient resignation to her sufferings.

She was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church at Guyandotte, W. Va., March, 1885, during the pastorate of Rev. Wm. Rader. Her Christian life was most helpful to those who associated with her. She was generous and kind hearted, ready always to put her own pleasure aside in order to make someone else happy. This natural aptitude was greatly strengthened by the vision of Jesus which she enjoyed. The poor and suffering of the community where she lived as minister's wife were the special object of her thoughtful care. She was always an active temperance worker, and a member of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union for years.

Through her influence a Union was organized at Raritan a few weeks after she went there as pastor's wife, and she was its first president. For some time she was District Superintendent of Evangelistic work of the Eleventh Congressional District. Before the children came to brighten her home she was a teacher in the Sunday School, an earnest worker in the Epworth League, and the work of the church where her husband was pastor. She was one of the officers of the Galesburg District Epworth League for some time.

While she was helpful in her church work, it was in the home where her character shone the brightest. Hers was a happy home. If anything worried her she put it aside and presented a cheerful face to her husband. She was the stay of his very life. No wife was ever more thoughtful of her husband's happiness than Mrs. Archer. Anything that might injure him struck at her heart. To be without her cheery smile, helpful advice and blessed companionship is a sorrow to him who walked by her side for more than ten years too bitter to be expressed in words.

Three children were born to them, the oldest, Leon Foster, died when about three months old, shortly after their removal from Elvaston to Wataga. Bessie Marie and Olin Wellington came to gladden the hearts of their parents during the pastorate at Reynolds. They are left to walk life's pathway without a mother's care.

She talked very much of the children during the weeks that she was away from them, and she often prayed that God would lead them to a noble and useful manhood and womanhood. Her Christian life, always beautiful, seemed to be greatly enriched during the weeks of her illness, and the strangers who saw her for the first time were impressed with, and spoke of the beautiful light in her face, and the hallowed presence of the Master that filled her sick room. She said to her husband on Friday before she died, "I have left it all in the hands of the Lord, and whatever he does is all right. I think I am going to get well, but if I don't it is all right." A few hours before she passed away, when her husband reached her side and told her that the end was near, and asked her if she was ready to go and be with Jesus, she said, "Oh, yes, blessed Jesus, blessed Jesus." She asked her husband to pray with her, and, with breaking heart, he tried to do so, she seemed comforted, and said, "Tell the children to be good."

A while before she died her husband said, "Do you know me, dear?" and she said, "Oh, yes." He spoke to her of their singing together at the death bed of a young friend of theirs, the hymn "My Heavenly Home is Bright and Fair," and when he tried to sing it for her she tried to join in the singing, but she was too weak, but she has gone to join the chorus of the redeemed in heaven.

Beside her husband and two little children she leaves an aged father and three sisters to mourn her loss.

She has left the loved ones the precious inheritance of a Christlike life, to cherish which and hold sacred shall ever be the earnest purpose of those who mourn her loss.

The funeral service was held in the Neponset M. E. Church Monday, May 29, at 2 p. m., conducted by the Rev. M. V. Crumbaker, of Kankakee, assisted by the Revs. J. W. Frizzelle, of Rock Island, A. M. Stocking, of Aledo, J. F. James, of Buda, E. W. Thompson, of Colona, R. A. Brown, of Kewanee, J. F. Robinson, of Moline, F. DeClark, of New Boston, C. F. Crane, of Sunbeam, J. P. McCormick, of Tiskilwa, H. M. Richardson, of Neponset Congregetional Church, and A. M. Bowlin, of Altona.

After the services at the church the remains were laid away in Floral Hill Cemetery to await the resurrection morn. A great throng of sympathetic friends attended the services—a number coming from former charges where Mrs. Archer had been minister's wife.

Journal of Lay Electoral Conference.

The Eighth Lay Electoral Conference of the Central Illinois Conference of M. E. Church met in First Baptist Church in Macomb, Ill., September 22, 1899, at 10 o'clock.

Meeting was called to order by C. H. Long, of Pontiac, and E. C. Curtis, of Grant Park, Ill., was chosen temporary president, and Walter Wyatt, of Peoria, Ill., temporary secretary. An invitation was given the Conference by Revs. Richard Haney, T. W. McVety, and A. K. Tullis, to attend ministerial Conference at 1:30 p. m., then in session at First M. E. Church, to be addressed by Rev. Bishop Edward G. Andrews.

On motion it was decided to accept invitation to meet the committee at 1:30 p. m. and be escorted to First M. E. Church.

On motion a committee of three on credentials was appointed. J. A. Hoop, C. H. Long, O. R. Clough, committee.

While the committee on credentials were passing on credentials the Conference was addressed by Manley S. Hard of Board of Church Extension. Also addresses were made by Rev. R. G. Hobbs, the financial secretary of Peoria Deaconess Home and Hospital, and Miss M. Riggs, a deaconess of Peoria Deaconess Home.

The Rev. Hobbs's address was interesting and impressive, and convinced the laity that great good will come to the Central Illinois Conference by the establishing of the Conference Hospital at Peoria.

Miss M. Riggs's address was favorably received, as she told of the good and effective service being done by the deaconesses of the Central Illinois Conference.

Committee on Credentials reported following names: (See roll.)

On motion members present from churches where the lay delegate or alternate were not present were allowed to vote. There were five of such present, but the secretary was unable to secure their names.

On motion the temporary officers were made permanent.

On motion Dr. C. H. Long, E. B. McKeever, Dr. G. R. Shafer, Prof. M. Andrews, L. T. Hutchins were appointed a committee on resolutions.

On motion adjournment was taken until after hearing address of Bishop E. G. Andrews at 1:30 p. m.

2 p. m.—On motion nominating speeches were limited to two minutes.

On motion delegates were nominated for General Conference.

The nominations were as follows: J. S. Thompson, Lacon, Ill.; J. T. Noftsker, Rock Island; C. M. Beecher, Lafayette, Ill.; W. H. McCord, Blandinsville, Ill.; Prof. M. Andrews, Galesburg, Ill.; Dr. C. H. Long, Pontiac, Ill.; L. B. Cobb, Kankakee, Ill.; C. Brown, Geneseo, Ill.; W. F. Crawford, Taylor Ridge, Ill.; Dr. J. O. Applebee, Cuba, Ill.

On first ballot of 107 votes cast J. S. Thompson, of Lacon, Ill., received 54 votes and was declared elected.

On fourth ballot of 99 votes cast Prof. Mathew Andrews, of Galesburg, Ill., received 57 votes and was declared elected.

On seventh ballot of 96 votes cast Chas. M. Beecher, of LaFayette, Ill., received 66 votes and was declared elected as first provisional delegate.

On ninth ballot of 86 votes cast Lemi B. Cobb, of Kankakee, Ill., received 46 votes and was declared elected second provisional delegate.

On eleventh ballot of 77 votes cast John T. Noftsker, of Rock Island, Ill., received 42 votes and was declared elected third provisional delegate.

On motion W. H. McCord, of Blandinsville, Ill., and C. H. Long were elected alternate lay delegates, W. H. McCord to represent the western half of Central Illinois Conference, and C. H. Long the eastern half of Central Illinois Conference.

On motion L. F. Gumbart, of Macomb, Ill., W. F. Crawford, of Taylor Ridge, Ill., and C. Brown, of Geneseo, Ill., were elected alternate provisional delegates.

On motion the Lay Electoral Conference endorsed the proposed plan of Deaconess Home and Hospital for Central Illinois Conference at Peoria.

The chairman of the Committee on Resolutions presented the following report and the resolutions were adopted:

First, Equal Representation.

WHEREAS, The annual Conferences have adopted the Rock River amendment for equal representation by an almost unanimous vote,

Resolved, That this Electoral Conference memorialize the General Conference to complete the action of the annual Conferences and seat the "provisional delegates" elected in the General Conference of 1900.

Second, Admission of Women.

WHEREAS, Woman is now a recognized leader in all departments of church work; and

WHEREAS, We believe that our church work will be benefited and God's kingdom advanced by her presence in our deliberations; therefore,

Resolved, That we memorialize the General Conference for the admission of women into that body, and that we will continue to earnestly advocate such admission.

Third, Time Limit.

WHEREAS, We believe the time limit to be generally satisfactory; therefore,

Resolved, That in our opinion the time limit should not be changed.

Fourth, Elections.

WHEREAS, The present system of electing Stewards, Trustees, etc., by the Quarterly Conference, deprives a large portion of our members of a voice in the matter; and

WHEREAS, Such deprivation lessens the interest in church work; therefore,

Resolved, That we believe such officials should be elected by all members over 21 years of age in our respective churches.

Fifth, Temperance.

Resolved, That we memorialize the General Conference to take no backward step from the advanced ground taken in the General Conference in regard to legalizing the liquor traffic.

Sixth.

Resolved, That a special vote of thanks be extended to the trustees of the Baptist Church of Macomb for the use of their church for the sessions of this Electoral Conference.

Committee: C. H. LONG, Chairman. M. ANDREWS, G. R. SHAFFER, E. B. MCKEEVER, L. T. HUTCHINS.

WALTER WYATT, Secretary. Peoria, Ill.

E. C. CURTIS, President, Grant Park, Ill.

FIRST DAY.

PEORIA, ILL., September 19, 1900.

Forty-Fifth Session.—The Central Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church met for its forty-fifth session in the first M. E. Church of Peoria, Ill., at 9 a. m., with Bishop W. X. Ninde in the chair.

Sacrament.—By request of the Bishop, Rev. Isaiah Villars, D. D., of the Rock River Conference, read a scripture lesson, after which the Bishop, assisted by the Presiding Elders and Pastor of Peoria First Church, administered the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper; after which the Conference was led in prayer by Dr.'s J. G. Evans and W. H. Hunter.

The Bishop briefly addressed the Conference.

Roll Call.—The Secretary of the conference having died during the year, the first assistant Secretary called the roll, and one hundred and forty-seven members and probationers answered to their names.

Roll Call.—On motion of Thos. Doney, the Conference decided to have the Secretary call the names of absentees on to-morrow morning, after which the calling of the roll shall be omitted.

Organization.—On motion of Dr. W. H. Hunter it was decided that the Secretary be elected by ballot.

On motion of William Woolley it was decided that the first ballot be an informal ballot for nomination.

Bar.—C. O. McCulloch moved to fix the bar of the Conference to include the seventh row of seats from the front.

N. G. Lyons moved as a substitute that it be fixed to include the ninth row.

J. P. Forsythe moved to amend by making it to include the eighth row. The amendment prevailed and the motion as amended carried.

Tellers.—The Bishop appointed the following as tellers: N. G. Lyons, S. Van Pelt, M. P. Lackland and J. S. White.

J. F. Robinson was elected Assistant Secretary, pro tem.

Conference Hours.—On motion of J. F. James the time of opening was fixed at 8:30 a. m., the first half hour to be devoted to devotional services, and the time of adjournment at 11:45 a. m.

Ballot.—An informal Ballot for nominating a Secretary was taken, and the tellers retired. J. F. Robinson, Assistant Secretary, was appointed to accompany the tellers.

Standing Committees.—On motion of J. P. Forsythe the Presiding Elders were appointed to nominate the standing committees.

The Committees were elected.

(See List.)

Drew Seminary.—The Bishop announced a report on Drew Seminary, which was referred to the Committee on Education.

Conference Examiner.—On motion of O. T. Dwinell, Eddy McOmber was appointed to represent the Conference Examiner.

Tellers.—The tellers reported the result of the ballot for nominating the Conference Secretary as follows: Joe. Bell 8, M. L. Miller 1, D. S. McCown 66, O. T. Dwinell 2, A. R. Morgan 13, H. D. Clark 1, J. F. Robinson 15, A. M. Stocking 8, L. F. Cullom 3, J. J. White 1. D. F. Wilson 1, J. A. Chapman 3, Thos. Doney 6. S. VanPelt 7, W. E. Shaw 1, R. E. Buckey 1.

On motion of G. R. Palmer it was ordered that balloting for election of Secretary be confined to the three candidates having the largest number of votes.

A ballot was then taken for election of Secretary and the tellers retired.

Methodist Review.—On motion of J. W. Frizzelle, J. A. Alford was appointed to solicit subscriptions for the Review.

Conference Reporter.—On motion of R. A. Brown, S. P. Archer was appointed Conference Reporter for the Northwestern Christian Advocate.

Book Concern.—The Secretary read the report of the Book Concern.

Drafts.—The Bishop announced Drafts on the Book Concern for $1,014.00, and on the Chartered Fund for $22.00, and on motion the drafts were ordered.

On motion of D. F. Wilson it was ordered that the draft for the dividend from the Book Concern be made payable to the Conference Treasurer.

On motion of J. G. Blair the draft for the dividend from the Chartered Fund was made payable to the President of the Board of Stewards.

Tellers.—The tellers reported the result of the ballot for Secretary as follows: Whole number of votes cast 136, necessary to a choice 69, D. S. McCown received 107, A. R. Morgan 15, J. F. Robinson 14. The Bishop declared D. S. McCown elected, he having received the required majority.

The Secretary nominated assistants as follows and they were elected: J. F. Robinson, J. D. Calhoun, and F. W. Imboden.

Statistical Secretaries.—On nomination of F. W. Merrell, L. F. Cullom was re-elected Statistical Secretary by acclamation, and on his nomination the following were elected assistants: Vincent Aten, J. S. White, I. Willett Puffer, F. J. Giddings, N. J. Brown, J. E. Connor, C. F. Crane, J. P. McCormick, Hugh Gibson and W. S. Baker.

Treasurer.—On nomination of F. W. Merrell, Thos. Doney was re-elected Conference treasurer by acclamation, and on his nomination the following were elected assistants: D. F. Wilson, J. A. Chapman, O. T. Dwinell, W. R. Warner, W. E. Shaw, Fletcher DeClark, J. J. Hunter, Eddy McOmber, E. R. Horton and W. D. Evans.

V. H. Brink was excused from committee work.

Thirteenth Question.—"Was the Character of each Preacher Examined?" was taken up.

Galesburg District was called. The character of J. H. Ryan, Presiding Elder, was passed, and he reported the work of his district.

Introduced.—W. F. McDowell, D.D., Secretary of the Board of Education, T. B. Neeley, D.D., Secretary of the Sunday School Union and Tract Society, and James Shaw, D.D., of the Illinois Conference were introduced.

Dr.'s McDowell and Neeley addressed the Conference in the interests of their respective causes.

Joe Bell was appointed to conduct the devotional services to-morrow morning.

Railroad Secretary.—On motion of R. E. Buckey, E. E. Diffenbaugh was elected Railroad Secretary.

The committees were called, announcements were made, the Doxology was sung and J. G. Evans pronounced the benediction.

SECOND DAY.

Thursday, September 20, 1900.

The Conference met at 8:30 a. m., when Joe Bell conducted the devotional services.

The Bishop took the chair at 9 o'clock.

The Journal of yesterday's session was read and approved.

Roll Call.—The Secretary called the roll of absentees and tweny-one members responded to their names.

Absentees.—On motion of J. S. Cumming the Secretary was authorized to mark present all absentees from roll call who reported to him in person.

Delinquents.—The Statistical Secretary announced the names of charges from which reports had not been received.

Episcopal Fund.—The report of the Book Committee on the Episcopal Fund was read and referred to the Committee on the Episcopal Fund.

Conference Claimants.—The Secretary read a communication from J. Benson Hamilton concerning the sustentation of Conference claimants, also resolutions from New York East Conference, modifying the present Disciplinary plan, all of which was referred to a special committee appointed by the Board of Conference Claimants. The committee are as follows: A. K. Tullis, A. M. Stocking and T. W. McVety.

J. S. Cumming presented the report of the Visitors to the Illinois Wesleyan University and it was referred to Educational Committee.

Introduced.—Isaiah Villars, D.D., of Rock River Conference; E. M. Smith, D.D., President of the Illinois Wesleyan University, and Rev. S. L. Hamilton, of Michigan Conference, were introduced.

Dr. Smith addressed the Conference in the interest of the University.

Districts.—A resolution presented by Dr. W. H. Hunter favoring the increasing of the number of districts in our Conference from five to seven was lost.

Introduced.—Bishop Hartzell; J. L. Barth, a Presiding Elder of the St. Louis German Conference; U. Z. Gilmer, President of Hedding College; John Fayille, pastor of Peoria First Congregational Church, and William Parsons, Pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church of Peoria, were introduced.

The Thirteenth Question.—"Was the Character of each Preacher Examined?" was taken up.

The characters of the following Presiding Elders were passed and they represented their Districts: R. B. Williams, W. R. Wiley, F. W. Merrell and J. W. Frizzelle.

The Bishop called the Presiding Elders forward and asked them whether there were any charges or complaints against any of the preachers in their Districts, to which they answered none; he also asked whether the disciplinary provisions concerning the taking of the benevolent collections have been observed, and they answered, "they have."

Junior League.—Mrs. D. T. Miles, superintendent of State Junior League work, was introduced and addressed the Conference in the interest of the work.

International Convention.—Rev. S. L. Hamilton addressed the Conference in the interest of the International Epworth League Convention, San Francisco, 1901.

Memoirs.—On motion of R. B. Williams, Henderson Ritchie was added to the Committee on Memoirs.

DEACONESS WORK.

Your Committee on Deaconess Work submit the following: We have examined the reports of the work done during the year and find them very encouraging. It is our conviction that the Deaconess movement gives great promise of being a mighty factor in the city problem now confronting our church, and therefore should have our sympathy, prayers and earnest cooperation.

The following is a summary of the year's work:

DEACONESS HOME AND HOSPITAL.

|---|---|
| Number of licensed Deaconess | 2 |
| Number of probationers | 2 |

|---|---|

| Number probationers | 10 |
| Number of these assigned to work in Bloomington Deaconess Hospital | 13 |
| Assigned to work in Normal as matron of Home and visiting deaconess | 1 |

The Board invited the transfer of Mrs. N. C. Radford from Rock River Conference to the Central Illinois Conference. (Her work being that of Matron of N. A. Mason Home.)

After examination by the Board, on the recommendation of the Normal Quarterly Conference, Pearl Robinette was granted license as a deaconess and recommended for consecration to that work. The consecration service was conducted by Bishop Ninde at the closing session of the Conference.

The licenses of Mary Jefferson and Lucy H. Hall were renewed.

RESOLUTION.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Conference that the funds directed to Wesley Hospital be turned to the Deaconess Home and Hospital at Peoria.

The Conference Deaconess Board of nine were elected.

II. Reports of Standing Committees.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, The plan of universal spread of the Gospel, as conducted by a wise Providence is indicated by the extensive circulation of the Bible throughout the world.

Resolved, As a Conference, we heartily co-operate in the great enterprise of supplying the word of God to the millions of heathens in several hundred languages and dialects, for the motto of the church is that "The word of God is the hope of the world."

The missionaries who labor among the millions whose income is but five or ten cents per day, must be able to obtain the word of God for these at less than actual cost of publication. It is by the contributions of our Annual Conference or Conferences, and other churches that a Bible can be placed in the hands of the heathen, and home of the christian convert. The late war has opened the gateway to ten million people, and the open doors are God's beckoning hands.

Your Committee ask that you will lead our beloved people to larger benevolence in this all important work.

S. P. ALFORD, President. D. S. ANDREWARTHA, Secretary.

BOOK ACCOUNTS.

The committee appointed on Book Accounts begs leave to submit for your consideration the following report:

WHEREAS, the administration of our publishing interests have been so ably and faithfully conducted during the past quadrennium by those in charge; and,

WHEREAS, so many of the members of our Conference have been so prompt in settling their accounts with the Book Concern; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we commend the efficient administration of these interests, and most heartily appreciate the liberal appropriation made to the superannuated fund of our Conference.

2. We congratulate our Conference that so few members are in arrears with the Book Concern, and would urge that those who are settle with the Concern at the earliest possible moment in order that the agents of our publishing interests may continue to make such large appropriations.

3. We recommend that ten per cent. be reserved by the Board of Conference Stewards from the allowances to all superannuated claimants known to be intebted to the Concern, the same to be applied on such indebtedness.

E. E. DIFFENBAUGH, Secretary. M. A. HEAD, Chairman.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

The committee has received from the Board of Church Extension the following facts and desires to call the attention of the Conference to the same:

From 1866, when this work began, to July 1, 1900, the Board collected

$6,776,160.33 as follows: From collections $4,297,683.32. The loan fund has a capital of $1,126,251.54. Churches borrowing have returned $1,352,225.47. With this the Board has aided 11,503 churches.

Our Conference has shared in this work as follows: Collections from the beginning to Nov. 1st, 1899, $54,047.38; to this our Conference adds this year, $1,772, making a total of $55,819. Eighty-three churches within our bounds have received aid up to Nov. 1, 1899, as follows: By donations $17-564.15, by loans of $11,900, making a total of $29,464.15.

For the ensuing year our Conference is asked to raise by collections $5,000. Then our needy churches may receive aid to the amount of $1,000.

We recommend for adoption the following resolution:

1. We heartily congratulate the Board of Church Extension and the Church at large on the remarkable success of this work through a period of thirty-two years.

2. That our country being new, with rapidly increasing population and new territorial additions, will continue to need church extension in the future as in the past, and that our Church by fostering and strengthening this work will increase its own power to do the larger work now thrown upon it.

3. That we, as a Conference, will co-operate with the Board of Church Extension in securing within the ensuing three years Twentieth Century Thank Offerings for Church Extension to the amount of $1,000,000.

4. That we recommend that the pastors and churches avail themselves of the helps provided by the Board, especially "Christianity in Earnest" and "Glad Tidings." And that we will present this cause to our churches, and endeavor to secure at least the amount asked in accordance with the plan of our Discipline.

FRANK RIST, Secretary. W. B. SHOOP, Chairman.

CHURCH INSURANCE.

Your Committee present the following report: That the General Conference acted wisely in ordering the organization of our Insurance Company has been demonstrated by the promptness with which our churches and preachers are availing themselves of the protection provided.

Although the Company is less than a year and a half old over seven thousand five hundred policies were in force September 1st, aggregating over nine million of dollars, with no losses due and unpaid and only one in process of adjustment. The dividend paying point has been reached by the close of the first year. In addition to saving a large amount annually that would otherwise be paid out by our people for policies in Stock Companies our Company by its easy terms of annual payments is already enabling over three thousand churches and one thousand of our preachers to carry protection which was practically out of reach with the Stock Companies because of inability to meet their terms.

We agree with the Board of Insurance in stating emphatically that it is just as much our duty to insure our churches as it is to build them.

We cordially endorse this important work and urge our preachers to do all in their power to get all of our churches in our own Company as soon as possible.

J. M. PROUTY, Secretary. A. K. TULLIS, Chairman.

DOMESTIC MISSIONS.

We congratulate our Conference on its wisdom in organizing several years ago a Domestic Missionary Society according to the provisions of our Discipline.

In our judgment the money expended by this Domestic Missionary Society for evangelizing our home field thus preserving and enlarging the base of supplies for all of our other benevolent enterprises is wisely spent. And further, we believe the expenditure of this money is in the spirit of true Christian brotherhood—the strong helping to bear the burdens of the weak.

We therefore urge each pastor faithfully to take the collection for Domestic Missions in the month of November, raising their apportionment in full, and to forward the same to the Treasurer without delay.

We regret the fact that only nineteen pastors remitted their collections for Domestic Missions to the Treasurer before the beginning of this Conference session. These nineteen remittances amounting to only $182.00, and ten of these nineteen remittances amounting to $105.00 were received by the Treasurer after March 1, 1900, thus showing that seven-eights of our Pastors have failed during this last year to comply with the Conference resolution which enjoins that the collections for Domestic Missions be taken early in the Conference year and that prompt remittance be made to the Treasurer. Blameworthy neglect is in most cases the only possible explanation of this failure.

We wish to emphasize the fact that the only way to meet the needs of our brethren on these home mission charges in a gracious and brotherly way is to take the Domestic Missionary collection as early as November, making prompt remittance, thus strengthening their hands by the assurance of adequate support and preventing the distressing embarrassment of debt.

We recommend that the Board of Managers exercise great care in appropriating the receipts of this Society and that the Treasurer furnish an itemized statement of the disbursements for publication in our Conference Minutes.

We also recommend that the amounts actually needed by the various charges receiving help be appropriated and paid if possible and not exaggerated amounts named with the tacit understanding that only a small part of such appropriation is to be paid.

For Officers and Managers for the ensuing year we nominate the following: President, F. W. Merrell; Vice President, C. O. McCulloch; Secretary, J. A. Chapman; Treasurer, D. B. Johnson.

Managers: A. K. Tullis, M. V. B. White, M. M. McCreight, John Small, J. S. Thompson, Lacon; J. H. Bunn, Peoria; C. M. Beecher, LaFayette; John Prickett, Lewiston; W. H. McCord, Blandinsville.

V. HUNTER BRINK, Secretary. D. B. JOHNSON, President.

HEDDING COLLEGE.

We record our regret and disappointment that Dr. Clark thought it necessary to resign the presidency of this institution. And we recognize the strength and wisdom of his administration.

We believe the new administration begins auspiciously. We heartily approve the selection of Dr. Gilmer and assure him of our a cordial welcome. We assure the friends of Christian education in advance that none of the interests of the institution or of the students will suffer in the hands of President Gilmer and his able faculty.

We report that the College property at Abingdon is worth about $50,000, that the nominal endowment is about $57,000; that a large part of this is now productive and more will soon become active: that bequests to the amount of $49,000 have been written for the College, $43,000 of this within the past year. We report also that the College is without debt and cannot make a debt. While this is in a sense a protection to the Trustees, it cannot be the permanent policy of the College to let the burden of deficits fall on the teaching force. We approve the effort of the Trustees to create by subscription a sum sufficient to pay to the teachers their full salary.

And we recommend that the supplementary subscriptions for three years already begun and announced in open Conference by Dr. Clark be approved and encouraged, and that the soliciting committee appointed by the College Trustees be hereby approved by the Conference. We recommend the appointment of a special commission of five who shall not be Trustees of the College or residents of Abingdon to inquire into the status of the South College at Abingdon and to report to the session in 1901 what is the legal or other relation of the Conference in the case, and that the following constitute this committee: I. Quinby, E. C. Anderson, G. D. Crocker, N. T. Allen and H. D. Clark.

We recommend the election of the following as Trustees:

LAYMEN—S. T. Mosser, Orion Latimer, W. H. Beaver. R. G. Gardner.

MINISTERS—J. F. Robinson, T. J. Wood, G. D. Hensell, F. W. Merrell,

We recommend as Conference visitors J. D. Smith, William Woolley, L. F. Cullom, T. W. McVety, J. W. Edwards, John Rogers.

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

Your committee is pleased to learn from Dr. E. M. Smith, the President and the report of the Conference Visitors that the University is having a healthy growth in attendance and interest. The various schools of the University, viz.: Letters. Law, Music and Art have competent professors and instructors, who are doing their work according to modern methods and achieving good results. Large classes were graduated from each of these departments last June, which reflected credit on the faculty and the University.

The non-resident department of the University is among the best and has a large enrollment of earnest students scattered over the world. We especially commend the Joint Board of Trustees and Visitors for their success in reducing the expenses to within a close margin of the income, and for their persistent determination to bring to an end the practice of making an annual debt for running expenses.

We recommend as trustees Rev. R. Crewes, Charles H. Long, Nelson McCornack, W. W. Whitmore. For Conference Visitors we nominate Rev. J. S. Cumming, Rev. R. B. Williams, Rev. A. K. Tullis, Rev. J. E. Conner, Rev. Joe Bell, Rev. F. J. Giddings.

GRAND PRAIRIE SEMINARY.

Bishop Galloway, of the M. E. Church South, said last summer at the Watseka camp meeting: "The secret of the future success of the church, indeed of Christianity, lies in her schools." Grand Prairie Seminary has done her part in bringing success in the past and has done it well. During nearly half a century she has prepared a great number of young people to creditably and successfully occupy positions of honor and trust in finance, in the church and in the state. While she has done well in the past, under new conditions and the prospects of larger endowment there is opening for her a brighter future. Prof. F. C. Demorest, who was her untiring president for two years, felt called upon to accept the presidency of a college n Kansas. Rev. O. T. Dwinell was elected acting president to take charge of the opening term of the school this fall and to assist in securing the one hundred thousand dollars endowment fund now in process of being secured. There are great hopes entertained that this amount may be secured by Dec. 31st, 1900, the time when the conditional gift of Dr. D. K. Pearsons, of Chicago, expires. While there may be a reasonable expectation that the amount may be secured by that time, it can only be done by strenuous effort and self-sacrifice in giving. We commend to the friends of the Church and Christian education this most worthy cause. If the endowment is secured the perpetuity of the school is assured, and the area of its influence will be widened and the Seminary made one of the strongest schools of its class in Methodism. Should the endowment not be raised it means not only the loss of the school to the Church, but the subscription already secured amounting to $75,000 and the building and grounds and equipment. The enrollment at the beginning term of last year was larger than the one preceding it. This year's beginning term shows an increase of ten per cent. over last year. The faculty is composed entirely of earnest Christian men and women and thoroughly equipped for successful teaching. During revival services held the last winter nearly every unsaved student was brought to Christ. It is the aim of the school to stand for both the highest culture and evangelical Christianity. The school, we are assured, is worthy of the patronage and beneficence of all who prize a Christian education.

We recommend as Conference Visitors W. J. West, Rev. V. H. Brink, Rev. A. M. Stocking, Rev. J. H. Scott, J. S. Thompson, W. B. Harvey.

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY.

We recognize the very high standing of the Northwestern University and esteem it second to none in the country, and recommend as Trustees J. W. Frizzelle for two years, G. R. Palmer to fill the unexpired term of Dr. J. W. Haney deceased.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE is deserving of our unqualified support. Under the excellent management of President Little and a superior faculty it is indeed a school of the Prophets. The fear that it might become a center of destructive criticism ought to be entirely dispelled by the able baccalaureate of President Little on Commencement day last May, and the attention given the subject at the meeting of the Trustees and Conference Visitors. We are well assured that while the instruction at Garrett is progressive and the larger liberty of the Gospel of the Son of God is emphasized, it is the liberty of a regenerated heart and a pure life, found only in the teachings of an inspired Bible and in the power of a supernatural salvation. We commend it as worthy the confidence and patronage of any who are fitting themselves for the responsibilities of the Christian ministry.

DREW THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY AND BOSTON SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY are still maintaining the splendid record of their past history and need only our renewed endorsement as worthy the confidence of our entire Methodism.

We recommend as Conference Visitors to Garrett Biblical Institute for one year Rev. R. A. Brown; for two years Rev. W. J. Minium.

WHEREAS, it seems to be the policy of certain bodies antagonistic to orthodox Christianity to gain control of state institutions of learning;

WHEREAS, we recognize in such effort a great menace to real Christian culture, we recommend the appointment of a commission of three from the membership of this Conference, who shall inquire into the matter of liberal religion in our state schools, independently or in conjunction with like commissions from other denominational bodies or Conferences of our own Church. Following is the committee: R. A. Brown, S. Van Pelt, J. G. Evans.

H. D. CLARK, Chairman. J. W. EDWARDS, Secretary.

J. F. James moved that we instruct our Visiting Committees, appointed to visit the schools in our territory, to inquire carefully into their indulgence on the question of Worldly Amusements. The motion prevailed.

EPISCOPAL FUND.

In accordance with the requirements of the Discipline, the Book Committee at a recent session fixed an amount which they deemed necessary to meet the claims of the Bishops and the widows of deceased Bishops for the year. They also divided the sum among the Annual Conferences on the basis of the amount raised for Ministerial support, (including house rent).

The apportionment to this Conference for the ensuing year is $2,260.

|---|---|
| Last year the Conference raised for this Fund | $1,228 |
| This year | 1,273 |
| Increase | 45 |

Your Committee after carefully considering the subject present the following for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That the apportionment of this fund should be on the basis of the cash receipts for the Ministerial support.

Resolved, 2. That in view of the great deficiency in the collections of last year, and the very small increase of this year, we will make greater effort to raise our full apportionment next year.

Resolved, 3. That the Presiding Elders are hereby requested to inquire as carefully after this fund in their Quarterly Conferences as for other Ministerial support.

J. E. TAYLOR, Secretary. W. L. DOUGLAS, Chairman.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Your Committee on Epworth League submit the following report:

Believing that much good has been derived from former Inter-National Conventions of the League and that the preparations now being made for the Convention to be held in San Francisco next year, give promise that it will be equal to or better than any former Convention, we would urge our young people to attend if possible. We also recommend that our Epworthians subscribe for and read regularly the Epworth Herald to the end that they may be live, progressive, intelligent young Methodists. We believe the new books for the reading course for this year to be the best selection that has yet been made, and we recommend the organization of reading circles in every chapter for the purpose of pursuing this course of reading.

The work of the Illinois State Epworth League Lecture Bureau during the past two years has demonstrated its value and we most heartily recommend it to the favorable consideration of the chapters of our Conference.

We recommend the organization of Tithing Bands, that our Juniors and Seniors may be trained in the systematic giving. We earnestly urge that our Junior Superintendents give the largest possible attention to the spiritual interests of the Juniors, and recommend that the course of study approved by the Board of Control be used in our Junior League. The Chapters will find the Junior Epworth League Leaflets prepared by Mrs. D. T. Miles, Junior Superintendent of the Illinois State Epworth League, especially helpful for those between the ages of 12 and 16. We are pleased with the important announcement of a new publication for Junior Superintendents to be issued by the Board of Control.

CONFERENCE OFFICERS.

We submit the names of the following persons as Conference Officers for the ensuing year: President, S. P. Archer; Secretary, E. F. Roe; Treasurer, G. E. Alford; Junior League Superintendent, D. G. Murray.

Resolved, That we whose sessions are now presided over by Bishop Ninde, for the past quadrennium the General President of the Epworth League, express our admiration for his distinguished service in that chief office of the League, and our deep regard for him as a Christian man.

J. A. ALFORD, Secretary. SAMUEL VAN PELT, Chairman.

FREEDMEN'S AID.

The Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society establishes and maintains institutions of Christian learning among the multitudes of poor colored and white people of the South. It was organized in 1866 and has received and expended about five million dollars.

It has Medical Colleges, Colleges with Literary and Scientific courses and degrees, Academies and Industrial schools; in all forty-seven, besides a flourishing School of Theology. There are ten thousand students in these schools; two thousand five hundred are among the white people; seven thousand five hundred are among the black people.

In all these schools the Bible is used as a text book. In them are thousands who are preparing to work as teachers, preachers and physicians. Young men are taught agriculture, printing, tailoring, painting and in various trades in wood and iron working. Young women in the industries and proprieties of domestic economy, together with dressmaking, etc.

Every school room is a sanctuary, and gracious revivals of religion are enjoyed in almost every school each year. Graduates of these schools are scattered all through the South, and many of them are taking front rank in their various professions and industries. At the first the work of this society was very unpopular, but the workers had the spirit that makes heroes and martyrs, and God so wonderfully blessed their labors that their achievements now command the admiration and support of the wisest, greatest and best people of the whole land. Therefore,

Resolved, That every pastor should do his best to raise the full sum apportioned to his charge for maintaining and enlarging the noble work of this society, touching as it does the very life and prosperity of the Republic both North and South.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse "The Christian Educator" which is sent free, for one year, to everyone giving one dollar or more to this Society.

We urge our Pastors to increased effort to give our people fuller information concerning the manifold work of this society for both blacks and whites.

Resolved, That we protest against any state, legislative or municipal action intended to embarrass or hinder the colored people in their legitimate efforts for intellectual, moral, commercial, social or political progress, and the full and free exercise of their constitutional rights as citizens of the United States, at the polls or elsewhere.

G. E. ALFORD, Secretary. J. A. NORTHRUP, Chairman.

POST OFFICES.

The Committee on Post Offices has finished the work assigned them, which is a tabulation of all the Post Offices on each Charge, by districts, for the use of our Book Concerns in their correspondence with our Pastors, Sunday School Superintendents, Epworth League Presidents, etc.

We recommend a continuation of the use of the Post Office Blanks as furnished by our Committee.

F. N. WRIGHT, Chairman, Pro Tem. J. M. PROUTY, Secretary.

SANCTITY OF THE SABBATH.

Your Committee on the Sanctity of the Sabbath submit the following report:

In view of the command of God, "Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy," and the teachings of Christ, "The Sabbath was made for man and not man for the Sabbath;" therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we enter our protest against all assembling of crowds except for religious purposes, all pleasure seeking, public games, excursions, and traffic on that day.

2. That we, as a body of Christian Ministers, will use every means in our power, in and out of the pulpit, to foster the spirit of reverence for God's holy day.

C. F. W. SMITH, Secretary. G. L. TAYLOR, Chairman.

STATE OF THE CHURCH.

In view of the multiplied favors shown our beloved Church during the past year in opening the way for her progress, and in marvelously preserving her interests abroad in the time of great danger, we should rejoice with thankful hearts and acknowledge the presence and care of our heavenly Father.

Methodism has maintained her prestige in the midst of the struggle against irreligion and doubt. In so doing she has neither modified her doctrines nor apologized for her teachings. She has unswervingly adhered to her methods in bringing the world to Christ, and retains unyielding faith in the power of the gospel of the Son of God.

The attitude of the Church toward the Saloon continues to be uncompromisingly hostile.

She regards drunkenness as a great moral evil, not only as directly opposed to the development of vital Christianity, but abhorrent in the sight of God. It is the desire of the Church that all legislators, judges, jurors and civic officers should regard the saloon as the common foe of all mankind. A better acquaintance with the conditions of the Epworth League shows that it must be wisely managed in order to become the great Church force of to-morrow.

Having reached a period in Church life when demands made upon the Church are large and important, all Pastors should carefully emphasize the importance of systematic benevolence.

In winning the world to Christ the Church has discovered that emphasis on "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself" is an essential feature.

The Deaconess movement helps the Church to fill this mission by doing good to the body as well as the soul of man, and should receive the hearty support of the Church.

G. C. SHAFFER, President. F. E. SHULT, Secretary.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

1. We acknowledge with gratitude to God the material prosperity of the Country.

2. We rejoice over the widespread dominance of the Christ spirit as evidenced by the ready and generous response to the cry of famished India and of those rendered destitute by diversified disaster in our own land.

3. We congratulate ourselves upon the distinction our own Nation has achieved among the World Powers and commend the prompt, energetic and judicious action of the Government in rescuing our imperilled Minister in China.

4. While the early embassadors of the Cross went forth to preach Christ without invoking the aid of the civil power to protect their lives, we insist that in this age of international enlightenment, comity and treaty we should exact of every other nation the same protection for our citizens as we accord to theirs.

5. While we approve the largest degree of personal liberty compatible with the welfare of the whole commonwealth, we nevertheless believe that the contentions arising so frequently between employers and employed are fit subjects for arbitration, and recommend State and National Commissions of Arbitration to prevent the recurrence of such deeds of riot and bloodshed as have recently wrought great injury to many well-meaning people.

6. We deplore the frequent lynchings and other unlawful acts of violence perpetrated by enraged mobs and urge that criminals be prosecuted by due process of law and punished according to the demerits of their crime.

7. The high standard of Christian Citizenship represented in the personal character of our candidates is a tribute to the efficiency of our free institutions to make men of whom the whole world may be justly proud.

O. T. DWINELL, Chairman. R. A. BROWN, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND TRACTS.

We recognize the Sunday School as one of the most important factors in the religious and educational life.

Inasmuch as the education of the young in religion is of the highest importance, great care should be exercised in the selection of teachers to instruct the 2,600,000 in the Methodist Episcopal church.

We urge that our pastors and presiding elders see that our literature, published by our Book Concern, be used in the Sunday School.

We recognize the evangelizing instrumentality of the tract and recommend that the pastors in our Conference avail themselves of the liberal offer of the Tract Society and that we give it our financial support in spreading a Christian literature throughout the world.

WM. D. EVANS, Secretary. O. P. GRAVES, President.

TEMPERANCE AND PROHIBITION.

Your Committee on Temperance and Prohibition beg leave to report as follows:

I. HISTORIC RESUME.

1. Concerning liquor dealers John Wesley said:

"They murder his Majesty's subjects by wholesale, neither does their eye pity or spare. They drive them to hell like sheep. And what is their gain? Is it not the blood of these men? Who, then, would envy their large and sumptuous palaces? A curse is in the midst of them; the curse of God cleaves to the stones, the timber, the furniture of them. The curse of God is in their gardens, their walks, their groves; a fire that burns to the nethermost hell! Blood, blood is there; the foundation, the floor, the walls, the roof are stained with blood!"

2. In 1888 the Bishops said:

"The liquor traffic is so pernicious in all its bearings, so inimical to the interests of honest trade, so repugnant to the moral sense, so injurious to the peace and order of society, so hurtful to the home, to the church and to the body politic, and so utterly antagonistic to all that is precious in life, that the only proper attitude toward it, for Christians, is that of relentless hostility. It can never be legalized without sin."

From that deliverance our chief Pastors have never retreated. Their subsequent utterances have strengthened rather than modified their declaration.

3. The General Conference of 1884, said:

"While we do not presume to dictate to our people as to their political affiliations, we do express the opinion that they should not permit themselves to be controlled by party organizations that are managed in the interest of the liquor traffic.

4. In 1856 the Central Illinois Conference (then Peoria) resolved:

"That, being in favor of Prohibition, involving the principle of seizure and forfeiture, and believing that our deliverance from the curse of the liquor traffic depends upon its success, we will support for office none but those who are Prohibitionists from principle, and will urge all we can influence to do likewise."

In 1867 the following resolution was adopted by this Conference:

"That this system of licensing the sale of intoxicating liquors is an unwarranted exercise of authority, and contrary to the law of God, and that we will not give our support to a candidate for any office in the gift of our country, who does thus countenance this great evil."

In 1870 our Conference adopted the following.

"Resolved, That since the abolition of slavery and the preservation of our National Union have been accomplished, no issue is now before the country equal to that of the prohibition of the manufacture, importation and sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage."

"Resolved, That all our offices in the land ought to be filled with men pledged to prohibition, and that we will use our influence to secure such men."

In 1879 we said:

"That we cannot consistently vote for any man for office, State or National, who is not a pronounced prohibitionist."

In 1885 our report contained the following:

"That we regret the tendency among politicians and politicial conventions and political parties to trim, temporize and evade the main issue on the momentous question, instead of meeting it squarely, as American citizens should do, on the one eternal basis of right and wrong.

"That we should assert our individual manhood in politics. Conscience should rise above party fealty. Principle is greater than platform. The man is mightier than the party. And, while we pronounce in favor of no party as such, and whatever have been our party affiliations, we will not be controlled by parties that are favorable to the liquor traffic or opposed to prohibition. God helping us, we shall vote as we pray."

II. ENDORSEMENT.

Sustained by the uniform action of the Central Illinois Conference from the organization down to the present time we endorse the forcible utterances on this subject of our Bishops in their recent quadrennial address, and the action of the recent General Conference in adopting the report on Temperance and Prohibition.

III. RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, 1. That intelligent Christian Citizenship is the basis upon which we must build for the overthrow of the saloon.

Resolved, 2. That the Church of God, fully aroused to the appreciation of the enormity of the liquor traffic, and the importance of its suppression, furnishes the only hope of final success in our warfare against the saloon.

Resolved, 3. That our Discipline provides a most perfect plan for the organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church into a great Temperance Society, well fitted for the most efficient service in this department of Christian work.

Resolved, 4. That we will faithfully carry out the plan of the Discipline for the general agitation of this subject, including the organization of committees, the holding of temperance meetings, the taking of collections, and the distribution of temperance literature.

Resolved, 5. That, since the almost universal custom of celebrating the Fourth of July is neither sensible, rational nor Christian, but rather uncivilized, not to say barbaric, involving much waste and needless expense, and at the same time endangering property and life, and, also being devoid of any really intelligent, moral or patriotic inspiration in influence, we will from this time henceforth, do all in our power to induce our Churches, Epworth Leagues, and other Young People's Societies, and our Sunday Schools to celebrate our national birthday in a truly patriotic and Christian manner in the interest and for the promotion of the Temperance Reform; and, further, we recommend, that, so far as practicable, on the Sunday immediately preceding the Fourth of July all our pastors preach a sermon upon the wise, patriotic, Temperance and Christian celebration of our great National Anniversary.

J. W. MOLES, Secretary. J. G. EVANS, Chairman.

USE OF TOBACCO.

WHEREAS, the use of tobacco is a needless, injurious and expensive habit; and,

WHEREAS, it is a growing evil among our boys and young men leading to a waste of time and money, and tending toward bad associations; and,

WHEREAS, it is contrary to the spirit of the Gospel and the teaching of our Discipline, and inconsistent with the purity of Christian life and example;

Resolved, that as those who "bear the vessels of the Lord" we will, by our personal example and teaching, militate against the use of tobacco in every form; and, moreover, we call upon the officials and membership of our churches to purge themselves from this unclean habit and to discourage it in society; and we appeal especially to Christian merchants to refrain from the selling of tobacco in any form, particularly to boys.

J. C. CRAINE, Secretary. J. J. HUNTER, Chairman.

WESLEY HOSPITAL.

We rejoice in the continual prosperity and usefulness of Wesley Hospital, our Conference having been its patron and beneficiary for several years past, and shall continue to wish it the largest success; but since the establishment of our Conference Deaconess Home and Hospital, we believe it our duty to turn our support to it, and recommend that henceforth the amount of moneys heretofore voted to Wesley Hospital be given to the Deaconess Home and Hospital in Peoria.

A. P. ROLEN, Secretary. J. E. MERCER, Chairman.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

It is with gratitude we note another year of increased prosperity for the W. F. M. S., especially in the Central Illinois Conference.

The report shows an increase in membership, in subscribers for Missionary periodicals and a gain of $2,284.

The information afforded by this organization results in a deepening of the spiritual life of the members and an increased interest in the needs of the foreign field which manifests itself in substantial gifts.

There are now 6,000 members in the Conference, including the young ladies' organizations and the Children's Bands.

The amount raised this year is $10,364. Included in this amount are two bequests, one from Mrs. D. A. Clark, of Preemption, of $500 and $300 from Mother Pierce, of Elmwood.

Great credit is due the Conference Secretary, Mrs. J. A. Riason, for the successful prosecution of this work.

We bespeak for this organization the continued support and encouragement of all our people.

E. C. ANDERSON, Secretary. M. A. HEAD, Chairman.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

We regret that in the multiplicity of the demands upon our congregations, the claims of the W. H. M. S. have not been more fully regarded in this Conference, the entire amount raised for this work in the Conference during the last year being but $447.

We would reaffirm the action taken by the Conference a year ago, urging the importance of the work that is done by the organization, and expressing our confidence in it.

We urge that in all our charges the pastors endeavor to have their women informed concerning the work, and that they encourage the organization of auxiliary societies to promote it.

We recommend that an anniversary meeting of the Society be held at the next annual Conference, in order that the importance of its claims may be constantly urged upon our attention.

WALTER H. NORTH, Secretary. G. D. HENSELL, Chairman.

TWENTIETH CENTURY OFFERING.

The Twentieth Century call by our Bishops, like the many providential movements in Methodism, was evidently prompted by the Holy Spirit. We rejoice that other branches of world wide Methodism are responding to like calls, thus evidencing that the Methodists are a people led of the Lord.

The Spiritual should not be eclipsed by the material. Personal service in soul-seeking and soul-saving should be accepted as the duty and privilege of every Methodist. "Let him that heareth say come."

Let us as Pastors and people resolve that by the annointing of the Holy Ghost, by the faithful preaching of the Word of God and by persuading men, this shall be a year of profound, widespread and continual revival.

As bringing the tithes into God's storehouse is one of the essential conditions of increased spiritual life and power, let us see to it that we and our people lay large and generous gifts of our earthly substance on God's altar, being assured that according to the unsearchable operations of His grace He will transmute our material gifts into blessed spiritual results.

We believe that the coming Conference year should be one of signal success in debt paying. The disheartening paralysis of deficiencies and debt should be exchanged for the hope and strength resulting from a well filled treasury supplied by the generous gifts of a consecrated people.

We believe the Conference Claimants Society, Hedding College, Grand Prairie Seminary, Illinois Wesleyan University, the Deaconess Home and Hospital and the Deaconess Home at Normal, and all of our great connectional interests should receive large gifts from our people so that they may enter the new century with the bound of new life, being more adequately endowed for the great and ever increasing work required of them. "The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof." According to our faith so it will be unto us.

To promote these ends we recommend,

1. That the Presiding Elders institute a series of sub-district Twentieth Century Thank Offering rallies in their several districts.

2. That the claims of the interests most pressing to us, viz.: the Conference Claimants Society, Hedding College, Grand Prairie Seminary, Illinois Wesleyan University, the Deaconess Home and Hospital and Deaconess Home of Normal be presented impartially to all our people.

3. To assist in the joint and impartial presentation of these interests we recommend the following standing committee of five, of whom the first named shall be chairman and the last named secretary: G. R. Palmer, U. Z. Gilmer, F. W. Merrell, J. P. Forsythe, D. B. Johnson.

4. That the Pastors are hereby instructed to forward to the secretary of this committee a list of names of all persons residing within the bounds of their charges whom they judge can be reasonably expected to contribute substantial amounts to the Twentieth Century Thank Offering fund, together with such information concerning particular cases as they deem might be valuable to the committee.

5. That the officials in charge of the several interests to be represented to the persons composing this list of names place their appeals in the hands of the secretary to be sent by him under one cover by mail.

6. That a complete copy of the above described list of names be furnished the authorities having charge of the several interests involved to be used by them as they see fit.

7. That the secretary be instructed to prepare collection slips for the Pastors and agents in taking the Twentieth Century Thank Offering, on which shall be printed the names of the several above named claims and furnish the same to persons desiring them at cost of printing and postage.

8. That the Twentieth Century Thank Offering committee is hereby authorized to solicit funds to defray the expenses of its work.

9. That this committee be instructed to co-operate, as far as possible, with Presiding Elders, Pastors and agents in promoting the success of the Twentieth Century Thank Offering movement in our Conference.

RICHARD HANEY.

WHEREAS, The long ministerial career of Rev. Richard Haney, D. D., (sixty-five years) was nearly all spent in this State, which made him a prominent factor in the laying of the foundation of Methodism; and,

WHEREAS, Much valuable historical material can be gathered from his long life.

Resolved, That we, the members of the Central Illinois Conference, request Rev. G. R. Palmer, D. D., to prepare and publish a biography of Rev. R. Haney for circulation among our people.

Resolved, 2. That we will use our best endeavor to get our people to purchase the same.

GILMER.

WHEREAS, Dr. U. Z. Gilmer, who began his ministry in our Conference, has returned to take charge of our Conference College; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we will give him a hearty welcome to our fields of labor and will aid him in his noble work of giving to our young people a Christian Education.

2. That the Bishop be requested to transfer Dr. Gilmer to the Central Illinois Conference.

GILMER.

Resolved, That the appreciation and thanks of the Conference be expressed by a rising vote to Dr. U. Z. Gilmer for his splendid inspiring sermon delivered in the First M. E. Church on last Sabbath morning.

J. F. Robinson,
R. Crewes,
O. T. Dwinell.

THANKS.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Conference are hereby tendered to the Ladies of this Church who have furnished the beautiful floral decorations adorning the Church during the session of the Conference

E. C. Anderson,
E. Wasmuth.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Whereas, It is very desirable that more accurate reports be made to the Conference, of items indicated on the Statistical Card, with reference to Epworth and Junior League rosters, and work done; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Pastors of the several Charges of this Conference be requested to use every effort to secure accurate reports from Epworth League Secretaries and Junior League Superintendents, so that our statistics touching these important interests may be complete.

S. P. Archer,
D. G. Murray,
L. F. Cullom.

THANKS.

We heartily thank the Trustees of this Church for the use of their building and all the assistance they have rendered us in making our session agreeable.

The thanks of this Conference have been justly earned by and are hereby extended to the Secretary, Rev. D. S. McCown, and his able corps of assistants. Dr. Doney, Treasurer, and his efficient helpers, and also Rev. L. F. Cullom, Statistical Secretary, and his competent accountants.

We feel highly complimented by the appointment of Bishop W. X. Ninde to preside over this Conference and have highly esteemed his gracious manner, patient and affable temper, able and speedy conduct of business, and the full exemplification of an ideal General Superintendent. We pray that his health may be vigorous and his life spared for many years to the Church.

Questions on all of the studies are to be prepared and five sets sent to the Secretary before March 20th, 1901. Examiners to retain a copy. The Secretary will distribute the questions to C. O. McCulloch, R. E. Buckey, T. W. McVety, J. E. Connor, W. E. Shaw, who will hold the Spring Examinations within April or May, at such time and place as suits their convenience within the several districts. The examinations are to be upon the books and not upon the subjects. If candidates desire the return of papers they will so request and send postage. The candidates are most strongly urged to send their Essays, Sermons, Syllabi and Exegesis to the respective examiners as early as the Spring Examinations, and in every case to furnish them at least thirty days before the Session of Conference. Examiners will report at once to the candidates as to whether they have or have not passed at the examination. We urge that as far as possible the young men will take advantage of the Spring Examination.

REV. RICHARD HANEY, D. D.

Rev. Richard Haney was born in Washington County, Pa., April 15th, 1812, and died in Altona, Ill., Jan. 27th, 1900, in the 88th year of his age. Lying between these two events was a life well lived. In the church of his choice and the country he loved, the time covered by his life saw most of the progress and development attained by each. When he came upon the stage of action a little fringe of population along the Atlantic coast, with a few adventurous spirits that had invaded the great west, was all there was of the Republic. Only a few thousand members and a few traveling ministers composed the Methodist Church.

The year of his birth Madison was re-elected President and war was declared between England and America. The exports from the whole United States amounted to only $38,500,000, while the imports were nearly twice that much. The year he died the balance of trade was many millions more than the imports. For the three years preceding his death the excess of exports over imports was more than one billion, four hundred million dollars. Almost every great industry his birth preceded. The great forces and factors of society and civilization in their wide operations have had either their birth or greatest growth since his own birth. He was a part of that, was one of the builders and fashioners.

In the Methodist Church he loved so well and for whose advancement he so fervently prayed and ardently labored, the growth and progress has been no less marked. That year the eight Conferences reported 156,552 white members and 38,505 colored members, which was a gain of 10,790 members over the preceding year. The territory included all the southern states and territories and upper and lower Canada then included in the old Genesee Conference. The year of his death, excluding the membership of the Church South and Canada, the Church had 17,000 itinerant ministers and 2,700,000 on its membership rolls, with more than twenty-six millions of money raised for all purposes, in a territory that in 1812 was a primeval forest or unbroken sweep of prairie.

If it be true that the times in which a man lives stamps itself upon and in some sense is the maker of his character, we may look for something of itinerant restlessness in the life, and one full of energy, activity and marvelous progress. His life is a sort of hyphen connecting the pioneer past with the pulsing present. He knew the past and loved it, but did not live in it. He did not wring his hands and bitterly moan at the grave of the dead past. A living present and hopeful future filled to the horizon, heart and soul and brain. He had a most blessed and inspiring sort of optimism. He did not believe that Satan had a mortgage on the church and world and was now in the act of foreclosing it. He did believe in God, and the great mission of the Church of Christ to save this world. He did believe that the hands that were pierced by the nails of hate and superstition, were, in their might and almightiness, swinging this old world nearer to righteousness and God. Out of that narrow realm of thought that belonged to earlier times there was evolved a wide vision and stalwart faith. The fact of his conversion he always looked upon as his emancipation. It broke the shell of his environment, and soul and brain came into their heritage of a glorious freedom.

He was converted when a lad, and felt the call of God to him for labor in his vineyard. The "woe" of the gospel was on his soul if he refused obedience to the heavenly vision. To him it was a call and not a career that opened up before him his work in life. Much to his surprise it was only a little while after his conversion that a license to exhort was voted him by the class of which he was a member, and was duly signed by Rev. Wm. Wheeler the preacher in charge. He shrank from accepting; but an Irish chum of his boyhood argued and shamed and loved him into accepting it and using it. Feeling the call imperative to preach and feeling his unfitness for it he determined to go to Norwalk Seminary to better fit himself for the work God had chosen him to do. To get the money to take him to school and pay his board for a short time, he had split rails at 25 cents a hundred. After reaching Norwalk he got a job of a Mr. Crabbs cutting cordwood at 25 cents a cord. At this he worked Saturdays and mornings and afternoons whenever he could get the time, to pay his tuition and board. Among his first sermons, if not his first, was one preached at Perkins Church. This he often referred to. His own absolute failure on that occasion brought him into sympathetic relations with "first efforts" that he never could have had but for that first attempt of his own. The late Bishop Harris was his classmate at Norwalk.

After the close of his school at Norwalk he returned home and was recommended by the Quarterly Conference to the Ohio Annual Conference where in 1834 he was received on trial and appointed to a charge in that Conference. Owing to a severe sickness he could not go to his work and his physician thought it best for him to go West to Illinois where the preceding year his father's family had moved. In the early winter of 1834 he landed in Illinois, and in the spring of 1835 was employed by the elder to fill out the year at Rushville, as the pastor of that church had resigned. In the fall of 1835 he joined the old Illinois Conference, stayed in that until the Rock River Conference was set off. He continued in that until the Rock River Conference was divided when he fell into the Peoria, now Central Illinois Conference. In each of these Conferences he filled the leading churches. For twenty-five years he was a presiding elder. Five or six times he was elected a delegate to the General Conference, served on the Missionary Committee and Book Concern Committee, and was elected chairman of the latter committee. He was chairman of Committee on Boundaries at two General Conferences. But few men were better or more widely known, especially in the State of Illinois than was Richard Haney. His style of preaching made him popular with the masses of the people. He was not a close logician but he was a captivating preacher. As finished and fine single sentences fell from his lips as ever were uttered by man. His heart was as tender as a woman's; his courage was unquestioned; his wit keen; his humor sparkling; his command of language wonderful; his rhetoric almost faultless; his imagination vivid; his spirit so kindly and loving, coupled with a physique that in his best days was magnificent, a bearing that was princely and a personal magnetism that charmed people, it was little wonder he was welcomed warmly in log cabins and princely homes, in backwoods school houses and metropolitan pulpits. Two events in his life gave him great satisfaction to recall:

One was the drafting of a resolution that was presented to and passed by this the Central Illinois Conference asking President Lincoln to manumit the slaves in this country, and this Conference by the adoption of that resolution was the first ecclesiastical body praying the president to lift the burden of bondage from the shoulders of our brother in black.

The other was the part he took in founding that great school of Methodism—the Northwestern University. He called the meeting to talk over plans for its beginning. He presided at the meeting to elect its first board of trustees. He was a charter member of that board. He continued a member of that body until his death. He watched the growth and development with tender solicitude and pardonable pride.

Dr. Haney's first wife died in 1865. Dr. Haney was again married on May 1st, 1877, to Mrs. Mary E. Quimby, of Monmouth, Illinois, where he resided until his death.

During the war he was chaplain of the Sixth Regiment Illinois Infantry until sickness that came nearly terminating in death compelled his resignation.

Peter Cartwright was his first presiding elder in Illinois; and between the two there existed the warmest friendship until the death of that stalwart old hero of Methodism.

On the 25th day of January, 1900, he was a guest in the home of his old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Main, of Altona, Ill. On the morning of January 26th he arose from his bed, partially dressed himself, and said to the young man who came into the room, "I feel some pain." He assisted him in lying down again and in a moment afterward the soul of the old hero was with God, while a throb of sorrow and a sense of loss was felt in a thousand households as the story of his death was told.

Funeral services were held in Altona where he died, in Monmouth where he lived so long, and in Peoria where he was buried by the side of the wife of his youth, who had preceded him thirty-five years along the pathway that shows no returning footsteps. He died just as he wanted to die, painlessly and without a long sickness.

Take him all in all he had few equals and fewer superiors. He was a sweet-souled, tender, loving, noble, manly man. He reached the period of life when the blossoms of past ambitions were dead and the outlook toward the nearing springtime was wider and clearer. There came into his life as age came on a wondrous charm. Time had brought experience, experience wisdom, wisdom forbearance and sweetness and love. Not that he did not possess these before, but a ripeness and mellowness came into his life with the coming years that it was a real charm and pleasure to meet and greet him. His youth was beautiful and the closing life was beautiful. Between these lids of the book of life was the story of battle, strife and struggle, of conflict and conquest. Some of the pages were blurred and indistinct where trials were recorded, and some luminous where the story of victories for God and righteousness were told.

Better and brighter than most earthly lives was this epistle of his life. His personality, not the number of the years of his earthly life, was the register of his days. He carried with him the fresh wholesomeness of childhood, joined with the serene, wise peacefulness of a sweet and aromatic old age. An optimist of the old school, he believed that somehow there was the rule of righteousness in this old world and that some way all would be right in the end. He put his faith in God over against all evil and wrong that seemed triumphant now. The sharp winds sometimes clamored at his window casement, and some sad days there were when the wintry sky was leaden and cold and gray, and the day shut down with but few stars studding the wintry sky; but for him there was always the beautiful time just a little way beyond. To him the sun of to-morrow was always bright. Beyond the snows of winter there was ever the panoply of a cloudless day. The flower starred springtime lay so near the winter of his age that he was ever hearing the song of its brooks and inhaling the odor of its flowers. He died without a dollar of his own, but he died a millionaire. The moving spirit of his life was not ambition, not money-making, not a love of notoriety, but a sublime passion for self-sacrifice.

O, these grand, heroic old pioneer preachers! How their ranks are thinning. If it be true that heaven's best gifts are best won by giving all of them, then it is surely true that these men, the vanguard of the coming civilization, this noble band of pioneer preachers, this company of John the Baptists, the forerunners of a mighty republic and matchless moral force, won all, for they gave all and received all. These were the men who were in line of battle where contending forces met, and they made the future. They were no insignificant part of these forces. We honor them, these ascending Elijahs! Are the Elishas waiting to catch the garments of simple faith and loving labor and willing toil and peerless sacrifice and heroic courage these old prophets of God wore so worthily when they tabernacled here in the flesh?

JAMES WILSON HANEY, D. D.

Rev. James Wilson Haney, D. D., was born in Bloomington, Ill., Jan. 24th, 1840, where his father, Rev. R. Haney, was pastor of the First M. E. Church. In 1838 his father was united in marriage with Miss Adaline Murphy, of Quincy, Ill., and James was their first born child. He began his school life at the old Rock River Seminary at Mt. Morris, Ill., where his father was then Presiding Elder. Later at Hedding College he took a preparatory course. In 1857 he entered the Northwestern University at Evanston, completing the classical course and graduating in 1861. In 1864 his Alma Mater conferred on him the degree of A. M., and in 1866 that of D. D.

The year of his graduation he was admitted to the bar and commenced the practice of law in the city of Chicago. June 18th, 1862, he was married to Miss Jane Elizabeth Sherman, daughter of A. T. Sherman, Esq., of Evanston, Ill.

In the fall of 1862 he raised Co. I, 72nd Illinois Infantry, and was commissioned as its captain. While in the army he was soundly converted and after his resignation on account of broken health and return home, he united with the M. E. Church at Bushnell, Ill. He was licensed to preach by Dr. Wm. H. Hunter and in the fall of 1863 at Canton, Ill., he was admitted to the Central Illinois Conference on trial. In 1865 at Onarga, Ill., he was admitted into full connection and ordained Deacon by Bishop E. R. Ames. In 1867 he was ordained Elder at Monmouth, Ill., by the same Bishop.

For nearly thirty-seven years he served in the itinerant ranks. Among the charges he served were: Tonica, Phelps Chapel, Lacon, Dwight, Pekin, Abingdon, Moline, Woodhull, Hale Chapel Peoria, Streator, Fairbury, Carthage, Blandinsville, Canton, Kewance, Geneseo, Normal District six years, and his last appointment, Galva, where, on Thursday morning at 7:45, April 5th, he closed his earthly career and entered into life eternal.

He was honored by his church in his selection in 1891 as a delegate to the Ecumenical Methodist Conference held that year in Washington, D. C. In 1896 he represented his Conference in the General Conference held at Cleveland, Ohio.

His grandfather and father were Methodist preachers and his son, a member of the Illinois Conference, makes the fourth in the consecutive line of ministerial service.

For several years he had been in failing health, although he would not concede it. On the 4th of March he preached his last sermon and one month and one day thereafter he had joined his father, who had preceded him only a little time, in the land that is "afar off" to so many but was so near and real to these two.

He preached the Gospel of Christ with an unction and fervor that brought forth much fruit. At three of his appointments, Lacon, Abingdon and Canton, eight hundred souls were brought into Christ's kingdom during his pastorate. He was never so happy as when engaged in evangelistic labor, where the happy living converts were crowding the gates of Zion.

He was in his prime a strong man, large framed, large hearted, hopeful, happy, inspiring, he won friends for himself and for his Master he so loyally served.

He was buried at Riverside Cemetery, Moline, Ill., where this valiant captain in God's army "rests from his labors and his works do follow him."

HENRY KANAGA METCALF.

Henry Kanaga Metcalf was born in Kenosha, Wis., June 5th, 1852, and died in his home, the parsonage, at Sheldon, Ill., Sept. 12th, 1900, aged 48 years, 3 months and 7 days. When about four years of age he removed with his parents to Boston, Mass., where the family lived till Henry was ten years old. They now turned back toward the West and lived for five years in Appleton, Wis. The family then moved to Lincoln, Neb., where Henry spent the remainder of his childhood. At the age of 18 he entered the Nebraska State University, and remained as a student for three years. In the fall of 1873 he enrolled as a student at the Northwestern University at Evanston, Ill., from which institution he graduated in June, 1875.

While yet a child he gave his heart to God and his entire life has been characterized by gentleness, purity of heart and purpose. He was blessed with a cheerful and winning disposition, and won many friends wherever he was known.

Soon after his twentieth birthday he was licensed to preach, and whenever and wherever the Gospel story was told it was told well. In the fall of 1875 he was appointed by Dr. W. H. Hunter to supply the LaFayette charge. He was ordained Deacon by Bishop Peck at Streator in 1878 and in the fall of 1880 he was ordained Elder by Bishop Hurst at Fairbury.

On the 28th day of September, 1878, Bro. Metcalf was united in marriage with Miss Ella L. Robinson near Geneseo, Ill., who shared with him the cares and responsibilities of the itinerant's life for fourteen years. To them four children were born, Myrtle, Frank, Florence and Zella.

During his five years' pastorate at Elmwood a new church enterprise was planned and executed. More heartily than her strength would allow, the pastor's wife entered with her husband into the work. Soon after the new church was dedicated the frail tabernacle of clay in which Ella Metcalf had dwelt for thirty-eight years collapsed, and the wife and mother of the parsonage went home where tears and weariness are not known, and where "the inhabitant never says, 'I am sick.'"

On the 30th day of June, 1894, he was united in marriage with Miss Olive Ray, of Oregon, Ill., who with one son, Ray, born to them, remains to

"Sigh for the touch of a vanished hand
And the sound of a voice that is still."

In the fall of 1876 Bro. Metcalf entered the Central Illinois Conference on trial and was appointed to the Munson and Ulah charge, where he remained one year. His subsequent appointments were: Lawn Ridge, one year; Victoria, one year; Whitefield, one year; Bardolph, one year; Cleveland and Colona, one year; New Boston, two years; Hamilton and Elvaston, one year; Dwight, two years; Elmwood, five years; Bushnell, two years; Geneseo, two years; Lexington, two years; Sheldon, one year.

For ten years Bro. Metcalf has been our Conference Secretary, and no man could have been more attentive to, nor efficient in, the duties required of a brother in that office.

As a preacher he was clear and strong. His congregations were always pleased. edified and strengthened. As a pastor he was never tiring and many sad hearts, comforted by a Christian visit, have called him blessed. He loved the children, and faithfully instructed them. In the truest sense he was a gospel preacher, and his message was always one of praise to God and an offer of salvation to sinful men.

We shall see his cheerful face no more at our annual Conferences, but memory will keep him with us still. Though gone Bro. Metcalf cannot be forgotten, and though dead he is surely alive forevermore.

The funeral services were held in the M. E. Church in Sheldon, Friday afternoon, Sept. 14th, and as an indication of the high esteem in which he was held in the city, the business houses closed their doors during the hour of service. Rev. R. B. Williams was in charge and spoke a few words of comfort, as did also Bros. Crumbaker, Wiley and Forsyth. Other brethren of the Conference to the number of twelve were present.

The official board of the Sheldon church passed very complimentary resolutions, showing their high appreciation of Bro. Metcalf's Christian character and of his efficiency as a worker in the Master's service.

MRS. F. M. CHAFFEE.

Dorcas Patrick was born in the state of Indiana Jan. 19th, 1836. In her early childhood her parents emigrated to Illinois and settled at Knoxville. There she grew to womanhood, received her education and there on the 28th of August, 1855, was united in marriage with Rev. F. M. Chaffee, now a superannuated member of this Conference. She was the mother of five children, the oldest and youngest of whom survive; the other three died in childhood.

Sister Chaffee was well equipped for the work to which her life was consecrated. Born and trained in a Methodist household, she understood and loved Methodist doctrines and usages. In early life she became the happy subject of saving grace, and each day thereafter grew in grace till her work was done and she was ripened for her eternal home. In addition to a thorough English education, she was a German scholar and versed in music both vocal and instrumental. Her reading was comprehensive, versatile and critical. From early life she had the reading of our church literature and hence an extended knowledge of all our great connectional institutions and of the leading men and women of the church throughout our vast field of operations for the salvation of the world.

In her religious life Sister Chaffee was not demonstrative, but quiet, consistent, constant, the same exemplary, godly woman seven days every week. She was a woman of a pre-eminently "meek and quiet spirit,', naturally amiable, her religious experience so chastened and elevated her manner of life as to make her a favorite in every community where she lived and with all classes of people with whom she came in contact. She possessed a "nice sense" of personal honor. Gossips soon learned that words or innuendos that touched injuriously the character of others had no lodging place in her ears or memory. Having a mind formed for social enjoyment, she had a high appreciation of the good and the true in human society. In family religion, from the beginning of her married life, she had great delight, always leading in one of the daily prayers, and in the absence of her husband from home, assuming the whole duty of family worship.

For twenty-nine years she shared with her husband the labors, the duties and the responsibilities of his effective ministerial life, and when broken health compelled him to retire from the work he loved so well, her cheerful spirit and hopeful nature were to him his greatest source of earthly comfort. In the early part of his ministry most of the charges were fields of hard toil and small salary, and not even the small amount promised always paid, but she never complained. The church to her, especially the Methodist Episcopal Church, was not only a great but a sacred institution, exceeding in importance everything else on earth, no burden borne for her sake was deemed too heavy.

Her affectionate nature was strong and abiding to all who had a right to her love, caring more for them than for herself. In her last hours of extreme suffering she fervently expressed the most anxious sympathy for her husband, because of his loss of sleep, and what she knew to be such a peculiar strain upon his sympathetic nature while caring for her for so long a time.

The following lines, based on I Peter, V:7, "Casting your care upon Him, for He careth for you," shows her abiding faith mingled with her strong natural affection. They were found among her papers by her husband after her death. They were written without signature or quotation marks, so it cannot be certainly known whether they are her own composition or copied from her reading. Evidently she made the thought her own, and intended the sentiments to be strength and comfort to her loved ones when the time of trial should come:

"Child of my love, 'lean hard' and let me feel
The pressure of thy care, I know thy burden,
For I fashioned it, poised it in my own hand
And made its weight precisely what I deemed Best for thee; and when I laid it on Thy shrinking form I said: I shall be near
And while thou leanst on me this burden shall Be mine, not thine,—so shall I keep my child
Within the circling arms of my own love.
Here lay it down, nor fear to weary him
That made, upholds, and guides the universe.
Yet closer come, thou art not near enough,
Thyself, thy care, lay both on me, that I
May feel my child reposing on my heart.
Thou lovest me? I doubt it not.
Then loving me, 'lean hard.'"

Her last sickness was protracted and painful, the disease being cancer of the stomach, but her suffering was borne with that quiet, patient endurance so characteristic of her whole life. On the 12th day of November, 1899, in full possession of her mental faculties and in full assurance of the faith of the gospel, at her home in the city of Redlands, Cal., she "fell asleep."

Thus lived and died a devoted Christian woman, a dutiful daughter, a loving and faithful wife, an affectionate mother. Beside her bereaved husband and children, a large circle of friends in Kansas and Illinois mourn her death.

MRS. REBECCA F. BEELER.

The subject of this sketch was born in Kentucky Nov. 23d, 1840. Her maiden name was Rebecca Frances Magers. When she was a child her parents, to escape the blighting influence of slavery, removed to Illinois and settled in Warren County, where she grew to womanhood. At the age of 17 she was converted in a revival meeting held in the neighborhood by the Baptists. On Dec. 28th, 1858, she was united in marriage to Abram Beeler, who now sits in the shadow of his great bereavement. Soon after their marriage they moved to Berwick, where her husband taught school, and where, at the first opportunity, she united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which she remained a faithful member until she was called to join the church triumphant beyond the river.

In 1862 her husband was admitted into the Central Illinois Conference. He served the following charges: Olena, Gilson, Hermon, Sunbeam, Woodhull, Roseville, Milford, Potosi, Sheffield, Sparland and Cameron. Her husband's health failing, they removed to Kansas and made their home in Pleasanton. There on the 24th of January, 1900, after thirty-six months of suffering, so intense that she often prayed to God to come and take her home to rest, she sweetly fell asleep in Jesus, and her weary spirit entered the rest that remains to the people of God in heaven. After appropriate funeral services, her body was laid to rest in Pleasanton cemetery to await the resurrection of the just.

She was a good wife, and shared with her husband the varied joys and sorrows of itinerant life. She was the mother of six children, three of whom survive, Ira S. Beeler and Ida May Kincaid, of Kansas City, Mo., and Rella Frances Smith, of Pleasanton, Kan. For her husband and children she did what she could, and now they tenderly cherish her memory.

She was a faithful Christian, always at the post of duty. When it was possible she was in the house of God, using the means of grace. In her husband's absence she kept the fire burning upon the family altar, and through her influence her children in their early years united with the church. She was a diligent student and pursued a systematic course of reading. Though for years in feeble health, she read in addition to the Bible, Fletcher's Works, Hallam's "Middle Ages," and Russell's "Modern Europe," and was well informed in Modern History and English Literature.

She was a model of womanly patience and loving service, delighting in helping others, and was one of those gentle natures, which, "like sunbeams shine without an effort, and leave us like themselves." In her great sufferings she often said to loved ones, "When we get home there'll be no pain or sorrow there." Husband and children are deeply grieved, but hope to meet her in "the sweet bye and bye."

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS SOCIETY.

At a meeting of the Society held in the audience room of the church on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 21, 1901, the following officers were elected:

President, A. K. Tullis; Vice President, T. W. McVety; Secretary, A. M. Stocking; Treasurer, J. B. Dille; Agent, J. P. Forsyth.

The following persons were nominated as members of the Board of Managers: J. S. Cumming, John Rogers, J. E. Mercer, John Wilkinson, M. V. B. White, T. J. Wood, O. M. Dunlevy, W. R. Watson, W. B. Shoop.

The Committee on revision of the Constitution reported, recommending certain changes and additions, and they were made. The Committee, which consists of A. K. Tullis, A. M. Stocking, T. W. McVety, J. G. Evans and H. D. Clark, was continued for another year.

A resolution was adopted confirming the action of A. K. Tullis, President, and E. Wasmuth, Secretary of the Society, in executing a warranty deed, dated Oct. 12, 1896, as they had been authorized to do at a regular meeting of the society held at ElPaso, Ill., Sept. 23, 1896, by which the north half of the southeast quarter section of Section twenty-two (22) and the north half of the northwest quarter of Section twenty-seven (27), township thirty (30) north, of Range (3) west of the 6th principal meridian, and situated in Knox county, Nebraska, were conveyed to William H. Harm; and A. K. Tullis, President, and A. M. Stocking, Secretary, at the present time, were instructed to execute a quit claim deed of the same lands to the same party. The Secretary was instructed to make a complete copy of the resolutions in the records of the society.

The report of the Agent of the Society was adopted and is here appended.

A. M. STOCKING, Secretary. A. K. TULLIS, President.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

The American Bible Society is one of the indispensible missionary organizations of the country. It pioneers the way of the regular missionary and later buttresses his work. Its work is vital to missionary progress. There never has been such urgent demands on this Society as since the opening of Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippine Islands to Bible distribution and Protestant missions. The supplying of these millons with the Holy Scriptures is a pressing resposibility lately thrust upon us by God. Every instinct of patriotism and Protestant Christianity impels us to send those people these wonderful words of life. A fact that we should note is that every Bible used by our missionaries in every land and language is furnished by the American Bible Society without any expense to our Missionary Board. The further fact that the entire cost of administration, salaries of Secretaries, Field Agent, etc., is met without using any of the contributions of the people, is very important seeing it leaves a full one hundred per cent of all collections that reach the treasurer in New York for the direct work of publishing and circulating the Holy word, therefore,

Resolved, 1. In view of the great need of the Bible Society, we will at an early day present the work of this Society to our congregations and solicit contributions for its work.

2. That we have heard with pleasure the presentation of this work made before this Conference by the Field Agent, Rev. Dr. Pearson, and will seek from him such literature as we may need for our own use and for distribution in the congregations. His address is the Roanoke, Clifton, Cincinnati, Ohio.

3. That it shall be our aim to secure for this great cause an apportionment that shall be equal to, at least, five per cent as much as that made for missions.

4. That the committee of arrangements for next Conference be requested to arrange for an anniversary for the American Bible Society to be held under the direction of the committee on that cause.

D. S. ANDREWARTHA, Secretary. S. P. ALFORD, President.

BOOK ACCOUNTS.

The Committe on Book Accounts finds encouragement in the fact that our Conference has given a more liberal patronage to our publishing houses and have been more prompt in payment of accounts than in former years, still there is room for improvement; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we congratulate our Conference and also urge our people to increase their patronage of our papers and books, especially our Sunday school supplies.

2. That we earnestly urge all delinquents to be more prompt in payment of their accounts.

3. That as in former years ten per cent be reserved by the Board of Conference Stewards from all allowances to superannuated claimants known to be indebted to the Book Concern.

4. That while we are called to mourn our loss in the death of Dr. Arthur Edwards we most heartily appreciate the success attending the management of the Northwestern Christian Advocate by Dr. D. D. Thompson, the newly elected editor.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

From the current report the committee finds that from the beginning the Board of Church Extension has donated to churches $3,060,398.62, and loans amounting to $2,195,449.94 have been granted. In all 11,677 churches have been aided. During the year closing Nov. 1, 1900, 174 churches have received help.

This Conference has received aid amounting to $52,820.38, of which $18,264.15 were donated. In the past year the Conference contributed 51,724, and for the ensuing year we are asked to raise $5,300. This will afford to our needy churches $900.

In the cities, throughout the sparsely settled portions of the country, and in our new possessions the demand for places of worship is urgent and ever increasing. In all sections the fostering care of these necessarily hinges upon proper places of worship.

We recommend the following:

1. We rejoice in the continued success attending the work of the Board of Church Extension and desire to record our interest in and loyalty to its plans to meet the needs of our ever widening fields of labor.

2. We will faithfully endeavor to meet our share of its responsibilities especially in securing the Twentieth Century Thank Offering of $1,000,000 for Church Extension.

3. That our pastors and churches avail themselves of the efficient aids provided by the Board. That this cause be faithfully presented to our churches.

4. We learn with pleasure the location of Dr. M. S. Hard in Chicago, believing this to be especially valuable to the cause in the West. We also desire to express our pleasure in the presence of Dr. C. M. Boswell, of Philadelphia, whose services have been both helpful and inspiring.

REPORT ON CHURCH INSURANCE.

From information given us by our Board of Insurance we are pleased to know it has met with a royal reception and is meeting a great need, as it now protects more than ten thousand five hundred policy holders representing more than thirteen million dollars in risks.

The carefulness of administration is shown by the fact that since its organization it has sustained a much less ratio than old line companies, and besides paying every dollar due has accumulated more than one hundred and seventy thousand dollars in net assets.

The company insures the homes and goods of our preachers, and all property held by the church, writing its policies for the total amount desired up to three-fourths valuation of the property, and protects itself against excessive loss by proper re-insurance. It receives its premium in annual installments and rebates its savings annually, yet by its system and rebates saves more than 50 per cent of the cost of annual policies in stock companies, so making it possible for every church to be protected.

More than one-half of the 10,500 policy holders were unable to meet the requirements of stock companies, and in several of these cases our policies have saved the societies from annihilation.

We urge all our people to use their own company, for every policy given to another company, by that much prevents the best results possible in our own, and may keep just out of reach the help sorely needed by some struggling church.

For particulars, write H. P. Magill, Secretary, 57 Washington Street, Chicago, Ill.

REPORT OF DEACONESS BOARD.

Your Board met according to call and elected C. O. McCulloch, President, and Thos. Doney, Secretary.

The licenses of Mrs. Lucy Hall, Miss Mary Jefferson, Mrs. N. C. Radford and Mrs. Margaret Woost were renewed.

The following are nominated as members of the Board:

Three Years.—Thos. Doney, Mrs. J. F. Robinson, Rock Island, C. W. Green.

Two Years.—S. Van Pelt, Mrs. Backmeister and Mrs. C. Engstrom.

One Year.—C. O. McCulloch, William Hazzard and W. W. Wyatt.

DEACONESS WORK.

The committee on Deaconess Work has carefully considered the reports of the various Deaconesses and the institutions which they represent, and feel glad to give them our unqualified indorsement. The work as done in Peoria and Normal is practical and effective. They are true "sisters of the people," carrying a blessing and an inspiration everywhere they go. City conditions make such work a necessity, and we recommend the Deaconess and her work to every church which can afford a support. Nowhere will so little money yield such large return of good to the world and glory to God. We bespeak a careful reading of the tabulated reports of the Home and Hospital for the past year.

DOMESTIC MISSIONS.

Your committee present for your consideration the following report:

We commend this most excellent society to the earnest and prayerful thought of the members of our Conference and urge upon all the need of additional funds in order that the meager support of the men upon our home mission fields may be supplemented.

It is our best judgment that only the amount needed should be apportioned to the various charges and we believe if this is thoroughly understood, it will result in larger returns another year.

We deplore the fact that last year 67 charges failed to take this important collection.

We recommend that this collection be taken as early in the year as practicable, and the amount forwarded to the Treasurer of this society immediately.

We also recommend that the Treasurer furnish a statement of funds received and paid out for publication in the Conference minutes.

We nominate the following persons as officers and managers for the coming year:

President, F. W. Merrell; Vice President, C. O. McCulloch; Secretary, J. A. Chapman; Treasurer, D. B. Johnson.

Managers—A. K. Tullis, M. V. B. White, J. E. Mercer, John Small, J. S. Thompson, Lacon; J. H. Bunn, Peoria; C. M. Beecher, La Fayette; H. O. Cady, Brimfield; W. B. Fleager, Sheldon.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

HEDDING COLLEGE.

Hedding College is the only institution of college grade under the exclusive control of the Central Illinois Conference. It is the property of the church and every Methodist is a joint owner, while every preacher is an accredited field agent. We are glad to note that the College is opening with a healthy increase over the enrollment of last year. The efficient faculty of last year is retained, thus insuring increased efficiency. A growing interest is manifested in the College among both preachers and laity, which, with increased confidence in its stability and the enthusiasm manifested by both the alumni and students, give promise of future prosperity. We desire to especially commend the spiritual atmosphere for which Hedding has always been noted and which continues to be one of the marked features of its college life. The noonday prayermeeting of more than thirty years' standing still continues with unabated interest, and a deep religious spirit pervades the student body.

The endowment has been substantially increased this year by the sale of scholarships and the purchase by the people of Abingdon of a home for the President. The property is held as the nucleus of an endowment of the President's chair.

The College meets all the requirements of the University Senate and its diplomas admit to post graduate work at Harvard, Johns Hopkins, Chicago, and the other great universities. We have a pardonable pride in the fact that her alumni have taken high standing in graduate work. We call especial attention to the Conservatory of Music, which, under the efficient management of Mrs. Esterbrook, as Dean, is rapidly becoming one of the best schools of music in the West. We invite comparison of the course of study with that of any similar school in the land. A six years' course leads to a degree which is not given but earned.

We are not a little gratified because of the enthusiasm of the student body for President Gilmer, as well as the generous favor in which he is held by the people throughout the patronizing territory of the College, and we wish to record our appreciation and emphatic endorsement of his able and increasing successful administration.

We nominate as Trustees, M. V. Crumbaker, W. H. Witter, Thos. Doney, N.

G. Lyons, Thomas Newell, R. E. Ward, J. B. Smith, Chas. M. Beecher; also S. Blackstone to fill vacancy in list of one year ago. We recommend as Conference visitors, J. W. Edwards, John Rogers, T. W. McVety, C. T. Cady, W. S. Welsh and W. B. Shoop.

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

The Illinois Wesleyan University enjoys prospects more propitious than have been in view for many years.

The Twentieth Century Guild promises to become a most efficient auxilliary in furnishing funds to supplement the regular resources, thus preventing any probable deficiency in the income necessary to maintain the teaching force and the appliances up to the required standard or to pay the annuities.

We have great reason to praise God for such manifestations of Christian generosity as were displayed by the large gifts of Mr. Charles Cramp and his wife, Mrs. Henrietta Cramp. Their memories will always be held in great veneration by the friends of the school. The aggregate of their benefactions amount to nearly $40,000. Mrs. Cramp passed peacefully away at a ripe age on the 7th of September, 1901. We gratefully record our exalted esteem of her life, her spirit and her character, and pray that the Master may take the gift so graciously bestowed and use it to His own glory.

The immediate income to the University therefrom is about $1,500 a year.

The faculty has been strenghtened by the election of two highly recommended professors to the vacated chairs of Latin and Mathematics respectively.

We heartily favor the resolution of the joint Board looking to the addition of a course in Biblical Literature, or to substitute in the course in Christian Theism some books bearing particulary on that subject.

We learn with satisfaction of the official declaration of the President that the Wesleyan will discountenance and discourage any form of amusement which is detrimental to the morals of the student or out of harmony with the spirit of the Methodist discipline.

We recommend as visitors, Revs. R. B. Williams, Joe Bell, J. E. Connor, F. J. Giddings, A. K. Tullis and A. R. Morgan.

Trustees for three years—Rev. J. S. Cumming, L. F. Cullom, John Thompson and Herbert Powell.

GRAND PRAIRIE SEMINARY.

With commendable pride we note the prosperity of this institution. We rejoice that an endowment of $100,000 has been secured, which must greatly increase the efficiency of the school and extend the borders of its influence. To Dr. Palmer and to Rev. O. T. Dwinell, pastor at Onarga, much credit is due, the latter carrying on the work of the church while performing the duties of acting president of the seminary during the year.

The institution is to be congratulated on being permitted to number among its friends such donors as W. A. Rankin, D. K. Pearson, E. Bunnell, Wm. Deering and others whose spirit of liberality should be an inspiration to the friends of Christian education everywhere.

Dr. F. G. Barnes, the newly elected President, has entered upon the duties of his office with an earnestness and zeal which give great promise of success. He is an excellent scholar, an experienced teacher and a devout Christian. It is believed that its affiliation with the Northwestern University will contribute to the efficiency of the Seminary.

The teachers are deservedly popular with the students, while the faith of the people in the future of the institution has been greatly quickened. The present year opens with a greatly increased attendance and the promise that there will be a continued increase throughout the year. We nominate as visitors, V. H. Brink, W. J. West, A. M. Stocking, W. B. Harvey, R. D. Russell and James Inkster.

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY.

We recognize the Northwestern University as one of the most noted educational institutions in the country, and recommend it as offering superior advantages to all those who wish to avail themselves of University facilities.

We recommend the election of G. R. Palmer as trustee for two years.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

We are pleased to note the increasing popularity and usefulness of Garrett Biblical Institute. Possessing splendid facilities, commanding a faculty of teachers who are masters in their departments and patterns in Christian living, it is certainly worthy of our best support.

The splendid address of President Little at the session of our Conference, is sufficient warrant that the evangelical faith and earnestness of the young men preparing for the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal church are safe in this school. The manifest spirit of the school is toward the development of independent thinking within the limits imposed by the positive statements of Holy Scripture. The improvements recently made in Heck Hall make it almost a model home for theological students. We recommend R. E. Buckey as visitor for two years.

DREW THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

Boston School of Theology is doing excellent work and deserves our highest commendation for their scholarly character and evangelical spirit.

R. CREWES, Secretary. H. D. CLARK, Chairman.

EPISCOPAL FUND.

According to the announcement of the Bishop, the Book Committee fixed the sum which was considered necessary to meet the demands of the Episcopal Fund. The amount for our Conference being $2,272. Last year our Conference was apportioned $2,260. We raised by collection $1,437, making an increase of $164 over the year before.

Your committee presents the following:

WHEREAS, Owing to this deficiency, and

WHEREAS, Our Bishops and widows of deceased Bishops are worthy of greater consideration, therefore

Resolved, That pastors be required to report whether they have fulfilled the disciplinary requirements in regard to pro-rating.

Resolved, That we make a greater effort the coming year than has been made the past to meet this just obligation in full.

Resolved, That the Presiding Elders be requested to ask at the fourth quarterly conference whether the Episcopal Fund collection has been taken, and if possible ascertain the amounts and report same.

WILLIAM S. PORTER, Secretary. W. L. DOUGLAS, Chairman.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

We congratulate the church upon the perfection already attained by the Epworth League in every department of work, and urge the continued development of the young life of Methodism upon Scriptural grounds of life and service.

Since the Epworth Herald ranks second to none as a literary and religious paper for young people, and is the cheapest paper of its character in circulation, we will endeavor to place it in the hands of all our young people, feeling that its use will make more loyal Methodists and more active Christians.

Your committee submit the names of the following persons as Conference Officers for the ensuing year: President, E. F. Roe; Secretary, J. C. Zeller; Treasurer, G. E. Alford; Junior League Superintendent, J. W. Ferris.

J. C. ZELLER, Secretary. J. H. BATTEN, Chairman.

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION.

There never was a time when the necessity for the uplifting and saving of the poor and degraded people of our own country was more urgent than now. In saving America we do much toward saving the world.

The work of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society is the educational and moral uplifting of the poor white people and the destitute black people of the South. This relates itself not only to the progress of the church in our land, but also to the very life of the Republic. It therefore deserves the deep interest of our pastors, and an earnest presentation annually before the people of our churches.

The General Committee has asked for a thank offering of $100,000 to be specially applied to the debt of the Society, suggesting that this be made by an advance in the regular collections for this cause. Every dollar given in excess of the apportionment, will be applied directly to the reduction of the debt.

The last General Conference dispensed with the service of an Assistant Secretary, thereby saving several thousand dollars a year. The General Conference believed that this action would lay the burden of this work more strongly upon the minds and hearts of the Presiding Elders, pastors and people, and secure their special co-operation in the interest of this work.

A series of fresh and interesting tracts has recently been issued, which will be furnished free of charge to pastors applying for them.

To every one giving one dollar or more, the Christian Educator will be sent free of charge for one year. This illustrated magazine of facts will greatly help any pastor in his presentation of our work, and every member in understanding and appreciating the great work which is being done by the Society.

Resolved, That as pastors we will endeavor to raise the full amount apportioned to our respective charges the coming year for this cause.

G. E. ALFORD, Secretary. J. A. NORTHRUP, Chairman.

MISSIONS.

We recognize the fact that the cause of Missions is the chief business of the Christian church. We rejoice because our Methodism is in the fore front with determined faith and courage, in obedience to the command of God and moved by the cry of humanity, trying to disciple all nations. However, there is need of greater consecration of means as well as talent and life on the part of all of our churches than has yet been realized. The advance in our Conference of $787 for Missions over last year, is no cause for congratulation, in view of the special gift of $1,000 by a lady at Grant Park.

We recommend the general observance of Easter as Children's Missionary day, and that each Sunday school, so far as possible, be organized into a Missionary Society.

We recommend most heartily the movement of the Epworth League in behalf of Missions, and urge the hearty co-operation of pastors in fireing the hearts of our young people on this great subject.

T. A. BEALL, Secretary. J. W. EDWARDS, Chairman.

PEORIA DEACONESS HOSPITAL.

It is with pleasure that your committee is able to make the following report:

1. The internal management has been able to meet the current expenses out of the regular receipts from patients.

2. In less than sixteen months 253 patients have been cared for, some of whom were won to the Saviour, so that the institution is becoming known for soul-helping as well as body-relieving.

3. The great need of such an institution is shown in the great demand for our nurses outside the institution, and for private rooms in the hospital far beyond the ability to supply. In view of what has been done in so short a time and with such limited means, we recommend to those blessed with abundance this phase of Christ-like beneficence.

4. That our pastors make known in their churches that anyone contributing $200 or more, shall thereby be constituted a life member of the association, and that any family, church or society shall be accorded like privilege, one member for each $200 paid.

5. That individuals, Epworth Leagues, Sunday schools and churches be urged to continue to send to the hospital supplies of bedding, canned fruits, vegetables, etc.

6. That our pastors be urged to open the way in their respective churches for field workers who will be sent in response to a request sent to the Superintendent, and that they properly distribute the literature of the institution sent out from time to time.

7. That we pledge anew our hearty support and co-operation to this worthy cause.

G. M. BOSWELL, Secretary. J. E. MERCER, Chairman.

POST OFFICES.

We have completed the tabulation of all post offices on each charge, by districts, and have sent the same to Jennings and Pye for use in their corresponding with official and other members of the church.

We recommend a careful use of the post office blanks for another year.

F. N. WRIGHT, Secretary. H. B. WARD, Chairman.

SANCTITY OF THE SABBATH.

Your Committee on the Sanctity of the Sabbath submits the following report:

God gave the Sabbath day to man, for man. His commands concerning the keeping of this day are clear and plain. He is still Lord of the Sabbath. His laws for its holy keeping are still upon us; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we enter our earnest protest against all assembling of crowds except for religious purposes, all pleasure seeking, public games, excursions, and traffic on that day.

2. That we, as a body of Christian ministers, will use every means in our power, in and out of the pulpit, to foster the spirit of reverence for God's holy day.

3. That we commend to the reading public, interested in saving this day from the hands of its foes, the recently published book, "Sunday, the True Sabbath of God."

4. That we pledge our hearty support to every organization that has for its aim the calling of the people to Sabbath keeping.

C. F. W. Smith, Secretary. G. L. Taylor, Chairman.

STATE OF CHURCH.

We rejoice in the progress of the church during the past year, not only in the conversion of souls and the increase in church membership but for the large and generous offerings for the Twentieth Century Fund.

In the struggle with irreligion and doubt, Methodism has maintained her prestige and declared her conquering power. In the combat she has neither modified nor apologized for her doctrines, and more, she has unswervingly adhered to her methods in bringing the world to Christ and retained her unyielding faith in the power of the gospel.

Uncompromising hostility continues to be the attitude of the church toward the saloon, for she regards drunkenness as a great moral evil; directly obstructing the development of vital Christianity and abhorrent in the sight of God. She holds that all legislators, judges, jurors and civic officers should regard the saloon as the common foe of all mankind, and not ally with it.

Recognizing the helpfulness of the Epworth League in church work, we realize that it must be carefully studied and wisely managed in order to become the church force of tomorrow.

Having reached a period in church life when demands made upon the church are large and important, the pastor should carefully emphasize the importance of systematic benevolence and guard against outside claimants.

The church must recognize more that an essential in winning the world to Christ is the emphasis of "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." We hail with delight the Deaconess movement of the church in manifesting this love by doing good to the body as well as the soul of man, and bespeak for it the hearty support of the church.

A. L. Baker, Secretary. J. Wilkinson, Chairman.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

1. The unexampled financial prosperity of the country calls for our sincerest gratitude to Almighty God.

2. The progress of pacification in the Philippines is commendable and as evangelical Christianity through the churches and education through the public school are being promoted, we look for a steady growth in civilization and such development of all the qualities of citizenship as to render the new possessions worthy of being gradually invested with all the privileges pertaining thereto.

3. Language fails to describe the horror of such attempts at assassination as have recently been perpetrated on the persons of some European rulers, but the wanton murder of President McKinley is beyond all precedent the most unprovoked, unjustifiable and dastardly crime that could possibly be conceived.

We believe in the enactment of such laws by the Federal Government as shall prevent the landing of foreign anarchists, and that state government should devise most vigorous measures for the suppression of avowed anarchists within their jurisdiction.

The calling of an International Council for the consideration of this grievous evil of anarchy is a suggestion worthy of the attention of the nations.

We favor no further restrictive Chinese immigration laws, and would encourage reciprocal trade relations between this country and China.

The action of our Government in tendering its friendly mediation between Venezuela and Colombia is commended, and we believe that in consonance with the spirit of the Monroe Doctrine the United States should intervene to prevent any such serious complications between the South American governments as would be likely to lead to European interference with their political affairs.

Reverently and humbly we bow under the great affliction in the death of our President, and sincerely pray that this, our national calamity, may be sanctified to the nation's good, and, while we have lost a president the whole world trusted, we devoutly thank our Heavenly Father that a Christian man is still at the helm of State.

T. W. McVETY, Secretary. N. G. LYONS, Chairman.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND TRACTS.

We recognize the Sunday School as one of the most important factors in the religious and educational life.

Inasmuch as the education of the young in religion is of the highest importance, great care should be exercised in the selection of teachers to instruct the 2,600,000 in the Methodist Episcopal Church.

We urge that our pastors and Presiding Elders see that the literature published by our Book Concern be used in the Sunday School, and that the Sunday nearest Christmas be set apart in all our Sunday Schools for a Christmas contribution to the Sunday School Union of our Church.

We recognize the evangelizing instrumentality of the Tract, and recommend that the pastors in our Conference avail themselves of the liberal offer of the Tract Society and that we give it our financial support.

WM. D. EVANS, Secretary. O. P. GRAVES, President.

TEMPERANCE AND PROHIBITION.

Your committee on Temperance and Prohibition beg leave to report as follows:

I. Statement.

The legalized liquor traffic is the great crime and disgrace of our country. The saloon by the most infamous methods creates and increases its own patronage, thus imperiling the youth of our country. Alcohol is a poison that not only destroys the bodies but also ruins the souls of its victims. It poisons the fountains of life, degenerates physical manhood, entails disease and imbecility, produces mental weakness, induces immorality and results, not only in reducing man to the lowest depths of human degeneration, but in his eternal damnation. The saloon seeks to destroy all for which the Gospel stands. It is largely responsible for the poverty, vice and misery of the slums of our country, whether in the city or village. The rapidly increasing lawlessness of our country is in large measure due to the character and influence of the saloon. Even when licensed it is universally lawless, stealthily and often openly, violating all the restrictions found upon the statute books. The victims of the saloon do not hesitate to commit perjury when brought into court as witnesses against the saloon keeper. Indeed the reign of perjury and its alarming increase among city and village officials, jurors and witnesses may be logically traced to the demoralizing influence of the saloon. The general lawlessness created and fostered by the saloon, reaches its climax in organized anarchy, and anarchy has recently plunged our whole country into the deepest sorrow by striking down by the bullet of the assassin our honored President. The assassin was an ex-saloon keeper and the son of a saloon keeper. It was in the rear of his father's saloon that he received his first lessons in anarchy, as he listened to the talk of a few anarchists who regularly assembled there for their discussions. The relation is not remote between the saloon and the assassination of Mr. McKinley, nor between the saloon and those who are responsible for its legal existence and protection. By legalizing the saloon we are fostering lawlessness, anarchy and assassination. We commend the action of congress in outlawing the government saloon in the army, known as the canteen. The demoralizing of the saloon is seen in the falsehood and misrepresentation indulged in by drinking army officers and a subsidized secular press in the interest of restoring the canteen. The saloon is the chief criminal in America, in that it is not only the prolific cause of poverty, disease and death, but also the cause of from seventy-five to ninety per cent of all other crimes. "The only proper attitude of the Christian is that of relentless hostility."

We rejoice that the time for the Twentieth Century Thank Offering has been extended for another year and we pledge ourselves to renewed efforts in this behalf.

We recommend that the third Sunday in December the interests of the Conference Claimants Society shall be presented and a Thank Offering taken in endowment notes and cash as a permanent fund, the interest of which shall be paid to the Conference stewards for distribution to the worthy and needy claimants of the Conference.

We further recommend that a complete and detailed report be made next year of all funds raised under the Twentieth Century Thank Offering call.

We recommend that a committee of five on the Twentieth Century Thank Offering be elected for the ensuing year..

D. B. JOHNSON, Secretary. G. R. PALMER, President.

Resolved, That the Presiding Elders be requested to urge in their respective districts the observance of the day set apart for special efforts in the interests of our Conference Claimants Society. A. P. FORSYTH,
A. K. TULLIS.

USE OF TOBACCO.

WHEREAS, the use of tobacco is a needless, injurious and expensive habit; and.

WHEREAS, it is a growing evil among our boys and young men leading to a waste of time and money, and tending toward bad associations; and,

WHEREAS, It is contrary to the spirit of the Gospel and the teaching of our Discipline, and inconsistent with the purity of Christian life and example;

Resolved, That as those who "bear the vessels of the Lord," we will, by our personal example and teaching, militate against the use of tobacco in every form; and, moreover, we call upon the officials and membership of our churches to purge themselves from this unclean habit and to discourage it in society; and we appeal especially to Christian merchants to refrain from the selling of tobacco in any form, particularly to boys.

J. R. CLARK, Secretary. R. L. VIVIAN, Chairman.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

We rejoice to learn that another year of prosperity has crowned the efforts of the faithful workers.

Through this organization an opportunity is afforded to engage in a glorious work for Christ and his church. In the foreign field souls are being saved, the sick are healed and the schools are doing a splendid work. In the home field the educational feature results in increased interest in the unsaved world and a deepening of spiritual life.

We regret that only a small per cent of the eligible membership of the church is as yet enrolled as members of this society, and we urge all to avail themselves of the privileges afforded by this society.

E. C. ANDERSON, Secretary. M. A. HEAD, Chairman.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

We regret that in the multiplicity of the demands upon our congregation, the claims of the Woman's Home Missionary Society have not been more fully regarded, but are grateful that a slight advance is made, and that the action recommended by the committee last year has been granted, that an anniversary meeting be held and the needs of the society have been explained; therefore,

Resolved, That this Conference, recognizing the importance of the work done by the Woman's Home Missionary Society, recommend the preachers open their pulpits to Miss E. Roberts, a national organizer, during the months of February and March, and encourage our people to establish auxilliaries in our churches, and that we will co-operate with and do thoroughly endorse the work of this society.

J. GIMSON, Secretary. G. D. HENSELL, Chairman.

Resolutions.

Resolved, That this Conference appoint a committee of three to draft suitable resolutions of its deep sorrow in the death of our illustrious president, William McKinley.

G. R. Palmer,
R. B. Williams.

Resolved, That Thursday at 10 o'clock a. m., be, and is hereby, set apart for a memorial service for Hon. William McKinley, the chief magistrate of our country, and that John M. Walden, our presiding bishop, be requested to make the memorial address.

J. G. Evans,
R. B. Williams.

Whereas, Our country has been plunged into inexpressible grief in the death of its chief executive, our illustrious and greatly beloved President, William McKinley, at the hand of a malicious assassin; and,

Whereas, The act was a crime against both the person of the President and the majesty of the people; and,

Whereas, The Methodist Episcopal church and our common Christianity have sustained a loss so great; therefore,

Resolved, That we recognize in him an exponent of personal integrity, a husband of exemplary tenderness and devotion, a citizen of sterling worth and with an exalted idea of civic righteousness, a loyal and brave soldier, a legislator keen, penetrating and just, a ruler of broad, exalted and profound statesmanship, and whose Christian resignation in his closing days, in laying down his high honors, fittingly rounded out a life of high moral purpose.

Resolved, That we extend to the bereaved and invalid wife our sympathy, praying that she may be graciously sustained in her deep affliction, and that her night of sorrow may be radiant with the presence of God.

Resolved, That we deplore and denounce the dastardly assault that took him from us, and every form of lawlessness, together with all seditious utterances calculated to encourage ignorant and vicious classes to the committing of such crimes as are a menace to all authority and good morals.

Resolved, That we extend to his successor in office, Theodore Roosevelt, our cordial sympathy and support, commending his retention of the cabinet of President McKinley and the declaration of his purpose to follow the lines of his administration.

G. R. Palmer,
C. O. McCulloch,
H. D. Clark.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with Brother M. C. Eignus in the tragic death of his son which occurred at Kankakee yesterday.

R. B. Williams.
John H. Ryan,
F. W. Imboden.

Resolved, That the pastor and Presiding Elder, where our next Conference shall be held, be requested in arranging the program of said Conference, to have all Conference anniversaries held in the afternoon, reserving the evenings for evangelistic services.

J. G. EVANS,
C. O. MCCULLOCH.

---

WHEREAS, There is no uniformity in the furnishing of the parsonages within the bounds of the Central Illinois Conference; and,

WHEREAS, This entails great expense and inconvenience upon the pastors when moving from one charge to another.

Resolved, That we hereby recommend that all parsonages be furnished with heating apparatus, shades and necessary heavy articles of furniture; and,

Resolved, That we recommend this work to the Committee on Parsonage and Furniture and to the Ladies' Aid Societies of the charges.

J. W. FRIZZELLE,
W. R. WILEY,
D. S. MCCOWN,
J. D. CALHOUN.

---

WHEREAS, On September 21, 1901, there was organized the Ministers' Wives Association of the Central Illinois Conference, for the promotion of mutual sympathy, encouragement and helpfulness; and,

WHEREAS, Such organization has been recognized and welcomed by other Conferences in which they have been formed; therefore,

Resolved, That we hereby extend to this Association our hearty greetings and cordial co-operation.

R. A. BROWN,
JOHN H. RYAN,
THOS. DONEY,
W. R. WILEY,
J. W. FRIZZELLE,
C. O. MCCULLOCH.

---

WHEREAS, The present method of reporting the abandoned church property within our bounds is not sufficient for full information concerning such property; therefore,

Resolved, That the Presiding Elders embrace in their reports to the next session of the Conference, the following items as to such abandoned property: Charge in which located; probable value; insurance, if any; condition; and that these items be published in the Minutes.

C, O. MCCULLOCH,
J. G. EVANS.

---

Your committee would respectfully recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That our thanks are hereby tendered to Rev. R. A. Brown, pastor, and the committee of entertainment, for the careful and courteous manner in which they have provided for our comfort while attending this session of the Conference.

2. That we express our sincere thanks for an invitation to hold the Conference in Kewanee, and that we thank the citizens who have kindly welcomed us to their homes for entertainment.

3. That we thank the pastors and people of sister denominations for the use of their churches for our committees, and for their courtesy in tendering their pulpits to the brethren of the Conference on the Sabbath.

4. That we thank the gentlemen of the Union National Bank for the use of their parlor and other favors for the convenience of our Treasurer and his assistants.

5. That our thanks are due to our Secretaries for the faithfulness and accuracy with which they have performed their work.

6. That we recognize with thanks the careful and successful management of the publishing interests of the Conference by our publisher, Rev. N. T. Allen.

7. That we deeply sympathize with Dr. W. H. Hunter, who is seriously ill at his home in Peoria, and we will pray that he may be cheered by the presence of the promised Comforter, and that, if it please God, he may be restored.

8. That we prayerfully sympathize with our brother, M. C. Eignus, and his family, in their bereavement by the death by drowning, at Kankakee, last Wednesday, of a beloved and promising son.

9. That we highly appreciate the presidency of our beloved Bishop, John M. Walden, and that we express our thanks for his uniform courtesy, and for his wisdom in giving advices, especially to our young men; for his able Memorial address in memory of our lamented President, William McKinley; for his lecture on "Study" on Africa; and for his able sermon on the Sabbath; and that we will pray that his life and health may be preserved, and that God may be with him in his arduous and responsible work; and that, if in the plan of Episcopal visitation he should be chosen to preside again over this Conference he will have a hearty welcome among us.

T. W. McVETY,
C. W. AYLING,
O. T. DWINELL,
N. G. LYONS,
J. S. CUMMING.

1. Resolved, That we affirm all the former utterances of this Conference upon the subject of temperance and prohibition.

2. Resolved, That we heartily endorse the action of the General Conference on this subject, as adopted at its last session.

3. Resolved, That we fully endorse the local option bill introduced into the legislature last winter by Hon. W. A. Rankin, of Onarga, but killed in committee. We condemn as unjust the action of the politicians in refusing to allow the people of the counties to vote directly upon the question of licensing the saloon, and we pledge ourselves to use all our influence to secure the adoption of a just local option measure at the next session of our legislature.

4. Resolved, That the existence of a canteen saloon in the army is an offense to the Christian and moral sense of the nation and a crime against the manly young men of our country, many of whom go into the army from pure and happy homes.

5. Resolved, That intelligent Christian Citizenship is the basis upon which we must build for the overthrow of the saloon.

6. Resolved, That the Church of God, fully aroused to the appreciation of the enormity of the liquor traffic, and the importance of its suppression, furnishes the only hope of final success in our warfare against the saloon.

7. Resolved, That our Discipline provides a most perfect plan for the organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church into a great Temperance Society, well fitted for the most efficient service in this department of Christian work.

8. Resolved, That we will faithfully carry out the plan of the Discipline for the general agitation of this subject, including the organization of committees, the holding of temperance meetings, the taking of collections, and the distribution of temperance literature.

To this end we will observe the fourth Sunday in November as temperance Sunday holding temperance meeting, taking collections and distributing the same according to the recommendation of the General Conference, namely, one-half to the local temperance committee, one-quarter to the Annual Conference committee, and one-quarter to the permanent committee on temperance and prohibition.

9. Resolved, That, since the almost universal custom of celebrating the Fourth of July is neither sensible, rational nor Christian, but rather uncivilized, not to say barbaric, involving much waste and needless expense, and at the same time endangering property and life, and, also being devoid of any really intelligent, moral or patriotic inspiration in influence, we will from this time henceforth do all in our power to induce our Churches, Epworth Leagues, and other Young People's Societies, and our Sunday Schools to celebrate our national birthday in a truly Christian and patriotic manner in the interest and for the promotion of the temperance reform; and, further, we recommend, that, so far as practicable, on the Sunday immediately preceding the Fourth of July all our pastors preach a sermon upon the wise, patriotic, temperance and Christian celebration of our great national anniversary.

10. Resolved, That we rejoice in all efforts for the overthrow of the saloon, and will co-operate with all organizations such as the W. C. T. U. and the Anti-saloon League in their efforts for the suppression of the liquor traffic, and for the dissemination of temperance sentiment.

JOHN SMALL, Secretary.. J. G. EVANS, President.

Proposed New Constitution.

The General Conference of A. D. 1900, by a vote of 542 to 94, proposed and recommended a revised Constitution of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and ordered it to be submitted to the Annual Conferences of 1901 for their action thereon; and the said General Conference also authorized the Bishops, if the Annual Conferences should concur in said recommendation by a vote of three-fourths of all the members present and voting, to thereupon declare said Constitution to be duly adopted and in force as the Constitution of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Said revised Constitution is printed in the Discipline for 1900, beginning with the Preamble, on page 356, and continuing through page 362 of said Discipline; and as thus printed, is the Constitution submitted to the Annual Conferences for their vote thereon.

Central Illinois Conference, Sept. 21, 1901.

Affirmative votes on above proposition..... 151
Negative votes on above proposition..... 6

Attest:

D. S. MCCORD, Secretary JOHN M. WALDEN, President.

Memoirs.

FELIX RILEY BOGGESS.

Felix Riley Boggess was born in Rievesville, Va., Nov. 30, 1823, and died in Canton, Ill., April 8, 1901. He was licensed to preach Nov. 21, 1846. In 1847 he was admitted to the West Virginia Conference. In 1858 he entered the Peoria (now Central Illinois Conference) by readmission. He filled in their order the following appointments: North Henderson, Fairview, Lewistown, Knoxville, Weathersfield, Sparland, Phelps Chapel, West Jersey, LaPrairie, Industry, LaFayette, Gilson, Cameron and Secor. In all these charges he did an excellent work for the Master. In 1880 he retired from the active ministry but not from work in the church. In all the relations of life he exhibited an exemplary Christian character and up to the very last he was a faithful attendant upon the church services, including the class meeting and prayer meeting. Brother Boggess was a good preacher, sometimes on special occasions measuring up to true greatness in the pulpit. His sermons were well prepared and full of valuable thought. Though on the retired list for over twenty years, he retained his great interest in the church and remained cheerful in disposition and kind in spirit toward all his brethren. He rests in peace. We shall cherish his memory and meet him over yonder.

JOSEPH HAMILTON HOBBS.

Joseph Hamilton Hobbs was born at Potomac, Ill., Oct. 14, 1840, and died in the parsonage at Sibley, Ill., April 15, 1901, aged 60 years, 6 months and 1 day. He was converted and joined the Methodist church when eight years old. From the date of his conversion he felt the call to preach the gospel and looked forward to the ministry as his life work. When President Lincoln made the first call for men to serve for three years or during the war, Bro. Hobbs was among the first to answer and volunteered on July 4, 1861. He was assigned to Co. F, 35th Illinois Infantry, and served his country until Oct. 29, 1864, when he was honorably discharged. He saw much hard service and did his duty faithfully and well. At the time of his death he was a member of the G. A. R. Post at Fairbury.

On March 24, 1865, he was married to Miss Nancy Davis, of Danville, Ill., who survives him. To this union one child was born which died in infancy.

Like many anotner his plans for life were broken into by the war. After some years he began teaching school, which occupation he followed until he entered the Conference at Fairbury in the fall of 1885. He had held a local preacher's license for two years before this. His first appointment was Buckingham, where he served five years, and was the first five-year man in the Conference. In 1890 he was sent to McDowell, where he remained five years, from there to Cropsey three years, Deselm one year, and was in his second year at Sibley when God called him home.

He had been subject to severe heart trouble for some time previous to his death. Realizing that his time here was short and that his death would probably be sudden, he wrote out explicit instructions in regard to the conduct of the funeral. These directions were carried out fully. Services were held in the churches at Sibley and Pontiac, Dr. R. B. Williams, his Presiding Elder, having charge and preached the sermon. A large number of brother ministers were present as well as many of Bro. Hobbs' old parishioners. The remains were laid to rest in the Pontiac cemetery.

Joseph H. Hobbs was one of God's noblemen, universally loved and respected. His great heart was full of the milk of human kindness, and to know him was to feel that you was in the presence of a man of God. He was a successful soul winner, and when he was not in a revival on his charge and seeing sinners brought to God, he thought there must be something wrong, and he sought to know the cause in prayer. He walked and talked with God. His whole life was an open book, clear and pure as a sunbeam, and his sympathy as wide and deep as human sorrow. He has gone to the bosom of the Master whom he so dearly loved and faithfully served.

MARION F. HAVERMALE.

Rev. Marion F. Havermale was born in Montgomery County, Ohio, August 4, 1834, and died at his home in Canton, Ill., June 12, 1901. He came to Fulton County with his father, the late Peter Havermale, in 1844, and settled in Joshua township, where he grew to manhood. He married Miss Mary C. Cluts, of Cuba, Ill., Dec. 30, 1855, and to them were born five children, four of whom, with the wife, survive to mourn his departure. In early manhood he was converted and united with the M. E. church. He soon became impressed that God called him to the Christian ministry, and in answer to that call and the voice of the church, he consecrated himself to that work. His preparatory work of study was done under the supervision of his brother, who was pastor of the M. E. church at Bushnell, Ill. In 1861 he was admitted into the Rock River Conference on trial, and was stationed at Sublette. He was ordained a Deacon at Rockford, by Bishop Scott, in 1863, and an Elder by Bishop Thompson at Aurora in 1865.

In 1864 he was a member of the Christian Commission and spent six weeks at Vicksburg. He also received a Commission as Chaplain but as his Regiment was with Sherman on the march to sea he did not join it. In 1866 he was transferred to the Central Illinois Conference. His appointments were as follows: Sublette, Forreston, Cedarville, Forreston the second time, Canton circuit, Galesburg, Gilman, Watseka, Washington, Dwight, Pekin, Fairbury, Cuba, Yates City, Elvaston, Canton circuit. He moved from Fairbury back to the old homestead in Fulton county to care for his aged parents, whom he tenderly and lovingly served until death removed them.

He was a clear, forcible and earnest preacher, a man of strong convictions, and the courage to express them. He was a faithful and devoted pastor, caring for the sick and poor and helping those in distress of body or mind. He took a superannuated relation to the Conference in 1893, but served as a supply some years afterward. For two years he had been failing in health and during the past winter and spring his feeble condition was very noticeable to his friends. For some weeks he lay and suffered until the angel came and he stepped into the chariot and was gone. His funeral was held at the First M. E. church of Canton, when addresses were made by Rev. Alexander Smith and his pastor, Thos. Doney, and he was borne to his grave by his brethren of the Conference. A large congregation gathered to bear testimony of their regard for him as a Christian minister. The church of Canton greatly miss his presence, his earnest prayers and clear testimony, as also his administrations at the altar of the church. For forty years this man of God went in and out among the people giving his time and talents to the service of his Master, and now being dead he yet speaketh.

He rests from his labors and his works do follow him.

REV. AARON S. ATHERTON.

Aaron S. Atherton, for thirty-eight years an honored member of this Conference, has passed from the scenes of toil to his heavenly rest. He was born in Hamilton county, Ohio, Oct. 27, 1836, and died at his home in Nevada, Missouri, July 20, 1901.

In 1838 he came with his father's family to Hancock County, Illinois, and in 1844 to Stark County. In 1853 he was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal church at West Jersey. In 1858 and 1859 he was a student in Hedding College, and in 1862 in the Northwestern University, spending some time in Garrett Biblical Institute.

In 1862 he was licensed to preach by a quarterly conference held in La Fayette, and in September of the same year was received on trial in the Central Illinois Conference at Galesburg. In 1864, at Rock Island, he was admitted into full connection, and ordained Deacon by Bishop Levi Scott, and in 1866, at Lexington, was ordained Elder by Bishop Matthew Simpson.

On the 9th of July, 1863, he was married to Miss Mary J. Sanders, of West Jersey. This faithful wife shared with him the toils and triumphs of the Itineracy, and now with her seven children, all of whom are grown, she lingers to mourn her great loss.

His appointments were as follows: Reading, one year; Fairbury circuit, Mazon, Union Hill, Hermon, Iona, Ellison, Colchester, Prairie City, Terre Haute, Pennington Point, each two years; West Jersey, La Fayette. In 1883 he was made Supernumerary, and in 1888 he was granted a Superannuated relation, which relation he sustained until death. After leaving the active work of the ministry, he removed with his family to Missouri and engaged in farming. At a subsequent time, believing that the Master's call was imperative, he took work as a supply in the St. Louis Conference, and continued in that work until he was suddenly called from labor to reward.

Brother Atherton was upright in character, unswerving in integrity, loyal to his convictions of right, and fearless and uncompromising in proclaiming the truth. While he was an able minister of the word, he was perfectly unassuming, and moved with unaffected humility among his brethren, and bore with meekness the trials incident to a Methodist preacher's life. For thirty-eight years his character has been passed by this Conference, and the record always made has been, "Nothing against him." This means much. In this world of weakness and temptation, under the scrutiny of so many piercing eyes, it is well for a man to have the approval of his brethren of the Conference, and more to have the Master's "Well done." Our brother has gone from the precious associations and delightful work of the Methodist ministry, while we continue a little longer in the field, cheered amid our toils with the hope of meeting him and all our honored dead in the better world.

MRS. I. WASHINGTON PUFFER.

Josephine Mary Weeks, daughter of John P. and Arabella E. Weeks, of Washta, Iowa, was born in St. Germans, in Cornwall, England, Dec. 4, 1865. Her parents came to Canada when she was about eighteen months old. While living in Midland City, Canada, she was converted at the age of eleven years and joined the Methodist church.

At the same place, on July 9, 1884, she was united in marriage to Rev. I. Washington Puffer, who was then a member of the Bay of Quinte Conference of the Methodist Church of Canada.

After four years' work in the church in Canada they were transferred to the Gridley charge. Since then twelve years of Methodist Itinerancy have been borne by her with true Christian fidelity and uncomplaining loyalty. On every charge that they served she was true to every interest of the church. In the Epworth League her enthusiasm was the source of inspiration to every Epworthian. She was especially helpful in the work of the literary department, but her whole soul was aflame with holy zeal for the spiritual interests of the League. Many a halting young Christian became strong and faithful through the inspiration of her words and works.

In the Sabbath school also her influence was greatly felt. On every charge which they served she taught a class of young people, and by her clear and forceful putting of God's truth, strengthened by her beautiful Christian living, she was enabled to lead many to stronger and better lives.

Her home life was beautiful and one of willing sacrifice for those she loved. "Her children will rise up and call her blessed; her husband also and he praiseth her." Her self-sacrifice may be better illustrated by stating the fact that in the beginning of her itinerant life she took to her heart and home two motherless nieces of Mr. Puffer, whom she cared for and raised to womanhood.

She lived to see them both married and settled in good homes of their own.

Her Christian life was characterized by a deep spiritual experience, and a strong faith in her God. These soul possessions of Mrs. Puffer made her a mighty power in all the work of the church. Her talents were fully consecrated to the service of her Master, and with these "she hath done what she could."

Her unswerving faith and trust in God, together with that wisdom that cometh from on high, made her the sure support and refuge of her husband in all his burdensome duties. To her he would turn for sympathy, counsel and help, and always received from her life and lips an inspiration and cheer that lifted him nearer their God.

The husband with their two children, Evlan, aged 11, and Candace, 8, will mourn the loss here of her who lived for them, but they will live in that hope of some day meeting again.

Her last sickness lasted but three weeks, death occurring Nov. 10th, in the parsonage home at Cropsey. Funeral services were held in the Methodist church, which were attended by a large number of ministers and many friends from former charge—Cullom and Kempton.

MRS. M. C. SMITH.

Ellen Salome Reed was born in Bethany, Wayne County, Pennsylvania, Sept. 7, 1839. She was the only daughter of Charles G. and Samantha E. Reed, who were devout members of the Presbyterian church.

Brought up in a Christian home, the environs and influence were such as to impress her with deep and abiding convictions, relative to religious principles and life.

She was united in marriage with Melville C. Smith July 24, 1861. Her first public profession of faith in Christ was immediately after her marriage. She then united with the Methodist Episcopal church at Yorkville, Ill., August 1861, and began to share the varied fortunes of an itinerant Methodist preacher. For the next twenty-three years her residence was with her husband in the various charges assigned him within the bounds of the Rock River Conference. In the year 1884, by the transfer of her husband to the Central Illinois Conference, her home became respectively, for one year each, in Momence and Iroquois. From Iroquois they removed to Sheldon, which place became her home for the remainder of her life.

Some eight or ten years before her decease, alarming symptoms of organic heart trouble began to appear, which awakened the solicitude of her friends, but by change of climate, by skill of physicians and by tender care of loving hands, the progress of the malady was arrested and her friends indulged the fond hope that she might live to a good old age. However, early in the year of 1900, it was again evident that her case was critical, and that in all probability she had not many months of life remaining. Early in October, last, she was taken from her home in Sheldon, to the Sanitarium at Lake Bluff, where she remained until she passed away, May 3, 1901. The funeral services were held at Sheldon May 6, at which an appropriate sermon was preached by her pastor, Rev. V. H. Brink, and fitting remarks were made by Rev. J. P. Forsyth. Her remains were tenderly laid at rest in Sheldon cemetery to await the resurrection of the just.

She retained her mental faculties to the very last. She was patient throughout her entire illness, and although suffering much at times, she uttered no word of murmur or complaint.

Besides her husband, she leaves four children to mourn her loss, Charles M., Lois E., Edith T. and Isabel, of whom Lois and Edith are deaconesses in the M. E. church. She was a true and faithful wife, an affectionate and devoted mother, and was eminently fitted for the lifework to which the providence of God called her.

Her sweetness of disposition, her confidence in God, her resignation to the will of heaven, were such that they made her life radiant. It is not to be wondered at, that those who sat by her bedside, should say, "It was like heaven to be in her sick room."

She was a rare, sweet spirit, not obtrusive, not self-assertive, never seeking to make herself conspicuous; nevertheless by her quiet, unostentatious and reverent demeanor, she always conveyed the impression that she was one whose walk was close with God.

Salvation was a present, as well as a personal experience with her, and as she gave expression to the emotions of her soul, her testimonies evidenced a depth of religious experience, which was truly profound.

During her last illness, when one of her daughters asked her why she should be broken down in health, when comparatively so young, whereas her parents both lived to a ripe old age, with a sweet smile she replied: "I suppose it must be that I have lived and worked too hard in too many parsonages.

She was an active member of the W. C. T. U. She was intensely interested in all church enterprises. She had an artist's soul, was a lover of the beautiful, therefore she was a great lover of flowers. On one occasion after a sinking spell, which was very alarming to her friends, one of her daughters said, "Why, mother, you must stay with us till after the liverworts and violets come," and she feebly answered, "I will try," and when the spring blossoms came, amid their fragrance she fell asleep, and under a wealth of floral beauty they laid her to rest, and as I listen, I hear a voice from heaven, saying, "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth, yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them." ## MRS. J. W. ODELL.

Harriett Hanna, the third born child of Phillip K. and Mary Hanna, was born near Cleveland, Henry County, Ill., May 21, 1836, and was the first white girl born in Henry County. Her parents, Brother and Sister Hanna, came from Kentucky to Illinois among the early settlers.

Brother Hanna was an earnest, zealous Christian of the early Methodist type, and as soon as their home was established in the new country, he organized a Methodist class in his own house.

Bro. Hanna was an ordained local preacher in the Methodist Episcopal church, and in his zeal for Christ went about organizing new societies in Henry and Rock Island counties.

In 1855, a brick chapel, costing about $3,000, was built on Brother Hanna's land. In this enterprise Brother Hanna was the chief promoter. This chapel was familiarly known as Rock River Chapel.

While yet in early girl-hood, Harriett was converted, and after the spirit of her parents, became a very earnest Christian.

On March 8, 1855, she was married to Rev. J. W. Odell, who, that same year, joined the Rock River Conference, thus Harriett took upon herself the arduous duties of a Methodist preacher's wife, and for more than twenty years shared with her husband the sacrifices and deprivations incident to the early pioneer ministry.

Sister Odell was the mother of five children, two sons and three daughters. Two of these, a son and a daughter, died in infancy and were buried in distant graves from each other, upon the charges served by them at the time of the death of their loved ones.

Bro. Odell's health failed him, and after a short superannuation, he passed to the rest that remains for the children of God. The death of her husband left Sister Odell with three children in quite dependent financial circumstances. Her own efforts, seconded by that of her children, were necessarily very arduous in order to secure the necessary support and education of her family. In addition to her three children, she took to her own home and care, a sister's orphan daughter, for whom she cared as for her own child.

During the sixteen years of her widow life, she was a great toiler for those she loved, and was much severed from church privileges of which she spoke with much feeling in her last sickness.

Sister Odell died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. W. Hanna, near Joslin, Ill., July 17, 1901. She leaves to mourn her death, two daughters, Mrs. Hanna, Mrs. S. D. Rose, and a son, J. Frank Odell.

In her last hours of suffering, in speaking to her pastor of death, she said: "It is all right; I am fully ready," and dropped into peaceful sleep. Thus she passed to the rest that remains to the Saints of God, and we chronicle another husband and wife, united with that "innumerable throng that no man can number."

T. J. WOOD.

MRS. L. B. DENNIS.

Betsy Davis Holliway, daughter of John and Betsy Holliway, was born Jan. 4, 1814, in Maryland, and peacefully passed to the better life July 30, 1901, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. Cabbage, in Knoxville, Ill. While very young her parents removed to Ross County, Ohio, and settled near Clarksburg. At a camp-meeting held near their home she was gloriously converted at the age of twenty-two and immediately united with the M. E. church.

She was married to Rev. L. B. Dennis March 9, 1834. She was a true helpmate to her husband, and walked by his side for fifty-six years, suffering with him the privations and trials of a pioneer itinerant's life. There were born to them four children, a son and daughter dying in infancy. On April 2nd, 1890, the faithful husband and honored and successful minister passed triumphantly to the heavenly home. The remaining son, Rev. B. C. Dennis, a prominent and highly respected minister and member of the Central Illinois Conference, died May 14, 1899, at his home in Abingdon, Ill., and now on the death of the mother at the age of almost eighty-eight, there remains but the one child, Lucetta Cabbage, of Knoxville, Ill., the son-in-law, C. Cabbage, Mrs. Baxter C. Dennis, of Wyoming, Ill., and five grand children.

The record of Mother Dennis' life will not be complete unless we speak of her faithfulness through all the years of her husband's active ministry, embracing fields in Illinois, Arkansas, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, back again to Iowa, then to Southern Illinois and then to Central Illinois Conference in 1872, where the remainder of his active ministry was spent. The character of their work was varied, part of it spent on the outposts of Kansas during the perilous times before the Civil War, a part in the South just before the war cloud broke over the country in all its fury, ten years in the Presiding Eldership, a number of years in important city pulpits at Hannibal, Mo., Burlington, Iowa. and St. Louis, Mo. Doubtless few itinerant's wives have been more faithful in accompanying their husbands through winter's cold and summer's heat, through sunshine and storm, as they went about attending to their duties as embassadors of the Lord Jesus, than the elect lady whose memory we honor, while she swells the chorus of the glorified on the heavenly shore.

Mother Dennis was of a cheerful disposition, always delighting her friends with her buoyancy of spirit. Even in her severe illness this cheerfulness was manifest. From the time of her husband's death, with the exception of two years, she made her home with her daughter in Knoxville, Ill., where she was tenderly cared for, and although at times she suffered much, she bore it all with Christian fortitude. After meeting the ever changing events of a long and useful life in the early morning as the sun lit up the East with golden rays, she peacefully fell asleep in Jesus to awaken on the brighter shores of the country where the day never ends.

The funeral services were held at the M. E. church at Knoxville, August 1, 1901, Rev. W. C. McNiel read the Scripture, Rev. E. S. Busby offered prayer, Rev. J. D. Calhoun read the obituary and made a few remarks touching the life of Mother Dennis, Rev. Wm. Watson preached the sermon, selecting the text from John 17th chapter and 24th verse. Rev. Vincent Aten, a former pastor, made a few remarks and offered prayer. Some of the old hymns so dear to Mother Dennis were sung by the choir. The interment was in the Knoxville cemetery, where she was laid by the side of her husband to await the resurrection of the faithful.

Journal of Lay Association.

The Sixth Annual Meeting of the Lay Association of the Central Illinois Conference of the M. E. Church met in the Congregational Church, Kewanee, Ill., at 9 a. m., Friday, Sept. 20, with President C. H. Long, of Pontiac, in the chair.

In the absence of Secretary Walter Wyatt, L. F. Gumbart, of Macomb, was chosen Secretary.

On motion all Methodist laymen present were accorded a voice and vote in this meeting. Credentials handed in.

Address of welcome by W. C. Palmer, of Kewanee, and response by President Long.

Address by the Chair on the Laity and the work they represent with an especial plea for Lay Associations and meetings.

Address on Church Finances by L. F. Gumbart, of Macomb, followed by discussion.

On motion the envelope system of collecting funds was recommended to the churches of the Conference.

Bros. Clough and Bodley were appointed a committee to see Bishop Walden and ask him to favor us with a short address. They reported that the Bishop would do so at 2 p. m., and the Association decided to meet him at that time.

The following were elected officers for the ensuing year:

President—Walter Wyatt, of Peoria.

Secretary—O. E. Yocum, of Galva.

Treasurer—Chas. Cottrell, of McDowell.

DISTRICT VICE PRESIDENTS.

S. A. Wagoner, Galesburg, Galesburg District.
D. P. Murphey, McDowell, Kankakee District.
Geo. A. Trotter, Coal City, Normal District.
John Prickett, Lewistown, Peoria District.
O. P. Wedge, Galva, Rock Island District.

There was an interesting discussion on the subject of Class Meetings.

I. N. Clough, D. P. Murphey and L. F. Gumbart were appointed a committee to nominate committees.

Presiding Elders were asked to bear in mind the appointing of Lay delegates at the fourth quarterly conferences, and see that proper credentials are furnished.

Collection $10.37, which, with $5.21 in the treasury, was turned over to Treasurer-elect Chas. Cottrell. A bill for printing and postage, of $5, was allowed and ordered paid.

Adjourned till 2 p. m.

Report of the nominating committee was read and adopted, viz:

Committee on Arrangements—O. R. Clough, Peoria; C. H. Long, Pontiac.

Committee on Program—D. P. Murphey, Pontiac; W. H. Logan, Keithsburg.

We recommend that the new Secretary of the Association appoint a third member of each committee from the locality where the Conference meets for next year's session.

L. F. Gumbart, I. N. Clough, D. P. Murphey, Committee.

Dr. Barnes spoke briefly for Grand Prairie Seminary.

Rev. E. Wasmuth spoke quite fittingly regarding the relations between the Clergy and Laity and their dependence and helpfulness one to the other.

Bishop Walden said in part: "There are urgent queries concerning the committee work of the local church. I pity a church with no poor members. Every member should contribute to the support of the church, not as the stewards ask, but as God requires. Settle the financial question individually with God and there will be enough and to spare in the church treasury. I recommend the tithing system to the individual. After all, the finances are but the scaffold from which all the church's spiritual growth must be built. Organize a revival. Stop sweating over finances and sweat over the spiritual needs of the church in official board meetings and get in earnest there, then call in the Sunday school officers and teachers, Epworth League officers, and get on fire, then the spirit will move on the people. Go home like Sampson's foxes, carrying fire brands, not to destroy but to build up."

Dr. Thompson of the Northwestern Christian Advocate addressed the Association. He said there are 100,000 readers of the Northwestern Christian Advocate, but urged the need of more. I am making an earnest endeavor to make the Advocate a power for good in church and home.

The Association discussed briefly the New Constitution.

FIRST DAY.

MORNING SESSION.

STREATOR, ILLINOIS, September 17, 1902.

Forty-Seventh Session.—The Central Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church met for its forty-seventh session in the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Streator, Illinois, at 9 a. m., with Bishop John H. Vincent in the chair.

The Bishop made a brief but helpful address preparatory to the administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, after which he, assisted by the Presiding Elders, administered the Sacrament.

Dr. W. V. Kelly, editor of the Methodist Review, by request of the Bishop, made some fitting remarks relative to this holy sacrament and then led the Conference in prayer.

Roll Call.—The Secretary of the last Conference called the roll and one hundred and forty-one members and probationers answered to their names.

Organization.—On motion of F. W. Merrell, D. S. McCown was re-elected Secretary by acclamation.

On his nomination J. D. Calhoun, F. W. Imboden and J. B. Bartle were elected his assistants.

W. R. Wiley nominated L. F. Cullom as Statistical Secretary, but he dedeclined and nominated Vincent Aten, who was elected.

On his nomination, I. Willett Puffer, J. S. White, F. J. Giddings, N. J. Brown, C. F. Crane, J. E. Connor, J. P. McCormick, H. C. Gibson, J. C. Craine, G. M. Boswell and F. E. Shult were elected as his assistants.

On motion of F. W. Merrell, Thomas Doney was re-elected Treasurer by acclamation.

On his nomination, D. F. Wilson, J. A. Chapman, E. R. Horton, W. E. Shaw, Fletcher DeClark, J. J. Hunter, Eddy McOmber, W. R. Warner, L. F. Zinser and M. P. Lackland were elected as his assistants.

Conference Bar.—On motion of J. F. James the eighth row of seats from the altar was fixed as the Conference Bar.

Conference Hours.—On motion of J. W. Frizzelle, the time of opening was fixed at 8:30 a. m. and closing at 12 m.

The Thirteenth Question.—Was the character of each preacher examined? was taken up.

The character of J. H. Ryan, J. F. Robinson, W. R. Wiley, F. W. Merrell and J. W. Frizzelle were passed and they reported the work of their districts.

The Bishop then asked each of the Presiding Elders if there was anything against any of the effective elders of their respective districts and each answered, No. The Bishop announced that the characters of the effective elders were passed.

Drafts.—The Bishop announced drafts on the Book Concern for $679, and twenty-two on the Chartered Fund, and on motion the drafts were ordered.

Episcopal Fund.—The Bishop announced $2,291 as the amount apportioned to this Conference for next year for the Episcopal Fund, and on motion it was referred to the Presiding Elders to be apportioned.

General Conference Expenses.—The Bishop announced $2,175 as the amount apportioned to this Conference for the next session of the General Conference, and this was also referred to the Presiding Elders for apportionment.

Introduced.—Joseph Wesley Powell, the debt demolisher of Buffalo, New York, and Manley S. Hard, Assistant Secretary of the Board of Church Extension, were introduced.

The committees were called.

The Conference being adjourned by expiration of time, the Bishop pronounced the benediction.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS SOCIETY.

At a meeting of the officers and managers of the Conference Claimants Society held on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 20, 1902, the following officers were elected:

President, A. K. Tullis; Vice President, M. V. B. White; Secretary, A. M. Stocking; Treasurer, J. B. Dille.

The following persons were nominated as members of the Board of Managers: J. S. Cumming, John Rogers, T. W. McVety, O. M. Dunlevy, J. E. Mercer, W. R. Watson, John Wilkinson, V. H. Brink, L. F. Cullom.

The Bishop was requested to re-appoint J. P. Forsyth as agent of the Society.

The committee on revision of the Constitution and By-Laws reported through H. D. Clark. The report was adopted. Following is the Revised Constitution:

ARTICLE I.—The title of this society shall be "The Conference Claimants Society of the Central Illinois Conference of the M. E. church.

ARTICLE II.—The object of the society shall be to secure, receive and hold gifts and bequests, the proceeds or interest of which shall be given to the claimants upon the funds of the Central Illinois Conference.

ARTICLE III.—The officers shall consist of a President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer, with a Board of nine Managers, who shall be elected annually by the Conference.

ARTICLE IV.—It shall be the duty of the President to preside in all the meetings of the society, ruling the same according to the Constitution and By-Laws in force at the time, and in accordance with parliamentary rules the Vice President shall perform the duties of the President in the absence of the latter. The Secretary and Treasurer shall perform the duties usually belonging to such offices.

ARTICLE V.—The society shall hold an annual session at the Conference, at the call of the President and receive reports from its officers and make a report to be submitted to the Annual Conference, of its assets, investments, proceeds and general interests.

ARTICLE VI.—The annuity fund arising from gifts, bequests and other sources, shall be invested in loans secured by mortgages on real estate, managed by the Treasurer and under the direction of the Board of Managers, and administered in accordance with the provisions of the discipline.

BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I.—The President may call meetings of the Board of Managers at any time and place he may think best, if in the judgment of the Secretary and Treasurer the interest of the society demands it.

ARTICLE II.—All ministers of the Central Illinois Conference shall be authorized to receive donations or bequests to this society and secure title to the same and report to the Secretary.

ARTICLE III.—All deeds, titles, wills and other conveyances, together with money to be invested, shall be placed for safe keeping in the hands of the Treasurer, subject to the order of the Board of Managers.

ARTICLE IV.—The Constitution may be altered by a two-thirds vote of the members voting, and the By-Laws by a majority vote of the members voting.

ARTICLE V.—It shall be the duty of the President and Secretary to see that the Constitution and By-Laws of the society itself, be in conformity to the laws of the State of Illinois.

The report of the agent of the society was adopted and is here appended.

A. M. STOCKING, Secretary. A. K. TULLIS, President.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, We recognizing the close relationship of the Missionary cause and the American Bible Society, and the dependence of the Missionary work upon the Bibles furnished by the American Bible Society, therefore,

Resolved. 1. In view of the urgent need of the Bible Society, we will properly present the work of the Society to our congregation and solicit contributions for its work.

2. That we have heard with pleasure the presentation of this work to the Conference by the Rev. Dr. Pearson and will seek from him such literature as we may need for our own use, and for distribution in the congregations, such literature to be furnished free. His address is Roanoke, Clifton, Cincinnati, Ohio.

3. That it shall be our aim to secure for this great and worthy cause an apportionment that shall be equal to at least five per cent as much as that of Missions.

4. That the Committee of Arrangements for the next Conference be requested to arrange for an anniversary for the American Bible Society, to be held under the direction of the committee in accordance with the act of the last general Conference. Paragraph 45, Appendix.

A. M. BOWLIN, Secretary. E. E. DIFFENBAUGH, President.

BOOK ACCOUNTS.

Your committee still finds encouragement in the fact that our Conference is giving an increasingly liberal patronage to our publishing houses. The prompt settlement of accounts is very gratifying to all concerned. Be it

Resolved. 1. That we are greatly indebted to our publishing houses for placing before our people so high a grade of literature and that we urge a correspondingly increased patronage.

2. That we concur in the wisdom of former Committees in recommending that ten per cent of the funds distributed to any Conference claimant indebted to our publishing houses, be applied to the reducing of such indebtedness.

D. T. WILSON, Chairman. J. W. FERRIS, Secretary.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Church Extension Society being the church home finder for the multitudes who seek fellowship with Christ through the Methodist Episcopal church,

Resolved, 1. That we congratulate the Board of Church Extension on its progressive spirit and growth during the thirty-seven years of its existence. During those years of aggressive work, this society has aided 12,018 churches by donations amounting to $3,192,060.68, and by loans amounting to $2,262,755.84, and has received in collections, through the annual Conferences, the sum of $3,523,408.97.

2. That we recommend the hearty response of our people to the call of the Board for our share in the Church Extension collection. There having been contributed for this year the sum of $1,851, we urge that a more generous response be made during the coming year. The calls upon this Society for aid, and the many opportunities for help, demand an interest in and loyalty to its plans in order to meet the growing needs of new fields.

3. That we also recommend to our churches the publications of this Society, "Christianity in Earnest," and the varied leaflets, which are the best sources of information upon the subject. It is important that our pastors secure and circulate the literature of this Society.

JOHN MAY, Secretary. C. F. W. SMITH, Chairman.

CHURCH INSURANCE.

Every church and parsonage should be insured. People who give their money for these buildings have a right to expect that insurance will always be maintained. Neglect may mean serious financial loss, and loss of the confidence of the community, particularly since the General Conference has removed the last excuse by organizing our insurance company upon a plan that places protection within reach of every church. We are glad to know that a large number of the churches in this Conference are using our company.

We are informed that the total is now over 15,000 policies, amounting to over $16,500,000.00. This great service to Methodism could not be rendered but for the co-operation of the more fortunately situated.

While this large business has been accumulating, over $65,000.00 losses have been paid without a day's delay in any case; annual dividends of ten per cent have been returned to the policy holders, being more than twice the dividends realized by all the stock holders in the old line companies in this country, on an average, during the past twenty years, and Methodism has been saved from extermination in some localities when rebuilding would have been impossible but for our company's assistance.

Surely in view of these facts, we should see to it that the rest of our churches get in line as promptly as possible. The personal effects and homes of members of this Conference can also be insured.

For further particulars, address Henry P. Magill, Secretary, 57 Washington Street, Chicago, Ill.

A. K. TULLIS, Secretary. T. C. MOOTS, Chairman.

DEACONESS BOARD OF NINE.

The Board recommends the renewal of the licenses of Miss Lucy A. Hall, Miss Mary Jefferson and Mrs. N. C. Radford.

THE DEACONESS HOME AND HOSPITAL IN PEORIA.

Believing that the best interest of the Home and Hospital can be best conserved by our Conference control of it in fact as well as in name, we recommend the following changes in its organization: That there be twenty-five (25) Trustees instead of eleven as now, thirteen of whom shall be elected by this Conference, and twelve by the Hospital Association. The Trustees to be elected by the Conference shall be divided into three classes—five to serve for three years, four for two years, and four for one year, and thereafter each class shall be elected for three years. We recommend that the Presiding Elder of Peoria District for the ensuing year, C. O. McCulloch, D. S. McCown, Thomas Doney and R. E. Buckey be elected for three years; J. F. Robinson, J. W. Frizzelle, A. M. Stocking and W. R. Wiley for two years; and T. W. McVety, Alexander Smith, D. B. Johnson and Richard Crewes for one year. Also that the Hospital Association divide its Trustees in three classes of four each —four for three years, four for two years and four for one year, and thereafter each class for three years.

It is also recommended that an Executive Committee be elected by the Board of Trustees, and composed of Trustees of said Hospital and Home residing in Peoria or its suburbs. This Committee shall have control of the business of the Home and Hospital in the interim of the meetings of the Board of Trustees, and shall meet ———day of each month, making report of all meetings to the regular meeting of the Trustees.

The Board of Trustees shall meet annually. Called meetings of theTrustees may be held on a majority vote of the Executive Committee. Special meetings of the Executive Committee may be held on the call of the Chairman thereof.

We also recommend that the charter of the Home and Hospital and the Constitution of the Hospital Association be changed to conform to these recommendations.

Also that the Board of Trustees make a full report each year to this Conference of the condition, work and business transactions of the Home and Hospital. We also recommend that the Board of Trustees employ a suitable person to act as Financial Secretary for the Home and Hospital within the bounds of the Conference.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF NINE.

Inasmuch as the Discipline provides for a Conference Board of Nine, we recommend that the report to the Conference of all the work done by the Deaconesses within the bounds of the Conference be committed to this Board. We further recommend that the persons whose names follow, be elected to this Conference Board of Nine for three years: C. O. McCulloch, William Hazard and W. W. Wyatt, M. D.

THOS. DONEY, Secretary. C. O. MCCULLOCH, Chairman.

DEACONESS WORK.

We regard the Deaconess Work as providential in origin and truly Christlike in character. We are glad that our church is growingly interested in its support and extension. God is calling many consecrated young women to devote their lives to this line of service and his blessing is manifest to all observers. The Deaconesses nurse the sick in hospitals and homes, they visit the poor and needy to relieve their destitution and distress, they instruct the ignorant, they comfort the bereaved, they win the wayward to paths of righteousness . In many places they have proved themselves excellent helpers of the pastors in revival meetings and all the other work of the church. We give them our hearty sympathy and unqualified endorsement. The Peoria Deaconess Hospital and the N. A. Mason Deaconess Old People's Home at Normal are doing good work, but greatly need larger quarters and funds to meet the numerous applications received. We hope that more of the Lord's stewards will come to their aid.

J. A. NORTHRUP, Secretary. ALEXANDER SMITH, Chairman.

DOMESTIC MISSIONS.

That there is much need of missionary work in both the city and rural districts, is well known to those familiar with the conditions.

That the funds at command are not adequate to the needs is apparent.

That the only source of supply for this need is through the collections gathered by the churches.

Therefore we do heartily commend the work of this Society, and do earnestly solicit the support of the pastors and people.

That a collection be taken in each charge, as early in the year as practicable and forward to the treasurer, so as to insure a semi-annual distribution of the funds.

We nominate the following officers:

President, H. D. Clark; Vice President, J. B. Dille; Secretary, J. A. Chapman; Treasurer, D. B. Johnson.

Managers—A. K. Tullis, M. V. B. White, J. E. Mercer, D. F. Wilson, A. H. Smith, C. M. Beecher, H. O. Cady, C. W. Green.

DAVID F. WILSON, Secretary. FRANKLIN RIST, President.

HEDDING COLLEGE.

With a view to securing new students, the ministers in the adjacent territory have helped in every possible way the aggressive campaign begun in July. The results are most gratifying. At the present time, September 20th, the enrollment is almost equal to that for the entire year preceding. In this canvass the College has received the especial help of Rev. James Hoffman Batten, John W. Ferris, T. E. Newland and Thomas S. Pittenger.

Within the last few months improvements costing more than one thousand dollars have been made. The Woman's Club and the Ladies' Mite Society are devising and carrying out new plans with a view to making additional improvements and to endowing another chair.

Hedding College enters upon the present year under the most promising conditions. To the Faculty Rev. A. P. Rolen, of this Conference, has been added, he having been elected to the chair of Mental and Moral Sciences. An electric railway now connects Abingdon with Galesburg, thus affording easy connections with a great railway center.

A growing interest is manifested in the College among both preachers and laity, which, with increased confidence in its stability and the enthusiasm manifested by both the alumni and students, gives promise of future prosperity. We desire to especially commend the spiritual atmosphere for which Hedding has always been noted and which continues to be one of the marked features of its college life. It is the only college in Central Illinois entirely removed from the contaminating influences of the saloon.

The College meets all the requirements of the University Senate and its diplomas admit to post graduate work at Harvard, Johns Hopkins, Chicago, and the other great universities. We have a pardonable pride in the fact that her alumni have taken high standing in graduate work. We call especial attention to the Conservatory of Music, which, under the efficient management of Mrs. Esterbrook, as Dean, is rapidly becoming one of the best schools of music in the West. We invite comparison of the course of study with that of any similar school in the land. A six years' course leads to a degree which is not given but earned.

We recommed the election of Trustees, J. H. Ryan, R. E. Buckey, S. Van Pelt, C. T. Cady, W. B. Main, Abingdon; S. Grant Miller, Terre Haute; Albert Eshelman, Canton; C. L. Walker, Rock Island. Official visitors—B. F. Eckley, M. L. O'Harra, T. S. Pittenger, John Rogers, J. H. Batten, W. H. Craine.

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

1. We are grateful to learn of the continued prosperity and steady advance of this useful institution.

2. The College of Law of the University long favorably known, has demonstrated its claim to a first place among the law schools of the land by the fact that for two successive years its students have won the highest grades at the State examinations.

3. The College of Music overflows with pupils and the teachers are recognized as leaders in their profession.

4. We approve the purpose of the Joint Board to matriculate no more candidates for the bachelor's degree on non-resident work.

5. We nominate as trustees, Wesley B. Harvey, Mrs. Emily S. Van Dolah, Wm. R. Wiley, C. O. McCulloch. As Conference visitors, Rev. R. B. Williams, Rev. Joe Bell, Rev. J. E. Connor, Rev. F. J. Giddings, Rev. A. K. Tullis, Rev. A. R. Morgan.

GRAND PRAIRIE SEMINARY.

This institution has entered upon a new era of prosperity and usefulness. Affiliated with the Northwestern University, and with an endowment fund of one hundred thousand dollars, its stability is now fully assured.

The attendance during the past year has been over thirty per cent greater than that of the year before. The regular school work has been ably conducted by an efficient faculty and a deep religious spirit has been prevalent throughout the entire year.

The income from tuitions and endowment has been amply sufficient to meet all the regular expenses of the school, and, with some donations from friends, has enabled the institution to make improvements to the value of three thousand dollars. A complete water system, with all modern sanitary arrangements has been put in, some new apparatus has been purchased and extensive improvements have been made in the laboratory facilities. The seminary building has also been repainted and papered.

We are greatly pleased with the efficient work of the President, Rev. Frank G. Barnes, D. D. In the management of the school, the work of the class room, and in canvassing throughout the patronizing territory he has been decidedly successful. His high character, ripe scholarship and cordial manner are winning many friends for himself and for the institution. We welcome his transfer to this Conference and request the Bishop to ratify the choice of the trustees by appointing him to the presidency of the Seminary.

We recommend as official visitors, H. D. Clark, V. H. Brink, A. M. Stocking, J. A. Johnson, W. B. Harvey and James Inkster.

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY.

Northwestern University, consisting of nine departments, or schools, affords advantages to all students excelled by none, especially in undergraduate work, and is fast taking rank with the best in advanced courses of study.

The whole church is to be congratulated upon the success of the Board of Trustees in securing such an able educator as Edmund Janes James, Ph. D., L. L. D., for President of this institution. His superior abilities and far-reaching plans give promise of great advance where excellence has already been attained.

We are glad to have this splendid University come into closer touch with our Conference by affiliating with itself certain educational institutions within our bounds.

We recommend the re-election of Rev. J. W. Frizzelle as Trustee for the term of two years.

We also recommend the appointment of R. A. Brown and A. M. Stocking as Conference visitors.

We recommend the appointment of the following as special delegation to the installation of President James of Northwestern University: R. A. Brown, A. M. Stocking, R. E. Buckey, H. D. Clark, R. Crewes, R. B. Williams, C. O. McCulloch.

SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY.

It is an occasion of praise to God that Boston University School of Theology, Drew Theological Seminary and Garrett Biblical Institute are enjoying increased attendance.

When we remember the profound agitation now going on in the religious world, some rejecting the doctrine of the supernatural in the person of Christ, the Bible and the religious life, the position of our schools of theology at such a time and on these burning questions is one of vital importance. We would impose no unnecessary burden on the scholarship of the church and of the age and would not trammel in the least degree the most searching, reverent inquiry into the form and essence of what God has seen fit to reveal to us in His Holy Word, nevertheless we believe that these schools of the prophets more than ever, if that were possible, should guard against the encroachments of insidious and dangerous error in the guise of learning, and as in the past should stand committed wholly and without reserve to the defense of the faith and the whole of the faith delivered once and for all unto the saints.

We heartily commend the plan set before us by Dr. Swift, of Chicago, for the extension of the benefits of the instruction given by Garrett Biblical Institute whereby our ministers, Epworth League, and Sunday school workers may become more fully equipped for their work.

We recommend as official visitor to Garrett Biblical Institute, H. D. Clark.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE OF BALTIMORE.

Cheering reports reach us concerning this institution of learning, and we rejoice in its richly merited and constantly increasing success. When we think of its attractive buildings, liberal equipment and most excellent location; the comprehensiveness and thoroughness of its courses of instruction, and the care its management exercises to secure only the best on all lines, we are thankful Methodism has an institution that thus provides for its daughters the highest intellectual culture and begets and fosters the noblest spiritual life.

We are pleased to note the steady advance in the Children's Day collections, and in the public offerings to the cause of education. We concur in the recommendation of Dr. Fiske, that the pastors observe the 19th of October as Education Day, at least one sermon being in the interest of collegiate and Christian education.

R. CREWES, Secretary. S. VAN PELT, Chairman.

EPISCOPAL FUND.

WHEREAS, We have in this Conference annually fallen short of the full amount of apportionment, and

WHEREAS, The wealth and standing of our people afford no adequate excuse for this failure,

Resolved, That we urge all pastors to observe the Disciplinary requirements.

R. B. SEAMAN, Secretary. R. T. BALLEW, Chairman.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

We recognize in the Epworth League an organization, raised up of God, for the conversion of sinners and the development of the Christian life and experience of our young people.

This has been amply demonstrated by thirteen years of splendid intellectual, social, philanthropic and spiritual activities. We rejoice in its achievements and earnestly pray for its greatest usefulness in the service of the Master.

We request all our chapters to observe the plans of the General Cabinet in reference to Bible Study, Missionary Study and the Epworth League Reading Course.

The Epworth Herald continues to be the leading religious publication for young people , and we recommend that our pastors heartily co-operate in extending the circulation.

We recommend the following persons for Conference officers for the ensuing year: President, E. C. Anderson; Secretary, C. F. W. Smith; Treasurer, Eddy McOmber; Junior League Superintendent, Hugh C. Gibson.

G. E. ALFORD, Secretary. T. E. NEWLAND, Chairman.

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION.

The work of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society is of great importance and well deserves the prayers and gifts of our people. Its earnest presentation by all our pastors is solicited, so that the valuable work may continue in the old and be advanced in the new fields. We therefore recommend:

First. That the Lincoln Birthday Offering be observed and that the day be made a red letter day for this Society.

Second. That the tracts, published by the Secretaries, which may be had for the asking, be distributed by our pastors so that our people may have a better knowledge of the work.

Third. That as many dollar subscriptions to the cause be secured as possible, and that the names of those contributing the same, be sent to the office in Cincinnati, that each may receive the Christian Educator free.

Fourth. That strenuous effort be put forth to increase our collections so that the debt on the Society may be wiped out.

J. A. ALFORD, Secretary. W. H. CLARK, Chairman.

MISSIONS.

We rejoice that our Methodism is still increasing in its efforts to advance the Missionary cause, and record with gladness that our collections this year are in advance of last year.

In obedience to the command, "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature," we recommend the general observance of Easter as Children's Missionary Day, that all Sunday schools be organized into Missionary societies, that the Epworth League plan in behalf of Missions be presented to and urged upon our young people. And that all names of those paying one dollar or more, be sent to the Missionary Secretaries so they can receive "World Wide Missions," which is a most valuable help in presenting Missionary facts and creating inspiration, thus helping in raising our Missionary apportionment.

P. A. ST. JOHN, Secretary. J. D. CALHOUN, President.

PEORIA DEACONESS HOSPITAL.

Your Committee on Peoria Deaconess Hospital submit the following report:

From the facts presented to us we gather that the work of the Hospital is becoming increasingly useful, having been crowded to its full capacity the most of the time during the past year, and besides meeting current expenses, has done free work amounting to nearly $1,000.

A vigorous effort is being made to wipe out all indebtedness, and it is proposed to urge this through to completion in the near future.

A new building for the accommodation of patients is imperative, one physician alone of the staff of fourteen asserts that he could keep the Hospital filled with his own patients, and yet all desire to bring their patients here.

In view of its noble and Christlike work we commend the Hospital to the benefactions of all our people.

J. E. MERCER, Secretary. J. S. WHITE, Chairman.

POST OFFICES.

We have made a list of the post offices on each charge, by districts, and have sent the same to Jennings & Pyc for use in their official correspondence.

We recommend the use of the post office blanks for another year, and urge the importance of a careful report on the part of every pastor.

O. I. TRUITT, Secretary. T. C. MOOTS, Chairman.

SANCTITY OF THE SABBATH.

Your Committee on the Sanctity of the Sabbath submit the following report:

The Sabbath is God given, for man's temporal and spiritual benefit; therefore His laws concerning the same ought to be implicitly obeyed. But we deplore greatly the way in which this day is kept by many people, especially the way some professing Christians are desecrating this Holy day; therefore, be it

Resolved, 1. That we believe the stability of the church and state depends largely upon the laws of God concerning the Sabbath being properly observed.

2. That we discourage, in every way possible, everything that tends to its desecration. Especially such things as are commonly practiced; such as gathering in crowds other than for religious purposes, Sunday visiting and feasting, Sunday picnics and excursions, public games, pleasure seeking and traffic on that day.

3. That we enter a strong protest against the reading on the Sabbath day of secular books and the purchase and reading of the so-called Sunday newspapers.

4. That we especially urge our members to keep "the Sabbath day holy," being very careful in every way to follow the teachings and example of Christ in regard to this day.

5. That our pastors should preach at least one sermon each year on the observance of the Sabbath.

FRANK RIST, Secretary. M. M. MCCREIGHT, President.

STATE OF THE CHURCH.

Your Committee would submit the following report:

Believing in all the agencies of the church for good, we would emphasize the fact that the multiplication of machinery naturally tends to the development of formalism, and would urge the maintenance of the highest standard of vital piety and positive experience in the personal lives of our membership that the organization of the church may be kept effective.

Methodism is under no necessity to apologize for her doctrines. They are fundamental and stand fast in Scripture truth. She needs no apologists for the faith, but more apostles of the faith.

The Epworth League is her training school. It is to be not an independent force within her, ignoring authority, but the expression of her most enthusiastic life, seeking its outlet in the blessing of service, under the wise direction of the church.

Recognizing the just claims of all our benevolences upon us, we give priority of position to the great cause of Missions, believing that the battle-cry, "The evangelization of the world in this generation," is the best expression of the Master's life in the church of today.

We bespeak for the Deaconess movement the heartiest support in all our churches, rejoicing in its increasing power and usefulness.

With uncompromising opposition against drunkenness as a great moral evil, and regarding the saloon traffic as a species of municipal, state and national "sale of indulgence," we protest against the entire system. We further declare that the time has come for the membership of the church, irrespective of political affiliations, to present a united and aggressive front against the further domination of our state legislature by the liquor dealers of the state, and call upon all our people to aggressively demand that the moral element of our citizenship shall be respected.

We believe the Methodist church has vitiated her power in the community by the too frequent abandonment of Discipline, as applied to cardinal sins. In our churches we are fellowshipping members who violate both the spirit and the letter of our most sacred requirements. The church that loses the imperial note of authority in the pulpit, and the power of admonition in private, loses the respect of the community. We plead for a wise, loving, but thorough revival of Disciplinary enforcement in Methodism.

Believing that pastors and churches should be protected from misunderstandings, and the Conference from practical misrepresentations as to salary estimated and actually paid, we record our conviction that the practice of building up salaries, or preventing deficiencies by the agreement of pastors to pay the amount lacking, should cease.

J. H BATTEN, Secretary. L. F. CULLOM, Chairman.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

1. We are profoundly grateful to Almighty God for our continued material prosperity.

2. The establishment of civil government in the Philippines is a sublime achievement of American statesmanship and we accept, as from God, this great opportunity to evangelize and civilize these new accessions.

3. Recognizing the difficulty of the problem with the friars and the delicate tact necessary for a satisfactory adjustment, we nevertheless cannot too strongly accentuate the absolute divorce between church and state and could not for a moment countenance any official act which looked towards the establishment of diplomatic relations with the Vatican.

4. We have implicit confidence in the loyalty and humanity of our soldiers, and we advise that our people should be slow to criticise the men who endure such untold privations for the flag.

5. Committed as we are to the Monroe doctrine, the South American governments should be advised that they must maintain peace among themselves and avoid any action which will involve this country in unfriendly complications with European nations.

6. The deplorable conflict between employers and employed can be ameliorated only by the exercise of Christian charity on both sides, and we favor a National Board of Arbitration to whom shall be submitted the respective differences, and said Board shall determine the terms of settlement.

7. The preservation of our beloved President from serious harm during the recent perilous accident, gives occasion for renewed thankfulness to God.

8. Earnestly do we hope and fervently do we pray that the curse of the liquor traffic may speedily pass away, and to this end do we pledge our most untiring endeavor.

9. The widespread spirit of Altruism, so manifest throughout the country, is a gracious sign of the coming of the Kingdom of our divine Lord and Master, but we would not forget that it is not by works of righteousness that we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us by the washing of regeneration and the renewing of the Holy Ghost.

R. CREWES, Secretary. T. W. MCVETY, Chairman.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND TRACTS.

1. The Sunday school is one of the most important factors in the religious work of this age. We note with gratitude to God, the growth of the Sunday school in our church.

2. We believe that much wisdom and care should be exercised in the selection of teachers, and that every possible effort be made, to increase their qualifications with a knowledge of God's word, and a deep religious experience.

3. We urge upon our people in every place, the use of the Sunday school literature published by our own Methodist book concern. We believe it to be second to none in quality, while it is as cheap as the cheapest in price. We commend to all, the special effort that is being made, to furnish a literature that will encourage and assist in the home department work of the Sunday school.

4. We commend the work of the Tract Society which is publishing tracts in twelve different languages. The support of the Tract Society and the Sunday school ought to be augmented.

5. We recommend a large use of Tracts by our pastors and a more general availing themselves of the offer of the Tract Society to furnish free to every preacher that will apply for it, one-half the valuation in tracts of the amount of the last collection from his charge.

We commend both of these benevolences to the support and confidence of all our people.

I. W. JOHNSON, Secretary. F. DE CLARK, Chairman.

TEMPERANCE AND PROHIBITION.

We rejoice in the evidences of progress in the temperance reform. The unwarranted conclusion of Prof. Atwater, favorable to the exploded theory that alcohol is a food, has been overwhelmingly condemned by the ablest scholars and most reliable scientists of the world.

Nearly all the great railroad corporations prohibit drinking upon the part of their employes when on duty, and many of them now enjoin total abstinence, and make the use of strong drink, or even the entering of a saloon, a sufficient cause for dismissal; great manufacturing establishments and large commercial enterprises are largely enforcing the same rule, and the employers of our country are discounting and proscribing the service of men addicted to the use of intoxicants.

Statistics are constantly furnishing increased testimony of the injurious and ruinous effects of the beverage use of liquors in producing domestic infelicity, disease, pauperism, political corruption, licentiousness and other crimes, and these astounding facts are arousing the people to a more intelligent view of the enormity of the liquor traffic.

Even the increased activity of the liquor dealers' associations is an evidence that the men engaged in this infamous business are becoming more alarmed for the safety of their craft. But while encouraged as to the progress of public sentiment and the final outcome of our cause, we cannot ignore the fact that a terrible conflict is still before us and that God calls us to the front in this great impending battle.

The true church of God and the liquor traffic cannot dwell peaceably together. The Christian church must destroy the saloon or the saloon will destroy the church. Even now, multitudes for whom Christ died and for whose salvation he established His church, are perishing every year through the influence of the saloon.

As loyal and faithful soldiers for Jesus, and as true patriots we must valiantly fight this great abomination. Silence on our part, in the face of such a relentless foe to Christianity is disloyalty to God and a criminal neglect of the interests of humanity. Neither political considerations nor commercial interests can justify such silence. Therefore

1. We reaffirm all previous action of our General Conference and of the Central Illinois Annual Conference upon the subject of temperance and prohibition.

2. Total abstinence is the duty of every Christian citizen, and legal prohibition of the liquor traffic is the duty of the state.

3. We endorse the declaration of our bishops, adopted by our General Conference that "the liquor traffice cannot be legalized without sin."

4. We are opposed to license, whether high or low, as being wrong in principle and vicious in practice.

5. We rejoice in the action of our Congress in suppressing the saloon (commonly called the canteen), in our army, and we unreservedly condemn all government officials who have endeavored to evade that action of Congress and render it inoperative.

6. We deeply regret that the anniversary of our national birthday has degenerated in its observance to a day of sports and dissipation, without Christian sentiment or patriotism, and we recommend that all our pastors preach on the Sunday preceding the 4th of July upon the subject of Christian citizenship. And we will use our influence to secure such an observance of the 4th of July as shall be in harmony with Christian principles and true patriotism.

7. While we do not as an ecclesiastical body, endorse any political party, we do insist that it is our right and duty to condemn immoral principles and practices that may be endorsed by the resolutions or administration of political parties, and we join our General Conference in the repeated declaration, "We do record our deliberate judgment that no political party has the right to expect, nor ought it to receive, the support of Christian men so long as it stands committed to the license policy or refuses to put itself on record in an attitude of open hostility to the saloon."

8. We endorse the action of the General Conference recommending that the 4th Sunday in November be observed as Temperance Sunday, and we will take collections and divide as recommended by that action.

9. While we are loyal to the temperance work of our own church, and carry out faithfully the recommendations of the Discipline, we will encourage and aid as we can, all organizations that have for their object the dissemination of temperance sentiment and the suppression of the saloon, such as the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, the Anti-Saloon League, the Christian Citizenship League and others of a similar character.

10. While holding that universal prohibition is the imperative duty of the state, we recognize the proposed comprehensive local option as a step in the right direction, and we pledge ourselves to aid the Anti-Saloon League and others interested in it, in the advancement of that measure. We will also co-operate with the Christian Citizenship League in securing legislation for the promotion of good citizenship.

Conference, District and Quarterly Conference temperance committees are requested to co-operate with the State Anti-Saloon League in an effort to secure local option.

The Presiding Elders are requested to furnish to the office of the State Anti-Saloon League a list of District and Quarterly Conference committees.

11. Resolved, That the following persons be appointed a committee to aid the Anti-Saloon League and the Christian Citizenship League in procuring appropriate legislation for the protection and advancement of the moral interests of the State, viz.: H. D. Clark, U. Z. Gilmer, T. W. McVety, R. E. Buckey, S. Van Pelt, R. B. Williams, J. H. Batten, N. G. Lyons, J. G. Evans and T. S. Pittenger.

12. Resolved, That J. G. Evans be continued on the Board of Direction of the National Anti-Saloon League and H. D. Clark and U. Z. Gilmer be appointed delegates to the National Anti-Saloon convention to be held in Washington, D. C., Dec. 9, 1902, with power to choose alternates.

A. P. ROLEN, Secretary. J. G. EVANS, Chairman.

USE OF TOBACCO.

WHEREAS, The use of tobacco is injurious to the physical and very harmful to the spiritual.

WHEREAS, Its use among the boys is a growing evil which in time will lead to more direful results, therefore,

Resolved, That we, who minister to men in holy things, will keep ourselves pure from this unclean habit and endeavor to persuade all others from its use. We will urge the passage of the cigarette bill and by every influence possible dissuade the use of the infamous cigarette and will appeal to all merchants to refrain from selling tobacco in any form to boys.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

No department of the Methodist Episcopal church has had more evidently the divine inspiration, guidance and blessing than our Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. Its schools are centers of evangelization and civilization. Its agents teach the word of God, sing the hymns, bring the personal message of salvation, heal the sick and offer the prayer of faith, in the households of heathenism. The great success of our missions in India, China and Japan is largely due to the direct work of the women.

The providential work of Mrs. Oldham in Singapore, Miss Thoburn's college for women in Lucknow, Miss M. E. Vickery's of Rome, Miss Kate B. Blackburn's of Bulgaria, Miss Roe's evangelistic tours among the villages of North India, are monuments of what God has wrought through our consecrated sisters.

The reflex influence of the Missonary activity is a perennial inspiration to the local church. A brief generation has seen the Society organize and lay an annual offering of half a million dollars on the altar of Christ for the salvation of the half billion women and girls sitting in darkness and the shadow of death. The motto of "Two cents a week and a prayer," by every woman of Methodism, has helped to achieve this splendid beginning.

Let the pastors encourage the women to give this weekly offering, and to continually pray for the Kingdom to come into the hearts of the spiritually destitute.

We gratefully record our appreciation of the services of Mrs. W. F. Oldham, the untiring zeal of Mrs. J. A. Riason, the Conference Secretary, and the fidelity of the District officers. We are glad to note the steady increase in auxiliaries and receipts, and would recommend that the pastors give, as far as possible, complete reports of receipts for publication in the Annual Conference Minutes.

E. S. BUSBY, Secretary. J. P. MCCORMICK, President.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

We hereby record our appreciation and faith in the work accomplished by the Woman's Home Missionary Society within the bounds of our Conference during the past year.

One year ago there were but eight auxiliaries in this Conference; now there are forty.

We recommend the continuance of the anniversary of W. H. M. S. at our Annual Conference; also recommend that this Society be given a place on all camp meeting programs within our bounds.

In view of the fact that during the past twelve months there have landed upon American soil 650,000 foreigners, and knowing the need of Christianizing these masses, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we urge all our pastors to open their pulpits to some Conference organizer of the W. H. M. S. and to heartily co-operate with them in redeeming and saving these unchurched masses.

CHAS. E. DUNLEVY, Secretary. R. T. BALLEW, Chairman.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE.

We, the committee to which was referred the communication from the South American Annual Conference, and signed by Bishop Charles C. McCabe, President, and William F. Rice, Secretary, beg leave to report as follows:

We are deeply impressed with the facts set forth in said paper, viz.: 1st. That many people in South America, members of the Roman Catholic church, have been converted through the labors of our missionaries, and are made to rejoice in the assurance, by the witness of the Spirit, that they are the children of God. 2d. That many of these have been persecuted, being excommunicated from the church and consigned to hell, because they believe in the Lord Jesus Christ that they might be saved; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That the church in this country should put forth more vigorous efforts to push forward our Missionary work in those priest-ridden lands, that the people may be delivered from the ecclesiastical tyranny by which they have been so long oppressed.

2. That in obedience to our Lord's command we should be intensely in earnest in preaching the gospel to Roman Catholic and Protestant, to the infidel or to the orthodox sinner (in our own country), that we may save every man that it is possible for us to reach.

J. S. CUMMING,
WM. WOOLLEY,
M. V. CRUMBAKER. } Committee.

Resolutions.

Resolved, That we hereby express our thanks to the members and pastor of this church for their kindness and hospitality during our stay with them.

R. B. WILLIAMS.

---

We desire to give expression to the unfeigned pleasure we have felt in the visit of our General Superintendent, J. H. Vincent, D. D., LL. D. His urbanity, fairness, ability and brotherliness in directing the business of the Conference; the inspiration of his addresses before the Conference, and his discourse on the Sabbath day have won our hearts, and our prayers and good wishes will follow him wherever the providence of God may lead him.

C. O. MCCULLOCH,
J. G. EVANS,
J. P. FORSYTH,
R. B. WILLIAMS,
I. WILLETT PUFFER.

---

Resolved, That we express our regret at parting with Brothers B. W. Baker, F. W. Imboden, D. G. Murray, A. P. Beal and M. A. Head, who go from us by transfer, and that we assure these brethren of our high regard and fraternal love.

R. B. WILLIAMS,
J. G. EVANS.

---

Resolved, That in harmony with the recommendation of Dr. Neely, the Presiding Elders of this Conference be requested to arrange for District Sunday school conventions at some time during the coming year.

J. G. EVANS,
R. B. WILLIAMS.

---

Resolved, That Rev. J. S. Cummings, D. D., be invited by this Conference to preach before the Conference at its next annual session, a semi-centennial sermon in recognition of his fifty years of active and successful ministerial service in this Conference.

J. G. EVANS,
A. K. TULLIS,
J. W. FRIZZELLE,
W. R. WILEY.

---

Resolved, That we have been pained to hear of the death of Richard Russell, son of Rev. R. D. Russell, of our Conference. We assure Brother and Sister Russell of our sincere sympathy and prayer that the Lord may greatly comfort and bless them.

R. B. WILLIAMS,
J. G. EVANS,
JOE BELL.

Memoirs.

REV. WILLIAM HENRY HUNTER, D. D.

William Henry Hunter was born at Mercer, Pennsylvania, October 9th, 1813, and died at Pilgrim's Rest, Peoria, November 4th, 1901, in the 89th year of his age. He was next to the youngest of eight children, five sons and three daughters, born to Joseph and Mary Hunter, and the last of the number to depart this life. His niece, Miss Kate Hunter, of Erie, Pennsylvania, is the only one of his own kindred who was permitted to be with him in his last illness, and watch by his side when the ebbing tide of life swept out from the shores of time to return no more.

Doctor Hunter's education in childhood and youth was subject to the limitations characteristic of those early days. But so much did he make of the practical school of life that Illinois Wesleyan University, years ago, honored itself by conferring upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity.

In Chardon, Ohio, September 18th, 1838, he was married to Sophronia Benton. Of this union one child was born which died in infancy. For almost sixty years the bride of his youth was the companion of the travels and labors, the partner of the joys and disappointments of his itinerant life. But four years ago she left him to finish the journey alone. Dr. Hunter's devotion to this noble woman deepened and intensified with the passing years. During her last long illness, it became pathetic to behold. Month after month, almost day and night, he watched by her bed, refusing to leave her to the care of others, lifting her in his arms as if she were a helpless child. After her death he insisted that time has not brought the healing that was promised to his wounded spirit. Sometimes before arising from his knees in the closet of secret prayer he was overheard to exclaim, "Sophronia, Sophronia," as if he could not leave her out of his thought even in his sacred communion with the Father. The home of this worthy couple was the welcome shelter of many a weary and discouraged traveling preacher. At their table an extra plate was placed for such an itinerant brother as might chance to call before the meal was passed, and every one to whom written communication was sent out came to know of Pilgrim's Rest.

This venerable man was a pattern of neatness and care as to personal appearance. In walk and conduct he never lost his manly bearing. In conversation he never descended to the trifling, unworthy or unbecoming. He lived above the taint of gossip. In a word he was a dignified Christian gentleman. As an individual, he was honest with himself, his fellowmen and his God. Possessed of strong convictions, whether correct or mistaken, he was difficult to move when he once assumed a position. He was a positive character, pronounced in his antipathies and armed in his attachments. Resolute and persistent in disposition, careful, capable and successful in business, honorable and upright in citizenship, above reproach in society, he commanded the highest respect in every community where he lived. Without the slightest design on his own part, he never failed to impress others that they were in the presence of a superior personality. While not making himself conspicuous in public affairs, he was deeply interested in all the questions affecting the welfare of his times.

We know most of Dr. Hunter in relation to the Christian church and the religious denomination with which he has been so long and so prominently connected. In 1833, at the age of twenty, in one of the memorable revivals of those times, which occurred at Mercer, Pennsylvania, under the labors of Rev. Ralph Clapp, he was converted at a Methodist altar. At a quarterly meeting in a Methodist Episcopal church at Georgetown, Ohio, he was baptized by Dr. Alfred Brunson. He entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal church, Erie Conference, at Chardon, Ohio, in 1836. The elements of strength for which he has been so long distinguished were early detected and he was promptly called to assume positions of responsibility and trust. For the greater part of his ministerial life of sixty-five years he held some prominent and exalted place in the church of his choice; and during that long period of ministerial labor he never missed the roll call of his Conference till the late session of the Central Illinois Conference last September at Kewanee. This breaking of the remarkable record caused him the bitterest disappointment which he was unable to conceal. Throughout all these years he steadfastly refused to turn aside from the regular work of a gospel preacher to engage in any other pursuit or calling. As a speaker Dr. Hunter made free use of his manuscript in his earlier years almost reading his sermons. His statement of truth was strong and clear; his style plain and direct; his delivery deliberate and distinct, his manner becoming forceful and animated as he approached the close of his discourse. He was conservative in his views, zealous for the purity and prosperity of the church, and set for the defense of the faith of the fathers. The teaching and training of children and the religion of the home received from him careful attention and constant emphasis. Nineteen years he travelled in the Erie Conference, coming to the Rock River Conference (which then included what is now the Central Illinois Conference) in 1855. In those early days he shared the exposure and hardships, the romantic experiences and blessed victories which have won unfading laurels for the Methodist pioneer. With such men as Henry Summers, John Luccock, John Chandler, Zadoc Hall, A. C. Phelps, Freeborn Haney, Richard Haney, W. C. Cumming and S. G. J. Worthington, he toiled to lay the foundation of the religious, social and civil life which is the rare heritage of these more favored times. As a pastor Dr. Hunter served eleven years while in the Erie Conference. In 1855 and 1856 he was stationed at First Church, Peoria; in 1858 at Moline; in 1859 and 1860, Rock Island; 1861 and 1862 at Galesburg. As a Presding Elder he served eight years in the Erie Conference. In the Central Illinois Conference, four years on the Macomb District; two years on the Monmouth District; four years on the Rock Island District; four years on the Peoria District; and four years on the Kewanee District, making twenty-six years in the Presiding Eldership. Six times Dr. Hunter was elected as a delegate to the General Conference. For four years he was chairman of the book committee at New York and Cincinnati and was appointed by the Bishop as a member of the General Missionary Committee to fill out the unexpired term (three years) of the lamented Dr. Fuller, who fell at his post. In 1884 he became agent of the Conference Claimants' Society of his Conference, which office he held till 1899 when he resigned and was made associate agent of the same society and continued in this position till his death. For several years Dr. Hunter was one of three or four of the oldest ministers in world wide Methodism sustaining an active relation to his Conference, having never taken a supernumerary or superannuated relation. With his passing the last representative of his distinctive type of the Methodist fathers has disappeared from our midst.

During the last illness of Dr. Hunter, which continued for almost three months, he gradually grew weaker, but suffered little pain. Every attention that skill and devotion could render was given. His mind was clear, consciousness remained to the last and he was able to witness that the promised grace was sufficient.

The funeral occurred on Thursday, November 7th, at 10 a. m., the pastor having charge. Twelve members of the Central Illinois Conference, six of the younger and six of the older, acted as pall bearers. It was thought that there was in attendance the largest number of ministers ever seen at a funeral in Central Illinois. Rev. J. B. Dille offered prayer at the house and the service was held in the First Methodist Episcopal church. Rev. Edward Wasmuth offered prayer; Dr. F. W. Merrell, Presiding Elder of Peoria District, read the Scripture. The obituary was read by the pastor. Appropriate addresses were made by Rev. J. P. Forsyth, Dr. J. S. Cumming, Dr. J. G. Evans, Dr. S. Van Pelt and Rev. A. K. Tullis. As a last hymn the quartette sang impressively, "How Blest the Righteous When He Dies." Dr. Hunter's body was then laid to rest beside that of his wife in Springdale cemetery, there to await the resurrection of the just.

REV. A. A. REGER.

Alpheus A. Reger was born in Buckhannon, W. Va., Oct. 10, 1821, and entered into life eternal Jan. 22, 1902. He was the son of the late Major Reger. At the age of twelve years he embraced the religion of our Lord Jesus Christ, and at once united with the Methodist Episcopal church. His mother was instrumental in leading him to the Saviour, and he often referred to her sanctified influence, in most tender terms in his public ministrations. In 1839, when eighteen years old he was licensed to preach and admitted on trial in the Pittsburg Conference. In that Conference he served on Ligonier, Bridgefield and other circuits, with acceptability and uncommon success. When the West Virginia Conference was organized, he became a member of that Conference and served several important charges, among them Grave Creek, Triadelphia, North Street Wheeling, Morgantown, Buckhannon and French Creek Circuit. He was Presiding Elder of Charleston and Parkersburg Districts. In all these fields of labor he was greatly blessed in leading souls to Christ.

On the 6th of June, 1843, he was married to Miss Frances A. Luddington, of Meadville, Pa. In finding a good wife he "obtained favor of the Lord." She was a source of strength and encouragement to him in all of his subsequent ministry. They had five sons and one daughter. Two of the sons died in infancy, and were buried in West Virginia. One son died last October.

In 1868 he was transferred to the Central Illinois Conference, and was stationed in Carthage. Subsequently he served Secor and Hudson Circuits. On account of physical disability he was granted a superannuated relation to the Conference, which relation he sustained until death. After his superannuation he made his home at Secor, from which place he was transferred to his happy home in heaven.

He often expressed regret that by want of care in preaching he so impaired his voice that for many years he was unable to speak in public, and so was hindered from prosecuting his chosen work. In his retirement he was resigned, and as far as possible, helpful, and always rejoiced in the prosperity of the church.

As a man he was true to his convictions. He was never idle, never triflingly employed, always about his Master's business. He was a great pastor. He never neglected the poor, never passed by the home of sorrow, but affectionately entered into the griefs and joys of his people. In the pulpit he was clear, logical and forceful. His preaching was in the demonstration of the spirit and of power. His success was marvelous. Hundreds were vonverted to God under his ministry.

He was a man of God when before the congregation and in his home. His wife and children believed in his piety, and his closest friends knew that he walked with God. As a friend he was sincere, reliable and faithful. He loved his brethren, and was always deeply interested in every action of the Conference.

When last January in Secor, worn with disease and holy toil, his strength gave way and "the weary wheels of life stood still," his freed and happy spirit went up to join the innumerable company before the throne, among whom were the associates of his early ministry and the members of his own family who had passed within the vail.

His body was taken to Mount Ayr, Iowa, and laid beside that of his beloved son, William, to await the resurrection of the just.

REV. GEORGE WILT ARNOLD, D. D.

Rev. George Wilt Arnold, D. D., was born near the city of Wheeling, Virginia, (Now West Va.), May 9, 1823, and died of paralysis at Geneva, Ohio, February 21, 1902, where he has resided since he superannuated in 1888. He was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal church, in his teens; was licensed in 1842, and as a local preacher served the church until 1851. He was ordained deacon by Bishop T. A. Morros at a session of the Pittsburg Conference held in Alleghany City in 1851, and was received into the Western Virginia Conference the same year. He was ordained elder by Bishop T. A. Morros at a session of the Western Virginia Conference in the city of Wheeling, Va., in 1855.

His appointments in the Western and West Virginia Conference were as follows: Wheeling Creek Mission, 1851 and 1852; Triadelphia, 1853 and 1854; Point Pleasant, 1855 and 1856; Fairmont and Palatine, 1857 and 1858; Monongalia Circuit, 1859 and 1860; Kingwood, 1861; Morgantown District, 1862 to 1866; President of Morgantown Female Collegiate Institute from the spring of 1866 to the summer of 1868. In the fall of 1868 he transferred to the Central Illinois Conference, and was appointed to Kewanee, 1868 and 1869; Galesburg, 1870 to 1872; Galva, 1873; Kewanee (second time), 1874 and 1875; Geneseo, 1876 and 1877; Bushnell, 1878 and 1879; Macomb, 1880 and 1881; Knoxville, 1882 and 1883; Lewiston, 1884 and 1885; Brimfield, 1886 and 1887. He superannuated in 1888 and moved his family to Geneva, Ohio, where he resided until his death.

Dr. Arnold's early educational advantages were limited, but he was an untiring student, and a great lover of books, spending the first ten cents he ever earned for a spelling book. From this small beginning he became an extensive reader, and in the course of years accumulated a very large library, consisting of books on all subjects, ranging from the most profound theological treaties, to the lightest respectable fiction.

The Illinois Wesleyan University at Bloomington, Illinois, conferred on him the degree of D. D., thus recognizing his attainments and worth. He was a Methodist preacher in doctrine and practice. He was greatly beloved by his brethren in the ministry, and especially was this the case when he was Presiding Elder of the Morgantown District, in the stormy days of the war of the Rebellion, he was true to his government and loyal to his country, sending a substitute when he did not have to go into the army, nor furnish some one in his place.

He married Miss Sarah A. Zink, of West Virginia, June 8, 1847, and to them were born four children. Mr. Eugene H. Arnold, the oldest son, is construction engineer of the Aurora, Elgin & Chicago Railway. Mrs. Mary F. Garretson died in Brimfield, Ill., and Sarah Alice Arnold died in Geneseo, Ill. Mr. William G., of Chicago, Ill., is business manager of the A. B. Dick Company.

Dr. Arnold was a great lover of home life which was especially pleasant, and he seldom went away from home unless on business, or in the performance of his ministerial duties. His friendship was unfeigned, his fellowship with his brethren was genuine and open, his hospitality enjoyable and almost boundless. You could not help feeling at home in his house.

He seldom said anything on the Conference floor, except when presiding elder or chairman of some committee. He was not a Conference debater, did not seek notoriety in that way, however, he was faithful and attentive to the business sessions of his Conference, and always in his place. His religion was an every day religion—not demonstrative, but even and helpful. He was true to his convictions of right and wrong, having neither marked peculiarities of faith, or singularity in practice.

G. C. WOODRUFF.

The Rev. G. C. Woodruff passed to his heavenly home from Magnolia, Minn., April 4th, 1902, in the 95th year of his age and the 73rd of his ministry. He was born in Essex County, N. Y., Dec. 16, 1807. He was converted in his boyhood and united with the Methodist Episcopal church. His gifts and graces were soon manifest, and at the age of nineteen he was made an exhorter. He was licensed to preach Dec. 10, 1828, and was appointed to Grand Isle Circuit by Rev. John Clarke, P. E. He took up his work on the day he was twenty-one. In July, 1829, he was appointed to Bombay charge, Oneida Conference, by Rev. B. G. Paddock, P. E. He joined the Oneida Conference on trial in 1830 and was admitted in 1832. He was subsequently transferred to the Black River Conference, where he held many important pastorates and was for seven years a Presiding Elder. In 1855 he located and came to Illinois, and in 1857 was re-admitted to the Central Illinois, then known as the Peoria Conference, in which he at once took prominent rank. He served many important charges and was for one year a Presiding Elder. After his superannuation he did a great deal of supply work, and continued to preach occasionally until shortly before his death.

Father Woodruff was of the highest type of the old time Methodist preacher, of fine personal presence with clear intellect and warm heart, a positive religious experience and a complete mastery of the doctrines of Methodism. His place was always in the front ranks. He was a strong preacher, a faithful pastor, an able administrator and a wise counselor and friend. As a superannuate he was ever loyal and helpful and his presence in the church and community was a continual benediction.

He had been in usual health up to within a few weeks of his death. Early in December he had preached very acceptably and helpfully in the church at Magnolia and on Christmas day had administered the rite of baptism to two of his descendants. He was taken down with la grippe about the first of January and after a short illness passed away. The body was brought to his old home at Geneseo for burial, and the funeral sermon was preached by Rev. G. C. Shaffer, the pastor.

"Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last."

WILLIAM D. H. YOUNG.

Rev. William D. H. Young was born April 10, 1839, at Jonesboro, Tenn., and died at his home in Bloomington, Ill., April 27, 1902. Bro. Young received the rudiments of his education near the place of his birth, where he lived until he was twenty years of age. He then came west with his family and settled in McLean county, Ill. When seventeen years of age Mr. Young felt impressed with a call to the ministry of the gospel, but did not fully decide until in his twentieth year, when, realizing that he must continue his studies if he entered the ministry, he began teaching school and taught for several terms, working his way through Wesleyan University, where he was graduated in June, 1865, with the degree of A. B. Later he entered Garrett Biblical Institute at Evanston, Ill., graduating with the degree of B. D. in October, 1865. After his graduation Mr. Young gave several years to the itinerant ministry of the M. E. church. His health becoming impaired in 1872, he accepted a position in the city schools in Monmouth, Ill. From here he went to Macon City, Mo., and took charge of Johnson College, which school was later moved to Quincy, Ill., and united with Quincy College and the name changed to Chaddock College. Then followed a long illness, after which he moved his family to Peoria, Ill., and again taught school. Regaining his health, he took up ministerial work and was pastor at Hamilton, Carthage, Princeville, Galva, Woodhull, Illiopolis, Homer, Watseka, Milford and Chatsworth, Ill. In 1890, in order to establish a home and educate his children, he moved to Bloomington, Ill. In the fall of 1892 he went to Bloomington, Tenn., to take charge of Bloomington College. in that place. He was unanimously re-elected president, but declined, as duty to his family required his presence at home. In 1865 Mr. Young married Miss Sarah Moffatt, of Tonica, Ill. Bro. Young entered the work of saving homeless and neglected children in 1895 as district superintendent for the Children's Home Society, and when the broader work of the American Home-Finding Association was organized Mr. Young soon became associated with it, serving as assistant superintendent until his death. Mr. Young, like most of the other workers who were toilers in the beginnings of this phase of the gospel, was obliged to perform much labor with but small remuneration, and in his zeal to perform the many duties laid upon him, labored beyond his strength and hastened his declining health. In December, 1901, while taking some homeless children to the home-finding home, he caught a severe cold. Despite his physician's advice to rest and recuperate, Bro. Young, in his desire to house the homeless ones, continued in the work until compelled by weakness to cease from labor.
